

AMERICA'S WARS

and other stories from
HOSKINS REPORT

1993

Copyright © 2007
by Richard Kelly Hoskins

Chapters in this book may be reproduced and distributed as long as it is not done for profit.

Published by

Virginia Publishing Company
P. O. Box 997
Lynchburg, Virginia 24505
Phone 434-384-3261

First printing 2007

ISBN 1-881867-50-1
Printed in the United States of America

Also by Richard Kelly Hoskins

OUR NORDIC RACE, 1958

ISBN 1-881867-00-5

Add'l Printings 1958, 1961, 1961, 1962, 1965, 1975, 1986, 1998, 2005

History of the Saxon nation.

$5 copy plus $3 p&h ($5 overseas)

WAR CYCLES/PEACE CYCLES, 1985

ISBN 1-881867-01-3

Add'l printings 1985, 1986, 1991, HB 2000, 2005

History of usury and war. 250 p.

$25/copy plus $3 postage & handling ($5 overseas)

VIGILANTES OF CHRISTENDOM, HB 1990

ISBN 1-881867-02-1

Add'l printings sb 1991, 1997, 2005

The Story of the Phineas Priesthood, 472 p. sb

$15/copy plus $3 postage & handling ($5 overseas)

THE WOLF & THE SHEEP, 1993

ISBN 1-881867-03-X

Add'l printings 2002

Wolves eat sheep. That's what they do.

Sheep try to keep from being eaten. That's what they do. 78 p. sb

$5/copy plus $3 postage & handling ($5 overseas)

IN THE BEGINNING, 1995

ISBN 1-881867-04-8

The Hindu takeover of Western business, politics, and religion. 249 p.

sb.

$15/copy plus $3 postage & handling ($5 overseas)

Virginia residents add 5% sales tax

1993 - Table Of Contents

- 220 - OPERATION ARMAGEDDON: The strategic importance of Somalia, Panama, Grenada, the Falklands and S. Africa.1
- 221 - THE ROAD TO WAR: The Lamsa translation of the Bible reveals who the wolf is and what nation will invade the West.....23
- 222 - HOSTILE TAKEOVERS: The reason for hostile takeovers of Western assets and lands. ..41
- 223 - CORPORATIONS & ESTATES: How the rulers of wolf-dens rule sheepfolds.65
- 224 - CHAIRMAN MAO & THE WACO MASSACRE: Chairman Mao and Waco's FBI serve the same master.....87
- 225 - INDULGENCES: Why priests of the international merchant must control religion if the international merchant is to trade.....109
- 226 - STORM & THE UNFORGIVEABLE SIN: People wonder about the "unforgiveable sin" while the answer was given long ago.....133
- 227 - TURKS: The Age old Turkic dream is alive, and well on the way to completion.....155
- 228 - SADDUCEES: Why Edomites became known as Sadducees177

229 - ARABS & JEWS MAKE PEACE: Think the impossible. Think of peace between the Islamic-Turks and the Jewish-Turks. Remember what happened to Christendom the last time Turks shook hands.....	197
230 - SOUTH AFRICA: Right wing groups are either digging in for the long pull or are extending the olive branch to the country's new black rulers.	209
231 - SACRED FOOD: What happens to food when it is blessed. And, why blessed food is forbidden to strangers.....	231
INDEX	249

Chapter 220

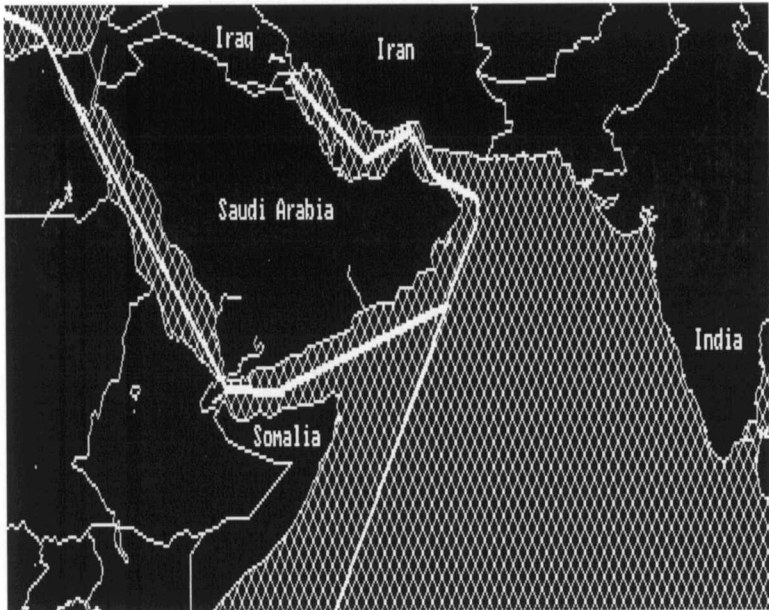

OPERATION ARMAGEDDON

America "Helps" Somalia

"Preliminary evidence of Clinton administration plans for foreign policy suggests that the new president is inclined to let the UN Security Council take over de-facto command of the U.S. military and determine U.S. policy. The plans include the commitment of American troops for service in the UN's standing army. The steps are considered the 'next logical steps' toward a new world order." (American Sentinel, 11/30/92, World News Digest Dec. 92)

"Sweep the floor and open the door!" The invasion of yet another country by the U.S. is presently taking place. It is directed against the most strategically valuable piece of real estate in the world - Somalia.

Somalia, the part of Africa that juts out into the Indian Ocean, looks very much like the horn of a rhinoceros. Hence

Somalia - "The Horn Of Africa"

Somalia dominates both petroleum shipping lanes from the Persian Gulf to Europe and America. It is called the most strategically important piece of real estate in the world.

the name - "Horn of Africa." The excuse for the invasion is humanitarian - to save the starving Somalians. It is legal and logical if the dictates of the UN are legal. Again, there has been no declaration of war.

"Warlords" is the name given the present rulers of Somalia by the media in their continuing incitement of the public to war. Its pictures show soldiers giving food to emaciated blacks. This proves that America is concerned over the welfare of the world's poor and downtrodden. The pictures are better than ten thousand words and prove not only the good intentions of America but also of the UN. The media is also preparing the people for the unpleasantness to come by playing up photos of starving blacks who are starving because of the acts of evil Somalian "warlords."

The evil "warlords" are evil because they attack food convoys going to starving people. The invaders are good because they say that they are there to prevent this.

This media treatment outlaws the "warlords" by pointing out violations of "Christian Law" which permit Christians to chastise Law breakers since Christians are the Lord's "battle-ax." They also furnish the soldiers and pay the bills.

The "outlawing" of an opponent puts him beyond the protection of the Law. These "warlords" may now be treated as common criminals if need be.

The incitement media are showing close-ups of each and every so-called "atrocities" committed by Black on Black. This is done to excuse UN acts that will inevitably result from invading another's country.

The outlawed warlords are also "demonized." Nothing good may be said of them if they are not abjectly "obedient." Carefully ignored amongst the much photographed bags and cases of food off-loaded from mercy ships is yesterday's threat of what would happen if the Communists ever took possession of the "Horn of Africa." It was forever being pounded into the public mind that if the Soviets or their surrogates ever took the strategic Horn of Africa, they would control the oil supplies to Europe, America, and parts of the Far East. If oil shipments were stopped, the countries being deprived of oil would soon revert to the stone age. Modern civilization requires a great deal of energy to maintain itself. Those who don't get it - don't participate.

The white lines on the chart on page one show the route the petroleum tankers take after leaving the Persian Gulf oil fields. The route to the north of Somalia is the route followed by ships enroute to the Suez Canal on their way to Europe. The route lies within 250 miles of Somalia and can easily be cut by air attacks based in Somalia. The line going south past Somalia's east coast is the route taken by tankers larger than 50,000 tons which can't make it through the Suez Canal. This route goes around South Africa and up the west coast of Africa to Europe and America. This route passes within 350 miles of Somalia - easy flying distance.

It should be pointed out that Persian Gulf tankers bound for the Orient pass down the coast of India on the other side of the Indian Ocean over 1500 miles away. Its distance makes it relatively immune from the Horn.

Panama

Panama was given the Panama Canal to enable her to obtain a source of income with which to pay her loans from the NY banks. This removed the U.S. presence from the canal zone. Oil from Mexico and Venezuela could pass freely through the Panama Canal enroute to Australia and New Zealand and countries in the Far East.

The NWO wished to put a lock on the canal. First, the leader of Panama was outlawed. President Noriega was discovered to be pushing drugs. For this offense America invaded Panama. The United States law clearly states that if drugs are found in your car, your house, or your country - whatever - it is forfeited.

The U.S. army was sent to make the bust, and, sure enough, they found drugs. Panama's president claimed that he was being framed, that the drugs were planted by the ones making the bust, but the media made light of this. He was spread-eagled, frisked, cuffed, read his rights, and carted off to cool his heels in a Florida slammer to await a Nuremberg trial.

Panama And Grenada

Panama controls petroleum shipping routes from Mexico and Venezuela to the Far East. Grenada sits astride the oil lanes to S. America and on into the S. Pacific.

Presently, the United States Army, an agency of the UN, stands guard on the Panama Canal oil routes to the Far East.

Grenada

Americans were told by the media that Cubans were abusing students in Grenada. Rape was mentioned. The media first reported that Cuban soldiers were responsible, but no Cuban troops were found so it was decided that it must have been the Cuban construction workers who were responsible.

If anyone else except the U.S. had invaded Grenada it might have sent shock waves throughout the international community of nations since Grenada lies across the Venezuelan oil tanker routes to Europe, South America, and the Far East that go around South America. All these mighty ships must pass Grenada. Most oil tankers pass within sight.

The Falklands

The worthless rocks of the Falklands are worth fighting for if they lie astride petroleum shipping lanes.

Grenada, in unfriendly hands, could threaten countries of the West.

Falklands

Britain occupied the Falklands but Argentina claimed this barren real-estate. Its usefulness is that it is a sheep station and a fishing supply base. It is also a potentially strategic military base that in unfriendly hands could stop oil ships enroute to Australia, New Zealand, and the Far East.

An independent Argentina inquired of Britain how she would react if Argentina took possession of the islands. Britain waffled and wouldn't give a straight answer. Argentina took this to be "yes" to go ahead. She went ahead.

Britain's media cried "invasion." Those who throw the first punch are outlawed. With the help of the U.S., Britain retook the Falklands. The media attacks on defeated Argentina caused them to turn on their own government and hold Nuremberg trials. Argentina is now governed by those friendly to the NWO and the British-occupied Falklands still rests astride the oil supertanker routes to the Orient.

South Africa

It is well known that if South Africa is ruled by forces unfriendly to the West that the interests of both America and Europe will be compromised. Besides producing 24 strategic minerals, S. Africa sits astride the oil routes to Europe and America. Knowing this, the U.S. government insists on installing a communist government to rule this region. Is there more to U.S. government actions than has been revealed?

South Africa

The establishment of the United States is very conscious of "rights." It is particularly conscious that the black communists of the ANC in S. Africa have been discriminated against, denied the vote, prevented from ruling the country, and have suffered countless other indignities.

U.S. state department believes that this justifies making the communist ANC the next South African government.

To aid the ANC to suppress possible white counter-revolutionary action, the U.S. has built a new airfield nearby near Molepoloe in Botswana. This new airfield has no possible civilian use but is capable of landing military aircraft. It is only about 160 miles from Johannesburg.¹ Last year U.S. airborne troops joined the Botswana Defense force near the S. African border in joint exercises called Operation Silver Eagle. Destabilized and outlawed S. Africa views these activities with alarm.

On December 17, 1992, the media announced that 8,000 U.S. marines were landed in nearby Mozambique to help quell disorders in that country. It is believed by knowledgeable observers that if needed to help S. Africa's transition to a peaceful, democratic, non-discriminatory, black-ruled communist republic, the UN will make these American troops available. They can be supported by aircraft flying from the airfield near Molepoloe in Botswana. The location of the newly-landed American troops in Mozambique is noted with a white arrow. They are only some 200 miles from the cities of S. Africa. The location of the airfield in Botswana is also noted with a white arrow.

With so much attention being directed toward ensuring that the ANC is placed in power, one might overlook the fact that Persian Gulf oil super-tankers sailing to Europe and America pass within sight of the South African capes. Besides the 24 strategic minerals produced by S. Africa - the country is another of the strategically placed nations of the world whose occupation by an unfriendly force could severely damage the West. Some military observers have

1 The existence of this airfield is unknown to most Americans, but is front page in S. African alternate-media publications.

Singapore - Fortress of the Far East

Because of its strategic importance, the Japanese in World War II immediately launched a task force to invade and take the Singapore fortress. The British have now abandoned this fortress and walked away. Does someone know something not common knowledge? Is Singapore any less strategically placed than before?

wondered why the communist ANC is being given a nation that sits astride the critical oil lifeline to Western Europe and America.

Singapore

While military forces of the UN are busily occupying the key gateways to the West, the exact opposite is taking place in the Far East. Those bases are being abandoned.

Fortress Singapore was established by the British Empire to guard the trade routes from West to East. It was one of the first objectives of the Japanese in WWII.

Oil from the Mideast goes through the Straits of Malacca on its way to the Far East. The British, however, are no longer there. They gave Singapore its independence and departed. Its population is 87% Chinese. In an emergency it would seem more likely that they would deny petroleum to the Western nations of Australia and New Zealand than they would to China or Japan if difficulties should develop between East and West. Singapore appears to be no threat to the oil routes to the Far East. They would certainly offer no hindrance to task forces leaving the Far East with objectives in the West.

Philippines

The Philippines stand astride the oil shipping lanes to the Far East. For many years the U.S. maintained powerful military bases on these islands to neutralize any possible threats from this region. Now, the U.S. is abandoning its Philippine bases. It will no longer have a base from which to control hostile actions that might emanate from the Orient.

Interesting enough, since the communists seized power in China, the U.S. has done everything possible to open friendly relations with this part of the world. With no bases in the Far East, Oriental fleets can gather in private to do whatever they wish to do.

India

India is strategically located to cut the shipping lanes to the Far East. However, India is virulently anti-Western. In time of war, that country would be more likely to cut the petroleum supplies directed to the Western nations of Australia and New Zealand than other Asian nations. While strategically located, the West no longer occupies bases there.

China

Note the accompanying chart of the Far East on the next page. Fortress Singapore has been abandoned, and America is withdrawing from the Philippines. Indonesia and China are believed able to supply the Orient with oil in the near future.

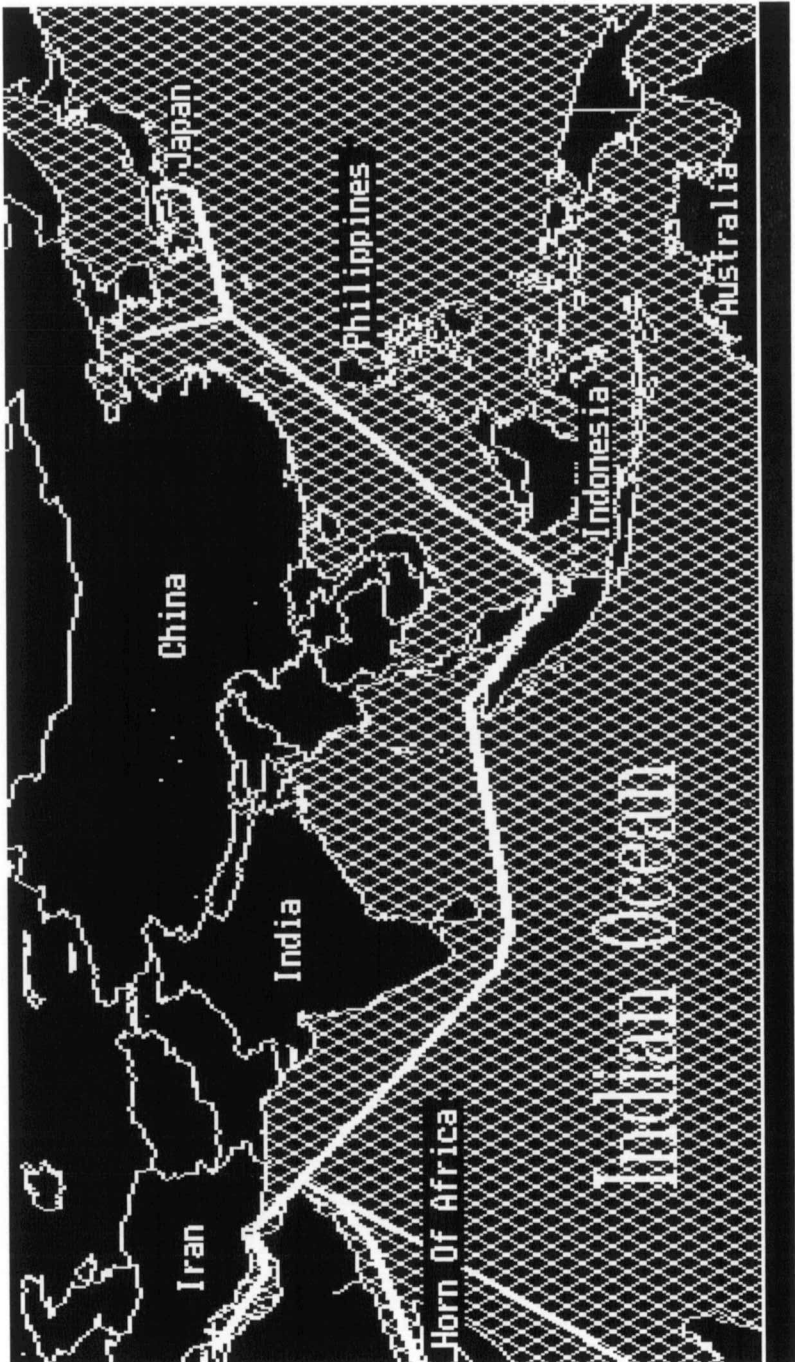

While the U.S. - UN - NWO and British surrogates are seeming anxious to take positions to dominate oil routes to America, Europe and Australia, they seem indifferent to the desirability of keeping bases that would protect the West from an Orient turned hostile. The three old bases are being abandoned - Singapore, Hong Kong - soon to be given to China, and the Philippine bases.

China receives much of its oil from the rapidly developing oil fields in Indonesia, and is rapidly developing its own supply. Their need for Persian Gulf oil is disappearing. In the event of Western disagreements with the Orient, the West has no base in that area from which it could enforce its interests, the Far East is becoming self-sufficient, and the Far East remains as it always has been - hostile.

The Significance

The gateways to the East and West are being occupied by armed forces under the benign control and/or direction of the UN. No such effort is being made to occupy similar strategic positions in the Far East. It might appear to anyone who has taken high-school ROTC 101, that since the gateways to the West are being occupied while the gateways to the East are being abandoned - that the future scene of military action is planned to be in the West - not in the East.

The only enemy that the UN could have in the West are Westerners. Since the governments of Western nations are friendly with both the UN and Far Eastern powers there is no possible enemy other than the Western people themselves.

What would happen if somehow the seemingly defenseless hordes of the Far East should turn out to be not so defenseless at all, but merely a part of the world which does things differently? What would happen if her tens of millions of soldiers suddenly, or by sections, piece-meal, picked up her massive stockpiles of weapons and followed the route taken earlier by the Mongols, the Huns, the Turks, the Ottomans, the Seljuks, and the Khazars - across the deserts and steppes to Europe? What would happen if the thousands of ships under foreign registration should appear off California?

There is another question that no one asks: Why have countries like China, Brazil, and the Israeli nation been developed into 3rd world arsenals able to produce sophisticated atomic, hydrogen, and neutron bombs with delivery missile systems, poison gases, bacteriological agents, and all the other weapons of war? Why is nothing being done to disarm them?

While the gates to the West's petroleum routes are being occupied, bases in the Far East abandoned, and the latest war technology is being forced on the Orient, there is still one more thing that causes a vague anxiety. It is this:

Dog owners know that when the dog's master appears a dog will get up, come over, wag his tail, roll over to be rubbed, and then go back and lie down. The dog goes to his master. The master does not go to the dog.

Non dog owners who watch TV and appreciate football may note the performance of the pro quarterback whom the coach calls out of the game to instruct. The quarterback leaves his fellows and runs to the sidelines, the coach speaks. The quarterback bobs his head up and down showing his understanding, and then runs back to his teammates to tell them the next play. He tells it as if it is his own idea. If it makes a touchdown the quarterback gets the glory - but it was the coach's play. The unknown team owners to whom no one gives a thought are the ones who really profit.

Note how the presidents from Nixon to Bush all run to China. Even the Russian Yeltsin has just come from there. They see some shadowy personage, roll-over, bob their heads up and down, and come home and call a play. A few months later the West does something else strange.

Is there something to the rumor of a comprehensive plan called "Operation Armageddon," a UN plan that would use the West's own armies against their own peoples in an alliance with the forces of the Far East? Is this the reason the West is being destabilized by immigrants, and the media incites to violence?

How could such a massive plan be kept secret from the people? The answer may be more simple than we first imagine. Look at the POW- MIAs! America's establishment leaders protest that they are as pure as the driven snow and know nothing about such a plan. However, these same ones said that they didn't know anything about the POW-MIAs. It was Bush, Kissinger and the others who said that they knew nothing about the missing POWs.

The media slipped and revealed that even Eisenhower and his administration knew of trainloads of American POW's being sent to Siberia, and that they had made the deliberate decision to do nothing about it. This means that all the presidents and all their advisors and ministers and those who worked for them, and all the governments from Eisenhower till now also knew. The intelligence services that first told Eisenhower are the same intelligence services that briefed each administration that followed. They all knew. "Smiling Jimmy" Carter knew. "Glad-hand" Reagan knew. There were thousands who had access to the intelligence briefings, they knew. Kissinger confessed that he knew but there was nothing he could do about it. He had sworn earlier that he did not know. They all knew. They all lied - they lied about not knowing when they knew. They lied and the people believed them. Now the people know about the POW-MIAs. The politicians and the establishment know they know. And still - nothing is being done about them. Why shouldn't the same crowd act in the same way about their involvement in "Operation Armageddon?" They expect the wolf to win and they think that the wolf's is the winning side.

Could This Happen?

Lindsey Williams wrote that while chaplain to the oil workers on the N. Slope in Alaska he learned that vast oil fields had been discovered in addition to the ones being exploited. These others fields were simply capped and left. The oil that could have released America's dependency on Mideast oil was simply hidden.

He theorized at the time that this was done to create future oil shortages and to keep prices high. Perhaps. Perhaps there may have been a deeper reason. Non-development of vast north slope fields keeps the U.S. dependent on Mideast oil. This makes possible a Somalian scenario where the long exposed Mid-East oil routes can be cut at any time, jolting the West to a standstill.

Peoples Of The East

North of China lies the great Gobi Desert. The ancient desert trade route from China to Europe starts in the Gobi and passes on to the Iranian Desert and then on to the Iraqi Desert where it arrives in Europe. It is the route followed by the Huns, Sejuks Turks, Ottoman Turks, Khazar Turks, and Mongols. If cut oil lines bring West to its knees, there is nothing to stop the hordes of China from setting their feet in that well-traveled path. It has been done many times before.

Each of the earlier invaders infiltrated hostile populations into the areas chosen for occupation and conquest. Each first subverted the rulers of the targeted countries. Much of E. Europe fell to the Ottomans without war. The Ottoman Turks just walked in - a family at a time - and then when they were strong enough - they took over.

The Scenario

Who would have thought that Roosevelt would make the Dutch stop shipping oil to the Japanese from the Dutch East Indies, forcing them to attack the U.S. and starting WWII? Who would have thought that Ian Smith of Rhodesia, a war hero, would deliver his country to the enemy to be destroyed after winning the war waged against it? Who would have thought that deKlerk, a man of impeccable credentials, would betray his own South Africa? Who can believe that there are today traitors in the West who would betray the West? If there are such people - how would they go about their treason?

Game Planning

To bring the West to its knees and make it easy prey for a conqueror, one could start by cutting Western oil routes. Economic and social chaos would immediately result. No heat, gas, chemicals, medicine, light, fertilizer, or transportation. Unemployment and economic chaos would be instant. Western nations would likely be embroiled in L.A. style civil wars with hostile immigrants brought in earlier. Civil war between the military loyal to the rulers and those loyal to the people of the West would be likely. The deciding factor would be an army from the East - an army that numbers like grasshoppers.

With variations - this updates the scenario of Our Nordic Race written by Dick Hoskins in 1958.¹²

Conclusion

The River Euphrates is dried up. The strategic outposts and fortresses that stand astride the routes from the East are occupied by mercenaries who will shoot a mother holding a baby. They can be counted on to hold the gates open to the enemy if ordered. The armies of the East can march whenever the signal is given.

Surprised? One shouldn't be. "Operation Armageddon" is in the operation manual. There is no quick fix to this one. There's no place to run. Switzerland no longer offers protection, neither does America, Europe, S. Africa, Australia, or N. Zealand - none offers protection. They all are targeted. All have the identical problems. The King of the Wolves is hidden - he cannot be found. He cannot be made to stop what he is doing.

2 Richard Kelly Hoskins, Our Nordic Races, Virginia Publishing Company, PO Box 997, Lynchburg, Virginia 24505, $8/copy.

"Operation Armageddon" was designed long ago so that there would be no place to hide. Everyone will be forced to choose; either the Shepherd and his sheepfold, or the wolf and his den. That's the way it is going to be!³

WEAVER FACT FINDING MEETING

On Oct 23-25, 1992 a meeting was held in Estes Park, Colorado to consider the killing of two members of the Weaver family and the wounding of two others by the Federal Government in The Idaho Ruby Creek Massacre plus other illegalities including trespass, absence of warrants, destruction of private property (the Weaver home and possessions have been completely ruined by the Feds), stalking, and acts of its agents to incite the general populace to riot. The following are partial quotes from the resulting document.

"The Law states that:

"Ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are; for blood it defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it." Numbers 35:33-34.

"Judges 19 & 20 records the events when an innocent woman's blood was shed. "Then all the sons of Israel ... assembled as one man to the Lord." Judges 20:1

An alert was sent out to Christendom to gather and consider the deed. Elders of many different Christian denominations responded. Committees were appointed, evidence gathered, tentative plans were advanced, and a report produced.⁴

³ "I created man ... and I told him 'this is good, and that is bad' that ... it be clear which in his race love me." Enoch 30:12-14

Testimony presented indicates that the federal authorities had plans extending beyond the assault on the Weaver family.

"Reports from the protest lines that existed in Idaho during the Weaver siege indicate that authorities at times were trying to provoke the people into a confrontation. People need to beware of such a ploy. Beware also of any man such as an ex- government man that may be wanting to rally troops for an open armed confrontation. ... "

It was noted that the establishment media branded the Weaver family as "deeply religious," "believers in home schooling," and "devotees of the Christian Identity movement."⁵ It was also charged that, "Federal authorities believe Randy Weaver is a white supremacist and a criminal."

It is believed that Weaver, described by those who have met him as being devout, highly intelligent, and knowledgeable, was targeted by an FBI sting operation for Weaver's refusal to act as an informer for them. Fearing government reprisals, Weaver five years ago filed an affidavit with the court that outlined such an eventuality that came to pass.

It was noted that a charge of genocide needs to be brought against the U.S. Government on the floor of the UN. It was also noted that "media sources and government entities are labeling people such as the Weaver family white separatists or white supremacists. It needs to be determined who is doing this and by what authority and those doing the labeling need to be forced to define such terms and labels."

4 Scriptures For America, P.O. Box 766, LaPorte CO 80525, $5/copy.

5 Christian Identity believers identify with the Bible, God's Laws, statutes, and judgments (John 1:1). Since the Word that was God was given to Israel only (Ps 147:19-20) they claim descent from Israel, and produce extensive proofs to support their claim. This upsets organized Christian churches and the Jews - both of whom make the same claim of being God's "Israel" (Heb: To rule as God.).

The report of this newly formed "watch-dog" committee is interesting in that it outlines the most probable courses of action that will help this beleaguered Christian family, all of whom are accused including the 10 month old baby.

The trial of the Ruby Creek survivors is due to commence on Feb. 2. The absence of indictments against the government killers of the Weaver family members and the quick cremation of the bodies of their victims fuels the suspicion that the government does not want the killers tried regardless of their guilt.

LETTERS

WASHING-MACHINE: "Dear 'Richard Kelly:' Your Hoskins Report went through my washing machine and dryer very successfully and came out only a little wrinkled. I think that is significant.

"Our daughter has been living with a black and it breaks our hearts. What should we do?" R. I. - Indiana

RKH: I am glad to hear about the newsletter and sorry to hear about your daughter. The anti-christ demands obedience or they will punish you. However, this is what Scripture teaches:

"If the priest's daughter also be married unto a stranger (zwer), she may not eat of an offering of the holy thing, But if the priest's daughter be a widow or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house ... she shall eat of her father's meat." Lev 22:10-13

This is where "disowning" wayward children comes from. Only "repentance" changes their status.

THE RICH: "Dick: Am also a broker - what a truth - the rich never have enough." C. D. - California HISTORY TEACHES: "Dear Dick: Your historical background gets better and better. My old history teacher told me that only a fool did not study history. Why make the same mistakes that have been made before? "I too am descended from the kings of Britain." R.O.

RKH: Most HR readers are descended from kings. They could prove it if they took the time to pick up a library book on how do do genealogical research. I knew a Virginia man who didn't have the faintest idea that he was a close cousin to a living Duke and descended from most of the "old aristocracy" of Britain. That and 50¢ will get you a cup of coffee. On the other hand it gives you the nerve to get in Mr. Bush's face when he deserves it. But, trace it or not - THE king made us "kings and priests." That's all the certificate we need.

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: Re your HR #219 where you state you are 'done dying for phoney kings.' My sentiments precisely! One King - only one." K.H. - Canada

Back to Table of Contents

Chapter 221

THE ROAD TO WAR

Strategic real estate is being seized and occupied by forces of the UN and their cohorts in the West. Equally strategic real estate is being abandoned in the Far East (See "Operation Armageddon", HR #2203, January 4, 1993). This gives birth to the suspicion that the West has been selected as the scene for the next "police action." The abandonment of Far East strategic real estate points to the mechanizations of the Far East as having given that region victory in Babylon's eternal struggle for supremacy.

The ones "maneuvering for position" are quite visible. The question now is - WHO has the wolf selected as his prey?

The Wolf

The "wolf" and "sheep" concept is basic in Christendom. It is incorporated in their folklore, their literature and in their mind-set. The objectives of the two animals are diametrically opposed. The wolf wishes to eat the sheep. The sheep doesn't wish to be eaten. The wolf either eats the sheep or he doesn't. It's either one way or the other. There is no middle ground.

Sheep look on "strangers" as wolves. A close examination shows them to often act as wolves. They know only their pack leader and his opinion is their opinion. The mere fact that there exists sheep who ignore the wolf's authority to obey an unseen Shepherd- leader is an instant paradox, affront, challenge, and danger to the Alpha-wolf. It is he who is the king-wolf of the strangers. To wolves - all who do not obey their alpha-wolf king - is THE enemy. This concept is necessary for the survival of the wolf- pack.

This simple fact of "wolf-authority" or "Shepherd-authority" is the unresolvable difference between wolves and sheep. When wolves extend their hunting area to include invaded sheepfolds - this "unresolvable difference" becomes a matter of life or death to the captured sheep. The wolves may appoint a subservient sheep as overseer over other sheep. The sheep who insists on obeying his Shepherd is an instant rebel to wolf-authority. No expense is spared to hunt them down and kill them on distant mountain tops as a lesson to others.

It is as hard for sheep to understand this new state of affairs as it is for wolves to not understand it. Wolves and sheep are different. It's the way they are made.

The Shepherd and His Sheep

The Shepherd's plan for an orderly sheepfold is to exclude wolves. Wolves roaming around in sheepfolds cause problems. They eat sheep - that's what wolves do. To survive, sheep try to keep from being eaten - that's what they do. Wolves complain about this sheep attitude. The sheep respond, that in spite of what wolves say, there is not an ounce of anti-Wolfism in an entire flock. They say that if a wolf breaks a bone or is in trouble - who helps? It is the sheep. Sheep help wolves - they just don't want to be eaten while helping. That's all. However reasonable this may seem to sheep, it is considered unreasonable by wolves.

When on occasion sheep tire of the wolves' overly close attention to them and the flock, and drive the wolves from the sheepfold, what do the wolves do? They immediately turn around and try to get back in. Why? That's where the sheep are, and wolves eat sheep. Unless they can enter the sheepfold they can't do what wolves do.

Trashing The Law

The Shepherd commanded his sheep that the land in a sheepfold be divided among his sheep and never ever sold, so that each sheep can have his own little kingdom to rule and be dependent on no- one. That's the way kings are supposed to be. Evil churchmen and evil kings (with wolf help) stole the land and kept it. They forced the poor farmers from their warm comfortable cottages and forced them to huddle together in dirty tenements overrun with rats in crowded cities. To eat they had to work in horrible factories. Mothers and children worked 10 to 18 hours a day. Their bodies were twisted and bent before they turned 20. Their souls were seared. The kings and churchmen who owned the tenements and factories counted their money and praised their god.

The evil churchmen and evil princes offered the people nothing except taxes, hard work, starvation wages, and oppression, but the result was riches for those doing the oppressing. The wolves looked on in envy. They wanted to share what the evil kings and churchmen had stolen, so they stepped in and made an offer that many oppressed sheep couldn't refuse. They offered to share with the sheep. It was more than the evil churchmen and kings offered. To make it official the wolves wrote it all down in a wolf- document called the Communist Manifesto:

Communist Manifesto

The wolves' "Communist Manifesto of 1848" has ten planks. It was the wolves' offer to oppressed sheep to share the loot taken by the evil kings and churchmen from the sheep. All the wolves asked in return was to rule.

1. "Abolition of property (rights) in land and application of all rents (taxes) to public purposes." (Taxed land cannot be owned. A missed payment reveals the true owner. The lender is the true owner.)

2. "A heavy progressive or graduated income tax." (Income tax 1913. Tax-free foundations and the private Federal Reserve are exempt.),

3. "Abolition of all right of inheritance." (Estate tax 1916, the alpha-wolf owns and controls everything. Only temporary "franchises" exist in a wolf-den),

4. "Confiscation of the property of all emigrants (fleeing the system) and rebels." (RICO Act 1970, sedition act 1798, used in 1940 and 1988. Cars, homes, and businesses in which is found marijuana are confiscated today. Entire estates belonging to rebels will be confiscated tomorrow.)

5. "Centralization of credit in the hands of the State, by means of a national bank with State capital and an exclusive monopoly." (Federal Reserve Act 1913, the stock of the FR is owned by the great international wolf-banks),

6. "Centralization of the means of communication and transport in the hands of the State." (Interstate Commerce Commission 1887, Federal Communication Commission Act 1934, Federal Aviation Agency 1938. These agencies set the standards),

7. "Extension of factories and instruments of production owned by the state."

8. "Equal liability of all to labor." (Two income families.)

9. "Combination of agriculture with manufacturing industries." (Bankrupted American farms are combined into giant soviet-type farming operations owned by wolf-corporations who also own manufacturing facilities to process the produce.)

10. "Free education for all children in public schools." (wolf-schools).

The Wolf Howl

The wolves also promised a cherry on top of the communist pie. They promised that as soon as the wolves had taken over from the evil kings and churchmen and had gotten things running properly - they would then turn everything over to the poor abused sheep, who would then have all they needed to live in a paradise on earth.

This sounded great, so many impoverished sheep joined the wolves to take the land monopolies, usury banks, and all the rest from the evil kings and churchmen.

This resulted in the 1848 revolts. When they failed, the wolves tried a new way to get into the sheepfold and enforce their Manifesto. They created the "wolf-howl" that was read by everyone. The wolf-howl told the sheep that everyone, wolves included, should be allowed to vote. After this, the wolf-howl told the sheep which politicians were good and which were bad so they would know for whom to vote. In this way the wolf-howl elected those the wolves wished to be elected. It was that easy. Messy civil wars were reserved for those sheep who would not easily give up their lands and wealth.

Wolfy-sheepism

To suppress the teachings of the Shepherd - the wolves approved a new religion for the sheep called "Wolfy-sheepism." Those sheep selected to be high-visibility, high-profile, wolfy- sheep high priests are permitted to use the wolf-howl. It is their job to indoctrinate the flocks into the glories of the New World Order - one more name for the Communist Manifesto made operational.

Wolfy-sheep priests are forbidden to recite the Shepherd's "Laws, statutes, and judgments." Their sermons are "approved." Wolfy- sheepism is pure "luv." The thing forbidden to be spoken is "If ye love me obey my commandments." John 14:15. They are all also required to tell the flocks that the Shepherd was a wolf - an interesting concept. The standards of anyone who would reject the Shepherd's "Laws, statutes and judgments" to become a wolfy-sheep priest are considered low, judged by the Shepherd's standards. Their wolf-like habits allow them to use the wealth received from the wolf-howl to indulge their appetites in fornication, drunkenness, perversions, and getting rich - a thing forbidden to sheep-priests.¹

¹ "Unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance: the Lord God of Israel was their inheritance." Josh 13:33. "Levi hath no part no inheritance with his brethren: the Lord is his inheritance." Deut. 10:9

The excesses of these wolfy-sheep churchmen have made them and the Shepherd they claim to represent obnoxious to thousands of other sheep. They have become so obnoxious that it has caused great masses of the sheep to turn against what they are told is the true religion of the Shepherd - "wolfy-sheepism."

This is the reason wolfy-sheepism was created. It does what it was created to do. This author is slow. It took him 18 years of attending a wolfy-sheep church to discover what many sheep discover right away.

Managing Sheep

The wolf-howl stoutly maintained that communism should be hated, so the sheep did. Sheep look to the wolf-howl for guidance like they used to look to their Shepherd. While the sheep were running around hating communism and spending their wealth to arm to fight communist aggression - the ten planks of the 1848 Communist Manifesto were being enacted into sheep-statutes by rulers elected by the same wolf-howl. And, while the wolf-howl agitated the sheep to "keep the world free for democracy," free nation after free nation was pushed into the communist maw. Any fair-minded person has to admit that this is nothing if it isn't smooth!

So, while everyone is going around hating communism and the Communist Manifesto - it is now the law of the land. Some sheep have trouble coping with this new addition to the old LAW-of-the-shepherd. If they break the Communist Manifesto to obey the Shepherd's Law, wolf-statutes will put them in jail. It would be laughable if it weren't tragic, and it's all legal.

Wolf Grievance

The Wolf's real grievance is built-in. As mentioned before, some sheep won't do what wolves want them to do. That's it. Legislatures elected by the "wolf-howl" pass hundreds of new laws each year. These new laws outlaw a million more sheep each year. The new growth industry is new, bigger, and better prisons to house law violators. Those outlawed by wolf-statutes are filling the prison population to overflowing. Wolf-courts decree that wolves serve short terms and sheep serve long ones. After all, why should wolves be needlessly punished for doing what wolves do when they can't help it. It's not their fault. It's the ghetto wolf-den environment they are forced live in. The sheep are endlessly told that if sheep are forced to mix with wolves in the sheepfold the wolves would change. Busloads of wolves are sent to sheepfolds, and guess what? The truth now slipping under the paper curtain is that wolves eat sheep! The wolves now say that what is needed is more sheep to go around. That, and a more tolerant sheep attitude.

The Observer

When schoolchildren choose sides they try to sneak one of those "on their side" into the inner sanctums of the "enemy" to learn their "secret plans."

Wolves do the same thing. Every flock has a wolf assigned to it to learn about secret "plans." It's boring work. They have to go to PTAs, country clubs, charity bazaars, and - you name it.

It's wasted effort, because who ever heard of a "secret" that sheep didn't write down on paper, draw up into a formal document, make an original with six copies, and proceed to post on the bulletin board ten minutes after it became a secret. That's what sheep do. The Shepherd made his sheep kings and priests. If sheep haven't thoroughly discussed something, voted on it, and put it down on paper - it's not officially a secret. Furthermore, they aren't going to let anyone tell THEM what to do if they don't want to do it.

The wolf observer sighs and patiently waits. Maybe someday the sheep will have a secret. Just in case, every flock has its in-house wolf assigned to watch - just in case.

Forcing The Choice

Once schoolchildren have formed "their side," they try to make it bigger and better than "their side." They recruit. They tell lies and spread rumors about "their side."

Wolves do it better. The uncommitted sheep is put in a corner and given choices. Each time they say "yes" to a choice they commit themselves more and more. The sheep who had hoped to stand on the sidelines and watch others get bloody noses find themselves being forced to take a stand right out in the middle of the playground before God and everyone. It becomes either one side or the other. One must alienate the wolves - or the Shepherd. Choose God and the wolves will get you. Choose the wolves - and God will get you. Damned if you do - damned if you don't. If the wolf doesn't get mad at you - the Shepherd will. Conditions become decidedly unpleasant.

Wolves have no problem with such choices. They do what the alpha wolf says and the alpha wolf doesn't kill them. That's fair enough. Wolf organizations never have trouble raising money for wolf projects. The alpha wolf suggests the amount that each wolf should give to the tax-exempt charity assigned to him and he pays - the whole amount plus a little extra to show enthusiasm. The alpha wolf's suggestions printed in the wolf-howl aren't "suggestions" - they are what the wolf wants them to think and do. Not so with sheep. Choices that violate the Shepherd's commands causes them to hesitate, and, these simple sheep whom their Shepherd has made kings are notoriously stingy. Sheep have trouble collecting enough money to buy a stamp. That's the way the Shepherd made them. That's why sheep are able to accumulate so much without ripping off other sheep.

To keep the pressure on the sheep to choose the wolf-king over the Shepherd, the wolves keep the demands coming. They demand entry into the sheepfold, they demand sheep to eat, they demand that they be given job preference, they demand that sheep pay them tribute, they demand that sheep-rituals be taken down and theirs be set up in front of city hall. They demand that the Shepherd be banned, they demand heavy progressive sheep taxation, they demand wolf-exemption, they demand that wolf crime be treated leniently and sheep crime treated harshly, they demand an open-gate policy to sheepfolds so fellow wolves won't be discriminated against, they expell sheep from wolf-dens while demanding an open-gate sheepfold policy. The "wolf-howl" demands that wolves be given "freedom" to kill sheep young. They demand that homosexuality Law be abandoned, they demand Shepherd-day violation and desecration. They demand sheep-registration, they demand church-registration, they demand laws against anti-wolfism and sheep-complaint, they demand censorship, they demand, demand, demand.

Wolf demands never end. They aren't meant to. They are made to make the sheep choose. In time, the sheep becomes conditioned to the fact that the only thing that will satisfy the wolf is a sheep's absolute and abject loyalty to the alpha-wolf's will, and disregarding deceptive "lip service," the sheeps' complete rejection of the Shepherd and His Word. Those who pass this test can be trusted. Some are selected as overseers of businesses and factories, some work for the wolf-howl, some become wolfy-sheep priests, and some are promoted by the wolf-howl to become leaders of sheepfolds like Rhodesia, South Africa, Germany, Great Britain, Australia-New Zealand, and the United States.

Those who insist on writing about the Shepherd's Word invite retribution even if they are senior vice-presidents with 33 years' seniority.

The Clout On The Other Side

There comes a point in time when wolf-threats, promises, wolfy- sheep endorsement, hand-outs, and preferential treatment loses its luster. The Shepherd has a staff. This is a good stout stick. It protects the sheep, but when swung as a rod, it hurts. It really hurts bad. The Shepherd has clout.

The wolf is big and bad, his wolf-howl frightens, and his "WDL" that strikes in the night breaking bones, and shooting bullets into the back of heads frightens more, but let's face it - that's just wolf stuff. When did a wolf make a world? create a man? or kill a nation with a plague? The Shepherd has done it all. He has even taken his staff and run the wolf away.

The Shepherd's Plan

Knowledgable sheep know why the Shepherd allows the evil in the land:

"I created man from the invisible and visible ... I appointed him ruler ... to have my wisdom ... I called his name Adam and showed him the two ways ... and I told him 'this is good, and that is bad' that I should learn whether he had love toward me, or hatred, that it be clear which in his race love me." Enoch 30:12- 14

More and more sheep who have secretly hated God are declaring themselves each day. They do this in spite of the 11 curses that God promised he would give them:

"But if ye will not ... do ... these commandments; ... I also will do this unto you;

1 - ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it ...

2 - "they that hate you shall reign over you;

3 - "ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

4 - "I will break the pride of your power;

5 - "Your land shall not yield her increase ...

6 - "I will send wild beasts (strangers) among you which shall rob you of your children ... and make you few in number.

7 - "I will bring a sword upon you ...

8 - "I will send the pestilence among you;

9 - "I will ... cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you.

10 - "I will make your cities waste.

11 - "And I will bring the land into desolation: ... Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate ..." Lev 26:14-35

The serious punishment will follow after this. It will come when the last sheep has freely made his choice. Then, on that day, the order will be given:

"Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts: smite the shepherd ... and ... in all the land ... two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein. And I will bring the third part through the fire ... they shall call on my name ... I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The Lord is my God." Zech 13:7-9

The above is the fate of the sheep who live with the wolf.
For the wolves themselves - more is written:

"Son of man, set your face against China, and against the land of Mongolia, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him and say ... Behold I am against you, O China, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal: I will gather your people together and put a bridle in your jaws and I will bring you forth out of your country, both you and all your army ... Persians, Ethiopians, and Lybians with them ... Gomar and all her army, the house of Togarmah, and the uttermost parts of the north with all their hosts, and many other people who are with you. ...

"Son of man ... say to China, Thus says the Lord God: On that day when my people Israel shall dwell in tranquillity, ... you shall come up against my people Israel, like a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, ... and ... the earth shall shake ... and the mountains shall be thrown down and the towers shall fall and every wall shall tumble to the ground. ...

"... I am against you, O China, the ruler and the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal; ... I will send a fire on Mongolia, and on the people who dwell peacefully in the Islands (Japan); ... I will give to China a place there for burial in the land of Israel ... and there they shall bury China and all his army." Ezekiel 38:2-16 - 39:1-11²

Conclusion

"Operation Armageddon" has begun. Somolia, the last gate, is being taken by the wolf and his allies. The Falklands, Singapore, The Philippines, Capetown, Gibraltar, Grenada and Panama - all the gates of Israel rest in the hands of those who hate us.

2 Holy Bible, From the ancient Eastern Test, by George M. Lamsas' Translation From the Aramaic of the Peshitta ©1968.

Two-thirds of the sheep will join themselves to the wolf. Hooks are being placed in their jaws and they are being dragged to the place where God will fulfill his promise.

Their ancient dream of destroying the remnant of the sheep who will not bow to the alpha-wolf is about to turn to ashes. The ancient promise is soon to be fulfilled.

Watch, O Son of man, Your redemption draws nigh.

LETTERS

N.C. COLLEGE RIOT: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: The student body here is 30% White, 40% Black, and 30% Asiatic. There is no mixing. The Asiatics separate into individual nationalities when left to themselves. When in contact with Blacks and Whites, the Asiatics act as one group. Last week the Blacks and Asiatics had a race riot. A Black was stabbed in the back and a dozen others had to be treated at the hospital. The Asiatics are mean. Nothing was mentioned in the papers." H. R. - North Carolina

VIRGINIA ARCHITECTURE & SEGREGATION: "Dear Dick: Can you explain why the chimneys on the old Virginia houses (late 17th & early 18th- century) are on the end of the houses while in New England they are placed in the center of the house - which appears to be more efficient. Next, the kitchen is detached from the main house and is in a separate building." G. W. - Massachusetts

RKH: Q1. Center chimneys: Many Williamsburg homes have center chimneys. These relatively expensive town homes were built by wealthy plantation owners who despised plantation isolation, and had the money and could afford to build to suit their fancy. Most other Virginia plantation homes started as humble half- or quarter-homes - a basement, room, loft, and roof. This was built first with an end-chimney for heat. The plan was for inheriting children to add a hall and the other half of the house when they could afford to do so. That's why most old Virginia homes were built over several generations. They started as half houses, and then developed into full, L-shaped, U-shaped, H- shaped, and stacked houses (rooms in back of front rooms). There could be no way to build a center chimney in a house that wasn't going to be finished for 150 years. End chimneys had to be built as the rooms were completed.

Q2: "Separate kitchens:" The Word teaches "Withdraw from among the Gentiles and do not eat with them." Jubilees 22:17, "If any man ... be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one, no not to eat." 1 Cor 5:11. "Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation ... but a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) shall not eat thereof." Ex 29:32-33 There is a well-known tendency among Blacks to do all these prohibited things, so Virginians did not eat with them for 350 years (ie; certain White people were also excluded). It has only been in the last 50 years that they have been forced to do so by the government. Most New England homes had inside kitchens. They did not have the same social problem Virginia had.

GRAND PLAN: "Dear Richard: Leonid Brezhnev stated his famous doctrine in 1975. This doctrine set the pattern for the destabilization of Africa. The statement is as follows;
 "We will separate the West from the oil resources of the middle east, and the mineral resources of S. Africa, then we will dictate the terms of surrender." S. - Texas CHOOSE: "Dear Richard: Today's conditions will continue until all are forced to take sides - one side or the other. "He who is not with me is against me." Matt: 12:30 G. W. - Alabama

TREATIES: Dear Mr. Hoskins: Does the US - USSR arms reduction treaties have a hidden meaning? A. T. - Alaska

RKH: I think so. It appears to be part of the overall plan of softening up the West for the kill. See HR #220.

MAFIA "BOSS OF BOSSES" ARRESTED: Italian authorities arrested Salvatore Riina and his driver. Both were unarmed and surrendered quietly. Riina was reported as having been in hiding for 23 years. In 1987 he was sentenced by an Italian court to life in prison while in absentia. Riina is said to be responsible for over 50 murders.

RKH: This article ignored the important points. Riina was not in hiding. He merely slipped on another identity and lived openly. He may have kept two or three other identities in reserve. He felt so safe that he had no need to go armed or with bodyguards. He lived this way while running one of the biggest and most profitable Mafia organization in Italy. The Italian government spun their wheels looking for a man who did not exist. The quiet well-dressed gentleman who smiled a greeting to the policeman was overlooked. He was betrayed by a confidante, he wasn't discovered by the police. After his capture it was found that his 23-year- old picture looked nothing at all like the Riina of today.

The article had one thing right - it stated that the Italian national police chief remarked that there would be a bitter struggle to succeed Riina. There will be - if Riiga successor has not already been chosen by the superiors of this "boss of bosses" who are in the top echelons of the banking and political arena.

Back to Table of Contents

Chapter 222

HOSTILE TAKEOVERS

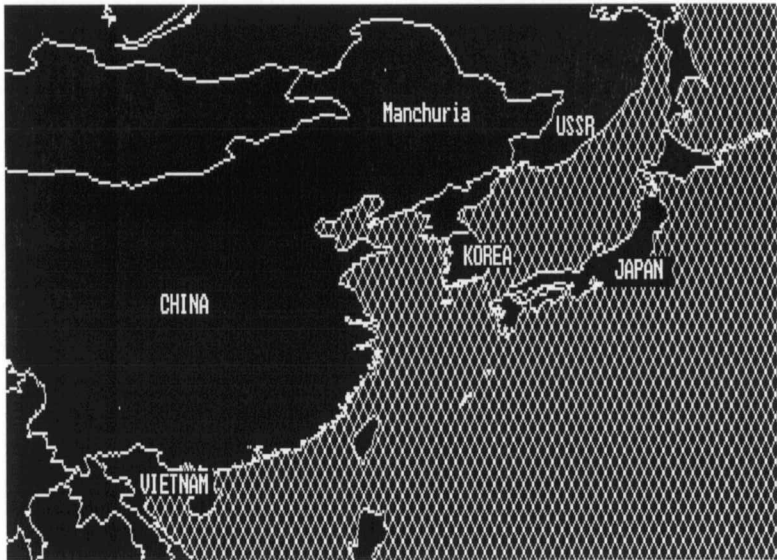

The Individual vs. The Corporation

"Everyone you meet is either a wolf or a sheep."

Sheep produce, create, build, and increase. Wolves take, keep, pull down, rend, devour, and destroy. Sheep live peacefully in sheepfolds. Wolves live in raucous crime-filled dens. Sheep function as individuals, wolves function as members of the pack - they operate in corporations.

Sheep obey their Shepherd. Wolves obey the policy of their pack leader, the alpha wolf. The Shepherd orders his sheep to live in sheepfolds, each an individual king, each ruling his own kingdom (farm), each judging his kingdom under the law of his Shepherd.

In a wolf den, each wolf is an agent of the alpha wolf who is king of the wolf pack, his wish is their law, and all wolves seek a place in a stairstep hierarchy within the pack under

Mysterious China

China has been the terminal of the overland spice trade with India and Europe for more than two thousand years. The wealthiest people in the world live in China. The leaders of the rest of the world beat a path to her door to bow to their rulers. The Westerner who considers planes, tanks, and armies to be a match for a nation forced to use money and diplomacy instead of force is a fool.

his protection. The wolf pack and all it contains is the alpha wolf's - it is his monopoly. The wolf pack is a corporation with the alpha wolf as its principal stockholder. He appoints a chairman of the board who appoints a board of directors who appoints plant managers who appoint foremen. The foremen hire plant security to keep out unwanted visitors and keep down disorders.

Wolves are predators. Sheep are producers. Wolves eat sheep. To eat sheep they must gain entry into sheepfolds. Sheep-history is a diary of wolf-assaults on sheepfolds.

Protection & The Gatekeeper

A wolf must have protection when moving into a new hunting area, or the outraged prey or another more powerful wolf pack may attack him.

He cannot enter a sheepfold with his pack to protect him since this would resemble past invasions and would alarm the sheepfold. He can't even ask the leader of the sheepfold for "protection" so that he can enter and eat sheep. Sheep are tender hearted and giving - but they draw the line at that.

The wolf follows the old time-tested routine. He goes to a frustrated "wanna-be" sheep who yearns to be alpha-king of the sheepfold so that he can rule it like wolves rule their wolf-den- bands, parades, inaugurations, TV, and all. With such a sheep the wolf has much in common. A deal is struck. In exchange for getting the wanna-be elected to govern the sheepfold, he will use his elected position to help the wolf. He will help the wolf get his pack into the sheepfold, and protect the wolf's operation once there. "Wanna-be" wants to be that kind of king so bad that he agrees to run with the wolves.

Getting him elected is simple. The wolves have lots of loot. They hire a front-sheep and give him loot to buy up the quiet "sheep-baa." Corporate-style, they are combined into chains and quickly converted into the "wolf-howl." Once operational, the wolf-howl by-passes the sheep's leader and talks directly to the sheep. The sheep's leader can't communicate with his sheep - the "wolf-howl" drowns him out - or just ignores him. The wolf-howl advises the flock that "Wanna-be" is wonderful, a good christian, a wonderful father, loves babies - and that wanna-be should be their new elected leader. So they elect him. That's it. Simple. A few bucks in the right place and you have taken over a whole sheepfold. Works every time. Wanna-be is now the "sheep's- foreman." A wolf-type king.¹

Wanna-be owes the wolf. At first, only a few wolves are seen walking the streets. Soon they are all over the place.

Wanna-be's police say that wolf-crime is due to sheep-prejudice. Wanna-be gives them privileges sheep don't get - public housing, government jobs, preferential hiring, etc., all paid for by taxing the sheep. Wanna-be's courts say it's OK. His palace guard - the FBI, CIA, and armed services, are instructed to work closely with wolves and give them the sheep's most up-to-date weapons and secrets. Wanna-be's government says it's in the sheepfolds' interests. Not only are the sheep in the armed services told that wolves are good and sheep are bad, they are taught that they must follow their leaders - even when they shoot mothers holding babies. They are also told that it is OK to "bugger each other" if they want to - a common wolf practice. Wanna-be's wolfy-sheep preachers say that it's OK too. If they don't, they risk losing their tax-exemption.¹

The sheep-overseer was elected by the wolf-howl and is dependent on them for his job. The wolf is dependent on the overseer, but is free to choose any other sheep-overseer he likes. Most overseers are not like Napoleon, the kind who upsets apple carts. Unless the sheep-overseer wishes to risk being turned out - he must bend over backwards to stay in the wolf's good graces.

The wolf may use sheep statutes to enact currency controls to stop bribery attempts by other wolf-pack competitors. The in-house security can be used against disgruntled sheep who are suspected of not liking wolves and not going along with the New Wolf Order. A new crime is invented to catch wayward sheep - "thought crime." No longer does a sheep have to assault a wolf to be guilty - he just has to think about it. This is called the RICO law. There are any number of sheep in prison who are sentenced for "thinking" about doing something.

1 Pastor Pete Peters' Church of Christ, LaPorte, Colorado, was padlocked on February 26 because they spoke out against special privileges given homosexuals. The Church has been persecuted and dragged into court time after time by supporters of sodomite interests.

Once in the sheepfold, the wolves supervise its conversion into a wolf-den. The sheep who lose their farm- kingdoms are retrained into "corporate-sheep." They act like wolves. These once-free sheep-kings now live in wolf-city. They are corporate sheep living in fear of losing their jobs, their pensions, getting fired, being mugged - and losing what little they have accumulated. To protect themselves, they "speak no evil, see no evil, and hear no evil." Being a bundle of nerves is normal wolf-existence, but it is a living death to sheep.² These kind of sheep can now be used as useful tools in "hostile takeovers" of others.

Wolf Need For Hostile Takeovers

Hostile takeovers are wolf operations not understood by sheep. A sheep, having its own small kingdom and possessions, has no need or wish to take that which belongs to another. To do so involves monopoly - a thing forbidden to sheep.

A wolf corporation, on the other hand, is a monopoly by definition. It is organized as a monopoly. It acts as a monopoly. The controlling stockholder treats it as a monopoly. It is insatiable. Its success is measured by its size, its growth, its acquisitions. Merger and takeover is the quick road to success. They provide immediate profit and can show profit on the balance sheet for years in the future. The War Between The States ended in 1865. It wasn't until 1962 that differential freight rates imposed during Reconstruction were dropped. It cost more to ship goods by rail from Richmond to New York than from New York to Richmond. The year 1962 was long after the war ended. The more "negotiations" of this kind, the more favorable contracts, and the more profit. This result of wolf negotiations appalls sheep who don't understand such things. They pay dearly for their lack of understanding.

² Abnormal living conditions cause them to stop having children.

Sheep - Takeover Cannon Fodders

A calm flock presents problems. On the approach of a wolf, the rams calmly move out shoulder to shoulder and face the wolf. Rams can kill a wolf. However, if the flock can be kept alarmed and milling, the rams don't know where the danger is or where to gather. The milling sheep don't even know what is happening. One or two rams who try to protect wolf-mugged sheep can be easily pulled down. The job of the wolf-howl is to spread rumors, alarms, and disinformation and keep the flock milling around. The sheep must never be allowed to calm down and group together for self protection.

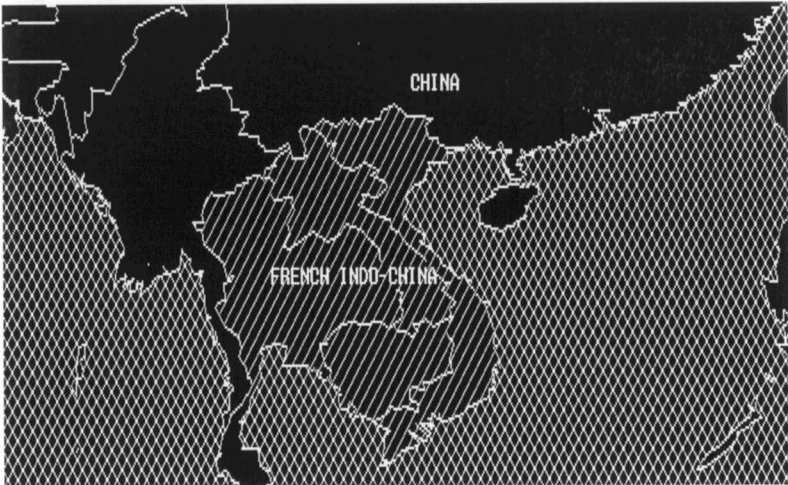

Perpetually alarmed and upset, flocks can be driven by the wolves against either sheepfolds or wolf-dens belonging to competitors. Once an enemy is identified - the rams will fight. First, the selected prey is "outlawed." (Sheep fight only by the Shepherd's rules.³ An outlaw is an enemy - an "unlawful" enemy.. A way is found to make the selected prey attack something that is "unlawful.". One must always be "attacked" to justify defending oneself and in the process demolishing the foe.

In the takeover war that follows, the sheep are driven into armies to provide cannon fodder; the wolf supervisors furnish both finance and supply. When final victory is won, the sheep get parades, erect monuments to their dead, nurse their grievances, and are kept alarmed and milling around until they are needed again. The wolves squabble over loot gained, the wolf- corporation grows more powerful, and the wolves plan their next raid.

China

In the 19th century, the controlling stockholder of the American corporation sent Admiral Perry to force Japan to open up for "investment." In the crude style of the period,

French Indo-China

France had been in French Indo-China since 1787. It comprised Vietnam (on the sea), Laos (center), Cambodia (South) and Thailand (Siam) - on the west. This danger to China was removed with American help.

3 That's what wolfy-sheep preachers get paid for doing.

he shot his way in. Japan was forced to exchange trade and tribute for Western technology. They learned fast. Japanese-wolves armed with sheep-technology became powerful and invaded Korea to add to their investment portfolio. In 1910, Japan merged the whole country to better digest it. The Japanese corporation was growing.

In the 1930s, Japan began the hostile takeover of Chinese Manchuria. China's plants and management were hopelessly outdated, and so were helpless to stop the takeover, but she had one thing the Japanese did not have. She had several unbelievably wealthy controlling stockholders whose retained reserves were unbelievably huge. An appeal was made to an old business associate, Franklin Delano Roosevelt. The Roosevelt family, and especially the Delanos, owed their wealth to the old "China Trade."⁴

Roosevelt, the American plant manager, responded by cutting the Japanese Netherlands E. Indies oil supply. This stroke, depriving Japan of oil, doomed the Japanese plant to have to shut down. The Japanese plant-manager, Tojo, unskilled in business affairs, sent his plant security to Pearl Harbor to deal with the situation. He suspected that he was being suckered, but the Oriental has this thing about pride - who bows to whom, and who bows the lowest - that sort of thing. After an initial success his plant-police were beat-up. The Japanese corporation had to make all sorts of concessions (like the Southern differential price rate thing) before they were allowed to start up their plant again. Businessmen know that the Japanese Emperor is chairman of the Japanese corporation, but they don't know who the major stockholder is. That's a business secret.

4 JFK, The CIA, Vietnam, & The Plot To Assassinate John F. Kennedy. p. 5, Col L. Fletcher Prouty, Burch Lane Press Book, Carol Publishing Group, NY 199215

While the Chinese management were meeting with the Americans, British, and Soviets at Tehran, and were congratulating themselves on how smart they were to get the Americans to pull the Japanese off their backs, the Americans were helping to organize a hostile takeover against them. Mao Tse-tung was made standby acting plant manager and given security personnel to protect him until the regular Chinese corporation was cornered and he was needed. His instructions were to just to sit tight until the time was ripe, and then take over. Mao sneaked around in back of Chaing Kai-Shek in what became known as his 6,000 mile "Long March" and positioned himself behind Chaing forcing him to fight on two fronts.

The media told the US people that the US was shipping munitions to supply the anti-communist Nationalist government of Chaing Kai-shek. These munitions were stored in India. What they did not tell was that on orders from Washington these munitions were taken out into the Bay of Bengal and dumped into the sea.⁵ Deprived of the promised US support, Chaing Kai-shek lost. Mao's communists took over management, and seized China's retained earnings. A perfect corporate takeover. "An unknown enemy cannot be opposed."

To prevent Chiang's followers from becoming a nuisance, those who didn't escape to Formosa with Chaing Kai-shek were given the choice of placing their necks on railroad tracks and letting trains decapitate them, or receiving a slow death. Most eagerly put their necks on the rail. Along with these - tens of millions of Chinese died and their wealth was confiscated by the victors.

5 McCarthyism, The Fight For America., Sen. Joseph McCarthy, p.38-39, Devin-Adair, NY 1952

China is too vast to be closely governed. Local warlords have always ruled villages and their family groups. Wealth, trade, and custom have been handed down generation after generation, and everything of value is kept hidden from central governments. Individual Chinese look first to their family groups, then the village, then the local warlord. Mao's communist revolution changed that. Trials, purges, holocausts and indoctrinations were used to break up the villages, scatter families, pry wealth from dead hands, and cause a complete corporate reorganization.

China's ruler now has millions of obedient citizens, loyal followers who have learned their place in the pack pecking order. He speaks - they obey. Their former "village-family-local war lord" allegiance is now his. He is the one who can protect and provide for them. All rewards come from him. No one is beyond his reach.

Behind the scenes, controlling stockholders are highly mobile. To them, all things are temporary, even economic setbacks. "Madam Chaing Kai-shek - nee May Ling Soong, was the daughter of Charles Jones Soong, and sister of T. V. Soong, who in 1943 was the wealthiest man in the world."⁶ The Soong's antiquated palace guard, the Nationalist Party, failed in its effort to protect their holdings, but all that is in the past. Formosa has been reorganized to include the latest in defense. Negotiations are now taking place to effect a merger between the "Nationalist" China and "Communist" China. The resulting corporation may well become a world class contender. In any event, Western leaders are beating a path to their door. That fact should tell us enough.

6 LBJ, p. 13.

Korea

Korea, long dominated by Chinese investors, in 1860 suffered Russian interests to move in. In 1866, 1867 and 1871, joint French and US expeditions launched punitive raids to retaliate for the killing of missionaries. Those raids also resulted in concessions. Japanese interests moved in and supplanted everyone when they annexed the country in 1910.

In 1950, China's chairman directed that their N. Korea subsidiary take over S. Korea. It was bloody, as Oriental takeovers are. General MacArthur reported to the Russell Committee Hearings, Pt. 1, May 3, 1951, p32, on the progress of the property settlement dispute:

"The war in Korea has already almost destroyed that nation of 20 million people. I have never seen such devastation. I have seen, I guess, as much blood and disaster as any living man, and it just curdled by stomach ... After I looked at that wreckage and those thousands of women and children and everything, I vomited. ... Once more, I repeat the question: What is the policy in Korea? If you go on indefinitely, you are perpetuating a slaughter such as I have never heard of in the history of mankind."

As landowners were ground up and disappeared in the conflict - millions of acres made available were instantly snapped up. Businesses came up for grabs at bargain prices.

Ancient business contracts were voided wholesale and they too came up for grabs. Today, American industries are moving to Korea and Korean sweatshops manned by coolie labor dump electronics on America and the rest of the West. The new commercial alignment is fully operational and profitable. The N. Korean and Chinese got nothing for their trouble except their dead. They had served their purpose and there are still plenty of orientals to spare.

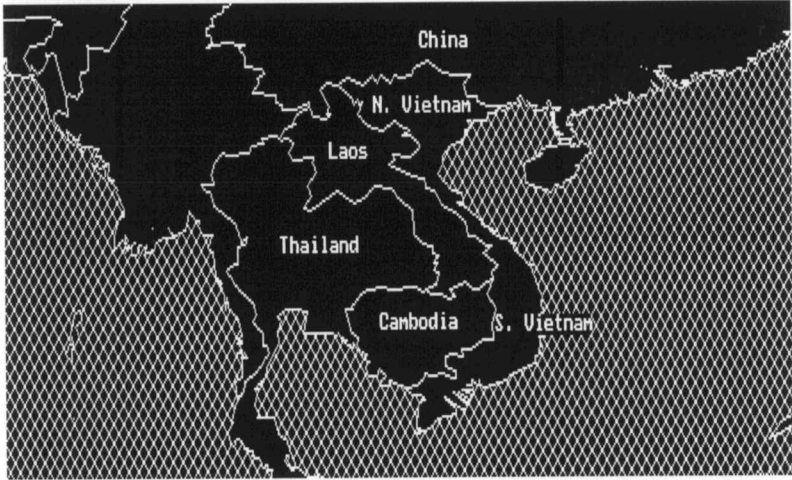

Col. Prouty says in his book that the decision to go into Korea and Vietnam was made before World War II ended. The U.S. had stockpiled a mountain of military supplies to be used in the Japanese invasion, but Japan surrendered before it took place. The decision was made to send half of this stockpile to Korea and half to Vietnam.

Vietnam

Vietnam was a subsidiary of France. It is part of what was the old French Indo-China. French Indo-China comprised Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos, and Thailand (Siam). It has always been one of the wealthiest operations in the world. French interests had been there since 1787. The US corporation intended to seize those interests for itself.

The Japanese invaded Indo-China, displacing the French. Ho Chi Minh was selected to be management trainee in North Vietnam. Both he and his followers worked for, were trained by, and were supplied by the OSS, the forerunner of the CIA - supposedly so that they could fight the Japanese. "Ho" armies were given half of the mountain of unused American equipment that had been collected for the invasion of Japan. This was done AFTER the Japanese had left and before the French returned. Another corporate raid was in progress.

When the French returned to take up management where they had left off, they were unpleasantly surprised to be confronted with one of the best armed plant-security guerilla armies in the world.

Vietnam - The Successful Lost War

The war in Vietnam was won by all participants - except the people who fought it. Chinese interests removed French interests. America had an economic boom. The Vietnamese people were added to the NWO, and the CIA got the opium monopoly of the "golden triangle" to enable them to finance a spate of wars,

The French were defeated in May 1954. The French garrison that was surrendered at Dien Bien Phu was mostly German, recruited from former German soldiers at the end of WW II. In Vietnamese captivity they died almost to a man. Oriental takeovers are tough, and, stockholders investing in such risky investments seldom have loyalty to their faceless employees. The displaced French management could care less about the massacre of their plant-security. "They were just Germans." One month later, June 1954, the Americans moved into South Vietnam, right on schedule.

South Vietnam had no history as a separate nation. This part of Vietnam was given a Catholic descendant of the old emperors to be their ruler and was provided with a palace guard organized from local "sects." These "sects" had been followers of a number of local generals who had set up their own operations in S. Vietnam after the Japanese left.

The CIA paid these "generals" handsome bonuses for their early retirement and sent them to the French Riviera to bask in the sun. Their rag-tag "bowl of rice" followers became the South Vietnamese army.

"Free democratic elections" were held. They were supervised by the democratic S. Vietnamese army. Diem received 98% of the vote. Most S. Vietnamese had no idea who was ruling in Saigon and didn't care. They voted 98% for the one they were told to vote for. As a rule, when the U.S. insists on "democratic elections" in wolf-nations having no history of democracy - the vote is almost always something in the neighborhood of 98% in favor. This is the American corporation replacing local management with one of their own choosing.

Ngo Dinh Diem, the new ruler, on orders from his CIA handlers, banned both the remaining French and the local Chinese. The French managers ran the nation's government and business, and the Chinese were the traders whose boats bought rice from the peasants and delivered tools, salt, and other necessary goods in return. The removal of the French closed down the nation's businesses, and with the Chinese gone - their rice boats did not arrive to collect the rice. With no buyers, the rice rotted and those regions deprived of rice and salt fought neighboring villages for food to survive. The new ruler called these outbreaks "communist insurgency."

NWO PsyWar In Action

CIA "Psy-War," aided by the Catholic bishoprics of "That Dien" and "Bui Chu,"⁷ in North Vietnam, spread the rumor among the northern Tonkinese Chinese Catholics that they were scheduled for liquidation. Terrorized, they began to stampede. The door to safety was opened for them and they were herded onto CIA-furnished ships, trucks, and planes. The rest were directed to the road overland that led to promised land and food in the south. One million one hundred thousand N. Tonkinese "Catholic" Vietnamese were transported south and dumped in Cochine, the southwestern Red River delta areas. There was neither land nor food waiting when they got there, only hostile South Vietnamese peasants short of food and whose way of life was already dislocated by the removal of French managers and Chinese merchants. These new arrivals became bandits to survive and preyed on the South Vietnamese. The papers in the U.S. reported that "Viet Cong insurgency" had flared up all over. "The mass movement of the Tonkinese was done 'To provide the climate, and the fodder for the war in Vietnam.'"⁸

"The US-advised Diem government began to place many of these Catholics in key offices. Typical Dr. Tran Kim Tuyen, a northern Catholic who left Tonkin China in 1954, was made chief of the Office of Political and Social Affairs, the secret government apparatus that had been organized by the CIA to keep tabs on dissenters."⁹

The block system, the kind insisted upon by those who

7 Ibid., p. 75

8 Ibid. p. 74

9 Ibid., p. 78

invest in communist countries, was put in operation. This is an "oppressive, omnipresent internal spy organization that uses teachers to gather information from children, wives to tell on husbands, and employers to inform on employees." Thousands of northern Catholics were placed on the payroll and put into positions of responsibility by the CIA and the Diem government. Before long, the northern Catholic immigrants were the ones who had become "friendly" and the "enemy" had become the native southerners.

In Vietnam, it was widely broadcast by CIA Psy-War that the arriving Americans were there to "pacify" South Vietnam. It was reported this way in the American papers. The "pacify" word does not have the same connotation in the Far East that it has in the West. "Pacification" to the Indo-Chinese means that a region is pacified when all the people living there are dead. Vietnam's "Pacification" became an American threat of "life or death." This threat provided the incentive to continue fighting when spirits lagged in the face of overwhelming U.S. armed might.

While the CIA knew exactly what they were doing - the American soldiers arriving to fight "communists" didn't have a clue. They didn't know who the enemy was and no one could tell them. Few of the enemy wore uniforms. Weapons used for village defense were everywhere. In time, everyone who had a gun and didn't have on an ARVN uniform must be "Vietcong" - probably - possibly - maybe? In time, the rule was that if someone shot at you he was definitely an enemy, and if someone ran when you approached, he too was probably "the enemy."

There were still many "enemies" living in the South, enemies who owned property and businesses, enemies that bombings and ordinary warfare failed to dispose of. These were handled differently. The CIA organized the infamous "Phoenix Program" in which 60,000 key Vietnamese were killed in cold blood by American, Korean, Filipino, Taiwanese, and Vietnamese agents - cold-blooded murders of the Ruby Ridge kind.¹⁰

Vietnam lost millions of her people, freeing up the wealth of the country. This accomplished, the U.S. left. The S. Vietnamese ruler and his palace "sect" guard were abandoned to their fate, and the CIA-trained Ho Chi Minh marched in to take possession and to confiscate everything in sight. The US had been on both sides of everything that had happened.

The Viet escapade had cost 57,000 American dead. The brighter side was that the American economy was given a massive shot in the arm bringing "happy days" for years; China had dangerous enemies removed - the French and the Japanese, and, the investors who backed "Ho" had a field day with their prize of confiscated French properties that are now being "privatized" at the usual bargain-basement prices. "Differential freight rates"- type treaties are still being negotiated. Vietnam will stay in the world's backwaters until they agree to give up an additional pound or two of flesh.

As an extra bonus for those who helped make the Vietnam takeover possible - the CIA fell heir to the heroin drug-monopoly trade of Cambodia, Laos, and Thailand. This booming business furnishes multi-millions at the cost of multi-billions - multi-billions that are desperately needed to fuel other Vietnam-type operations all over the world.

¹⁰ Ibid. p. 65 & 88.

USA Today

Sheepfolds require alternating rulers to fool the sheep into believing that they are still a sheepfold run by sheep; that there is no ruler but their Shepherd. The palace-guard organized to protect the carefully selected rulers is efficient, well paid, and almost an exact copy of the ones operating in practically every other country in the world. Prouty writes, "If the truth were known, the chief of state of most 3rd world countries today - under the rules of the superpower world game - owes his job and his life, day by day, to an elite palace-guard that he can control and, he hopes, trust."

When the alpha-wolf invests, it is in amounts greater than the worth of General Motors, American Telephone, and IBM combined. Most of America's industry of any size has already been bought up. There is only one big prize left - it is the combined holdings of the sheep. One sheep at a time, it would take a hundred years to acquire it all. If all could be lumped together, they could be taken in a few short months. But such corporate takeovers are hostile takeovers. It requires an army - it requires conflict. It requires war.

The example of the orient is one that should not be lost on those interested in corporate finance. The hostile takeover of Vietnam is especially interesting.

In Vietnam, aliens were lured by threats and promises into a strange land without work or shelter. They resorted to banditry to live. The same thing is occurring in all Western nations where small holders of wealth have a massive holding if totaled together. As occurred in Vietnam, some of the imported strangers are hired and added to the palace-guard to rule over increasingly angry property holders. As in Vietnam, the wolf-howl uses PsyWar to incite the strangers against the natives. They are told that the evil Westerners are planning a "pacification" program that will result in a holocaust.

Tainted Western governments now call native Westerners "insurrectionists." They are called "racists," "separatists," "white supremacists," and "bigots" if they protest alien crime, or loss of jobs - all standard PsyWar terminology.

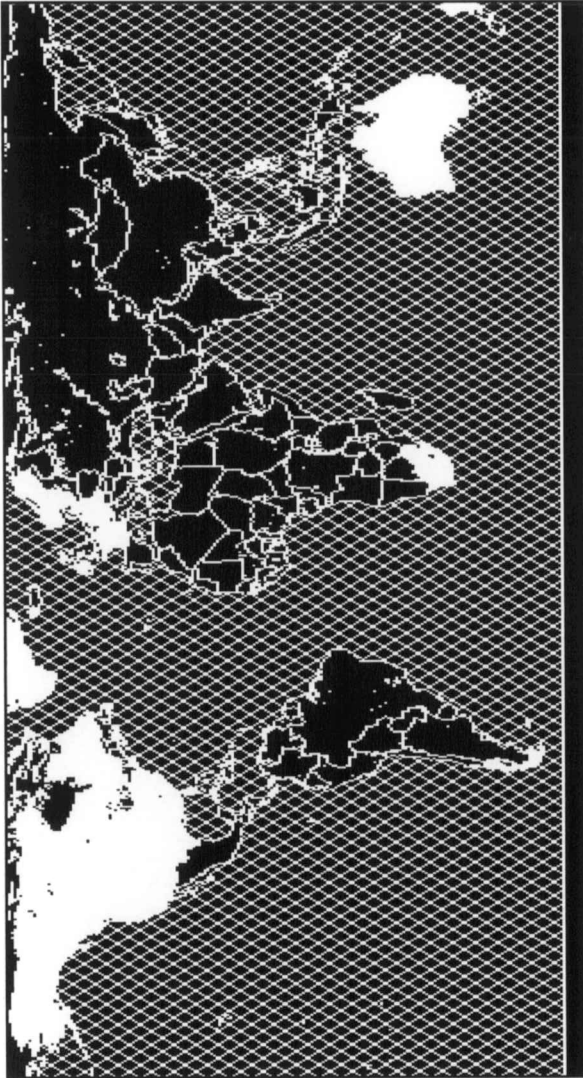

Clinton: Another DeKlerk?

"The first impression one gets of a ruler and his brains is from seeing the men he has about him." Machiavelli.¹¹

The men around our recent media- elected leader represents a spectrum that gives pause to an already nervous flock. Their presence offends the sheep more and more. The scent of wolf is strong. One by one, the Laws that the Shepherd gave as absolute, never to be changed, are being replaced by "wolf-policy." One step at a time the sheep are being pushed into a corner. Closer and closer approach the wolves. More and more come the wolf-demands, demands that the sheep cannot obey without having their own Shepherd kill them. One sheep at a time is seized with panic, abandons his property, and bolts from the corner. One after another the wolf-pack falls on the bolting sheep and tears him to bits. One by one.

The circle draws closer and closer. Will the sheep stand in shock like the S. African sheep are doing - waiting to be eaten? The lies of the wolf-howl keep the flock confused, millling, and running back and forth. It forbids the sheep to talk to one another. Will something happen to make the sheep stand still and listen to the Word, the voice of their Shepherd? Will the time come when -on order from the Shepherd - the rams quietly come forward shoulder to shoulder? Or will the sheep close their ears and scatter when the wolves rush in to make them abandon their wealth and flee.

¹¹ "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21

Western Sheepfolds Under Attack

The above areas in white are all that are left to the sheep. In 1900, the entire world except part of China was controlled by the West. Now, only Western heartlands are left. Even the heartlands are exhausted by wolf-incited civil wars where sheep have been led against sheep, killing tens of millions. Wolf-bought leaders of Western sheepfolds have thrown the gates open to the wolves of the world. They pour in as the UN plans to use sheep-armies to invade the S. African sheepfold to forceably turn the S. African sheep over to the wolves so that their property can be siezed.

America's new ruler is very un-sheeplike. He has already endorsed abortion and homosexuals. He is a draft-dodger who fled his own country to avoid danger, and was identified as supporting the enemy who were killing his own countrymen - a thing called "treachery" in past ages. He is accused of being a whoremonger, and of siring a mulatto child.

As governor, he was accused of being a notorious liar. So much so that it even offended the wolf-howl - a thing hard to do. The "lie" is most serious because: "A thief is better than a man that is accustomed to lie" Ecclesiasticus 21:25. There is nothing that a liar says that can be believed. The lie is a wolf's trademark.

The wolf-howl pictures him surrounded by "priests." But, his disobedience to the "Word made flesh" speaks louder. Sheep Law demands *"If you love me obey my commandments."*¹²

The New York Times, on August 13, 1992, p. C1, carried a revealing article by Todd S. Purdum, which states that the president's mother had been married 5 times to 4 husbands, and:

¹² This leader comes from a litter of lawbreakers. He has a step-sister who was arrested for armed bank robbery in 1985. Fox Broadcasting, Current Affair, Fri, Jan 23, 1993, from Criminal Politics, Jan 1993.

"At the age of 69, this descendant of Irish farmers and Cherokee Indians has survived ... controversies over the death of two patients in her care, and has seen her younger son, Roger, go to prison for a year and half on drug charges"

It appears that while the tainted DeKlerk is a sheep who runs with wolves, Clinton is a wolf. This presents a problem, because wolves eat sheep.

A wise wolf deserts wolf-policy, and follows the Law of the Shepherd. It is hoped that this leader will be one of those who does this and not follow the traditional leader of his people - "Okee."¹³ Time will reveal his master and the sheep's response.

Conclusion

The media-elected "overseer" of the American flock has impeccable credentials - by wolf standards. A loyal palace-guard trained in one hostile-takeover after another stands ready to stage yet another one. As in Vietnam, a ready enemy without food, shelter, or work is being imported by the millions to provide the kindling. A prize worth multi-trillions stands defenseless, ready to be seized - the ultimate prize that Esau has long planned for.

Man, the sheep of God's pasture, was told to rule the world Lawfully and justly. He compromised with evil by tolerating evil. He has seen how the wolf treats his victims in Russia, Germany, South Africa, South Korea, Vietnam, and lately Iraq, and man stood by and allowed it to happen. Is there reason for today's man to expect different treatment?

¹³ "Okee," Vigilantes Of Christendom, Richard K. Hoskins, p. 71-73, 104, Va Pub Co., P.O. Box 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505, $18/copy

Paradoxically, the answer is YES!

"When thou are in tribulation ... even in the latter days, if thou turn to God and shall be obedient ... he will not forsake thee ... nor forget the covenant of thy fathers." Deut 4:30-31

How shall we be obedient? What shall we do that we haven't done?

"Greater love hath no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. ... all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit ...

These things I command you, that ye love one another." John 15:13-17

God has not forsaken us. He is faithful. He has given us his Law. And, so that we will not forget, he has shown us that sheep who disobey their Shepherd become roasted-mutton on the wolf's table. God gave us the wolf - the lawless, furtive, fleeting, invisible, deceptive wolf to teach us. The wolf cannot exist in a sheepfold that obeys God, much less feed there - unless man is lawless and spreads the table. Lawless man created the problem. The Shepherd's Word stands ready to correct it.

"Be still"

=====

Chapter 223

CORPORATIONS & ESTATES

"Everyone you meet is either a wolf or a sheep."

Wolf & The Sheep

Every government, army, church, or political organization is organized like a sheepfold or a wolf-den.

The shootout at Ruby Ridge and the one in progress in Waco has everything to do with wolves and sheep, corporations and estates. America is witnessing the wolf-den's attempt to stamp out the last remnants of sheep organization.

Corporations Organized Like Wolf-Pack

The Shepherd ordained the self-sufficient Biblical homestead for his sheep.¹ It is there they were told to live. It is the sheep's kingdom. ! 2 ☒ The king-of- kings who rules the sheep-fold is the Shepherd.

¹ Ideally, one should be able to live on his own homestead with the homestead providing every basic need.

Sheep, free of wolf-domination, live within a sheep-fold and rule their own farm-kingdoms, although they may have business partnerships in nearby trading centers. Wolves live tightly packed together in den-cities. The leader of the sheepfold is the Shepherd. The leader of the wolf-den is the pack leader - the Alpha-wolf prince. The sheepfold lives by the unchanging "Law" of the Shepherd. The wolf-den lives under the constantly-changing "policy" of the Alpha-wolf. Sheepfolds are ruled by Law from the "bottom-up" with every man a king. Wolf-dens are ruled by the alpha-wolf's policy from the top down in a stair-step hierarchy. The sheepfold is composed of "sole ownerships" and "partnerships." The wolf-den is "corporate" in structure and operates under "general policy" outlined in the 10 planks of the 1848 Manifesto. ! 3 ☒

The corporation rule in dealing with sheep is; "A sheep does not bite the wolf who feeds him." Sheep who do are shot in the back of the head and burned. ! 4 ☒

Corporation

In Britain, "corporations" were a royal monopoly. It used to require an act of parliament for anyone else to incorpo-

2 "The land shall be divided for an inheritance ... To many thou shalt give the more ... to few thou shalt give the less ... the land shall be divided by lot: according to ... their fathers they shall inherit ..." Num 26:53-55

3 This standard "wolf-policy" was known for centuries before Karl Marx gave it a name in 1848 - "The Communist Manifesto."

4 In other countries they are tried on charges made-up for the occasion, hanged, and their ashes flushed down toilets.

rate. "Incorporation" limits liability and conceals ownership. The king had much land and many businesses whose titles he wanted concealed from the people. The king was the head of a church that preached that "monopoly" was forbidden⁵ by Law. Concealment was better than confrontation. This issue was also of particular importance to the wolf since sheep-law stated that not only was monopoly forbidden, but that sheep are not permitted to deal with wolves,⁶ and that wolves are forbidden to rule over sheep.⁷

Modern wolf-corporations are much different from sheep- partnerships and sole ownerships. There is the controlling stockholder (alpha-wolf), and there are the others of the pack who do his bidding. In between the controlling-stockholder and the workers is "management" whom the controlling-stockholder hired to carry out his wishes. They act as enforcers.

Types Of Wolf-Corporations

A wolf-army is organized corporate-style with the corporation providing uniforms, weapons, and pay. Its members are corporation employees. A sheep-army is a militia. The organization of a militia is entirely different.

In Virginia in the 1600s, news of an Indian raid triggered the gathering of "well-armed housekeepers" - all were volunteers. Eight thousand men armed with firearms, swords,

5 "Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, and they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth." Isaiah 5:8

6 II Cor 6:15- 17, Judges 2:2, Deut 7:2, Pr 6;1,2, Amos 3:3.

7 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15 clothing, blankets, and mounted on their own horses gathered under command of their own elected officers. They were well-trained, having voluntarily gathered to perfect their military skills each month. Since their lives depended on their weapons, they were the best money could buy - state of the art. Virginia had not invested a shilling. The militia WERE the people of Virginia. This was a militia army - organized from the bottom up. The private was a king along with the commander. The verbal contract was the private's obedience to the commander for the time of the emergency only - and then only in military matters.

Anyone whose weapons and equipment were paid for by the royal governor was immediately suspect. He was a hireling. He represented the interest of the wolf.

Nothing's changed. Today's wolf-representatives carry wolf-bought guns and drive wolf-bought cars.

After Virginia's militia thoroughly trounced the Royal Governor's hirelings during Bacon's Rebellion, the attempt was made to replace the militia with regulars and confiscate the militia's guns. That effort was abandoned after a time because there was too much danger from too many Indians and not enough King's men to keep both sheep and red-wolves pacified at the same time!⁸

Militia armies raised by the Continental Congress could seldom stand before the wolf-type armies of the king in open country of wolf-choosing. The attempt to force them to do so almost lost the war.

⁸ Nevertheless, many who fought with Bacon were hanged and almost all had their estates confiscated (4th Plank - Com. Manifesto). The Hoskins' estate was confiscated at this time and they joined the "little house Virginians."

Britain's magnificent Maj. Ferguson and his top-notch light- infantry, trained in irregular warfare and armed with breechloaders, was shot to pieces by frontier militiamen fighting in the woods at King's Mountain. Militia fighting their own way and refusing to fight wolf-style can be a formidable force. The massive U.S. army in Vietnam never did learn to cope with primitive native tunnel-warfare. Confederate ranger-warfare, sharpshooter battalions, expert engineers, and a "tally" money- system allowed the South's militias to fight 4 long years against overwhelming odds.⁹ Five-thousand S. African commandos fought a third of a million British soldiers to a draw. (That's correct - a third of a million!)

The thin grey line of Confederate militia-armies are pictured wearing all sorts of uniforms. Most made their own clothes, made their own shoes, furnished their own armament, and elected their own officers. Except for ammunition and food they were mostly self-sufficient. Most of their supply was provided by their families back home working to supply their needs. Even when made to fight wolf-style, as their general-officers had been trained to do, they almost always beat the hirelings of the massive corporate Union armies - organized from the top down. This scare caused volunteer militia to be banned in America, and the attempt is now being made to confiscate the guns of the "unorganized militia" so they won't be able to come together into organized "neighborhood-watch" militias and present a

⁹ See "Tallies," War Cycles / Peace Cycles, Va Pub Co., PO Box 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505, $18/copy.

stumbling block to future wolf plans.¹¹

Wolf-Politics In a Sheepfold

Sheep are made kings and priests by their Shepherd. They cannot elect a king to rule them because the King-of-kings - the Shepherd - gave them Saul as an example of what would happen if they did. Men, made kings and priest by the King-of-kings, are to rule themselves. So, for joint-action they elect "project managers." Viking sheep-kings elected a captain for a voyage - but for the voyage only. At voyage end, the captain reverted to being a sheep-king like everyone else. Sheep-kings elect a manager to build a bridge or to govern - but only for a set term - or a set project. He then becomes like other sheep. If he does wrong, the Law specifies punishment, or the next sheep-king manager who is elected will right the wrong done earlier. If the sheep fail to enforce the Law, a "Saul" may rule until the sheep do enforce the Law of the Shepherd.

The sheep-system, run strictly according to the Shepherd's law, banned monopolies. The elected sheep managers did not allow monopolies. The sheep themselves did not allow monopolies. This condition lasted until the wolves found a way around the prohibition. They paid corrupt sheep to authorize "corporations." Corporations often have hidden owners. The corporations with hidden owners bribed managers to allow them to be granted a banking monopoly that practiced banned usury. Using the monopoly- bank money, 11 (1) "When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace." Luke 11:18, (2) "How can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man, and then he will spoil his house." Matt 12:29 these corporations bought newspapers. With the owners hidden, the sheep didn't know that those buying the media were turning the media into a wolf-monopoly.¹² They did not know that their familiar sheep-talk had been turned into wolf-talk.

With a media-monopoly, only wolf-loving sheep were granted the needed publicity to be elected. Only "Soviet-style" elections were offered - two candidates - both wolf-chosen by hidden media- owners. "Heads I win - tails you lose." Wolf- selected representatives became rulers of the sheepfold.

Policy In The Plant

As a young man I was a management trainee in a large plant in Richmond. I was given "orientation training"¹³ and then shown my job. I knew the plant manager by sight, but not the shadowy "big- brass" who lived in N.Y.. Once a year they sent a representative to inspect. A group of smiling foremen and plant managers escorted the VIP in a dark business suit through the plant.

My job was to supervise a line of machines and keep them running at maximum output. One worker had a definite attitude. He was personally dirty like "Pigpen" in the "Peanuts" comic-strip and spread it around. He started work on a clean machine and left it unbelievably filthy. Workers 12 Not until the 2nd Bank of the U.S. failed was it learned that the majority of the stock was owned in Britain. This is the bank that furnished most of the money that allowed other unknown stockholders to buy up the newspapers and so infuriated Andrew Jackson. The sheep never discovered the names of the owners of the newspaper chains.

13 In wolf- city it's called a "public-school education," in the army "basic- training, in politics "precinct-worker."

from other shifts who took over from him complained. He just stood there smirking - daring me to do something about it. Foolishly, I tried.

I told him to wipe off oil he had dropped on the machine. He knew wolf policy, I didn't. He started wiping, but while wiping he signaled someone. Soon, a puffing, red-faced union representative rushed up wearing his official union face. He raised his arm as a signal and all machines on the whole floor shut down.

Standing in a vacuum of silence, we waited until the shift supervisor could be summoned. When he arrived, the union representative read me, the shift-supervisor, and everyone in hearing the riot act. He related what management had agreed to do. He told the shift manager what the policy was. He told me what I could do and couldn't do. One thing I definitely could not do was to endanger the life and limb of a worker by having him clean a machine while it was running. The shift manager agreed that I had sinned. I agreed that I had sinned. The workers snickered.

I was properly humbled, contrite, and promised never to do it again. The union then gave the OK and the machines started up once more. Policy. I had violated policy. They were right and I was wrong. It was that simple. The entire floor had been shut down for 15 minutes. I was responsible for the down-time of every machine on that floor. Machines that ran day and night and never shut down except for mechanical trouble had been brought to a standstill - for 15 whole minutes - and I was responsible. The production figures that went to New York at the end of that day showed a noticeable drop in production. The phone calls wanted to know whose fault it was? It was the fault of a young management-trainee named Richard Kelly Hoskins, foreman of the 2nd shift plug-making machines.

I asked my superior for a copy of the plant policy that I was supposed to obey. He informed that no such copy existed. It had never existed. It didn't exist! How could someone obey policy if he didn't know what the policy was? I was quietly informed that "everything is policy." There was little in union- management agreements in writing. Then I learned that at all times everyone is violating some policy. The trick was just not to violate the policy being enforced at the moment. The oldtimers laughed and patted me on the shoulder and advised me to never make a decision, keep a low profile, and get an OK for everything I did. I should also try to discover what management wanted, and never ever get involved with anyone who had been called on the carpet.

America's corporate plant is a wolf-den in miniature - from the top down. It is ruled by policy, ever-changing policy, a lawless cruel world, as America is now discovering. A world in which political-reliability is more important than talent and genius. Everything is whim, everything is negotiable. By sheep- standards, there is no loyalty, no honor, no protection. Workers scheme to get another's job. Anyone can be fired at age 55 for no reason. Maximum output is demanded for the lowest cost. People who work for corporate-America develop the defense mechanism of never having an opinion on anything that might be controversial. The only thing they will express an opinion on is the weather, sports, or to agree with the TV announcer. The Corporation demands a slave mentality. Life in the corporate wolf-den reduces men to wage-slaves.

THE ESTATES

Most readers of HR are first, second, and third generation removed from farms. They have been told of a time when people worked hard. Then, women were virtuous and men brave and honorable. It is hard for them to comprehend that in many parts of Europe this very same memory is so old that it has almost been forgotten. Our kinsmen in Europe explain the wolf-system by the concept of "estates" rather than "wolves and sheep."

In days past, society was divided into 3 estates. The 1st estate was the "church," the 2nd estate were the kings and nobles, and the 3rd estate was made up of the rest of the people. The 1st estate were the owners - the church - they owned everything. The outward proof of this wealth was their great cathedrals, by far the biggest structures anywhere.

The 2nd estate was hired by the 1st estate to collect the rents and tithes from the 3rd estate, and to guard the interests of the 1st estate and keep the peace. They were hired "enforcers." They received titles such as "king," "baron," and "knight," and were paid with a cut of the revenues.

Most of the world's wars have resulted from the kings of the 2nd estate having grown so rich and powerful that they felt no need to forward their collections to their employers - the 1st estate. This required the 1st estate to hire other muscle to overthrow the rebel king and replace him with a more reliable king. The Reformation succeeded because the 1st and 2nd estates were at each other throats, allowing the 3rd estate to retrieve its most precious treasure - the Word. The American Revolution succeeded because the tyrannical 1st and 2nd estates of England were weak, and because the American 3rd estate was sent significant aid from the King of France who wished to overthrow Britain. It is one of the very few times in history that a 3rd estate has fought its way to independence. The freedom lasted only a short while, but it was delicious while it did last.

Maintaining 1st Estate Monopoly

A sheep-fold has one class - kings and priests - but still European thinkers call it the 3rd estate. Each one was appointed a kingdom which he is to rule by the Shepherd's Law.

To deprive the sheep of this system requires the violation of their Law. The 1st estate is born when an individual or group takes what another has, in violation of the Law, and keeps it. This is theft. Once the theft starts, it is protected by other Law violations. Lies and murder appear. The simple definition of a "1st estate" may be said to be "those who have or have started a monopoly."

Anyone who will break the Law is a potential recruit to become a 2nd estate enforcer. It takes a liar to tell a serf that God willed him to be a slave instead of a king. It takes a liar to tell honest men that God requires a Bible reader to be burned. It takes a murderer to burn someone for reading the Bible or to coolly shoot a mother with a baby in her arms between the eyes - and say he did it because he was told that she might commit suicide if he didn't. It took a mass murderer to contract with William the Conqueror to invade another's land and replace their ruler with himself, and in the process take freemen and make them serfs. The death of every man who died in these wars lies at the feet of the ones who ordered them to war.

The Monument

The cathedral was the symbol of yesterday's 1st estate, it was the largest building in town. The monument to today's 1st estate success is the marble bank-building - the finest building in downtown USA. Their controlling stockholders rule the world.

The sages agree - the ultimate enemy of Christendom is the one who would war against God by violating his Laws, statutes, and judgments. One need search no farther.

UNFILTERED NEWS

WACO: Forty independent churches asked C.A.U.S.E. to go to Waco to protect the rights of the besieged members of the Branch Davidian Church. After arriving, they filed a precedent- setting Temporary Restraining Order to enjoin federal officials from overrunning the church with M-1 tanks. A stellar group of criminal defense attorneys has been lined up to defend BD members if they will come out peacefully. Kirk Lyons reports that "This appears to be a bigger fiasco for the U.S. Government than the Randy Weaver case.

BYRON DE LA BECKWITH VI, is, like the LA police, being tried for the 3rd time. The establishment accused Beckwith in the 30 year old slaying of a NAACP radical. He is go to trial in April or the thing could simmer for a total of 300 days and be tossed out. In the meantime "De la" has been in prison for two years.

RKH: Beckwith, Zundel, Metzger, David Irving - anyone who could remotely be a rallying point for the American people is being attacked. Anyone who does not connect the attack on these men, the Ruby Ridge and Waco assaults, the suppression of American militia groups, the attempt to confiscate the weapons of America's "unorganized-militia" - with the lack of bomb shelters and anti-missile missiles, the shift of American industry abroad, and the arming and incitement of the wolves - would have difficulty determining day from night.

LETTER FROM AFRICA:

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: Things are very difficult here and if we do not hold on to faith and hope, we will go under. The other side makes a point of it to tell us the 'reform' is irreversible, that we better get used to being under a communist government, and that there is nothing we can do about it. ...

"Thousands of white people lost their jobs and many are still to go. Those left are told how lucky they are and must work longer hours, no pay increases, and more taxes.

"The police stations now have a 70% black force who are openly ANC, while the whites are forbidden to belong to anything..

"Problems have increased a hundred-fold with the immigrants, some from as far away as Uganda. We are armed day and night now and on the alert all the time.

"A disturbing factor is attacks on animals, especially those in the veld which are not dairy herds. Cattle and even calves are mutilated by slashing their lower leg tendons, so that these poor animals can only stand on their knuckles and reach the grass around them, the flesh festers on them and they die starving. We first heard of such cruelty during the Mau Mau period in Kenya. It is part and parcel of savages.

"Most of the large number of whites killed I blame on the political priests who tell their flocks to turn the other cheek and that these blacks are also human and Christian. They really neuter their people to such an extent that they no longer defend themselves.¹⁴

"The propaganda turned out in the media and movies reminds one of the thing that happened in 1880 and later. WE are the only evil that walks around in this country - the Boer - Afrikaners. I was upset last night but then my husband reminded me that I would do well to remember that if everything was so cut and dried - would they still spend so much time in convincing us?

"Another bit of encouragement was given by an English-speaking architect who is a Christian. He said that during the time when he was in the border war, a company of commandos was on patrol in Botswana and suddenly found themselves surrounded by Cuban soldiers. Things looked black when the speaker started praying and before their eyes a swarm of bees attacked the Cubans and they fled.

"Our prayer must also be that the God of Israel will hear us and deliver us from our enemies. Few of us have arms as good as those the terrorists have, and the little we have they want to take away." Yours faithfully, K. J. - South Africa

FROM WACO: "Dear Richard: Those Davidian people being besieged are looked on here as the most gentle people and good neighbors you ever saw. They are quiet and helpful. The first reports released by the feds say that the ATF attackers were all shot with buckshot - from double-barrel shotguns. Now they are talking about .50 cal. machine guns and high explosives to make themselves look better. They were surprised when they couldn't just walk in and kick the doors down like they were dealing with druggies or someone. That's not to say that after they starve them out they won't display .50 cal. machine guns, tanks, cannon, and anti-aircraft missiles and say they found them inside. If they do - it will be another lie. The fed's haven't told the truth about anything yet." H. D. - Texas SUPPORT: "Dear Richard: I notice that you sympathize with the S. African cause, but not any particular party or leader. Why? - G. M. - South Africa

¹⁴ Matt 23 & Jer 23 spells out their curse.

RKH: None seem to remotely resemble the Paul Kruger-type patriot. DeKlerk of the National Party is conspiring with the ANC and appears to be an outright traitor. The opposition Conservative Party leader, Dr Treurnich, talks, talks, talks, but appears weak-kneed and incompetent. And, the boisterous Terre Blanch, leader of the AWB "commandos," is now being tried by the wolf- front National Party. He was earlier caught in a compromising situation with a woman. Sheep who survive today's wolf-attack will only survive under their master's direction.¹⁵ "The Word made flesh" has appointed each of us kings, and that the leader chosen for the conflict must be the approved kind. The fact that there is a wolf means that there is a gap in the sheepfold fence. A sheep-leader must not only be able to defeat the wolf, he must be able to repair the fence. Banishing the wolf and leaving the fence unrepaired guarantees another wolf. Leaders who are not obedient to the "Word made flesh" guarantee another wolf-attack tomorrow. In my opinion, an awakened S. Africa will recognize the leader she needs in time to lead them to victory. The "Blood River Compact" is still in force.

¹⁵ "If ... (they) will not do you justice, lead your army against them, making use of God as your supreme commander, but ordaining a lieutenant under him." Josephus 4:8:41. "Lead an army pure, and of chosen men." Josephus 4,8,41

DESPOILING CAPTIVES: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I read in your book "Vigilantes of Christendom" that: 'One is not allowed to spoil one's kinsmen when captive, or when killed in battle, because one deals with kinsmen by kinsmen's laws, but one must deal with strangers according to the stranger's own laws because they respect no other. Their law states, 'To the victor belongs the spoil.' Now, on what authority do you make this statement?" Sincerely, S. E. - Washington

RHK: I gave my sources. Under the laws of Israel, soldiers are militia. They volunteer to fight and they furnish everything they carry with them - including weapons, blankets, watches, clothes, and shoes (about $2500 in today's market). To take private property is theft. This rule does not apply to a slave or a mercenary armed and paid by the king. God made his people kings and priests. We live by the Law - the lawless live outside the Law. Josephus had much to say about despoiling the dead. The Southern army tried to keep from despoiling the dead of Northern volunteers in the first part of the war. At that time they furnished their own equipment and it was expensive. There are incidents when paroled prisoners with their possessions including their rifles, marched together with their captors, and waved to each other as their ways parted - one to go home - the other to go to another killing field. Later, the property of mercenaries and draftee-slaves was confiscated, since it was furnished by a king who paid for it with tribute stolen from the people.

BARN BURNERS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: What is the Christian judgment for 'barn burners.' I was taught that in the old days it was the worst thing one could do? Am I right in saying that the burners should be hanged?" T. V. - Massachusetts

RKH: Christian Law is restitution or execution. If it can be restored - one set of rules. If it cannot be restored as in the case of rape, murder, kidnaping, etc. - another. Is it possible to restore a burned barn? Yes.¹⁶ The person should pay. If he cannot pay he is to be reduced to servitude until he works it off. If he runs, he dies. When horse stealing could cause the death of the person thrown on foot - the rule changes. If barn burning could cause the death of the owner - the rule changes. A jury of peers is convened to judge and dispense justice.¹⁷

SUBMIT TO AUTHORITY: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: The scriptures say "Submit yourself to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake ... for the punishment of evildoers." I Peter 2:13-14. Ordinances are made by man to enforce God's Law. What happens if the authorities don't enforce God's Law? The scriptures say that Jesus did not call on the establishment to drive out the money changers - but did it 16 Restore Ex 22:14 Ox 5/1. Sheep 4/1, If ox or ass is found alive with thief 2/1. Thief steals food - restores 7-fold. Prov. 6:30.

17 This is why the wolf insists on including a wolf on every jury. The alternative to this is to throw oneself on the mercy of the wolf appointed court.

himself. Didn't this make Jesus a vigilante?" - J. H. - Texas RKH: John Calvin is the father of presbyterianism. He had this to say in his Commentaries on Daniel (1561, Lecture 30, on Dan. 6:22

"For earthly princes lay aside their power when they rise up against God, and are unworthy to be reckoned among the number of mankind. We ought, rather, utterly to defy them than to obey them."(GR 41.25)

A footnote in Calvin's book Institutes Of The Christian Religion, page 1519, states: "The position of John Knox is well illustrated in his History of the Reformation in Scotland in the account of his debate with Lethington, 1564, in which Knox cited the Magdeburg Confession ... The Magdeburg (Lutheran) statement affirms the duty of armed resistance to a ruler who violates the law of God."

He elaborates: "I know with what great and present peril this constancy is menaced, because kings bear defiance with the greatest displeasure, whose "wrath is a messenger of death" (Prov 16:14), says Solomon. But since this edict has been proclaimed by the heavenly herald, Peter - "We must obey God rather than men" (Acts 5:29)."

BIGGEST PROBLEM: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: What in your opinion is the biggest problem confronting America?"

A. A. - Vermont

RKH: Lack of information. For instance, many people are told that the Mohammedan, the Jew, and the Christian all worship the same God. This, in spite of the scripture that states "In the beginning the word was with God and the word was God." The Koran, the Talmud, and the Bible have little in common - but preachers haven't told people, so they don't know. The nice little pussy-cats that many Judeo-Christians try to rub behind the ears are really lions and tigers. One really ought to know that there is a difference - if he expects to be around very long.

WOLF GOVERNMENT: "Dear Dick; Just finished Wolf and the Sheep. I understand 'wolf-government' for the first time. Everything is held in common for the alpha-wolf to rule at his discretion. He rewards loyalty with 'franchises.' In reality, the alpha wolf continues to own EVERYTHING. Wolves in a sheep-fold will sooner or later convert the sheep-fold into a wolf's-den, including wolf-government - 'communism.' In Africa, all the 'wolf-democracies' have converted into wolf-communist governments. Everything is firmly in control of the alpha-wolf. That's the way wolves and their wolf-packs operate. The wolf-howl can fool the people, but not Mother Nature." C. T. - North Carolina

BUYING T-BILLS: "Hoskins Report: Tell me how to buy T- bills and T-bonds." T. T. - Texas

RKH: The easiest way is to call your stock broker. If you want t- bills without paying a commission - contact your nearest Federal Reserve bank and ask them how to do it. They have a pamphlet that tells you how. T-bonds may require a rapid sale. You may find it best to buy them from your broker. The commission should be modest. Ask.

REMNANT: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I feel that the conclusion of things will find only a very small remnant; the chaff will be removed and the good seed will inherit. Those who have retained the genetic inheritance given them by God, and who have consciously bent the knee to obey, will survive." B. R. - Idaho

RKH: That is what "predestination" is all about. Man was predestined to be sheep. A wolf was predestined to be a wolf. Neither can be anything else. If the wolf strain is there it will come out. If the wolf can persuade sheep to run with wolves - they will be eaten. It's predestined.

Wolves find this gibberish: "He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." John 1:10-13. This was written for sheep. The switch is either "on" or "off." Sheep obey and survive, or disobey and die. It's predestined. The Shepherd is culling his flock.

WOLF: "Dear Folks: Your book, Wolf & The Sheep, and your articles on wolf and sheep principles are destined to become classics. It is a beautiful way to open peoples' minds to the several thousand years of warfare soon to climax between Jacob and Esau." - O. V. - Illinois

MEDIA INCITEMENT: "Dear Richard: You are right. The Blacks are being agitated into attacking Whites. Spike Lee Jones, the Black movie director will be speaking at Texas A&M soon. "Kwame Ture" just spoke at Baylor University calling for revolution. He used to be known as Stokely Carmichael. Question: How did radicals get our colleges and universities." A. S. - Texas

RKH: Easy. The "controlling stockholder" orders his corporation to make a donation to a college. The college, looking for more, appoints a "corporation-man" to their board of visitors. A five million gift can control a two-hundred million dollar college.

PADLOCKED "Dear Dick: I am very sorry to hear about the padlock on Pete Peters' Church. I know the wolves have been after him for a long time. I pray that he proves to be highly indigestible." P.P. - Texas

RKH: Latest reports say that the key has been returned after everything movable was taken from the church to pay the fine levied against the church to punish them for defeating Colorado's pro-sodomite legislation. The church members are staying on the premises in case they try to carry out the threat to confiscate and auction the church building. Sodomites don't like indigestible Christians.

Back to Table of Contents

Chapter 224

CHAIRMAN MAO & The Waco Massacre

A person's opinion is a direct result of what has been placed in his databanks. Control the data - and you control the person.

America's Databanks

The government clamped on monopoly control of data concerning their assault on the Waco compound. The only data that went into America's databanks was PsyWar data. All news was tightly censored. Those targeted were denied a voice; reporters were kept 2 miles away; trespassers seeking information were taken into custody; alternate-media reporters were arrested; all news and announcements were channeled through government secret-service spokesmen.

According to the spokesman, the Davidians were "killed accidentally," were "victims of a fire purposely set by their leaders," or committed "mass-suicide." Also, they were believed to have had either "illegal," "unnecessary," or "too many stockpiled guns."

In the 51 days they were under siege, the FBI spokesman found no redeeming virtues in the besieged. They were totally bad; "they cursed," "used 4-letter words," "lied," "were sacrilegious claiming to be god," "were insane," "manufactured drugs," "assaulted babies leaving them bleeding," "held children hostage," "sexually assaulted children," "held women hostage," "were suicide-prone," "committed suicide," and - without trial, were pronounced "guilty" by the director of the FBI.

The FBI spokesman and his superiors affirmed that the government- authorized killings were "totally necessary," "good," "benign," "helpful," and "lawful." The actual perpetrators described themselves as "concerned," and "noble." They had "no bad features," had made "no mistakes," and certainly "no bad judgment."

But, Waco is important, but, for reasons other than "PsyWar," "newspeak," and "massacre." It is another milepost down America's misty stream of destiny. It lifts the shade that reveals tomorrow's stark reality.

Basic Differences

There are wolves and there are sheep. There are wolf-people and there are sheep-people. There is a sheepfold and there is a wolf's-den. Sheep are made kings and priests by their Shepherd. They have no superior but the King of Kings. The sheep obey their Shepherd's Law.

Wolves obey their alpha-wolf. Sheep have "Law" - wolves have "policy." Wolves prey on other wolves, and wolves eat sheep. Sheep try to keep from being eaten. This is the world of wolves and sheep.¹

Government Databanks

"A person is what he reads."

John F. Kennedy required his staff to read Machiavelli's The Prince. This book teaches Princes and their Central Committees how to lie to their subjects.

Col. L. Fletcher Prouty wrote "JFK, The CIA, Vietnam, And The Plot To Assassinate John F. Kennedy." In this book he says that the U.S. military has been ordered to study the writing of Chairman Mao Tse-tung. Again: "A person is what he reads."

You may find out what our government has been studying by obtaining Mao's Little Red Book from your local library. It explains Waco.

China's Wolf-den

China is a nation of wolves. To understand the wolf, one must understand the wolf-den. The wolf-den stands in contrast to a sheepfold.

The sheepfold is composed of "Biblical homesteads," the kingdom given by the Shepherd to his sheep in which each sheep is to be self-sufficient, a king and a priest. The land is never to be sold. Sheep may form partnerships, and joint ventures. They elect temporary project-managers (politicians, ship-captains, or generals) who are hired help. The ultimate power in a sheepfold is the sheep family-unit. This power rapidly vanishes as it rises upward. An intact sheepfold knows no king but their Shepherd - he is their King of kings.

¹ Wolf & The Sheep, Richard Kelly Hoskins, Va Pub. Co., PO Box 997, Lynchburg, Virginia 24505, $5 plus $3 p&h.

The natural habitat of the wolf is the wolf-den. The wolf-den is structured like a wolf-pack. The alpha-wolf rules supreme and all other wolves staircase down in authority. Wolves may do as they like, as long as they obey their leader. The alpha-wolf's wish, whim, or policy, is instant wolf-pack law. The wolf-den is ruled like one giant wolf-corporation - a reflection of the wolf-pack itself. There is a hidden controlling- stockholder or "capitalist," whom few have ever seen.²

The word "capitalist" is a communist word. It signifies a person's claim to rule is based on wealth. An alpha-wolf capitalist has access to virtually unlimited amounts of money. He hires an agent (king, warlord, president, general, leader) to carry out his wishes.

To aid this executive officer is a Central Committee or "board- of-directors." They may be hand-picked by the "capitalist." If not, the Chief Executive Officer does the picking. Mao was picked as China's CEO. Mao's China is a progression of all that went before.

2 In the communist jargon, the classical "capitalist" is the ultimate alpha-wolf who with his gold gained by usury, monopoly, and tax-tribute, always lurks in the shadows ready and eager to buy agents, assassins, and kings. To the Western world he is a chameleon, ever hidden - but his works are clearly visible. His works can be discovered and delt with - one by one. The longer they remain unchallenged, the harder they are to remove. Eternal vigilance is the price. A secure sheepfold requires that the Watchman make whatever sacrifice is necessary for his people. "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." John 15:13

Wolf-Communism

Communism did not start with Karl Marx. It has existed as long as wolves have existed. The traditional leader of the China wolf- pack was its Emperor. The Emperor appointed his own Central Committee of ministers. All of China stairstepped down in authority.

China is vast. The Emperor and his Central Committee ministers could not effectively oversee everything that was going on. This allowed far-flung areas to form their own little wolf- packs. They were called "clans" - miniature wolf-packs. Most were based on family. They were blood kin. The clan itself owned land. Since the clan leader ("patriarch") was an alpha-wolf, he was also the "landlord" who held 7th and 8th cousins virtual slaves. Some of the clans numbered as many as several hundred thousand. Some a million or more. They operated as independent wolf-packs which existed within the Emperor's greater wolf-pack. The leaders of the larger packs were called "warlords," the smaller ones - "patriarch." China was a conglomerate of a hundred-thousand independent wolf-packs having little in common. The powerful warlords gave only lip-service to the Emperor and the Emperor was afraid of them.

The religion of China blessed this age-old arrangement.

Twentieth Century & Revolution

An alliance of clans overthrew the Emperor. Its spokesman was Sun Yat Sen. He was a usual wolf-spokesman - a communist who called himself something else. He had a powerful brother-in-law, a warlord named Chiang Kai-shek. Both were married to the daughters of Charley Soong - a shadowy international alpha-wolf capitalist who, along with all his family, was educated in the United States and spoke impeccable English. He was the richest man in the world.³

Japan invaded China. The leader of China's biggest allied wolf- pack alliance was Chiang Kai-shek. He fought them every step of the way. The shadowy capitalist who backed him brought the U.S. into the war as their ally. FDR's family, the Delanos, had long- standing economic interests in the orient.

China's next largest clan was led by the "Marxist- Leninist- Stalinist communist" - Mao Tse-tung. When Japan was defeated by the U.S., the U.S. double-crossed Chiang Kai-shek and cut off his supplies. Comrade Mao's army was given everything they needed to defeat the Nationalists.

Keep it straight: First the Emperor who ruled as a typical communist potentate, then the Nationalist-communists, and last the Mao-communists. It was the same wolf-pack with different names, different leaders, and different problems.

Mao Cleans House

Mao's communist juggernaut conquered China. Standing at the height of success, Mao was up to his neck in the usual Chinese problems - the same problems his predecessors had had. Mao's Little Red Book, the book studied by our government, states on page 255 that the wolf-pack should operate in the following manner:

3 JFK, Prouty

*"We must affirm anew the discipline of the Party, namely:
 "1 - the individual is subordinate to the organization;
 "2 - the minority is subordinate to the majority;
 "3 - the lower level is subordinate to the higher level; and
 "4 - the entire membership is subordinate to the Central Committee.*

"Whoever violates these articles of discipline disrupts Party unity."

This is standard wolf-talk. Mao, the Chairman of the Central Committee, was describing how he wanted his wolf-pack to operate. His Little Red Book, p. 294, outlines the problems as he saw them, and the problems that he intended to solve:

"A man in China is usually subjected to the domination of three systems of authority (political authority, clan authority and religious authority) ... for women, in addition to being dominated by these three systems of authority, they are also dominated by the men (the authority of the husband). These four authorities - political, clan, religious and masculine - are the embodiment of the whole feudal-patriarchal ideology and system, and are the four thick ropes binding the Chinese people."⁴

With a little background it is easy to understand what he was talking about. Mao could not govern China for his master as CEO if everything he said had to be approved by tens of thousands of petty alpha-wolves, each of whom rebelled at every turn and who claimed the same power Mao claimed. A powerful wolf-pack can have only one alpha-wolf.

4 "Men and women must receive equal pay for equal work in production. Genuine equality between the sexes can only be realized in the process of the socialist transformation of society as a whole." Little Red Book, Mao, p 97. "Enable every woman who can work to take her place on the labour front, under the principle of equal pay for equal work." LRB, p. 288. Mao is the father of America's "woman's lib."

Mao's public schools (plank #10 Communist Manifesto) taught a generation of young Chinese the theory of Marxist-Leninism. Educated Mao's way - they were turned loose on China in an operation which Mao called his "Cultural Revolution." This revolution removed clan competition. Clan leaders (landlords) were lined up and shot. Religious leaders were lined up and shot. Millions were transported to other regions to be integrated with strangers to break up kinship unity. Tens of millions died in the cleansing of China. With these obstacles removed, there remained a single leader - Mao. With a single leader - all things are possible.

Mao's Little Red Book on p. 295 explains the reason:

"The political authority of the landlords is the backbone of all the other systems of authority. With that overturned, the clan authority, the religious authority and the authority of the husband all begin to totter."

Mao set the rule that is slavishly followed by his devotees throughout the world:

"Before a brand-new social system can be built on the site of the old, the site must be swept clean." Mao's Little Red Book, p. 33⁵

5 America's copy-cat "Operation Clean-Sweep" that resulted in the Sediton Trials was meant to be a similar operation. It failed when the presiding judge rejected the FBI witnesses as being unbelievable.

China Extends Its Shadow - Vietnam

Vietnam was split in two parts. The northern part was ruled by Ho Chi Minh. He was a CIA employee.⁶ His army was equipped from the massive unused stockpile of American munitions left over from WWII. The French colonials who returned after WWII found themselves outnumbered, out-gunned, and were quickly vanquished. N. Vietnam became a safe communist "base area" from which raids could be launched throughout Indo-China.

"When we talk of ... the base area as a factor, we mean that we have an armed people. That is the main reason why the enemy is afraid to approach our base area." Mao's Little Red Book, p. 90

IN. Vietnam's problem was the Catholic Tonkanese Chinese. They were the biggest clan landlords and controlled most of the valuable land in N. Vietnam.

S. Vietnam also had the same problem, but in its case the valuable land was tightly held by thousands of landlord clans who had held the land for centuries and who owned allegiance to no one.

America's CIA solved both problems at one time. CIA PsyWar experts scared the Catholic Tonkanese-Chinese in N. Vietnam by telling them that they were scheduled to be "pacified." In Vietnam, "pacification" means "extermination." The Tonkanese panicked. The CIA arranged transportation for 1,100,000 of these alien people to move to S. Vietnam.

⁶ JFK, Prouty

Vietnam vs. America

VIETNAM: Aliens were transported and dumped onto a native population that had no room for them. They turned to crime and violence to survive. S. Vietnam broke into civil war from one end to the other as natives and invaders fought each other for food.

AMERICA: The unrestricted immigration of aliens into the U.S. is a copy of the Vietnamese plan, which provided the S. Vietnamese with an enemy to fight.

VIETNAM: The CIA chose a leader for S. Vietnam who was descended from the ancient Emperors, but he was a Catholic while most S. Vietnamese were Buddhists. This was a constant irritant to the S. Vietnamese.

AMERICA: The establishment media chose a president for America who is part Cherokee Indian.⁷ His brother and sister both have criminal records. His irritating misstatements and anti-Christian positions are resented by the Christian people he was chosen to rule over.⁸ This is a replay of what the CIA did to disrupt Vietnam.

VIETNAM: Diem, the S. Vietnamese leader, recruited countless alien N. Vietnamese Tonkanese into his government and army. They abused the S. Vietnamese people they were supposed to help rule. This caused the S. Vietnamese government and its army to become an enemy of the native S. Vietnamese.

⁷ New York Times, March 13, C1.

⁸ "He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar and the truth is not in him." I John 2:4, "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

AMERICA: The present American president has recruited over 50% of his top government officials from strangers. The army he commands is heavily recruited from strangers and its commander is a stranger. Many Americans are beginning to look on their own government as the one who persecutes them. This is what happened in Vietnam.

Wolf "Law & Order"

VIETNAM: The U.S. army was sent to Vietnam to "suppress communism" and "restore order." In the process, entire S. Viet villages were leveled and their people moved from clan lands to safe areas where they were integrated with other clans. There was a general confiscation of firearms from S. Vietnam's natives. This prevented them from being able to defend themselves from the Tonkanese in the S. Vietnamese army. Unarmed S. Vietnamese were easier to kill than armed ones.

AMERICA: The forces of the UN stand ready to help "suppress communism" or any outbreak of "terrorism" in America. Farms, each representing an independent "point of resistance" - a "clan" - are being "legally" confiscated wholesale by international usury banks - the "landlord-capitalist" side of wolf-communism. Clan neighborhoods are being broken up and integrated by federal law, and their inhabitants integrated by neighborhood and public schools. A general hue-and-cry is going up from the government to confiscate firearms from Americans. Affirmative hiring is replacing Whites in America's police forces, job forces, and educational system. This is exactly what happened in the Vietnamese-Chinese scenario.

"Base Area" - "Militia"

"Not only must we have a powerful regular army, we must also organize contingents of the people's militia on a big scale." Little Red Book, p. 90.

VIETNAM: N. Vietnam was the "base area" established with the help of the CIA, and was off-limits to attack by American armed forces. This area supplied munitions to keep the war going in the south. S. Vietnamese "militia" guerrilla units set up underground tunnel complexes all over S. Vietnam that the U.S. armed forces was unable to discover or combat. It served as a safe "base-area" for operations against Americans even when placed under American base camps.

AMERICA: Cuba, Israel, China, and Brazil are "base areas" furnishing men and material to America's rebellious and belligerent wolf-packs. They are "off-limits" to reprisals. Inner-city wolf-dens also double as vast safe-zone "base area" arsenals which are largely un-policed. Nightly, highly trained and heavily armed wolves on patrol emerge to wage guerrilla-war, and to murder, rape and rob. The wolf-howl ignores the more than 50,000 sheep-casualties sustained world-wide each day and distracts the sheep's attention with an isolated Rodney-wolf beating. Some point to the "Crips" and the "Bloods" as two of the largest contingents of "the people's militia on a big scale." This hostile build-up of wolf-bands in the midst of America is what happened in Vietnam.

PsyWar

VIETNAM: PsyWar orchestrated by the CIA through Vietnam's media was directed against the native S. Vietnamese whom they wished to make rebellious. The media threatened the S. Vietnamese with "pacification," ie. "extermination." This intensified the peoples' resistance to central authority.

AMERICA: PsyWar in America is geared to do the same thing. The media blame the native Whites for everything. Nothing they do is right, and nothing strangers do is wrong. The media constantly agitate America's wolf-packs to attack Whites. The system that is supposed to dispense justice is blind - to Whites. This forces the victims to protect themselves - an act the media and government brands as "terrorist insurrection!" If the Vietnam experience is duplicated in America, soon, the natives will be the fox to be hunted down and killed, and the strangers, directed by the media, will be the hounds.

VIETNAM: In China, the U.S. denied supplies to Chiang Kai-shek's army. Chiang's army fell - leaving Mao. In S. Vietnam, the U.S. denied the S. Vietnamese army supplies. It fell - leaving Ho's army supreme.

AMERICA: In the U.S. the armament industry is being moved overseas to wolf-nations.

To further incite native America to resist, preferential-hiring practices replace White workers with strangers. Entire capitalist owned American factories are moved to foreign lands to make Americans wage-slaves. Mao's suggestion on p. 9 of his Little Red Book tells why:

"The ruthless exploitation and political opposition of the peasants by the landlord class forces them into numerous uprisings."

No "ruthless exploitation and political opposition" - no uprising. Could this be the primary reason that America's workers are being laid off and ruthlessly exploited by an artificial tightening of credit by International Banks and competition from "coolie" labor? Without an uprising in the U.S. there is less excuse to "sweep the land clean."

Phoenix Program - the "Finishing Touch

VIETNAM: The CIA, before departing, did its final cleaning of the Vietnamese house with an operation called the "Phoenix Program."

Koreans, Philipinos, Vietnamese, and Americans were recruited into killer-teams whose job it was to liquidate tens of thousands of S. Vietnamese "Landlords" - "clan leaders," "religious," and "political leaders."⁹ This put a ribbon on the job. When the Americans left, Vietnam no longer had the problem of countless clan wolf-pack leaders to claim the allegiance of the people and dispute the authority of the alpha-wolf. All blessings and all punishment now unquestionably come from the Vietnam's Central Committee. America had freed one more country from tyranny according to the directions in the Little Red Book. Vietnam was ready to take its place among the liberated nations of the ⁹ These are the types which when recruited into American government secret-service enforcement teams are so feared. With dead-souls and numb- consciences these types will not hesitate to shoot a mother holding a baby in her arms, incinerate people, or do whatever else they are paid to do.

world.¹⁰

"Without the socialization of agriculture, there can be no complete, consolidated socialism." LRB, p 29.

AMERICA: Farmer Kirk was called to his front door, shot down, and left to bleed to death. The nationwide farmers' rally in Kearny, Nebraska, in 1985 to protest the Kirk killing and farm foreclosings was attacked by the media, special interest groups of strangers, and Nebraska religious leaders as nothing else had been attacked in years.

Gordon Kahl, the protester against tax-tribute, was a Christian "separatist." He was shot in the back of the head and burned to death. Bob Mathews was a "separatist" - he was beseiged in a house and burned to death. The Weavers were "separatists," the family was massacred, and the attempt was made to burn them. The Davidians are the latest "separatists" to be burned. Burnt martyrs are getting to be a dime a dozen. To the alpha-wolf, a separatist is the same as a Chinese or a Vietnamese clan-member. He owes his allegiance to God - not the alpha-wolf. His battle cry "It is better to obey God than man" is received as a cry of defiance and rebellion by the wolf-leader. The American Christian "separatist" who obeys his God to "Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment." Num 16:21, will logically be the quarry the wolf

¹⁰ It is easy to see why American POW-MIA can never be allowed to return to tell America what they really know.

will most actively hunt.¹¹

The Media Creates A New America

The media has the power to elect presidents, senators and congressmen. The media have the power to send the country to war. The media have the power to cause the LA riots that cost hundreds of millions of dollars in damages. The media have the power to make a sleeze like Rodney King a national hero, while at the same time blacking out the Ruby Creek Massacre. Make no mistake, it knows what it is doing when it condemns the Waco Davidians one day - and condemns the government the next.

It wasn't accident. To set the stage for this change - the media "exposed" the FBI's founder as being a homosexual-sodomite. They gave "eye-witness" accounts of what Hoover looked like dressed up in women's clothes. Coincidence? Hardly.

The new face given the FBI is not the present Director Sessions, whose office is in Washington. For the last two months the FBI spokesman in Waco, the "information officer" has had his face splashed all over TV. It is his face - the hard face, the hard eyes, the one with the unforgiving, strident voice. HIS is the NEW FACE of the FBI.

That sneering mouth and strident voice has daily given "information" about "the compound," formerly the ¹¹ "The enemy is eager to destroy all that call upon the Lord. For he knoweth that upon the day that Israel shall repent, the kingdom of the enemy shall be brought to an end."

Book of Dan 2:16-17.

Davidian's "Mt. Carmel Retreat." He, the FBI accuser, accusing the besieged of murder, suicide, pedophilia, adultery, lying, sacrilege, cowardice, planning to blow up the FBI, hiding behind children, hiding behind women, truce breaker, brutality, bestiality - outrageous things.

The media praised his every attack with "amens" - all in unison. He would accuse the Davidians of something, and the media would reply, "Lawd - Ain't it awful." He would tell something else and the media would wail, "awful, awful."

Then, the Davidians were all dead. In an instant, the media "Plan #2" goes into action. It is now the FBI that is "awful." Every story that the FBI had told with "amens" from the media was now re-examined, exposed - . What gives? The Davidians are "awful" one day, and, with no more information to go on than they formerly had, the media now declare that the government is "awful" for their part in "this dreadful, dreadful business."

The ultimate horror story being told is that the FBI used tanks to punch holes in the "Mt. Carmel Retreat" and then inserted nerve gas along with an incendiary mixture. As the nerve-gas reached the besieged they lost control of their muscles and dropped where they were standing - all over the complex. In a conscious state and unable to move they awaited the flames to be incinerated by the fire. This is what is supposed to be the reason that there were so few survivors.

The part that doesn't need confirmation is that the flames instantly belched out of the windows as the tanks backed away. This was visible on video.¹²

Summary

Let us make matters crystal clear.

In the writer's opinion, the media is setting the government against the people and the people against the government - just as was done in Vietnam. Blacks are being incited against Whites and Whites against Blacks. The object - CIVIL WAR!

Why? Who gains by war and blood-shed? Mao tells us:

"Before a brand-new social system can be built on the site of the old, the site must be swept clean." LRB, p. 33.

From the grave, Chairman Mao loosed the wolves. His devoted followers are leading them on. A thing once set in motion is difficult to be deflected. It is the culmination of the ages - it must be either the Wolf or the Sheep, Jacob or Esau. It is a thing that will have to be seen through to the end.

Everyone's choice is simple, there are only two; the Sodomites or the Saints - Heaven or hell. There will be no second choice, and no second chance. What the establishment did in China and Vietnam - they will try to do here. The Mao mentality never changes.

¹² The president clarified the lesson made by the Waco holocaust when he commented, "People will now be deterred from joining cults by what they have seen." His definition of an American "cult" will doubtless be the same as Mao's definition of a "Chinese clan." Supporters of Thomas Jefferson's policies could be considered a "cult."

MEETING GORBACHEV

Gorbachev came to Poplar Forest, Thomas Jefferson's other home, to speak at his 250th birthday celebration. It was an attempt to reconcile East and West. I sat 15 feet from where he spoke and could hear every word clearly. iGorbachev;meeting

The affair went off as one would have expected it to. Gorbachev was expected at 5:30 and arrived at 6:15. He was expected to use the long single lane entrance to the mansion that went through field and wood to arrive at the front entrance where a welcoming party waited. Instead, his cavalcade, arriving from Charlottesville, used the back service entrance, blocking the cars of the guests arriving by the private drive, a single lane road. It caused the most colossal traffic jam one can imagine until the Russian cars could be moved .¹³

Gorbachev is a little above medium height and has a nice face. His head tends to round at the hat-brim in the slavic manner, and his tattoo-like birthmark on his head is as distinctive as his pictures make it out to be. He wore a dark blue business suit in today's Russian manner. The guests wore black tie.

He is a good speaker even when speaking through an interpreter, who was a bald headed type with a Bolshevik mustache. He spoke of Thomas Jefferson, "who showed the world the way to democracy." He then spoke of the book that he was writing - "a book to make me and my decisions look better than they really were," which brought a laugh.

¹³ I was later told by an "expert" on Russia, that to establish precedence; "Russian leaders give instructions, they don't obey them - just to prove that they don't have to."

He next chided "timid investors" who overlook Russia as the world's new "land of opportunity," and the need for "economic cooperation." He went on to say that Russia's present desperate need for money should not have to wait on Russian disarmament, "a matter that will necessarily take considerable time."

It was a good talk and he was given a standing ovation.

Thomas Jefferson needs no help to stand alone after today's illuminaries have departed, and, if I were a wagering man I'd bet that he would have said "amen" to Kipling's, "East is east and west is west and never the twain ..."

LETTERS

Dear Richard: I need your help. My son Yorie was sent to prison following a shoot-out between my husband, Gordon Kahl, and US Marshals in Medina, ND in Feb 1983. This incident stemmed from a dispute between Gordon and the IRS. Yorie was finally granted a parole hearing in early December 1992. From the tone of the hearing, he had good reason to believe that he would in fact be granted parole.

In late December, only days before he expected a decision from the parole board, he was charged with violating prison rules by concealing a knife in his cell. My son may be opinionated, but he's not crazy! He demanded that the knife be examined for his fingerprints and his demand was refused by prison officials.

After a hearing, he was found guilty of rules violation solely on the testimony of the one guard who allegedly "found" the knife. Yorie has been denied parole AND placed in 24 hour solitary confinement where he sits to this day. I have good reason to believe he will be re-located to a maximum security prison in Colorado to spend the rest of his life in solitary confinement. Animals receive better treatment!

I retained a lawyer to investigate this matter. He agreed to work for half his normal fee. In addition, there will be investigator's fees and other legal expenses which will have to be paid. Any litigation with the federal government will be time consuming and costly.

Yorie and I have no money. The government took all that Gordon had and shot our N. Dakota farm home to pieces before killing Gordon down in Arkansas. If there is ANY other way I would not be writing you, I simply need help for my son. He loved his father and stood by him.

Donations are NOT a tax exempt contribution. They simply help me to help Yorie in this latest effort of the government to destroy my family for refusing to obey man rather than God. Sincerely, Joan Kahl Britton WACO: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I just heard of the monstrous murder of 86 people in the Koresh compound - a burnt offering sacrifice to the devil. The siege was apparently prolonged in the attempt to spark a rebellion by white Christians. If they had, they would have been shot down by the ready and waiting Federals. This would then have been used as an excuse to attack Christians nationwide. The other half - the attempt to topple the World Trade Center would have taken 50,000 lives. Both operations failed so other things will be done toward the same end. The cover story is that Koresh and company committed suicide. They committed suicide like Gorden Kahl committed suicide and their bodies were burned to conceal the evidence. It's hypocrisy, that's what. If the feds want unregistered, illegal firearms, and criminals who use them all the time to commit murder, rape, and robbery - come here to NY City! They are all over the place. Those guys in Texas didn't hurt anyone. If the policemen who arrested Rodney King are guilty of using excessive force, what can one say of the federal murderers in the Waco and Weaver cases? I'm sure more persecution is on the way." S. R. - New York City MD on AIDS: "Dear Richard: For your information there are a couple of Mexican MD's who report that AIDS can be spread by mosquitoes. If they can carry a protozoa (malaria) why not a virus? I challenge doubters with this test: A physician working at the construction of the Panama Canal figured that the mosquitoes carried yellow fever. His discovery was ridiculed. He went into a closed room with a yellow fever patient and 12 mosquitoes. Within a week the mosquitoes had transferred the disease from the infected patient to him. Let the AIDS doubters go into a room with an AIDS infected patient and 12 mosquitoes. If the doubter gets AIDS - case proven!" MD - Georgia

Back to Table of Contents

Chapter 225

Trade-Religions Sell "Indulgences"

All religions have two basic creeds.

Christianity has two basic creeds. The first is THE WORD - God's Laws, statutes, and judgments. The second is "TRADE-CHRISTIANITY." "Trade-christianity" sells "indulgences" to permit merchants to violate God's "Laws, Statutes, and Judgments." Indulgences are called "baal-priests" by the faithful.¹

"Trade-christianity" actively censors the 70% of the Bible dealing with government which might hinder the merchant paymaster and his trade. "Trade-priests" do what they are paid to do, and Christians despise them for it.

1 In former years an "indulgence" was a written document sold by the Roman Catholic Church to permit the purchaser to sin at some point in the future. Today's "indulgences" work the same way. First, merchant-courts determine that The Word hindering trade is illegal. Religious endorsement is needed to avoid danger from an irate God and his followers. To "bless" things cursed by The Word is the reason "trade-christianity" was created and financed by the international-merchant community. "Indulgences" are purchased with "tax-exemption," substantial donations, immunity from harassment, and media access.

Trade Religion In Virginia

Before the Revolution, almost everyone in Virginia was Episcopalian - "Church of England." The king was its head. He appointed bishops and they appointed ministers. There were Presbyterian and Baptist dissenters, but their lives were hard. Very hard. One of my grandfathers preached to his congregation from the barred window of the jail at Bowling Green. A grandmother who married a Baptist preacher was disinherited and her name stricken from the family Bible.

Dissenter Beliefs

Dissenters read the 70% of the Bible that deals with government and discovered that they were being deprived of specific basic rights promised them by their God. The king's own Episcopalian priests said that only the king was entitled to these rights. Dissenters quoted the Bible and insisted that Christ was their only king, that the King of England had stolen their "God-given rights" and made monopolies for himself - that taxes were wrong, and that black slavery was evil - that neither the Blacks nor the Indians should even be allowed in Virginia. The king's church insisted that the king had the right to do as he liked.

Dissenter beliefs reflected The Word as taught by John Calvin and John Knox. The king's Episcopal Church doctrine reflected the business needs of the king. The king's Episcopal Church enforced the king's own private "state-religion" on the people of Britain and America. It was a

"trade-religion" different only in detail from the one we have today that goes by many different names.²

At the outbreak of the Revolution, the king called his priests back to England. America's grand churches had no preachers and stood empty. Gradually they were filled by dissenting congregations who taught - The Word - which included the 70% of the Bible that deals with government. This God-revealed knowledge made America's government and method of transacting business different from the rest of Christendom.

Gods & Religions

- Gods protect their peoples with laws that may not be violated.
- Trade-religions are invented by merchants who want to do business in violation of the laws of gods.
- Their natural enemy is the god they defy. The defied god curses the defiant.
- Those who insist on following the banned god are hunted down and persecuted to facilitate trade.

"MAO & "Trade-Communism"

Chinese have only one word for foreigners - "foreign-devil." A foreigner has always been a "foreign-devil." That's it. China's hodgepodge of religions agreed on one thing - a "foreign-devil" was bad.

2 Surviving "Church of England" churches in Virginia dating from colonial times are mostly fine large brick buildings, built with tax-free grants and donations. Dissenter churches were small and poor. State-priests were well fed and prosperous. Dissenter teachers were often hungry. Episcopal priests were often noted for their over-indulgence in food and drink. They winked at each other's peccadilloes and those of their parishioners. Dissenters were zealous and puritanical. Episcopal priests were usually devoid of Biblical knowledge. Dissenter teachers were by comparison - walking Biblical encyclopedias. Little has changed.

Mao shot China's priests, and converted the Chinese into "communists."

Communists are "comrades." "Comrades" get along with "comrades." A "foreign-devil" is a comrade - if he is a socialist. Chinese no longer greet foreign trade-representatives with the abrasive "Greetings, foreign devil." This sort of talk has inhibited trade in the past. Communism has changed the Chinese world outlook. "Communism" is China's new "trade-religion." A nation's "trade-religion" is designed to get along with other people's "trade-religions." That's why they were created. China is now open for business - for the first time in her long history. All she needed was a little missionary work by Chairman Mao. Any Chinese who does not agree is shot. Communist China has prepared herself to enter the 21st century. "Good morning, Comrade." "Bless you, my son."

"Islam" vs. "Trade-Islam"

I was a stock broker for 33 years. One stock I bought for my customers was a small well managed oil-drilling equipment maker. It paid a good dividend, had no debt, and fluctuated between $8 and $15. It was very predictable and very profitable when bought low and sold high.

At that time the Arabs had a great deal of oil money. They offered this company a contract to furnish oil-drilling equipment. A dispute arose which was taken before an Islamic court. This court imposed such a severe fine on the American company that the company had to be turned over to the Arab customers to satisfy the judgment. This story is not unique.

Islam Adopts "Trade-Religion"

Abusive conduct, such as that above, was prevented in the Near East until a few years ago. The U.S. government would send a squadron of ships to the offending nation. After shooting up a few cities and sinking a few ships the offending nation would see the error of its ways and correct its courts, its people, and their god. Their king would command that his courts treat American foreigners like Westerners would like to be treated - in order to do business.

Regardless of what Mohammed and the Koran demanded; regardless of what the mullahs preached on street corners - Western "justice" was incorporated into "Islam," changing it into "trade-Islam" enforced by the state - a "state-religion" that international merchants needed to do business in that part of the world. Without it the land of Mohammed would get no radios, TVs, autos, or oil-drilling equipment. Westerners, from their viewpoint, called it enlightened "gunboat-diplomacy." Islamic teachers of the old Islamic religion called the changes "heresy."

In this manner, a hated "trade-Islam" was created for muslims and placed above the Koran, the bedrock of the muslims' true religion. It was enforced by the police power of the state. This enabled Islam to profit from Western trade and technology. This in turn allowed Islam to enter the 20th century.

Islam has TWO religions: A trade-Islam enforced by the state, and "Islam" of the Prophet. The first was the religion created for those who deal with the international merchants. The other is the suppressed religion of the Arabic peoples. The two war for the soul of Islam.

The "enlightened" President Nasser of Egypt supported "trade- Islam" to bring Egypt into the 20th century. He was shot by followers of the "Islam of the Koran."

Islamic fundamentalists won an election in Algeria. They were kept from taking power by politicians enforcing Algeria's "trade- Islam." Trade-Islam and "Islam of the Koran" war with each other.

Islamic Fundamentalists Are Winning

On May 11, 1993, the News & Daily Advance, Lynchburg, carried a squib buried on p. A3, whose headlines stated: "Egypt Pardons Americans Jailed On Religious Charges." The squib went on, "President Hosni Mubarak pardoned three Americans accused of promoting Christianity among Muslims ... Mubarak apparently acted under pressure from the U.S. The government has refused to discuss the case."

This short article reveals five things. First, the "trade-Islam" of Egypt is being gradually replaced by the "Islam of Mohammed." Second, the practice of Islam has filtered into the upper levels of government where state-power jailed practitioners of "trade- Christianity." They were then released to make Arabs acceptable business partners to Westerners. Fourth, it required intervention by the U.S. government to secure the release of the accused. And fifth and last - to conceal the seriousness of the matter from Christians, the international merchant's-media buried the news in a two inch squib on page A3.

Conquered Christians' "Trade-Religion"

Traditionally, Christians who have been conquered and forced to live under Islamic rule must drastically change the practice of their religion. They must obey their new masters, emigrate, or die. If they choose to stay where they are, they must obey the requirements of their new masters. The following is how Christians who fell under the rule of Islam changed their Christianity into a "trade-religion" to try to stay alive. The record is contained in a document called The Covenant Of 'Umar written by a "Christian" leader who protested that he was doing all that his Arab conquerors required of him so that he would be allowed to live, eat, and transact business. It reads as follows:

The Covenant Of 'Umar

"When thou camest into our land we asked of thee safety for our lives and the people of our religion, and we imposed these terms on ourselves; not to build in Damascus and its environs church, convent, chapel, monk's hermitage, not to repair what is dilapidated of our churches nor any of them that are in Muslim quarters; not to withhold our churches from Muslims stopping there by night or day; to open their doors to the traveler and wayfarer; not to shelter there nor in our houses a spy, not to hide one who is a traitor to the Muslims; to beat the nakus only gently in our churches, not to display a cross on them, not to raise our voices in prayer or chanting in our churches, not to carry in procession a cross or our book, not to take out Easter or Palm Sunday processions; not to raise our voices over our dead, not to show fires with them in the markets of the Muslims, nor bring our funerals near them; not to sell wine nor parade idolatry in companies of Muslims; not to entice a Muslim to our religion nor invite him to it; not to keep slaves who have been the property of Muslims; not to prevent any relative from entering Islam if he wish it; to keep our religion where we are; not to resemble the Muslims in wearing the kalansuwa (a tall cap), the turban, shoes, nor in the parting of the hair, nor in their way of riding; not to use their language nor be called by their names; to cut the hair in front and divide our forelocks; to tie the zunnar round our waist; not to engrave Arabic on our seals; not to ride on saddles; not to keep arms nor put them in our houses nor wear swords; to honor Muslims in their gatherings, to guide them on the road, to stand up in public meetings when they wish it; not to make our houses higher than theirs; not to teach our children the Koran; not to be partners with a Muslim except in business; to entertain every Muslim traveler in our customary style and feed him in it three days. We will not abuse a Muslim, and he who strikes a Muslim has forfeited his rights."³

A form of the above covenant is now being put into force in the West by the merchants who rule it. Except for a few key words and phrases used to make trade-priests appear believable - today's "trade-christianity" would be unrecognizable to the reformers John Calvin and John Knox.

Koran Study Restricted

Note particularly that in the above the study of the Koran was forbidden to Christians.

There are many things in the Koran that are "inconvenient" for conquered peoples to learn about their conquerors. One thing that could cause a conquered people to revolt is that in the Koran's Book of Repentance there are 16 directives to kill Christians - 9, 5, 12, 14, 20, 24, 29, 36, 41, 44,

3 The Caliphs & Their Non-Muslim Subjects, A. S. Tritton, Frank Cass & Co, 67 Great Russell Street, London, WC1 1970

73, 81, 86, 88, 111, and 123.⁵ A Christian learning this might flee in panic and thereby disrupt trade. There are many other restrictions. In other words, there is nothing a conquered people can do to truly satisfy Islam other than deny their own god and convert to Islam. The screws will tighten until those conquered by Islam convert or die. The exceptions are a few distorted and twisted semi-acceptable "trade-religions" that remain in those lands, and even after making all these concessions their lives are hard.⁶

When "Islam of the Prophet," emerges supreme over the "trade- Islam" of the merchants, Islam's commerce with the rest of the world will grind to a halt, as it did before. Trade will be replaced with conflict, as it did before. The choice will be between "conflict," "armed neutrality," or "bribes" to pay muslim rulers to suppress "Islam of the Koran" in favor of a docile "trade-Islam."

Trade-religions result from the needs of merchants, and in the long run satisfy only the merchants and their employees who profit at the expense of their fellows.

All Religions Conceal Their Secrets

Poker players will not let other players see their hands. Competing religions will not allow other religions to learn their secrets.

Islam hides its religion from strangers. It tries to see its

5 The Koran is available from Va. Pub. Co., PO Box 997, Lynchburg, VA. 24505. $5.95 plus $3 ph.

6 This is the reason for the command; "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me. I Ki 4:21,24. If unable to prevent that; "Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord." 2 Cor 6:17 opponent's hand while hiding its own. Releasing the three Americans satisfied the requirements of "trade-Islam" but violated the Koran. It was done to satisfy trade agreements. The release does not represent true Islam. Islam of the Prophet trades with "the infidel" only until it is able to "take."

Jews Restrict Study Of Talmud

Jews and Christians do the same. The Jewish Talmud instructs its followers on how to handle those who would learn its secrets:

(1) "Kill the gentile who studies the Torah." Talmud (Exh. 60). (2) "A Goy who pries into the Law is guilty of death." (Sanh 59a, Pranaitis, p. 77).

Trade-religions don't want their trading partners to learn about the secrets of their "true religion." All religions contain things they do not want those with whom they trade to know about. The Talmud has its share:

(1) "If a Jew is able to deceive them (idolaters) by pretending he is a worshiper of the stars (their religion), he may do so." Iore Dea (157,2. Hagah) (Vilna edition of 1873). (2) "How to interpret the word 'robbery'. A goy is forbidden to steal, rob or take women slaves, etc. from a goy or a Jew. But a Jew is NOT forbidden to do all this to a goy." Tosefta, Abada Zara VIII, 5., (3) "A Jew may rob a goy - that is, he may cheat him in a bill, if unlikely to be perceived by him." Schulchan ARUCH, Choszen Hamispat 28, Art. 3 and 4., (4) "On the house of the goy one looks on as on the fold of cattle." Tosefta, Erubin VII, 1., (5) "All property of other nations belongs to the Jewish nation, which consequently is entitled to seize upon it without any scruples. An orthodox Jew is not bound to observe principles of morality towards people of other tribes. He may act contrary to morality, if profitable to himself or to Jews in general." (6) "A Jew should and must make a false oath when the goyim (Gentiles) asks if our books contain anything against them." Schulchan Aruch, Choszan Hamiszpat 348. Szaaloth Uts-zabot, the Book of Jore Dia 17.

To a non-Jew, this "Talmudism" or Zionism⁷ can be scary. However, most Jews aren't Zionists. They practice a "trade-religion" called Judaism. In thirty-three years as a stock broker I personally never knew a Jew to break a verbal business contract once he agreed to it. That is "trade-judaism." Others may have had different experiences based on the beliefs of the individual Jew.

Talmudism, or political-Zionists, enforcing the Talmud as their "law of the land," gradually end all business relationships with strangers. Talmudism is selfish. It demands, takes, and abuses. It makes slaves of all whom it encounters. Like Islam, no concessions are enough. "Palestine" shows what a world ruled by Zionists is like. Like Islam, it must 7 ZIONISM: Zionism believes in a Jewish Palestine "ingathering" to speed the coming of Moshiach (their messiah), due in the Hebrew year 6000 (mid 23rd century). Jewish holy books declare: "When the Messiah comes, every Jew will have 288 slaves." Simeon Haddarsen, fol. 56-D. And; "As soon as the King Messiah will declare Himself, He will ... start a merciless war on non-Jews and ... slay them in masses ... He will say to the Jews: 'I am the King Messiah for whom you have been waiting. Take the silver and the gold from the goyim.'" Josiah 60,6, Rabbi Abarbanel to Daniel 7, 13. Still, some Zionists claim to be atheists.

conceal itself to avoid unfavorable reactions. Christianity is no different.⁹

Christian Restrictions

Christianity is more restrictive than all other religions - including Islam and Zionism - which is why it is the most censored religion in the world. It has to be censored if international-merchants are to do business within its realm. They find uncensored Christianity to be unbearably narrow, exclusive, and restrictive. They must bind The Word and insist that "The Law is done away" - to do business.

The Word forbids monopoly (Isaiah 5:8) - monopoly in land, newspapers, money, banking, and food. It allows usury when practiced against a stranger and denies it when practiced against a Christian (Deut 23:20). It makes usury a capital crime (Ezek 18:13). It demands that media false witnesses be punished - some with capital punishment (Deut 19:16-21). It forbids taxes (Matt 17:25-26). It forbids jail terms of more than 7 years (Deut 15:12-15) - longer terms than 7 years are classified as "kidnaping" and kidnaping is a capital crime (Ex 21:2). It forbids jail terms for murder (Num. 35:29-30). It calls sodomy a capital crime (Lev 20:13); it forbids strangers from entering a church (No 1:51); it absolutely forbids a stranger from preaching (Ex 30:25-33); it forbids foreclosure of family farms (Lev 25:13-28); it forbids trade with strangers (Pr. 6:1); it forbids

9 "Thou shalt make ... an oil of holy ointment ... And ... whosoever putteth any of it upon a stranger (Heb: zūwr - racial alien), shall even be cut off from his people (killed)." Ex 30:25-33, "Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you." Matt 7:6, "Thou shalt no stranger eat of the holy thing." Lev 22:10

them to live in the land (I Ki 4:21); it requires evangelizing kinsmen (Mark 16:15- 16); and forbids evangelizing strangers (Matt 10:5,6); it forbids interracial marriages (Deut 7:3); it demands divorce from strangers (Neh 13:3); and it identifies its own with the 3-proofs of Israel.¹⁰

Such are the rules that prevent proscribed merchants from practicing their trade in the West. To trade they must first secure "indulgences" that bless what The Word curses.

Rome's Christian Problem

Rome had this problem. The Roman Emperor WAS the "international- merchant" - he had confiscated everyone else. He had a monopoly on everything - banks, businesses, land - everything! The people held business franchises, rented from him, worked for him, or were his slaves.

The Christian religion, "The Word made flesh," spread through the Roman Empire. People obeyed The Word. They demanded their God-given rights. They fought the emperor's monopoly - taxes, slavery, usury-banking, etc. It hurt business. Persecution could not stamp it out.

Rome's Solution - A State Religion

This abrasive religion had to be changed if the Emperor was to transact business-as-usual. The emperor's name was

¹⁰ 3-PROOFS OF ISRAEL: (1) God's name - CHRISTIANS - "They shall put my name upon the children of Israel." Num 6:27 (2) Isaac's name, SONS OF ISAAC - ISAACSONS - SAXONS, "In Isaac shall thy name be called." Romans 9:7, and (3) Adamic descent. "Man" in Strong's Concordance is the Hebrew "Adam." "Adam" means to "blush red." "Show blood in the face." Genuine Israelites can produce all three proofs. "CHRISTIAN"- "SAXON"- "MAN."

Constantine. He was the murderer of his own wife and eldest son. Unable to subdue Christianity, he adopted it and became its head. He made it the "official religion of the Empire." This new "trade- religion" was his creation. He appointed its officials and told it what it could and could not do. The 70% of the scriptures dealing with government was suppressed. It is not surprising that Constantine's censored "trade-christianity" gave its blessing to everything that Constantine wanted to do.

Christians who continued to follow The Word were branded "heretics" and "enemies of the state." The two religions - The Word, and Constantines' "trade-christianity" have been at war ever since.

Ban The Book

To keep The Word from again spreading and obstructing trade, the people who read the Bible were killed. For centuries Western peoples submitted to "church-blessed crime" because "trade-christianity" censored The Word and the people didn't know better. Every-so-often individual Catholic priests would realize that the church was not giving the people their rights and would tell them. The church leaders would find out and kill them all. Constantine's monopoly remained intact.

Overthrowing The Trade Religion

The King of England wrestled the wealth of the Catholic Church into his own hands and made himself its head. He was now god's representative on earth. He continued to do all the things that were forbidden. To protect his monopoly he burned those who read The Word.

Those he persecuted fled to Geneva. Once there, people like John Calvin, John Knox, and others of their kind translated the Bible into English. To protect his monopoly the king banned this Bible from Britain.

In spite of the ban, the Bible was smuggled in and everyone read it. Readers peeked into corners hidden for more than a thousand years - corners illuminated by the margin comments of the leading lights of the Protestant Reformation.

The king's authority, his "trade-christianity" religion, was being dismantled by people who read "The Word". Readers saw that the readers themselves were "kings and priests," since "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests" Rev 1:5,6. The reader was perfectly capable of understanding. The scriptures took on an entirely new meaning. The banned 70% that deals with government was common knowledge for the first time in 2,000 years.

Britain read The Word, and believed The Word, and rose up and overthrew the king. Judges were appointed who used The Word as the law of the land.

Removing THE WORD

The international merchants were shut out. They could no longer use the king as their agent if the people had done away with the king. It was impossible for them to transact business under The Word, so, they financed an English counter-reformation led by a turncoat who reinstated "trade-christianity" under his "protectorate." Following him, a replacement king was financed to retain the same agreeable "trade-christianity." (There is no limit to applicants for the job of "king.") The Geneva Bible was banned and the KJ Bible introduced. The king was again head of the church and his priests again obediently blacked out the 70% of the Bible dealing with government.

It worked. The Reformation died - choked in blood. The international merchants had won once more. BUT, the truth was loose in the land. There were still those who refused to follow the pied pipers who cheerfully stonewalled The Word for a price.

Trade-religions - Do's & Don'ts

Following World War II, the international merchants vowed to open up the entire world to their trade. Certain adjustments needed to be made in the Far East, the Near East, and in Christendom.

The Far Eastern trade obstacle was the ancient beliefs protecting China. Mao fixed that. The Near East problem of Islam is currently being handled by the American army aided by bribed puppet Islamic-leaders.

The Western nemesis of world trade is The Word. It too is scheduled to be tamed along with trouble-making zealots, if any. As with the other religions, Western Christianity is challenged with a "trade-religion" whose job it is to change the merchants' "curse" into a "blessing."

Co-operative churchmen are given tax-exemption and a chance at the jackpot - "media access" - the royal road to riches and fame. These priests have been helped by being given ALL the publicity while The Word was blacked out. The people of the West have been given the impression that there is only one religion - the one promoted by the media - "trade-christianity."

What Trade Priests May Do

This past Sunday this writer flicked through the TV stations to listen to the televangelists. The speakers were good. Most of the sermons were good. All were instructive. They were entitled: "Anointing of the Holy Spirit," "Salvation," "Talk about the Word Of God," "He Is With You," "Get to Know Him," "Helping the Disadvantaged," "Keeping the Love of Jesus Alive," "Tithing," "Prophecy," "Revelations," "The Secret of Forgiving," "The Evil of Sarcasm," "Forgiveness," "Grace," and "Pride."

In their sermonettes these churchmen complained about the removal of the Bible and prayer from schools, the banning of religious displays, and crime in the schools and in the streets. They also felt sorry for the Somalians, the Vietnamese boat people, and the people of the "inner-city." They criticized the "New Age Movement," the occult, pornography, homosexuality, and abortion. They opposed lawlessness, and encouraged obedience to government edicts.

But, they did not say what he Word required to combat this evil in the land. Cities are burning, murder, rape, and kidnapping are rampant. What is the solution? What is the cure for riots? murder? rape? kidnapping? These preachers didn't say what the The Word requires. Not one word. Why?

What Trade Priests May Not Do

It deals with government. "Trade-priests" MAY NOT infringe on the 70% of the Bible that deals with government. This area is "off- limits" and is the sole prerogative of the international- merchants - so that they themselves can protect their business interests.

This means that the "Laws, statutes, and judgments" of The Word dealing with the regulation, taxing, punishment, and governing of the people - this 70% of the Bible - may not be trespassed upon by ministers - if they expect to be paid by these same merchants.

The "trade priests" may proclaim that they are for "love" and against "sin." But, they may not define either by quoting scripture.¹¹ To do so would be to call upon The Word, and that is forbidden. They most definitely MAY NOT define The Word itself; "In the beginning was the WORD, and the word was with God, and the WORD was God." John 1:1. Neither may they define "Jesus" as being "The Word made flesh." He must be defined as the "god of luv" - a nice fellow with long blond hair who can "come into your heart." That's harmless enough.

Churchmen are not allowed to quote the "Ten Commandments." When is the last time you heard a preacher recite the "10- Commandments?" In condemning "murder," they may not state the punishment for murder (Num. 35:29-30;). In speaking against sodomy they may not state the Biblical punishment.¹² Neither may they object to prison terms of more than seven years - which is kidnaping,¹³ and slavery, a crime worse than theft, or the punishment that is to be inflicted for the violation of this law (Ex 21:16). "Trade-priests" may never, never, blaspheme against the international merchants by using THE LAW of The Word to condemn their acts. That would be calling upon the God of the Christians.

11 "If ye love me obey my commandments." John 14:15, "Sin is the transgression of the law." 1 John 3:4

12 "If a man lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman ... they shall surely be put to death." Lev 20:13

13 "If thy brother ... be sold unto thee and serve 6 years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free." Deut 15:12-15

In short - most of today's "churchmen" present "half the story."¹⁴ They preach a trade-religion and remove the "teeth" for a price. They refuse to pronounce the punishments contained in the The Word and its "Laws, statues, and judgments." Some attempt to win supporters by decrying some of the latest abominations being practiced. Some may even believe, as did Knox and Calvin, that Saxons are the lineal descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The more theatrical jump up and down and storm against evil and proclaim righteousness! But, if they do not reveal the "rights" denied to the people that are revealed in the censored scriptures, the 70% of the Bible that deals with the rules of government of Christendom, those preachers deny "The Word made flesh." Whosoever denies "The Word made flesh," the scripture brands an "anti-Christ."¹⁵

Trade-religions vs. Trade-religions

Trade-christianity gets along famously with other trade-religions. Trade-communism, trade-islam, trade-judaism, and trade-christianity delight in the company of each other - their trading partners. Trade-religions are flexible and broadminded. Their priests have nothing but the best. They operate out of flashy and expensive churches, mosques, and temples. They flaunt glorious rituals and stand for little considered controversial. They serve their god - "trade."

14 The handout pamphlet Censored Bible Teachings is available from Va Pub Co, PO Box 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505, 100/$10.

15 "Deceivers ... who confess not that Jesus Christ ("The Word made flesh") is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an anti-christ." 2 John 7

Religious Conflict Heralds A New Day

The Word has all sorts of problems with Zionism. Militant Zionism and Islam have all sorts of problems with The Word. Each is mutually exclusive. In addition to having problems with each other, each has monumental problems with their own competing "trade-religions."

Trade-religions of all types are destructive of the peoples over whom they exercise power. The injured and abused seek safety by returning to the teachings of their old god - teachings that promise safety.

This guarantees the fulfillment of the prophesy:

"They will each turn to his own people, and each one will flee to his own land." Isaiah 13:14-16

This is happening in Russia. It is happening in Yugoslavia. It will happen in America and the rest of the West. When that day comes - woe unto the false shepherds - the teachers of "half a god."

In Christendom, you are the reason the land has not been divided so that "kings" may come into their kingdoms. You are the reason there are no jobs, that men live in a crime-ridden country. You cause our men to be loaded into cattle-boats and sent to foreign lands to fight people with whom we have no quarrel. You are the reason our women are raped, our children disappear forever, and our cities are burned. You cause racial conflict. You hide from us the rights promised us by our God.

When the day comes when "each one will flee to his own land", you will find no one who wants you. Should you escape the fire you have set, and the teeth of the wolf you have loosed, you will surely answer to The Word. You will pay the penalty required of the false witness.¹⁶

It's time to confront preachers to find out if they preach the censored 70% of The Word that deals with government - or not. If not - why not? Whose payroll is he on? Who is his master? Make him stand on the rooftop and proclaim The Word - or tell the world that he is taking the merchant's silver to proclaim "trade-christianity" and bless what God has cursed. His choice will determine his future as written in The Word.

LETTERS

WEAVER TRIAL: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: The Ruby Creek Massacre trial is being held now in Boise, Idaho. There have been only three reporters in the court room - AP, the Spokane paper, and a local one. Everyone here is talking about the trial, but the papers say little. I hear it is being completely blacked out elsewhere. Local TV reports 'The FBI has apologized' for 'Withholding Evidence,' 'Staging Evidence,' and 'Losing evidence.' They are being made to look really bad." R. W. - Idaho

NOTE: A caller informed me that nine out of ten charges against the defendants have been dismissed, leaving only the charge of "murder." The judge is angry with the FBI for concealing a witness. That witness is a captain in the Idaho State Police, and the first at the murder scene. He is expected to testify that the feds shot first. Self-defense! Reports say that the government is looking B-A-D! Real bad! - which is why the trial is being blacked-out nationwide.

WEAVER TRIAL: "Judge Edward Lodge today said that 75% of the witnesses called by the prosecution were favorable to the defense." Spokesman Review, B1, May 19, 1993.

BLEEDING TO DEATH: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Your analogy of sheep and wolves is certainly accurate. It appears to me that the wolves' plan is not to butcher the sheep, but to bleed them to death through taxes and tribute." B. J. - Colorado

MAO: "Dear Dick: I was in Shanghai the day Mao's gang moved in! We escaped to Okinawa!! It was a close thing." L. W. - MI

IRATE: "Mr. Hoskins: Your "Peasant Revolts" #219 was anti-Christian diatribe of twisted facts. I'm sorry that you are so bigotted against Christianity." D. C. - Texas

RKH: "Bigot" means "by-God." Religion is big business - the biggest. It attracts bad apples. I am much against the sellers of indulgences - not anti-Christian, and certainly not anti-"by-God."

NEW VISION: "Dear Dick; I was recruited into the Communist party at the age of nineteen and was told that we would most likely be martyrs in our fight against the evils of capitalism, to help people losing their jobs and homes. We were not told that we were risking our lives to seize property to give it to the wolf to manage. We thought we were heroes. We were TAUGHT we were fighting to rid the world of the exploiters.

"The Great Message has been garbled in this century. The garblers run the show like master puppeteers. Today's degeneracy will cause the ship to sink - for there IS a limit.

"The 'sheep' are, I believe, in the making. A truly new breed - born to reflect the Great Shepherd! If 'churchmen' had done their jobs, the Capitalists and the Communist Party would never have had an opening to spew their poison. Today they have merged and are one. The day of the Wolf is closing - he and his bands must make haste. And - they are convinced, at this point - ANYTHING GOES!" N.I. - New York MILITIA: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: You've mentioned "militias" before, but still, the large number of military schools you have in Virginia and throughout the South indicate a warlike people." C. I. - New Hampshire

RKH: Not necessarily. Since the earliest days all men in Virginia from the age 16 to 60 have been considered members of the unorganized militia. It was left up to them to organize themselves into units. Neither the state nor the national government had a part in it. If the local unorganized militia chose to organize, they elected their own officers and furnished their own weapons and equipment.

This could be quite expensive. If it were an artillery unit - they bought their own cannon. Their names were on no roll in Richmond and they owed allegiance to each other only. The governor was their commander - only IF they agreed to obey his orders. He couldn't send them to "Desert Storm" - they wouldn't go - and there was nothing he could do about it.

They trained themselves - weekly at first and then monthly. To be elected to be an "officer" by one's own peers was a high honor. To deserve the honor fathers sent their sons to "military schools" to train them to be militiamen. Just as future artillery men were sent to special schools in Philadelphia. Southern military schools were "militia schools." By in large, the South's militia was far better trained and armed than the national army of the United States. During the War, its best single officer - Gen. Nathan Bedford Forrest was a militiaman. So was Wade Hampton. It can be argued that officers trained at West Point kept the South from winning the war.

Kings use national armies to become tyrants. If they are to be kept from being tyrannical - the Militia must do it. To remove this threat and suppress the states - the U.S. government has branded militias to be "private armies." One of the reasons given for the search warrant used in the Waco Massacre was that the Davidians comprised a "private-army" (militia).

Virginia's black governor "re-organized" Virginia's militia. HE appointed its officers and HE is its commander. It is HIS private army. It is "militia" in name only.

With the exception of local "neighborhood-watches" Virginia's unorganized-militia has been intimidated to NOT become organized. The central government is exerting every effort to seize its weapons. The FBI has instructed local police departments to register local "neighborhood-watches" to keep tabs on their activities. This is what happens in a police state which has reached advanced stages. "Whoever has the guns make the laws. The Militia is Dead - Long live the King."

Chapter 226

THE STORM & THE UNFORGIVABLE SIN

Long ago, in the days when camels carried their precious cargoes over the spice routes - the spice-merchants divided the world among themselves.¹

Each spice-merchant then created franchises within his allotted territory and hired kings to manage them. Each franchised king raised his own personal banner to mark off

¹ "Spice-merchants" sit quietly behind the world's events. For centuries, trains of 10,000 camels left China for Baghdad loaded with spices. They returned with gold and trade goods. The capture of a single camel would have made a man wealthy for life. The caravan owners were mega-merchants who bought and sold princes. They allow no book to be written about them. They have no armies - they buy countries and use their armies. The mountain of gold accumulated for thousands of years is theirs, and they use it to open and close doors. They buy and sell slaves who are told that "right is wrong" and "slavery is freedom." The perpetual problem with the Law of the Christian God is solved by the "Balak Plan" - or "extermination" - one or the other.

"his country" from the franchise of another. He built castles and garrisoned them with soldiers to keep and police what he had been assigned. Each king had to guarantee that the merchant's goods would be safely transported and delivered to their destination and that the slaves that came with the king's franchise did their allotted work. Each king was permitted to keep a percentage of the take as his income. The job of king was "the good life" and so it had many applicants. Each applicant bid against other applicants, each making all sorts of concessions to get the job.

On occasion, the people of the land, tired of being slaves, listened to their ancient god and demanded rights that had been taken from them by the king and his spice-merchant employer. Such revolts were expected reoccurring events and so preparations had been made to deal with them.

"Trade-priests" were the first line of defense. It was their job to bless that which the gods cursed. They were paid to say that the king and his employer were right and the people were wrong. This blessing of the priests was meant to keep the slaves happy and less likely to object to their slavery.²

The Desirable Wolf-State

The ideal wolf state is one in which the spice-merchant rules supreme, his franchised kings are themselves obedient,

2 LAW: In Christendom, a slave is any "man" who is held to a job beyond the 7 years allowed. (1) "And if thy brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free. ... thou shalt not let him go away empty: Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor." Deut 15:12-14 (2) "At the end of every seven years thou shalt make a release ... of a foreigner (Heb: nokriy - foreign, non-relative) thou mayest exact it again: but that which is thine with thy brother thine hand shall release." Deut 15:1-3 At the end of his indenture he is to be taken in as a partner, or set up in business, according to the terms of the indenture. Any other arrangement is slavery.

and they in turn rule their slaves with a firm hand. The slaves, "the ultimate renewable resource," are content with their lot. The entire system is consecrated by a holy state-approved priesthood hired for that purpose. It teaches the slaves that only godless traitors and malcontents dare to oppose their masters.

The Undesirable Wolf-State

An undesirable state is one in which slaves learn the teachings of their ancient god and try to live by them. This knowledge causes periodic slave rebellions as former slaves throw off their chains. Past rebellions have always proved to be transitory, but while they are in force, they shut out the spice-merchant, topple his kings, and banish his priests. The slave who slips his collar and tastes freedom is dangerous, and can never be trusted to be contented again. He must be killed.

Islam In Revolt

Followers of Islam have again learned the teachings of Mohammed. These teachings have caused them to fight the foreign spice- merchant, his kings, and his highly paid priests.

In January 1992, Algeria held an election. The "Salvation Front's" fundamentalists were elected to replace the current government. The merchant-approved government refused to step down. Instead, they banned and outlawed their opposition.

Western kings, likewise franchise-holders of the world's spice- merchants, instantly took the side of Algeria's ruling government. Islam's "Salvation Front" fundamentalists, denied the ballot box's peaceful change, and denied Western help, commenced guerrilla warfare to win by force what could not be won by votes.

Interpol - Suppresses Islam's Revolt

The Algerian government courts that refused to honor the election on May 26th sentenced 38 "Salvation Front" fundamentalists to death for exploding a bomb that killed nine people in an Algiers airport.

Immediately, Interpol, the police force of the international spice-merchants, came to Algeria's aid. They combed Europe to round up Islamic "dissidents." In Germany they arrested Rabah Kebir, "Salvation Front's" spokesman, and Oussama Madani, son of the jailed leader, Abbasi Madani, and six others. Germany, France and Belgium have all taken steps to aid the Algerian government in its effort to stifle Islamic religious revolt, a revolt that has thus far taken more than 800 lives.

Interpol's help is additionally credited with suppressing a June 12 "Salvation Front" meeting scheduled to be held by exiles in Europe. In America, the FBI is cooperating with Interpol's efforts by rounding-up Islamic fundamentalists on charges of - "terrorism," "suspected terrorism," "contact with," or "possibly knowing a terrorist." The FBI "press-releases" are warmed over "Ruby-Creek-Waco" releases with only the names changed. The "evidence" the FBI has accumulated is mostly the charge that the Islamics are "plotting," "planning," "talking about," or "thinking about" acts of "terrorism." While they are emmeshed in Western courts the Islamic revolt against their merchant overlords comes to a halt. It's not like it hasn't been done before.

Christendom's 3rd Reformation

THE WORD, the "laws, statutes and judgments," were almost entirely suppressed or subverted in the Roman Empire when Jesus Christ, the "Word made flesh," returned with THE WORD and reformed his people's beliefs.

The fruits of this 1st Reformation were subverted and suppressed by Constantine and his organized church. About 1500 years after Christ, other reformers brought THE WORD to light and men learned that God expected them to cast off the rule of both spice-merchants and their King Sauls who ruled them. They did what THE WORD required. This condition lasted for about 150 years before THE WORD was again suppressed.

NOW, starting about ten years ago, believers again began to call on THE WORD so that they might be saved from those who would destroy them, and those who had ears to hear listened. The 3rd Reformation began. Men again were calling on "THE WORD which was God."

To stamp out this fire and suppress THE WORD, the kings have again begun to use force.³ The target is not only those who call on THE WORD, but any person who is not a slave. This includes any person who rebels at working more than 7-years for a master,⁴ or one who is self-employed, or independently wealthy, or is self-sufficient - such as a debt-free farmer or merchant; or a religious group holding views not politically correct; or those who believe

3 "The enemy is eager to destroy all that call upon the Lord. For he knoweth that upon the day that Israel shall repent, the kingdom of the enemy shall be brought to an end." Book Of Dan 2:16-17.

4 After 7 years an employee tends to acquire a slave mentality and a slave attitude that stays with him for the rest of his life.

that their god condemns taxes, homosexuality, and child-murder; or anyone who "calls upon the name of God."⁵ Any of these people may become potential rallying points for political action against the establishment, and are potentially as much danger to the international spice-merchants in Christendom as the "Salvation Front" is in Islam.

Arthur Kirk spoke against the chains of debt and was shot down.⁶ Bob Matthews said that the struggle was for the preservation of our children, and was shot down (Ezra 10:2). Gordon Kahl said that taxes were illegal, and was shot down.⁷ The Weavers of Ruby Creek refused to work for the king's police. As an object lesson to others, an army was sent to subdue their rebellion. The Waco Massacre was another object lesson to rebels. Clinton said "I hope very much that others who will be tempted to join cults and become involved with people like David Koresh will be deterred by the horrible scenes they have seen over the last seven weeks." The things being done in Christendom are the same things that are being done to Mohammedans in Algeria and Egypt. Waco and Ruby Ridge serve the same purpose as Mao's extermination of Buddhist priests and others who refused to bless that which their heathen gods cursed.

5 "His name is called THE WORD of God." Rev 19:13

6 LAW: (1) Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts." Prov. 22:26 (2) "At the end of every 7 years thou shalt make a release...Every creditor that lendeth aught unto his neighbor (Heb: 7453 reya; friendly associate) shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbor." De 15:1-3 7 LAW: "Of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers? Peter saith unto him, Of strangers." (Gr: allotrios - foreign, not akin.) ... Then are the children free." Matt 17:25- 26. A taxed man can never become a king because he cannot own a kingdom. A missed tax payment determines the true owner.

Anyone, who for any reason may be suspected of becoming an impediment to world trade, the spice-merchants will find obnoxious. Such rebels are therefore ipso facto "enemies of the state," and as such may expect the treatment that is historically administered to "enemies of the state."

Christian Enemies

The greatest enemies of the 1st Reformation were the "scribes" - the judges, lawyers, and politicians who worked for the establishment's king, and, the "pharisees" who blessed their work.

The greatest enemy of the 2nd Reformation were the same "scribes" - judges, lawyers, and politicians of Israel, and the "pharisees" who again blessed their blasphemy.

The greatest enemy of today's 3rd Reformation are the same "scribes" - the judges, lawyers, and politicians - and the "pharisees" who bless their transgressions, the transgressions that Jesus cursed.

The international spice-merchant is amoral. To him there is no "right," no "wrong." There is only profit. He feeds because the people allow him to feed. He buys access into sheepfolds because gate-keepers take his gifts. God made the wolf for a reason. He made wolves to do what wolves do. The wolf did not open the gates. There was a willing gatekeeper who did that. The wolf does not preach lies from the pulpit in the name of God. There is a greedy trade-priest who eagerly grasps the bribe to bless that which God curses.⁸

8 "I created man ... and I told him 'this is good, and that is bad' that ... it be clear which in his race love me." Enoch 30:12-14

Word of Advice

It is known that wolves are paranoid and psychotic. They are unpredictable. They can be vicious. If they feel threatened as a species - they then tend to gather into packs for protection and fight. Other times they remain scattered - and raid the sheep. But, that is what wolves do.

I say this in all seriousness - if the wolf attacks - protect yourself. That, and no more. Even wolves understand self-defense. Its part of life. Your task today is not wolf-hunting, it is to take THE WORD into all the world to every creature of Israel. Let "THE WORD" reason with Israel.⁹ To protect his interests, the international-merchant always attempts to keep the sheep off balance. A sheep vs sheep war will do nicely. If that is not possible, a wolf vs sheep confrontation is arranged. The last is natural and easy to provoke. Wolves eat sheep - that's what they do. Everyone knows that. But, how did the wolves get into the sheepfold? Who let them in? THAT is the important question. The lies of the greedy, soul-dead, false-shepherds must be exposed, or the sheep fold will become a permanent wolf-den - lost forever.

SIGNS IN THE HEAVENS

The ancients watched unusual bird flights and storms. Prior to last year I had never seen more than 6 or 8 robins at once. Last year I saw tens of thousands. Before, I had never seen more than a dozen buzzards at once. Last year I saw hundreds - even thousands.

9 John Knox and John Calvin refused to accept the church's claim to be Israel, and in their margin notes in their Geneva Bible refused to refer to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as "their fathers" and give to another the birthright which belonged to them. They called them "OUR fathers." They knew. This is why Amos 3:1-2 makes sense; "O children of Israel ... You only have I known of all the families of the earth." And, "I was sent to the lost sheep of the house of Israel and to them alone." Matt 15:24

Lynchburg has few bad storms. In June Lynchburg had a bad storm. In the late afternoon it suddenly got dark, the winds blew with hurricane force and for about 25 minutes Lynchburg was lashed by savage winds. Rain fell in sheets accompanied by a torrent of hail. The house shuddered, branches flew through the air, the lights flickered and went out. As quickly as it started - it stopped.

I was aghast at the damage. Two hundred year old poplars and oaks were ruined. The streets were filled with trees, branches, and debris.

Supper By Candlelight

I left home to find something to eat. The houses and businesses were dark along the way. The restaurant I was going to was closed and the employees were leaving. "No electricity!" A half dozen other restaurants were the same. No power, no lights. All were closed.

At the junction of "221" and the "By-pass," the traffic light was out. Post storm "rush-hour" in little Lynchburg was unbelievable. It took 40 minutes to get through that one intersection. Cars were backed up for miles. They moved at a snail's pace. A policeman in plainclothes was trying to direct traffic without a flashlight. No horns blew. People don't blow horns in Lynchburg. It's impolite. It's still mostly a sheep-town.¹⁰ girl stood just inside the door to tell would-be shoppers that the electric door wouldn't open, there were no lights inside, and the cash registers didn't work. The electric pumps wouldn't pump gas at the gas station.

Kroger's was dark. Flashlight beams danced inside. A

¹⁰ See "Sheep- city!" Wolf & The Sheep, Richard Kelly Hoskins, Va. Pub. Co., PO Box 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505, $5 plus $3 p&h.

Next day Lynchburg was still shut down. Few businesses bothered to open. No lights, computers, or cash registers. Hospitals were on emergency power. Elevators didn't work. Few business establishments had emergency power. Some telephones worked, but Lynchburg was shut down and stayed shut-down for a full day and a half. Some places were down for 4 days. People didn't bother to go to work.

Suppose

If losing electricity caused Lynchburg that much trouble - what would happen if the city were deprived of electricity on purpose? Cities are very vulnerable. Europe had this problem in WWII. Planes dropped electric cables across power lines to short them and the cities went black.

Supermarkets are supposed to contain only a three day supply of food. Suppose the tractor trailers supplying them stopped coming because the cities that dispatched them had lost their power? Suppose that at the end of a week the food supplies in Lynchburg, Charlottesville, Roanoke, Richmond, Norfolk, Alexandria, and Washington, DC were consumed and not replenished. Suppose Tampa, Mobile, New Orleans, Charleston, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York - all lacked power. No power, no food, people streaming back and forth frantically searching for something to eat - until they ran out of gas. There's little food in the countryside. Most of the old farms are no longer planted. Almost 50% of America's foodstuffs are imported.

Under these conditions, in 30 days a substantial proportion of the population of the eastern United States could become displaced and starve, or kill each other fighting for the dwindling supplies of food. If such crisis conditions were to last two months, many survivors of the first 30 days might also die. This is not Europe or the Orient where everyone has a private food supply somewhere, and where they plant a vegetable garden in every available spot - "just in case."

Could someone shut off America's electricity and cause such things to happen? Remember Desert Storm? Remember the US missiles directed at Iraqi electric generating plants? Those missiles released a spider-like web of metallic threads that floated down on the stations. Electricity produces magnetic fields. Magnetic fields attracted these webs which shorted the plant. Later startup attempts attracted other parts of the scattered web, shorting it again and again. Six months after the "war" many of the electric generating plants were still being short circuited.

Would anyone want to do this to the US? You bet! If occupying vacant land is the object - it would help. Let's remember, all the communist and former communist countries of the world have announced that they have deep bomb shelters, huge emergency food stockpiles, and anti-missile defenses. Even little Cuba has them. The kings of the West have denied these three items to the people they rule. Why?

Governments aren't people - they are organizations. They have no souls. They don't question right or wrong - they carry out the directives of their masters. People wonder if it is accident that FBI spokesmen disregard the truth so often. Could it be that their words are spoken to create distrust? That they are spoken to incite anyone who will be incited?

Most military men I've served with in the past are honorable men. But, I've met the other kind, the kind that flourish where there is no Law. They will shoot into buildings containing women and children, gas them, burn them, or shoot a nursing mother in the face and then name their base camp after her. We are told that the federals at Ruby Ridge actually named their camp - "Camp Vicki," after the dead mother. Some say it was done as a dare to her horrified neighbors to try to do something about it. Is it true that the ATF men at Waco gave a "high five" when they saw the Mt. Carmel fire and laughingly remarked about the "Texas barbecue?" If so, it was insensitive. If it was "psywar" public management - the American public should know that too.

Signs From The Storm

I was raised in Lynchburg's First Baptist Church. It is an old church with a steeple 264 feet high - the tallest in this part of the country. It's a symbol of Lynchburg. A lot of good people have gone to that church over the years. My mother taught Sunday School there for more than 50 years. But, there are other things. When I went there it had a stained glass picture of Christ knocking on the door of someone's heart - in violation of the 2nd Commandment forbidding images. The interior and the cushions were a gift of a banking family. The treasurer of the church was the president of a local bank. That bank also held the church mortgage.¹¹

11 (1) "Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13. (2) "Thou shalt not bring the hire of an whore, or the price of a dog, into the house of the Lord thy God." Deut: 23:18>

Some of the preachers that pastored that church in the past were among the greats of the land. There were the other kind, too. My mother said that these were just young and had a lot to learn. Some of these said that the law was done away, inferring that people could go out and do as they liked, and the people allowed them to do it.¹² These men knew better but they still said it, and the people still allowed it. This caused both to commit the unforgivable sin.¹³ These preachers chose not to obey because the God's truth offended them. The people chose not to obey because they did not want to cause a scene. Now, half a century later, only two dozen or so sit in that vast sanctuary built for more than a thousand. God sent his storm and took the great steeple of Lynchburg's landmark, turned it like a spear and drove it into the heart of the sanctuary.

Six blocks up the street is the black Court Street Baptist Church. It is the symbol of "black revolt" in town. This is where anti-White hate-rallies have been held for years. As a teenager I used to huddle on the back bench and listen in disbelief to the things they said about us. We, the accursed whites at the church down the street, who had given our offerings that Sunday to help that black church meet a need. I wanted to see who these people were. I found out. The street was blocked off. The steeple lay on the ground.

Driving to the Confederate Cemetery, I saw great oaks

12 "If ye love me obey my commandments." John 14:15

13 LAW: The unforgivable sin: "Now if thou closeth thy mouth and thy nostrils against the winds of heaven and sayest, 'The air is as poison to me, I will not breathe it,' behold thou perishest. ... If he shall say knowing in his heart ... 'I will call good evil, and the Holy Spirit I will call unholy: then lo, his spirit dieth within him, and he can no more enter into the life of God.' ... (or say) 'Lo, the truth is not pleasing to me, ... it is hateful, therefore I will call it evil.'" Philochristus 13:20-21 crushing scores of stones. The speaker's podium and cupola that stood there also lay crushed.

These gallant men had died by the tens of thousands to defend their people and their country. But they had come to their nation's defense too late. Too long they had tolerated usury banks in New York. They had allowed them to proliferate throughout the land. "What they do in New York doesn't affect us here." They let a mad dog named John Brown run wild in Kansas killing innocent people. "Kansas is Kansas. This is Virginia." It was not their concern - it didn't affect them. These men were dead because their fathers allowed strangers to remain in the land. They demanded that their purchase price be returned before they would free the blacks and send them back to their own country - and they died for their omissions. They died for tolerating evil in the land - the usury, the strangers, and for tolerating the false-witness of the pulpit and the media.

Lynchburg's storm was called "an act of God." It dealt with the symbols of Lynchburg.

Where The Storm Did Not Fall

The News & Advance of Lynchburg, the paper that earlier ran a front page story attacking the editor and his book Vigilantes Of Christendom, "The story of the Phineas Priesthood," on May 16, 1993, ran an upbeat front page story on a homosexual couple.

According to the article, the Rev. Allen Harris is a Disciples of Christ minister. He was ordained at a Park Avenue Christian Church in some town somewhere, where he is an associate minister. The Rev. Craig Hoffman is also an ordained United Church of Christ minister. He works with HIV- positive drug users. They have matching wedding bands and live together in Harris's parsonage. This couple was held up as an example of partners for life - people who must be accepted.

The Revs. David and Kaye Edwards, pastor and associate pastor of First Christian Church on Rivermont Avenue invited this couple to speak to their congregation because they "would like the church to be openly affirming of Christians who are gay and lesbian."¹⁴

Challenged for taking this stand Rev. David Edwards is alleged to have answered, "Times have changed since the Bible was written,"¹⁵ and that these people are our brothers¹⁶ whom Christ loved.¹⁷ ... What's wrong is hatred and intolerance."¹⁸

Reaction Of The Church Community

Thus far, besides a couple of irate letters which have passed Lynchburg's newspaper curtain, no denomination, church, or church congregation in Lynchburg has broken fellowship with the congregation of this churches. Did anyone really expect them to?

14 "If a man lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination ... their blood shall be upon them." Lev 20:13

15 (1) "For I the Lord, do not change." Mal 3:6, (2) "The scripture cannot be broken." John 10:35.

16 "Whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother." Matt 12:50.

17 "If ye love me obey my commandments." John 14:15

18 "Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord." II Chron 19:2

Reaction of "An Act Of God"

The storm hit scarce two weeks later. The Rivermont First Christian Church was not touched. Does God not see? Or, does THE WORD have some special reward planned for those who some say commit the "unpardonable sin:"

"Lo, the truth is not pleasing to me ... it is hateful, therefore I will call it evil." Philochristus 13:20-21

Those who have difficulty accepting the verdict of THE WORD will also have difficulty accepting the fact that THE WORD is now loose in the land. HE has passed into the bloodstream of his people and the elect among them are being transformed into his image.

Perhaps that is why God sometimes uses natural signs like birds and storms to speak to the natural man who can hear in no other way. If this is true - Smile, Lynchburg! You have attracted God's attention and he is speaking to you.

RUBY RIDGE MASSACRE AND WACO

Blacked out in America, Idaho's "Ruby Ridge Massacre" trial is front page in the American NW. Like the earlier Fort Smith Sedition Trial, the FBI has again been caught telling one falsehood after another. To many observers, the FBI antics have reached the point where everything they or say seems suspect. At the trial, even the establishment media, oftentimes strangers to truth themselves, were seen nudging each other when another FBI witness took the stand to testify to something that appeared farfetched. The judge in fact stated that 75% of the prosecutions witnesses were "actually witnesses for the defense." This is hard to imagine.

The pictures of the child shot in the back by federal agents and the story of the mother holding her baby in her arms when she was shot in the face by the Japanese-American leader of the government assault team had the jury in tears.

The story that has come out in the trial and embellished with a little establishment "jargon" is this: A boy and his mother were shot down in cold blood on orders from the current "warlord" who occupies the White House "compound." His government first outlawed an innocent family by issuing a summons dated AFTER the date on which the actual hearing was scheduled. The targeted victims did not show because their summons stated that they were not supposed to show until a month later. Because they did not appear - they were outlawed. Refusing to submit to a 5 year jail sentence for "non- appearance," a sentence to be handed down by same the people who sent them the doctored summons, they were then hunted down and shot by the United States government. This whole thing was aided and abetted by misleading stories issued by the media. Following the mass deaths at Waco, the suspicion has grown among a number of people that the Weaver case was never meant to come to trial, that it was supposed to end like the Kirk, Kahl, and Matthews cases.

As the trial progressed, the Federal charges were demolished one by one until the last charge was reached - murder. It was then learned that the FBI had been hiding a key witness for three weeks. It was the captain of the Idaho State Police. He took the stand and testified that the federals fired first. The court was stunned. The truth was out. The marshals incited the family to resist, fired first, and then accused the victims of murder, while it was actually the other way around. The Ruby Ridge affair may have uncovered what may be called a pattern of government "protest-control" - since similar things have happened in the past. The government's case appeared to lay in shambles. The defense was so confident that they chose not to even present a defense.

The case was then turned over to the jury. Surprisingly, there appears to be dissension among the jury. After 13 days of deliberations, the foreman of the jury had what appeared to be a heart attack and was replaced by a standby juror. At present, we are waiting for their verdict. This is an important case which may have far reaching implications.

TURNING THE SCREW

WACO: Former Congressman Ron Paul's newsletter reviews the Waco Assassination Theory. According to this theory - while the FBI tanks seen on TV held the viewer's attention, a death squad stormed the church property from the rear out of view of TV cameras. This assassination squad murdered Koresh, his top followers, and set fire to destroy evidence. A bullet hole was found in Koresh's forehead. People don't kill themselves in this manner, but it is where an assassin would aim. Koresh's top assistant was shot in the back of the head - another execution type shot. The pathologist doing the autopsy called Koresh's wound not typical of suicide. Paul then states, "A top official of the FBI told the press, the Davidians had to be cleaned out because they were "thumbing their nose at law enforcement." In Paul's opinion, "The government's actions also suggest hostility to people who take religion seriously." He concludes his summary with Clinton's statement, "I hope very much that others who will be tempted to join cults and become involved with people like David Koresh will be deterred by the horrible scenes they have seen ...'" Survival Report, Cong. Ron Paul, Houston, TX 77058 INDULGENCES & BIGOT: "Mr. Hoskins: "Indulgences - right to sin in the future - that is a lie. Don't get your info from an enemy or a competitor. Also, 'bigot' means 'obstinately and blindly attached to some creed, opinion, practice, or ritual according to 1828 Websters.'" P. D. - Texas

LETTERS

RKH: (1) E/B 14th ed, #12, p275, article "Indulgence," quotes Thomas Gascoigne in 1450 as saying "Sinners say nowadays 'I care not how many or how great sins I commit before God, for I shall easily and quickly get plenary remission of any guilt and penalty whatsoever by absolution and indulgence granted to me from the Pope, whose writing and grant I have bought for 4d or 6d" Regardless of the stated intent of "indulgences" - the result was unfortunate. (2) You are correct as regards current usage of "bigot." But, it was not always so. The E/B 11th ED, #3 p923 states that "ne se, bi god" came from the words used by Rollo, duke of the Normans, in refusing to kiss the foot of Charles III in the 12th century. One who did something "by God," stated that they did it "by God." In time such people were called "by-Goders," or "bigots."

Lastly, history proves that the words and works of "preachers" and "teachers" must be constantly compared with THE WORD. The greater and richer the organization, the greater the folly. NO confidence at all can be placed in church organizations over a longer term. They collect and administer too much wealth - they have to be watched every minute. Watchers must be set to watch watchers. Churches and church organizations are not supposed to be a substitute for YOUR responsibility. There is no way around it - God appointed YOU a king and a priest - YOU are responsible. YOU must search THE WORD for truth. The truth you find must pass back through the filter of THE WORD. Your actions will then be judged by others who are equally kings and priests to make sure that you do not "self-serve." Everyone who says that they speak for God must be suspected of having hidden agendas. Uncritical acceptance of anyone who claims to speak as Israel can result in Law violation, blasphemy, and "St. Bartholomew Day Massacres." YOU as a king and a priest will be held accountable for omission or commission. That's why YOU were appointed. It's YOU. YOU!

IMMIGRATION & AIDS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: What is the reason that those who run the government want AIDS infected blacks and orientals brought to this country?" G. R. - New Jersey

RKH: It's odd, but the CIA and the Catholic Church collaborated to terrify the Catholic Tonkanese Chinese living in North Vietnam to move to South Vietnam where they were looked upon as hated alien invaders. They provided the raw material for a civil war.

PRISON STRIFE: "Mr Hoskins: There is turmoil here in prison. They are beginning to blow out all over. The racial enmity being shown was prophesied as a sign of our time (Isa 13:14-15, Matt 24:9). There are three groups: White, Black, and Hispanic. They do not mix. Marxist propaganda used to incite outside society has the same effect on prisoners inside. But, there is something more, a subtle underlying fear. It's almost as if the strangers realize that 'the center cannot hold.' If the 'center cannot hold' then there are no more 'civil rights.' Their fear is almost tangible." B. M. - Missouri TALLIES: "Dear Dick: Your book, War Cycles / Peace Cycles" reminded me of a game we played in Missouri during the depression. It was called "get a tally." One child was designated the "leg man." His object was to catch someone who didn't have a tally. One was issued a tally when he made one full revolution around the house without getting caught. The leg man had to keep running until he collared someone who didn't have a tally. The one caught became the new "leg-man." It must be an old old game. Thanks for reminding me." M. H. - Missouri

Back to Table of Contents

Chapter 227

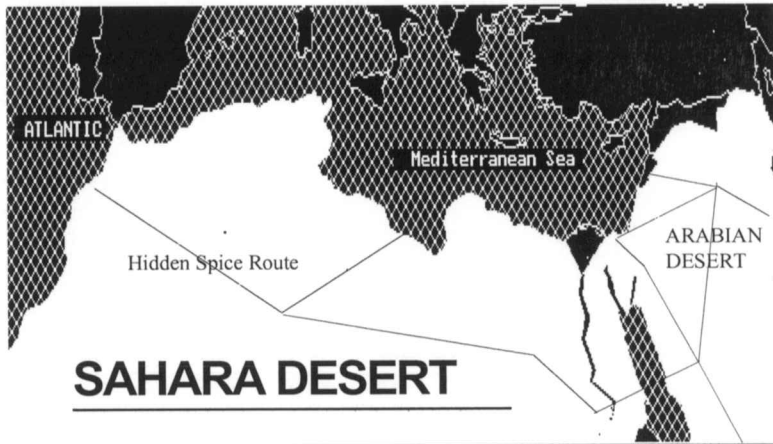

ARAB-TURK INVASIONS

Roman Shops

When the Vandals invaded Rome they discovered warehouses loaded with spices, silks, and expensive goods from the Far East.

Romans had only a vague idea of where these costly goods had come from. It was a trade secret. All they knew was that they had come from somewhere on the other side of the the deserts beyond the borders of the Roman Empire. Those who did know didn't talk.

The thing that everyone understood was that a pound of pepper was worth a pound of gold. The spice trade delivered coveted goods, and bags and chests of gold and silver were returned in payment. Rome was drained of its gold and silver. Someone on the other side of the desert collected it. At the last, Rome had no gold and was forced to adopt the

Secret Spice Routes

Long hidden from Western eyes, the spice routes carried billions of dollars worth of goods. Thousands of camels would reach terminal cities, pay a fee, and pass on to their destination. No one stopped them - Christian, Mohammedan, or Jew. Seizing camels was roundly condemned; the taking of a ship - "piracy." Unseen, the spice merchant ruled the world through his agents. His caravans proceeded quietly - protected by the king and blessed by the priest.

barter system. The spice merchants in the Far East owned the world's supply of gold. That gold allowed the spice merchants to buy anything that gold will buy - priests, kings, armies - anything!

Basic Geography - Deserts

There are four major deserts that run from the Atlantic in the west to the Pacific in the Far East. The Sahara runs the width of North Africa, then next, the Arabian Desert. Then, on the Iraq- Iran Deserts, and last - the Gobi Desert to the north of China. An "arab" could slip into the Sahara Desert within sight of the Atlantic Ocean in N. Africa and could emerge in China without having been seen by anyone who was not like himself.

Individuals, groups, caravans, armies, and entire nations have disappeared into the deserts, and have followed this route in whole or part secure from the observation of Westerners. Westerners are always surprised at what emerges from these mysterious deserts.

The Desert Caravans

Camel caravans were massive, expensive affairs. In an age where the capture of a single camel would make an Arab rich for life - a train of 5,000 animals was ordinary, and 20,000, frequent. The goods had to be warehoused until shipping time and food had to be provided for both man and beast. Drivers and armed guards had to be arranged, and a paymaster had to pay "protection-money" to local rulers for safe conduct and protection. Insurance agreements had to be arranged to guard against pilfering and the occasional caravan raid that captured a few camels. Messengers had to be dispatched ahead advising outlets that trade goods were on the way. Schedules had to be met. Marshaling yards had to be ready to receive the thousands of camels and drivers, and then the goods had to be divided and new trains created to take the goods to their ultimate destinations. The details were endless - but worth it. The desert route hid its treasures from prying eyes and that alone provided relatively safe travel.

Local rulers were paid to protect caravans. Part of the "trade agreement" between merchant and king was that the local ruler had to make good anything looted from the train while it was under his protection. This encouraged extra vigilance. All who profited from the spice trade had a vested interest in protecting it. They still do.

Marshaling Yards & Terminals

There were major marshaling yards - great trade centers such as Baghdad, Damascus, and Mecca. The city of Jerusalem was another - a fact of geography that helped launch the crusades. From these extensive marshaling yards smaller trains were re-routed to the seaports of Aden, Alexandria, Hifa, Beirut, and Istanbul.

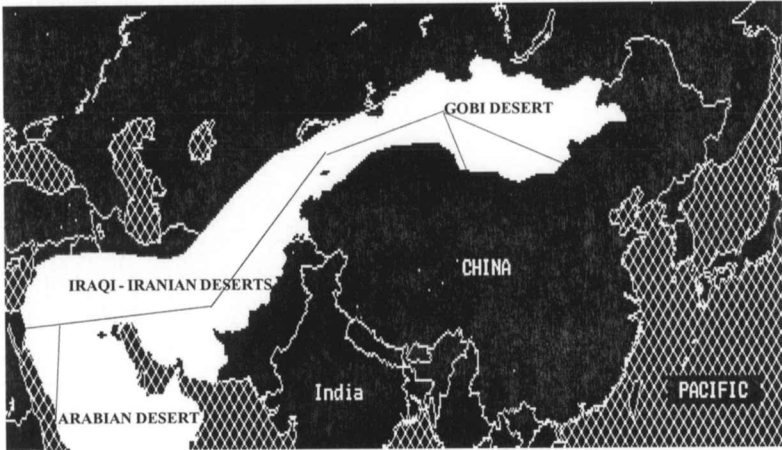

Figure 2: The Far East Spice Route

Marco Polo was the first to return to the West with fabulous stories of the spice routes and Cathay. No one believed him. It has only been in relatively recent years as the route has been superseded by ocean routes that the knowledge of the "silk-route" has become public. This forbidden desert roadway is the historical super highway of the wandereing Turk.

Part #1: God MUST Bless Trade

Strongly-held religious beliefs can stop trade, and have often done so.¹ When this happens the offending religion has to be "sanitized" before trade can take place. It is most often the Christian religion that causes the trouble because it is "exclusive"² while all others are "inclusive." As a rule,

1 (1) "If thou has stricken thy hand with a stranger (Heb: 2114 racial alien), thou art snared with the words of thy mouth." Pr. 6:1, (2) "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21 traders could not care less about "Christianity," but before they can trade with its people it must be proclaimed far and wide by the religious leaders that "Christianity" has been "reformed," "updated," made "New Testament," that it is NO LONGER EXCLUSIVE - that it is open to everyone - especially the trader. Otherwise - the trader cannot trade!

2 "I am sent but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 15:24.

Priests must be found to guarantee that God blesses trade with strangers FIRST - before trade can take place. Gold in the right quarters can secure such guarantees. It can guarantee that even strangers and non-adamites are advanced to the very pinnacle of God's church.³ Such leaders can then piously sanctify that which God curses.⁴

With the Church's new and profitable discovery that "God blesses trade with strangers" - the trade that God had formerly cursed - the wolf was free to safely hunt within the sheepfold.

Immigration & Integration - Religious Matters

The "immigration" of this horde of strangers into a country is half the job - half! If the local population refuses to help them, feed them, speak to them, or trade with them - "integrate" with them - "immigration" alone is useless. These foreigners will sit on the side of the road and have rocks thrown at them by the local population while they starve.

3 (1) "A bastard (Heb: manzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." De 23:2, (2) "The stranger (Heb: zâwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." No 18:7

4 1130AD - Benedictus Christianus (Pierleoni) Jewish Banker of Rome had a son Leo Petrus Leonis, d.1128, who was elected Pope (Anacletus II) 1130. His niece became wife of Roger I of Sicily, the most powerful ruler in the Mediterranean at the time, and known for having influential Islamic-Turks as advisors in his court.

Foreign trade representatives must be "accepted" by the local population to transact business. Traders, their representatives, and their families after immigrating into the land, must be allowed to "eat" with their trading partners.⁵ They must be allowed to trade.⁶ Intermarriage must be encouraged because if strangers are allowed to intermarry - all other benefits follow.⁷ "Integration" is essential. Only the priest can make that lawful.

Agents of the spice trade use their gold to provide a soap box and high visibility to priests who will speak in favor of the stranger. They are made rich by loudly proclaiming that God wants "IMMIGRATION" AND "INTEGRATION." These priests must state in no uncertain terms that "immigration" and "integration" are "God's will" - that they are "lawful" and "desirable" - that they are GOOD! And, that opposition to them is "unlawful" and "undesirable" - and BAD! This prevents the wolf and his pack from suddenly being set upon by irate sheep protesting "blasphemy." A handful of gold properly spent can prevent multi-billions from being lost to wild-eyed fanatics rushing about shouting "We must obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29

Part #2 - King Protector

Getting God on one's side effectively muzzles the populace. Next, agreements must be made with local rulers to protect and guarantee the shipment of goods. Payments for this service to the local ruler are an accepted part of the cost of doing business. Kings have been paid by merchants for this service for a long time.⁸

5 "If any man ... be ... an idolater ... or an extortioner; with such a one, no not to eat." 1 Cor 5:11

6 "Thou shall make no covenant with them." Deut 7:2

7 "Thou shalt not take a wife ... of the Canaanites ... but thou shall go ... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4

During the crusades, instances were known where hostilities between Christian and Mohammedan armies ceased while the camel train of the spice merchants plodded through a Saracen army besieging a Christian seaport city, and through the open gates into the city. The Saracen guards left the train at the gates and Christian guards took over to escort the caravan down to the docks. There the precious goods were off-loaded onto waiting Christian ships. The Christian ships set sail and passed through blockading Saracen men-of-war on their way to their final destinations in Christendom. Both Saracens and Christians lived up to their agreements and protected the shipments. The goods were safe. The truce then expired and Saracens and Christians returned to killing each other. Both Saracen and Christian rulers were equally in the pay of the spice merchants. War takes a backseat to trade.

Naming The Desert Peoples

Few people actually "live" in the desert. This means that the people who furnished most of the desert travelers live on the rim of these deserts. Western claim to territorial jurisdiction has forced these desert people to "name" the bounds of the territory in which they presently reside - an 8 "Solomon ... had ... of the traffic of the spice merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia." I Ki 10:14- 15 (950 BC).

alien concept to populations that live on the move.⁹ An incomplete list consists of Morocco, Algeria, Libya, Egypt, Palestine, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, Turkey, Iraq, Iran, Afghanistan, Turkeman, Kazakh, Uzbek, Pakistan, India, Tadzhik, Kirghiz, and Mongolia.

Periodically, vast migrations of these people take place. Entire nations fold their tents and vanish into the desert to emerge months later, hundreds, even thousands of miles away, to the astonishment of nearby peoples. The nation most often targeted for invasion was China because of its wealth. China kept armies permanently posted on the frontier and built a wall to keep these desert invaders out. It didn't.

These invaders of China were basically all the same people. The Bible named them "Arabs."¹⁰ The Chinese named them differently. Each group of invaders were identified by their invasion, the name by which they go by today. Those of the "Hun" invasion are called "Huns." There are also Seljuks, Ottomans, Khazars, and Mongols, to name only a few. The same people, different invasions, different names. The name "Turk" appears most frequently as part of the name of Seljuk- Turk, Ottoman-Turk, Turkaman, Uzbek-Turk, Khazar-Turk, etc. If these desert people were to go by a single name - a universal name - perhaps "Turk" would be that name.

9 "Cain ... could neither settle nor find rest in any one place; but wandered from place to place." II Adam & Eve 13:5

10 "And Ishmael and his sons and the sons of Keturah and their sons went together and dwelt from Pharmon (Pharan) to the entrance of Babylon ... toward the east opposite the desert. And these mingled with each other, and their name was called Arabs and Ishmaelites." Jubilees 20:10

Mohammed

In Mecca lived an ambitious person named "Mohammed." He said that he was Allah's spokesman. Mecca was the marshaling yard for spice caravans arriving from all over the world. Mohammed and his followers were driven from Mecca. He and his followers fled north to Medena, a city sitting astride the spice route from Mecca to Baghdad, the route to Alexandria, and the one to the Far East. Soundly ensconced in his new city, Mohammed forbade spice caravans to pass. For almost a year hundreds of thousands of camels sat idle consuming enormous amounts of forage. Caravans backed up all the way to China. Armies were sent to dislodge him. Medina had water - the armies in the desert didn't. They failed.

At last, the great spice merchants had had enough of the squabbling. The word was sent to the rulers of Mecca to make whatever concessions were needed to start the caravans moving again. Mohammed's demands were simple enough. He demanded that he be accepted as the prophet of Allah, and, that he rule both Mecca and Medena. This was agreed. With the combined armies of Mecca and Medena, Mohammed quickly conquered the Christian Arabs, Jewish Arabs, and Anamist Arabs living throughout the rest of Arabia. They were all converted to Mohammad's "Islam," and Mohammed became the most powerful person in the Near East. Under his rule "Islam" exploded in all directions.

Arab-Hun Invasions

Many years before Mohammed, a group of "Arabs" invaded China and were named "Huns." They vanished back into the deserts and emerged near the Black Sea where the E. German "Goths" lived. They were defeated in France, and their powerful leader Attila was killed by Ildico in 453. Ildico was the daughter of a German prince on whom Attila forced an adulterous marriage.¹¹ The Huns then retreated to Hungary (#9 on the above chart) where they still live. At the time of Attila a large number of them had converted to a "trade- christianity." It made it easier to do business. Later, when the Islamic invasions came, many converted to Islam. Today, most are again "christians."

During the Hungarian revolt against the Soviets, hundreds of these Hungarian "refugees" swarmed into Virginia. I worked at the Virginia Unemployment Commission and interviewed many of them. Most were dark skinned shifty-eyed types, not at all like their newspaper and magazine pictures. I was surprised at their appearance and their reluctance to do farm work. They would take a farm job and "disappear" two weeks later. I had no realistic idea of what a "Hun" was.

Arab Invasions

The "Arabs" in Arabia, inflamed by the teachings of Mohammed, invaded the Near East (1), Egypt (2), and proceeded to crash through the defenses of the Byzantine Empire right up to the gates of Constantinople itself. In the process they annexed the province of what is now "Turkey," killing or subjugating its adamite population (3).¹² The fortifications of Constantinople held back Islam - for the 11 "Neither shalt thou make marriages with them: thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son." Deu 7:3

12 ADAM: Heb: "man" 119 - "to show blood(in the face), ie: to flush or turn rosy: - be (dyed, made) red (ruddy). Strong's Concordance.

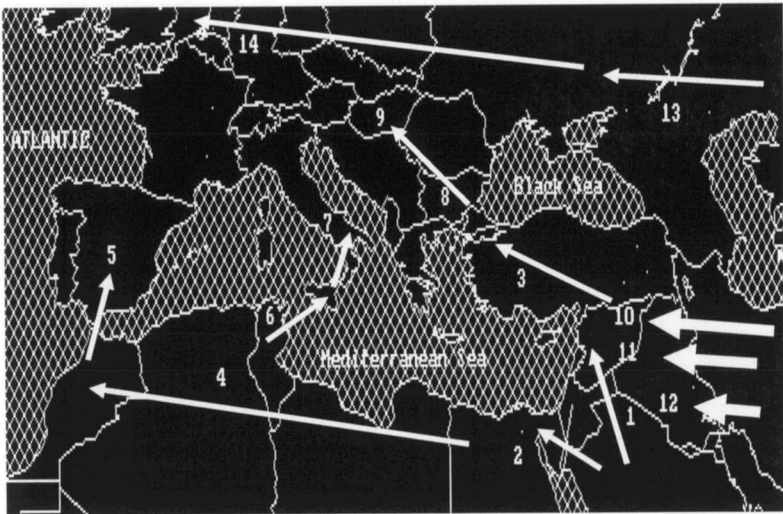

Figure 3: Arab-Turk Invasions

(1) Arabs poured out of Arabia into the Near East. (2) They next invaded Egypt. (3) Then they crashed through the defenses of the Byzantine Empire and annexed what is now Turkey. (4) Failing to take Constantinople they changed direction and poured across N. Africa, (5) and invaded Spain. (6) Failing in their effort to invade France, (6) they invaded Sicily (7) and S. Italy. (8) The Arabs, now called "Turks", overwhelmed Constantinople and drove into Europe proper, (9) where they were aided by the Huns of Hungary (early Arab invaders) in their attack on Austria.

(10) Additional invaders - Seljuk-Turks, (11), Ottoman Turks (12) and Mongols added numbers at various times. The most recent and most successful is the Khazar-Turk invasion (14) which subdued Russia and smashed a German revolt. It is under their auspices that Turks are flooding Italy, France, Germany, Britain, Scandinavia, America, S. Africa, and Australia - in a massive - and thus far uncontested continuation of the Crusades.

time being.

Next, the Arabs swept across North Africa (4), again conquering or killing its considerable adamite population, and crossed over into Spain (5) where they drove the "Visigoths" into the mountains of the northwest. They ruled Spain for almost 1000 years before the Goths emerged from the mountains and drove them back to N. Africa, leaving many still living in the land. This remnant converted from Islam to Catholicism and were called "Morescos" by the adamite-Goths. Great numbers of Moresco descendants live in Spain today. Some of the invading Arabs converted to Judaism. These also converted to Catholicism. They were called "Maranos." The descendants of both are usually easy to identify since they look like their ancestors, the Arab/Turks, and still speak Spanish with a Saracen accent.

These Morescos and Maranos, good Catholics but undesirable in Spain, were encouraged to migrate to Spain's overseas colonies. Many joined the armies of the Conquistadors who invaded and settled South and Central America. The Arab/Turk is well represented in the bloodstream of today's Hispanic peoples. They no longer follow Islam or Judaism, but are good Catholics. "Hispanic-Turks" would be a better name for them. It's important to know that Turks profess all sorts of religious beliefs, but first - they are TURKS! It explains a lot.

Arab invaders next crossed the Mediterranean Sea and conquered Sicily (6). From Sicily they invaded southern Italy (7). Both Islamic Sicilians and Southern Italians converted to Catholicism. Their descendents still speak Italian with Saracen accents, and most look like their Saracen ancestors - "Sicilian" and "Italian-Turks." One cannot tell them apart from Turks living in other lands.

Turk Invasions of Turkish Lands

After the initial Arab conquest subsided, a new invasion of Turkish peoples flooded the Near East. These new invaders were called Seljuk-Turks (10). They were the same people as the people already living in the Near East, but having a different name. They quickly adopted Islam and the Arabic language, and merged in with the local population and became indistinguishable from them. Next:

Ottoman Turks

On the heels of the Seljuk-Turks came the Ottoman-Turk invasion (11). Same people - different name. They too learned Arabic adding many of their own Turkic words. They also adopted the Islamic religion and became almost indistinguishable from those they conquered. The Ottoman-Seljuk-Arab "Turks" completed the conquest of Constantinople and stormed into Europe where they populated Albania, Bulgaria (occupied by Bulgars), and left Turk enclaves in what is now Yugoslavia. Many of these invaders switched to "trade-christianity." The Ottoman Empire lasted until WWI, and it is presently in the process of forming into something else under different leadership.

Ottoman Strategy Of Conquest

When the situation permitted, the Ottoman-Turks avoided direct assaults on lands they wished to occupy. They would infiltrate a family at a time until the population was largely Turk, and then the entire country would fall to the Turks by default. When they could, the Ottomans followed the custom of their kinsmen, the Huns and the Mongols, and used the armies of the peoples they conquered, rather than use their own.

Mongols

The Mongols were kinsmen of the Turks. They conquered both China and India, and occupied the Near East for a time (12). Some stayed and were absorbed. Some were driven away. They practiced all different religions - with sanitized "christianity" predominating. They were strong on "christianity" because they thought the crusaders would win. The crusaders' defeat caused them to switch to Islam instead.¹³ They ruled in the Russias to the north. The Rus-Slav alliance fought these invaders for hundreds of years until they were finally defeated. First called "Mongols," they were later called "Tartars," and lastly, lumped with others practicing Islam, they were called "Turks." In 1917, a Khazar-Turk alliance with the Slavs overthrew the Russ-Slav ruling alliance. The Khazar-Turks secured rule over what had formerly been the entire Russian Empire - a vast land area.

Khazar Turks

The Khazar Turks settled on the lower Russian Rivers in the 7th Century. They were tax-collectors for the Mongols and much hated by the Slavs. The Academic American Encyclopedia has this to say about them.

"Khazars (kah'-zars) "The Khazars, a Turkic people ... dominated substantial parts of S. Russia during much of the 7th through 10th centuries. During the 8th century the Khazar aristocracy and the kagan (king) were converted to Judaism. ... and for 4 centuries thereafter this Jewish empire held the balance of power between the Christian Byzantine Empire and the Muslim Caliphate. ... The Khazars controlled many of the trade routes to the Orient; some of the Radhanites (Jewish merchants from Gaul), for example, were accustomed to crossing the Khazar empire while traveling to and from China and India. ... In 965, Svyatoslav I, Duke of Kiev, decisively defeated the Khazar army. ... new waves of ¹³ The people of the WORD are the only people on earth who cling to one faith. They are either Christian or they are nothing. With the exception of a few sub-normals, they never adopt Laws, Statutes and Judgements other than their own.

Turkic invaders overran the remains of the Khazar state."¹⁴

The Khazar-Turks, defeated in battle and fleeing Ottoman-Turk and Russian-Slav rule, fled into Europe seeking refuge. The arrival of these numerous strangers attracted the attention of the Catholic Church, who virtually enslaved them for its own use. Their adopted religion, Judaism, allowed them to do what the WORD forbade Christians to do - "usury banking." By using these Khazar-Turks the Church could accrue the benefits of usury without incurring its curse.¹⁵ In Spain, Britain, and the U.S., economic interests caused many to convert to "trade-christianity."

The Turks' Dream

Aided by Catholic Church toleration, Khazar-Turks became and are today the world's leading factor in banking. They have also become the leading factor in media and trade. Where Ottoman-Turks were once the undisputed leaders - the Khazars have now assumed leadership. Originally desert nomads, they moved to S. Russia and Poland. From there they established enclaves in London, New York, San Francisco, Odessa, Johannesburg, and Palestine. In Palestine the Khazar-Turks are presently embroiled in territorial and religious disputes with Palestinian Ottoman-Turks. This is an ongoing thing among Turks over which only Westerners seem to become upset. The ally of the 14 Also: The History of the Jewish Khazars, D. M. Dunlop, 1954, 1967. Koestler, Arthur, The 13th Tribe: The Khazar Empire and its Heritage, 1976.

15 (1) "Unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury; but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury." Deu 23:20. (2) "He that hath not given forth upon usury ... he shall surely live ... Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ez 18:8-13

Islamic- Palestinians is Islamic Iraq. Iraq is being manhandled by the "Christian" armies of tributary Western states in true Turk style.

Turk control of the world's religious establishments which bless international trade is absolute. No priest, mullah, or rabbi may appear on Turk media who does not proclaim that "immigration" and "integration" of the ruling Turks (and others selected by them) - is god's will.

Regardless of who emerges as leader - the thousand year old objective of the Turkish crusades remains - the conquest of Europe. Europe is being flooded "Ottoman-style" with Turks from Morocco, Libya, Egypt, and Iran - one family at a time. Even the remote lands in the very north - Norway, Sweden, and Scotland receive their share. To bolster their numbers - blacks, Indians, and "children of the East" (orientals) are recruited and imported. The Turk-owned media refers to the invaders as "poor abused refugees."

In America, the invasion of Mideast-Turks is swelled by Hispanic- Turks, plus ancillary blacks, and "children of the East." The exact same situation exists in S. Africa, Australia, and New Zealand - the other Western lands.

The present invasion has gone further, conquered more, and inflicted more casualties on Christendom than all the other invasions combined. But, the Turk does what he does only because the priest blesses his acts and stands holding the door for him.¹⁶ The Turk is not to be blamed for doing what Turks do.

16 "Son of man, ... There is a conspiracy ... Her priests have violated my law, ... they have put no difference between the holy and the profane, neither have they showed difference between the unclean and the clean ... and I am profaned among them. Her princes are like wolves ravening the prey." Ezek 22:23- 27

The Teachers

Strangers cannot trade if God will not allow it. The one who allows it is the one who blesses that which God curses. He is God's enemy.¹⁷ The false priest must declare the wolf to be an "honorary sheep" before the wolf may enter the sheepfold to eat sheep. It is the Lawless priest, the serpent¹⁸ whom God placed in high dignity - to instruct us - his true priests.¹⁹ God wants MEN. He doesn't want pansies, sodomites, sleazes, liars, and scam artists. To keep those he selected from becoming such, he gives them daily examples of what he does NOT want, and prominently displays them on TV for the schooling of his own.

One stands in the pulpit and rails against sodomites - but is careful not to reveal the penalty for fear of losing the Turk's gold.²⁰ The next rails against government debt - but sells bonds to his flock and makes usurers of them.²¹ Another cries over the awful Communist Chinese suppression of "christians" and a stranger stands in the pulpit beside him.²²

The "WORD made flesh" has graciously given us these, and countless other examples, so that we can learn and teach our brothers to see the Lawlessness that is bringing the curse

17 "Woe to them ... that justify the wicked for reward." Isaiah 5:22-23

18 Serpant: Heb. naw-kawsh'; a snake, to hiss - whisper a magic spell." Strong's Concordance

19 "Jesus Christ... hath made us kings & priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5,6

20 "If a man lie with mankind ... they shall surely be put to death." Lev 20:13

21 "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13

22 "Neither of the hand of a stranger shall ye offer the bread of your God ... because their corruption is in them, there is a blemish in them: therefore shall they not be accepted for you." Lev 22:25 Gen. Bib.

of God on the nation. There is no better way! Understand what the Turk does, but don't blame him for being what he is. He is a hunter. He does what God put him here to do. The scribes and pharisees, on the other hand, are the ultimate examples of evil. God made them and gave them the job of being false-teachers. They have committed the unforgivable sin punishable by death.²³

Knowing not to murder, they condone it. Knowing not to kidnap - they bless it. These scribes and pharisees are damned by God - to them Law and Lawlessness are the same. They are not "ignorant," they know what they do. On them, prayer is wasted.²⁴ We see and pity, and cannot help. They are the living dead, and are kept here on display by God as living examples of evil. "Because thou has done this, thou art cursed above all ... and dust ("Dust: Heb: aw-fawr'; - "clay," "mud," rubbish." Strong's Concordance) shall thou eat all the days of thy life." Gen 3:14. In these serpents the spirit is gone and "rubbish" is their mouths.

God in his wisdom has provided the wolf, the snake, and the anti-christ to teach his children. They are wonderful teachers - we are good students. We must care for what God

23 The unforgivable sin is; "Now if thou closeth thy mouth and thy nostrils against the winds of heaven and sayest, 'The air is as poison to me, I will not breathe it,' behold thou perishest. ... if he shall say knowing in his heart ... I will call good evil, and the Holy Spirit I will call unholy': then lo, his spirit dieth within him." Philochristus 13:20-21. The man who KNOWINGLY breaks God's Law - the violation of which is punishable by death - such as premeditated-murder, kidnaping, or rape - he has committed the "unforgivable sin." For sin against the Holy Spirit there is no hope, no redemption, and no forgiveness. As "false-witnesses" they incur the penalty due false-witnesses; "If a false witness rise up ... to testify ... that which is wrong ... Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother ... life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot." Deu 19:16-21

24 "I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me, for they are thine." John 17:9

has provided. We must protect them from harm. Without them our task would be immeasurably hard. With them - people have begun to yearn for the protection of God's Law - and the Law and the Lawmaker cannot be divided.²⁵

"I created man from the invisible and visible ... I appointed him ruler ... to have my wisdom ... I called his name Adam and showed him the two ways ... and I told him 'this is good, and that is bad' that I should learn whether he had love toward me, or hatred, that it be clear which in his race love me." Enoch 30:12-14

UNFILTERED NEWS

RUSSIA REGULATES RELIGION: The Russian parliament is ready to pass restrictions on imported religion. The "trade- religion" of Russia is the "Orthodox Church." It served first the Tzars, next, the Communist Party, and now it serves the present government. "If you don't obey the government you go to hell - after you first get what you deserve." Anything the current government says or does is "great." It is "sanitized religion" in its purist form and staffed with government agents. Russian rulers must regulate new religions to see that they stay within set limits. There is nothing worse for tyrants than an unregulated god running loose spreading unfounded rumors, making claims, and demanding rights. The Orthodox Church was organized 1700 years ago to prevent that.

²⁵ "The Lawmaker and his Law are one." Geneva Bible, Knox & Calvin, et al, fn 5, James 2.

Letter From South Africa by K.J.

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: I was hoping for clarity here in S. Africa by now. Instead, confusion abounds. The Conservative Party is the large White opposition party - it is now larger than DeKlerk's party, but DeKlerk refuses to hold elections.

"A woman with a daughter in intelligence told me they think the ANC killed Hani, the radical black ANC leader. That makes the arrest of Clive and Gaye Derby-Lewis strictly political. Without Gaye, the "Patriot," a newspaper for Whites, is of little use. These two people have worked long for harmony between the English speaking and Afrikaans speaking White S. Africans.

"Murder of whites has become so frequent as to not be worthy of notice by the papers. My husband increasingly tells me to tighten security and he is right, but what a way to live.

Our thoughts are with the Christian Patriots in America. The wolf-connection in S. Africa is turning to the same "Waco" and "Ruby Ridge" tactics here. The arrests of the Derby- Lewises are an example.

"So many of our people have lost their jobs, and consequently everything else. The numbers are much more than in 1930. Back then the state made work on roads, dams, etc. Not now. The authorities will not even lend a white family a tent even when they have no where to go. But, affirmative action places blacks in high paying jobs for which they have not the least training. They do not pay more than 10% tax and receive special medical insurance also.

"A white man who has a printing firm and does a lot of work for the ANC understands black languages. The talk among blacks is to 'rape all white women and kill all white people.' He said this will happen when they win the election. Our survival is no longer in man's hands.

"I find myself increasingly at odds with people who appear "unconcerned" over our future." K. J. - South Africa

Back to Table of Contents

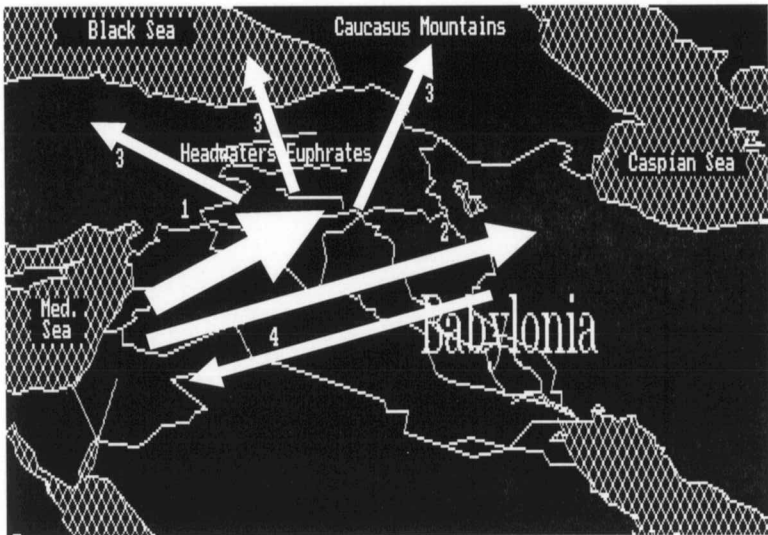

Chapter 228

SADDUCEES

The Scriptures speak at length of Israelites, Edomites, Jews, Pharisees, and Sadducees. Today's preachers plead stupidity. This is their excuse for preaching "positive thinking" in place of the WORD. They say nothing about SADDUCEES. Mention of the ongoing war of the Sadducee against their ancient enemy - the WORD - never passes their lips. If it did, their listeners would tar and feather them.

Israel Into Captivity

"Sadducees" are mentioned for the first time when King Hyracanus conquered the Idumeans. The Idumeans (Edomites) were descendants of Esau and a daughter of a Canaanite. The Idumeans were doubly cursed by God. Once by descent from Esau¹, and also by descent from Cain.² The

Israel Into Captivity

1: Millions of Israelites taken into captivity. 2: The nation of Judah taken into captivity. 3: Israel flees through Turkey. Some leave by the Black Sea and go onto the Danube and the Russian rivers where they are known as Goths. Some cross the Caucasus Mountains and are known by its name, and some move overland and are known as Sythians and Saxons. 4: Less than 50,000 of Judea return to rebuild the temple.

curse placed on Cain and his descendants was "Be trembling and quaking." Then Cain trembled and became terrified; and through this sign did God make him an example before all the creation." I Adam & Eve 74:24- 25. To this day the sign of Cain is FEAR. Their fear is that someone is trying to catch and kill them. They see Indians in every forest and behind every tree. It is the sign placed on them by God.

1 "Son of man"(Heb: "adam," "he who blushes red." Strong's Concordance), set thy face against mount Seir (mount Seir - pertaining to Edom - sons of Esau, those who occupied the land of Judah after the nation of Judah was taken into captivity) ... and say ... I am against thee ... because thou hast ... shed the blood of the children of Israel." Ezek 35:2-5. (Ezek 35:9-10), (Ezek 36:4-6)

2 (1) "And Esau there saw in the land of Seir the daughter of a man of Canaan ... And Esau took her for a wife." Jasher 29:20-23 (2) "Esau the father of the Edomites in mount Seir." Gen 36:9.

They even build monuments to commemorate their fear. "Everyone" is suspect. Even the neighbor across the street.³ Every day they uncover a new conspiracy and plot to do them in. It is not anything they can help. God identifies them "through this sign."⁴

The conquest of Esau-Edom (Idumea) took place after Israel was taken captive into Babylon, and before the time of Christ.

Israel had acted badly. God sent the Babylonians and Assyrians to beat some sense into them. Assyria conquered Israel, and took millions captive and moved them to the region northeast of Palestine, just south of the Caucasus Mountains in what is now Eastern Turkey. This was about 700 B.C. (See Chart #1 on p.2.)

"The 10 tribes ... whom Salmanasar the King of Assyria led away captive ... took this counsel among themselves, that they would leave the multitude of the heathen, and go forth into a further country, where never mankind dwelt, that they might there keep their statutes, which they never kept in their own land. And they entered into Euphrates by the narrow passages of the river.... For through that country there was a great way to go, namely of a year and a half, and the same region is called Arsareth." II Esdras 13:39-45

3 "So long as one gentile lives opposite one Jew, the possibility of a Holocaust remains." Story of the Jewish Defense League, p.5, Rabbi Meir Kahane, Chilton Book Co., Radnor, PA 1975

4 Cain appears when there is a Law violation to feed on. He is God's "red flag" that sin is in the land. He is conspicuous. Without Cain's help, the poisonous Sadducee would remain hidden. Cain is God's servant. As God's servant he is protected by God. "And the Lord said ... whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the Lord set a mark on Cain, lest any finding him should kill him." Gen 4:14-15. Every Canaanite has a Sadducee agent who has opened the door for him. Locate the Sadducee by finding the Canaanite. Protect yourself if the Canaanite bites, but - leave Cain alone. Don't believe the Sadducee when he says he hates Cain - while taking his gold. Cain can not live in the land without the Sadducee doorkeeper. God's enemy is the Sadducee. He leads the sheep to Cain. When the Sadducee repents and obeys Christ - Cain will leave - or starve. Only then.

Hyrchanus Conquests 134 - 104 BC:

The Israelites returned from Babylonian captivity to rebuild the temple. They complained about Edomites in Judea (Esau's Descendants mixed with Cananites). Centuries later King Hyrcanus invaded Idumea (1) and forced the accursed Idumeans to accept the WORD - a violation of the Law. From this time there are two kinds of Jews - "Judean-Israelites" from Judea, and "Idumean-Jew" from Idumea who were proclaimed "Jews" by Hyrcanus. 2: Hyrcanus invaded Samaria, peopled with Arabs brought in 600 years before to replace Israelites taken into captivity. Palestine was a sandwich affair: 3: Galilee-Israelite, Samaria-Arab, Judean-Israelite, and Essau-Idumea whose influence over the whole land through the Herod kings subverted everything the WORD stood for. This required Christ himself to set matters right.

The "narrow passages" spoken of are the shallow headwaters of the Euphrates near the northern border of Assyria-Babylonia. Traveling only 8 miles a day, a minimum of 4000 miles might be covered in a year and a half - a distance covering Europe and Asia. American settlers crossed the North American continent in 150 years. The Israelites could be expected to go many times that distance in the 700 years before Christ.

The rest of Judah was conquered later and taken to Babylon. 50,000 returned to rebuild their destroyed temple. When they got back to Jerusalem they found much of Judea was occupied by Idumean squatters. They asked the king of

Babylon to write them a letter to vacate.⁵

The Edomites had long been cursed by God (see footnote #1), and they were a mixed people.⁶

Sadducees

John Hyrcanus, king and high-priest of the reconstituted Judea, invaded Idumea and conquered them. The WORD prohibited transacting business with Edomites or allowing them in the land.⁷ But, Hyrcanus insisted. He needed them to work the land he had just conquered, pay taxes, and furnish recruits for his army. In any event, he was the leading priest, in fact, High Priest as well as king. The people had allowed the king to become too strong and were unable to prevent him from violating the WORD. He forgot that the King of Kings watched.⁸ This type of conduct had caused Moses to include the "booke of this Law" in the Ark of the

5 "Darius the king ... wrote ... that the Edomites should give over the villages of the Jews which they held." 1 Esdras 4:47- 50

6 (21) "The Jews (of Judea) are such by nature, and from the beginning, whilst the Idumeans were not Jews from the beginning, but Phoenicians and Syrians."
"Josephus," Antiquities; 13:19:1 footnote: Krugal Pub, MI 1981. (2) "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." De 23:2

7 "Thou shall make no covenant with them ... For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods." Deut 7:2,4, (2) "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me. 1 Ki 4:21,24

8 To protect his people against the snares of "the priest," "organized religion," and the local "ministerial association," God had Moses make "the Levites" put God's Law in the Ark of the Covenant so that everyone would know when the Levites were lawless: "Take the booke of this Law, and put ye it in the side of the Arke of the covenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a witness () against thee. For I know thy rebellion ... ye are rebellious against the Lord: how much more then after my death? ... For I am sure that after my death, ye will utterly be corrupt and turne from the way which I have commanded you: therefore evill will come upon you at the length, because ye will commit evill in the sight of the Lord, by provoking him to anger through the worke of your hands." Deut 31:26-29 Geneva Bible. (Bible Margin note: "Of thine infidelity, when thou shalt turne away from the doctrine contained therein.)

Covenant - so that "kings" appointed by God (footnote #17) could constantly compare the treacherous acts of priests and rulers with the WORD of God.

Hyrcanus professed to be a Pharisee, which at that time meant that the WORD must be obeyed exactly. The WORD forbade Hyrcanus from doing what he wanted to do, so he abandoned the Pharisees and joined the "Sadducees" sect. The Sadducees believed that one should prudently give "lip service" to the WORD, but, that if and when the WORD conflicted with the unLawful edicts of the king - obey the king. "Sadduceeism" permits one to do that which is forbidden by God.⁹ "The king" protests that it his "divine right" to rule as he likes.

Four Philosophies

Josephus said that there were four philosophies among the Jews - Sadducee, Pharisee, Essens, and Zealots. Each had its own beliefs. According to Josephus:

"The Pharisees regard observance of their doctrine and commandments as of most importance, and they believe that souls have power to survive death and receive rewards or punishments."

The Pharisees of the early period may be compared to Scottish Presbyterians or "hard-shell" Baptists of yesteryear. They were strict and looked to the WORD down until the time of Hyrcanus (about 100 B.C.). Some, like Josephus, kept the WORD on through the destruction of Judea in the Roman War.

9 "Hyrcanus went over to the party of the Sadducees, that is, by embracing their doctrines ... added to the written law, and made of equal authority with it" Antiquities fn 13:11:5

"The Sadducees teach that the soul dies along with the body, and they observe no tradition apart from the [kings] laws. Whenever they assume office, however, they submit to the formulas of the Pharisees (lip service), because the masses would not tolerate them otherwise.¹⁰

"The Essenes believe in the immortality of the soul and strive for righteousness, but they use a different ritual ... and so are barred from the temple sanctuary. ... this sect holds their property in common, and do not bring wives or slaves into the community, but live off by themselves.¹¹ ... they are also extraordinarily interested in ancient writings. So strictly do they observe the Sabbath that they will not even defecate on that day.

The Essenes believed everything the Pharisees believed, plus "something else." The "something else" depended on the sect of Essene being discussed. America has a hundred such groups today.

"[The Zealots'] ... have an overwhelming desire for liberty with the conviction that God alone is their leader. They will easily endure any sort of pain or death so long as they do not have to call man their master.¹² These, then, are the philosophies among the Jews." Jewish Antiquities, Roman Judea A 18:1:WII,117. (Josephus, the Essential Writings, p. 260, Paul L. Maier, Dregel Pub. Grand Rapids, MI 49501, 1988)

The West has many groups of Christian "Zealots." There were scores of such groups just before the American Revolution. The "original" KKK formed after the War was one of many such groups. There are presently several score of the same kind. "The Order" is perhaps the best known.

10 "When it became necessary to make new legislation, the Sadducean priests issued decrees without looking for support in the Torah ... " New Jewish Encyclopedia, Pharisees

11 Keeping wives and children elsewhere prevented family disputes; "no servants" prevented the "attitude" of the rich.

12 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: foreign, adulterous.) over thee, which is not thy brother." De 17:15 The king of Judea was Herod - descended from the accursed Edomites. He was their enemy.

Sadducees - Their Beginnings

The Sadducean sect is believed to have come into being when Palestine was occupied by Greek and Syrian invaders. These foreign rulers passed statutes that violated the WORD, and punished those who disobeyed with confiscations, dismemberment, and even by frying some in great frying pans.¹³ To avoid the displeasure of "the king," some Judean-Israelites became "Sadducees" and supported whatever the king demanded, even when it meant disobeying the WORD and incurring the wrath of the Pharisees and Zealots. This "anti- God choice" denied them "heaven," so they went all the way and denied the "existence" of heaven. Most Sadducees were rich people, or people trying to become rich, who traded with the stranger. They still are.¹⁴ The Maccabean Wars against the alien invaders forced the people to choose either to obey the WORD, or to obey the unLawful decrees of the king - hence the constant struggle between the "Pharisees" and the "Sadducees."

When Hyrcanus became a Sadducee the political and religious leadership of Judea passed into the hands of that sect until just before the War with Rome that resulted in the destruction of the Temple. The Sadducees presided over a "state-religion," which gave lip service to Pharisee beliefs,

13 See Vigilantes of Christendom, Hoskins, PO Box 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505. 472 p. hb. $22/copy

14 (1) "The Sadducees are able to persuade none but the rich." Antiquities 13:6:6. (2) "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." Matt 19:24 but which introduced heresy after heresy into Israel (see footnote #9). Even the Pharisees became corrupt by accepting Sadducean decrees which became known as "oral traditions."

Transforming Edomites Into Jews

"Hyrcanus ... subdued all the Idumeans; and permitted them to stay in that country, if they would circumcise their genitals, and make use of the laws of the Jews ... at which time ... they were hereafter no other than Jews." Antiquities 13:9:1.¹⁵ "The (Israelite) Jews are such by nature, and from the beginning, whilst the Idumeans were not Jews from the beginning, but Phoenicians and Syrians; but being afterwards subdued by the Jews and compelled to be circumcised and to unite into one nation, and be subject to the same laws, they were called Jews." Josephus, "Antiquities;" 13:19:1 foot-note "Ammonius:" Krugal Pub, MI 1981¹⁶

Before the time of Hyrcanus, the word "Jew" referred to the Israelites of Judea who had come back to rebuild the temple. The Samaritans tried to join with them, but were rebuffed. Even the strangers who accompanied them from Babylon had been discarded. When Hyrcanus turned Edomites into "Jews" he did a revolutionary thing - a thing that brought chaos and destruction to the nation of Judea.

15 Sadducee priests do this today. They bless what God has cursed, they say that wolves are sheep. They then combine accursed Edomites with blessed Israelite-Christians into a mixed flock and say that "Jews are God's Chosen people," as if Edomites and Israelites are the same. This is just what Hyrcanus did. Which Judeans are "God's chosen people?" The Edomite-Judeans? or the Israelite-Judeans? God himself denies that both are.

16 This is where the great controversy comes from. While Hyrcanus proclaimed both "Jews," - who is a blessed Israelite-Jew? and who is a cursed Edomite-Jew? Jesus side-steps the argument, but answers the question, by calling himself "Son- of-Man." If false priests had not concealed such basic knowledge down through the ages, "Son-of-man" would be sufficient.

This let the wolf into the sheepfold in violation of the Law of the Shepherd. To survive in the sheepfold (which is a forbidden zone to wolves) the wolves must have friendly gatekeepers to sponsor them and false shepherds to protect them from the sheep. Hyrcanus was their man. To survive, wolves MUST always deny that the WORD forbids their presence, and they must also have someone convince nearby sheep that the WORD does not forbid wolves. Wolves are Sadducees by nature.

Once in the sheepfold it was only a question of time before an Edomite ruled the entire mixed flock. Herod, the Edomite king who killed the Israelite children, was an anti-Israelite Edomite. Ruling as king, his views and opinions permeated everything. His spies were everywhere. He had his own "Herodian Party" composed of Sadducees. Jesus spoke of them, "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not..." Rev. 2:9 King Herod, of the cursed Edomite/Cannonite line, built the Temple in which Israelites worshiped. Herod helped shape their beliefs. The wolves ruled Judea (see footnote #12). Even the formerly Law-abiding Pharisees became corrupted as they were forced to accept Sadducee rulings. Matters were bad by the time of Jesus. The "WORD made flesh" came to save his people - Israel - who were truly "lost." "I was sent to the lost sheep of the house of Israel, and to them alone." Matt 15:24 N.E.B. This fulfilled the scripture, "For thou art not sent ... but to the house of Israel." EZ 3:5

Jesus - The First Reformation

Jesus brought the WORD to the people created by the WORD - the WORD that had been forgotten. This began "The First Reformation."

Three centuries later, Emperor Constantine, the murderer of his wife and eldest son, discovered that the WORD brought by Jesus, undermined his monopolistic rule. He organized the "Christian religion" and placed himself at its head. Waving crosses, sprinkling holy water, and chanting prayers, he gave lip service to the WORD and executed those who disobeyed his statutes. The Sadducee was alive and well (see foot-note #8).

The WORD survived countless evil Sadducee rulers. James VI of Scotland swore to uphold the WORD, the Laws, Statutes and Judgments of God. He renounced the crown's monopolies of money, trade, and land. When offered the crown of Britain, he quickly renounced the Covenant. The WORD was replaced by his own decrees.

Oliver Cromwell gave lip service to the WORD. A holy man who prayed much, he fought for the Covenanters. When in power - he fought against the Covenanters he had earlier fought for. He refused to divide the land. He taxed the people, and permitted usurers and strangers to enter the country. "The divine right of kings" meant that kings can do anything they want to do. It still means that - to Sadducees.

Charles II made no pretense of obeying the WORD. He directed that Covenanters be hunted down in the forests and glens and be given the choice of saying "God save the king," or having their brains blown out. Thousands chose to die rather than disobey the WORD. Only to the "King of kings" would they say "God save the KING!" This is always treason to the Sadducees in whatever age. The "faithful" believed themselves to be kings appointed by the King of Kings¹⁷ - and to the WORD only would they pledge obedience.

They were imprisoned wholesale and shipped off to America - where their descendants still refused to say "God save the king." The king's appointed Sadducee-priests were conspicuous by their lack of spiritual support and help in the cause of freedom. When the shooting started between the colonists and king, they gathered their wealth, tucked tail, and ran home to their master where their great numbers made them "inconvenient" to have around. What they did then they have done many times since. The occasional exception proves the rule.

The 2nd Reformation

John Calvin, a Catholic priest, saw the evils of Sadduceism. Seeing that the people were deprived of a Bible to guide their steps, he and others like him wrote one. Seeing unlawful decrees of evil kings and churchmen held high as if they were the words of God, he encouraged the faithful to obey the WORD only:

"I know with what great and present peril this constancy (to obey God) is menaced, because kings bear defiance with the greatest displeasure, whose "wrath is a messenger of death" (Prov 16:14), says Solomon. But since this edict has been proclaimed by the heavenly herald, Peter - "We must obey God rather than men" (Acts 5:29) - let us comfort ourselves with the thought that we are rendering that obedience which the Lord requires when we suffer anything rather than turn aside from piety. And that our courage may not grow faint, Paul pricks at us with another goad: That we have been redeemed by Christ at so great a price as our redemption cost him, so that we should not enslave ourselves to the wicked desires of men - much less be subject to their impiety (ICor. 7:23). GOD BE PRAISED."¹⁸

After a brief 150 years, the Sadducees again subdued the unauthorized use of the WORD and the sheepfold has again been overrun by wolves. As promised - the world teeters on the edge of chaos.

Today Under Modern Sadducees

Before the spice merchant can trade, or before wolves can enter the sheepfold, a false shepherd must be found to persuade the sheep that wolves have god's permission to roam the sheepfold. No trade may take place until this is done. The magic of the Sadducee is indispensable.

"Holy men" are hired by the spice merchants to give god's blessings the spice merchant needs to transact business. When conflict arises between God and the state - the Sadducee sides with the king against God. So do those in the Sadducean party. Sadducee priests give lip service to the WORD - but almost NEVER quote the Law with its statutes and judgments. To do so might conflict with the interests and decrees of their master - the one who directly pays them or gives them tax exemption.

Of The King, By the King, & For The King

This "loyalty" is seen in all jobs and professions that are associated with and uphold the king's decrees - they are paid by the king either directly or indirectly - such jobs as government employees, judges, lawyers, police, usury bankers, teachers, prison guards, professional soldiers, etc. Without the state ruling as king, most would be unemployed. Those who obey and enforce the king's statutes every day tend to become like the statutes - like Caesar - even before God. Sadduceism can be an occupational hazard.

¹⁸ Institutes of the Christian Religion, John Calvin, The Westminster Press, Philadelphia. 1960 (Dedicated to Francis I (reigned 1515-1547) Valois king of France. Book 4: ch 20, PP 1

The socialist state requires absolute obedience to its scientific approach to Marxism - if Marxism is to work. Conflicting laws of inferior political ententes must be suppressed (Panama, Granada, Somolia, Virginia, Nevada, Belgium, Egypt, S. Africa, Australia, etc.) as well as conflicting supernatural laws (ie Islam, and the WORD). This is the reason for the crusade by the king's courts to suppress the WORD. There cannot be two sets of regulations in a socialist state.

To implement the rule of the state, the king appoints judges who find that the Laws contained in the WORD are unlawful. When you take a grievance against the king to the king's court to be decided by the king's judge according to the king's law, the lawyer you hired has already sworn to uphold the king's law to get his license. He is addressed as "an officer of the (king's) court." Your fate will be decided by the king's agent arguing the king's law with your lawyer who is an officer of the king's court. This is done before the king's judge, under the king's law. The Laws of the WORD of God be damned. It is the "divine right of kings."

To those loyal, the king allows his gate keepers to fleece the flock. He allows them perks received by no one else. Without willing gate keepers the king's rule would collapse (see foot- note #15). Without the king the king's supporters would starve.

The Two Claims

Sadducee priests receive millions yearly in perks to convince the sheep of two things - (1) that "Jesus Christ was a Jew." That "Jews are God's chosen people." AND, the people who call themselves Jews today are "God's chosen people" and should be accorded special privileges. And, (2) - Sheep MUST "integrate" with wolves as commanded by the king - the false shepherd of the sheepfold.

These "Jews," whom the Sadducee priests insist that "god chose," inconsistently claim descent from Esau-Edom.¹⁹ Can these Jews be believed when they claim to be of Esau-Edom? Can the Sadducee priest be believed when they imply that they aren't? Who is lying? One cannot be both an Israelite-Judean and a Edomite- Judean at one and the same time. Which "Judean" or "Jew" are they? To establish "truth" the Sadducee priests never call for the "Three Proofs."²⁰

The other Sadducean argument that the sheep should integrate with the wolves needs no comment. Wolves eat sheep - that's what they do. But, before they can eat sheep, the Sadducees must first open the gate for them so they can enter into the sheepfold.²¹

19 (1) "Edom is in modern Jewry." Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, 1925 edition, vol 5, p 41. (2) "Strictly speaking, it is incorrect to call an ancient Israelite a Jew, or to call a contemporary Jew an Israelite or a Hebrew." Jewish Almanac 1980.

20 (GENUINE ISRAELITES BEAR THE 3 PROOFS OF ISRAEL) (1) God's name - CHRISTIANS - "They shall put my name upon the children of Israel." Num 6:27 (2) Isaac's name, SONS OF ISAAC - ISAACSONS - SAXONS, "In Isaac shall thy name be called." Romans 9:7, and (3) Adamic descent. "Man" in Strong's Concordance is the Hebrew "Adam". "Adam" means to "blush red". "Show blood in the face." Genuine Israelites can produce all three proofs. "CHRISTIAN"- "SAXON"- "MAN".

Vicki - Beginning Of The 3rd Reformation

There are Christians who heed the WORD, who obey the command "Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord." 2 Cor 6:17, because "Thou didst separate them from all the people of the world to be thine inheritance." 1 Ki 8:51, and "Separate yourselves from the people of the land." Ezra 10:11. This "separatism" commanded by God, a basic Christian command, is now being treated as a crime by the state. One cannot have a "One World," or a "New World Order" if people separate themselves.

One who did as God commanded was a mother named Vicki. She and her family came out from among them and lived on Ruby Ridge. This family had separated themselves. An assassin, a "child of the east" was sent by the king to kill this wayward subject of the King of Kings.

One morning, as she stood in the doorway nursing her nine month daughter, this hired assassin took careful aim and blew her brains out. The blood of Vicki Weaver spilled on the altar of Sadduceeism - "lip service to the WORD - obedience to the king." This event started "the 3rd Reformation."

Others were slain before Vicki, and many have been slain since, but this was the first "Christian mother" with a baby in her arms to be sacrificed on the altar of Sadduceeism for obeying God's Law.

God the WORD will force all of his people to choose. The choices appear many - "Christianity," "Sadducees," "Essens," or "Zealots." But actually there are but two - the 21 See The Wolf and the Sheep, Hoskins, VA Pub Co, PO Box 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505. $7.

Law of Christ or the unlawful decrees of the "the king" - the "Christian," or, the "Sadducee."

One will seek to flee the approaching danger by becoming a Sadducee - giving lip service to God while obeying the anti-christ, or he will, like his Master and millions before - offer his blood by obeying the WORD which is God. The choice of one is heaven, the other - hell.

"Greater love hath no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. ... all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit... These things I command you, that ye love one another." John 15:13-17

LETTERS

WOLVES & SHEEP: "Dear Brother Hoskins: The Wolf & The Sheep has been read by over a dozen now. I find that it is more effective than almost anything I could give someone to read about our place in God's plan. In this little book the larger 'concept' behind our Faith becomes easily clear to so many who can't quite understand it all." T. D. - Prisoner, Missouri

WOLF & SHEEP: "Dear Richard: Wolf & The Sheep arrived yesterday and I could scarcely put it down! Should be required reading for our school children. I especially noted: (1) Footnote on pg 72, (2) 2nd paragraph pg. 73, (3) 3rd, 4th, & 5th paragraphs on pg 74." H. R. - Mississippi

NO LAW - CAN'T CONFESS SIN: "Dear Bro Hoskins: Many of our kinsmen have been taught there is no 'Law,' only 'grace.' Without the Law for a teacher they cannot know their sins. Not knowing their sins they can't confess them. They, therefore, cannot repent. Sinners who don't confess their sins can't repent. They have committed an unforgivable sin - but don't know it. We MUST tell them. Unconfessed and unrepented sin cannot be forgiven. It is an unforgivable sin!" W. H. - Pennsylvania.

CORRECTION: "Dear Richard: I have never solicited funds for my Prison Ministry. I work directly with prisoners. The IRS took me for $68,000, refusing any deductions for the Prison Ministry because they do not consider Christians who believe that they are the direct descendants of ancient Israel are 'a legitimate religion.'" Col. Jack Mohr - Mississippi

SAXONS/ISRAEL: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Could you provide me with a reference for the statement that Knox and Calvin believed that Saxons are the lineal descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob." M. J. - Oregon

ED: In writing the Geneva Bible, the reformers - John Calvin, John Knox, and the rest - did not use the impersonal "their," "his," "your" in referring to the patriarchs of the Bible as they would have done if they were referring to someone else's ancestors, but instead used the personal "OUR," such as in "OUR fathers. Example: "At sundry times and in divers manners God spake in the old time to OUR fathers by the Prophets: in these last days he had spoken to US by his Sonne." Heb 1:1 This usage of "OUR" and "US" (my emphasis) refers to the reformers. They were obviously speaking of themselves. It also refers to YOU. This is particularly evident in the "margin notes." The name "Israel" means - "God's representative" - one holding God's "power of attorney." It is important to know WHO has been entrusted with this responsibility. The question of "WHO is Israel" is absolutely basic because "the Word IS God," (John 1:1) and "the Word was given to Israel only" (Ps 147:19- 20). The answer must be resolved correctly or Christendom falls.

ACLU: - Poisonous Fruit. The ACLU's discriminatory intolerance is a matter of record. Recently, they have sought to: * Halt the singing of Christmas carols like 'Silent Night' and 'Away in a Manger' in public facilities; * Deny the Tax-exempt status of all churches - yet maintain it for themselves as well as for various occult groups; * Disallow prayer - not just in the public school classrooms - but in locker rooms, sports arenas, graduation exercises, and legislative assemblies; * Terminate all military and prison chaplains; * Deny Christian school children access to publicly funded services; & Eliminate nativity scenes, crosses, and other Christian symbols from public property; * Repeal all 'blue law' statutes; * Prohibit voluntary Bible reading in public schools - even during free time or after classes; * Remove In God We Trust from our coins; * Deny accreditation to science departments at Bible-believing Christian universities; * Prevent the posting of the Ten Commandments in classrooms; * Terminate all voucher programs and tuition tax credits; * Prohibit census questions about an individual's religious affiliation; * Purge the words "under God," from the Pledge of Allegiance. (From Coral Ridge Ministries; Straight Talk, July 15, 1993)

RKH: I called The Balance, Kirk Lyons, at 704-669-5189 and asked if they belonged to the ACLU. The woman who answered the phone said "YES." Interesting. The ACLU "helps," and in "helping" they learn all about those they "help." This is help?

DAY OF REST: "Mr. Hoskins: Do you advocate keeping the sabbath?" S. D. - Louisiana

RKH: Answer - Yes, but, "Sunday rest" until we are free. Then, whatever we do must be done together. Why? A scientist named Beck tried to explain to me how much more power a man, group, or a community has when energy waves are allowed to subside the 7th day and be reactivated the next day - rather than working through. The same force did not develop if half rested one day and half the next. Whatever is done must be done together. The object is "rest." "Day" was made for the man and not man for the day. I personally would prefer the scriptural day. But, ANY day, "together," until THE day.

=====

Back to Table of Contents

Chapter 229

ARABS & JEWS MAKE PEACE!

"Peace in our time!" "Israel, PLO sign peace accord!" "Rabin, Arafat join hands at White House."

The Arab Invasion

Rome was the greatest empire in the world. Its capitol was Rome. Emperor Constantine built a new city between the Black Sea and the Mediterranean Sea and gave it his name - Constantinople. Profiting from the trade with Russia, the Mideast and Africa, this new trading center became the wealthy capitol of the Eastern half of the Roman Empire consisting of Greece, Southern Russia, Turkey, Palestine, Egypt, and much of North Africa. It was far more profitable and powerful than the Western half of the Roman Empire whose capitol was Rome.

LATIN KINGDOM OF THE CRUSADERS

The furthest limits of Crusader's Latin Kingdom, c. 1128. After conquering Turkey the Crusaders were forced to give it up to Constanople because of earlier agreements between the Catholic Pope and the Emperor of Constanople, who was also head of the Eastern Orthodox Church.

With the passage of time, the population of Greece, Macedonia, and Southern Russia changed as a peaceful migration of Slavic immigrants settled vacant land in Macedonia and Greece. The empire of Constantinople gradually became predominately Slavic. Even the royal family changed as marriages were made with some of the more powerful Slavic and Turkish rulers of their eastern and northeastern neighbors. In the Roman manner, Constantinople's emperor was also its religious head. He led what is now known as the Eastern Orthodox Church. It had become a state religion - the church of the Slavs. It still is.

Then, out of the forbidding deserts of Arabia came mounted invaders. These fierce warriors quickly conquered Palestine, Syria, Egypt, North Africa, and then Turkey. All that was left of the vast territories of Constantinople's empire was the city of Constantinople, Greece, some land in Southern Russia, and a beachhead in Turkey. The land that was lost had produced bountiful rents and tithes to the church. It was a disaster.

Constantinople's religious and temporal emperor saw that he could not regain the lost portion of his empire by himself, so he humbled himself and begged his western counterpart, the Roman Pope, to come to his aid. The actual arrangements between these two holy men were secret, and not confided to those who were to do the actual fighting.

The Crusades

The Catholic Pope of Rome not only ruled the Catholic world - he OWNED the Catholic world. He went to France preaching a Crusade to his noble tenants. His noble rulers held their land in fief to him, and managed it FOR him. As landlord and owner, he explained that he expected them to take their tenants, vassals, and knights, and at their own expense go to far away Palestine to fight an alien people whom they did not know - or he would fire them and hire someone else to manage his fiefs. Their reward would be vast rich manors, counties, towns and cities that they would conquer and rule, and the vast treasure taken from the infidel.

The story that was told to their future widows and orphans was that their men were going on a "holy mission" to free the tomb of Jesus from the grip of the Infidel and if they met an "untimely end" in the process, they would have a free pass straight to heaven. This came directly from God's earthly representative.

This was a persuasive argument. Tens of thousands volunteered. The battle cry, "God Wills It!" rose from the misty valleys of Europe as yeomen went home and put new strings on their bows, knights and squires gathered their seven man battle teams, barons gathered their companies and regiments, earls formed up their divisions, and kings led their armies and began a holy march, each man with a distinctive cross sewn on his tunic, and banners flying over all.

Secret Weapons

These "volunteers" had two secret weapons that gave them success. The first - technological superiority. The knights were almost completely encased in mail, and, their martial training was superior to anything the Arabs had ever encountered. A handful of crusaders, almost invulnerable to the blows of their enemies, were often more than a match for many times their number of Arab opponents.

Second - they were united - in cause and organization. By Western standards, the usual chaos reigned, but by eastern standards where every man's hand is perpetually against his brother, the Crusaders were seen as the fingers of an invincible mailed fist.¹

Constantinople & The Crusaders

The approach of "friendly" but massive Crusader armies caused apprehension at Constantinople. They shut the gates of the city and manned the walls when they saw the flash of steel on armor in the distance. They did all they could to get the Crusader armies away from Constantinople and over the 1 "Organization" dictated by the WORD, and God's "inventions" given his people for defense, are the two weapons that have protected Westerners down through the centuries. Absence of the WORD to direct, and sale of God-given weapon-ideas to strangers to be used in time against them causes the destruction of God's people.

Bosphorus waterway into Turkey as fast as they could, and, they weren't overly polite in the process. The Crusaders thought of themselves as "fighters for God" - unpaid "liberators." The Slavic Empire of Constantinople thought of them as hired mercenaries.

There were other irritations. The Crusaders were "Catholic-Christian," the people of Constantinople were "Orthodox-Christian." Most Crusaders were Nordic-Westerners - the Eastern Empire was mostly Slav. Most Crusaders spoke French - the empire spoke Greek. There was ample room for misunderstanding. The Crusaders felt that they had a savage Arab enemy in front, and a treacherous Orthodox "christian" enemy behind them. At least they had learned that much.

Conquest Of Jerusalem

Before the Crusaders arrived, the Mideast had just suffered another invasion - this time by the Seljuk Turks. The former political governments had been shattered. Every city and town was essentially on its own, and had become the headquarters of a local emir who warred for supremacy against his neighbors. There was conflict all over the Mideast too as it fought to determine who was to rule the whole. The entire area was a seething cauldron - everyone fought, schemed, plotted, and warred against his neighbor. The Crusade marched into this pandemonium.

The local village or city finding itself directly in the path of the Crusader advance saw the Crusaders as an unstoppable steamroller. Many made desperate efforts to come to terms with them, but often found them hardheaded and obstinate. Most simply fled. A few fought. There was no help forthcoming from other Arabs. The Crusader advance ponderously crawled its way across Turkey, occupied this vast region, and flowed on down into Palestine.

It was then that they were confronted with a nasty surprise. The vast land of Turkey that they had just conquered was not to be there's. Their holy leader, the Catholic Pope, had promised reconquered Turkey to Constantinople as part of their private arrangement. The mutiny of the entire army was narrowly avoided by calling on the Crusaders' religious zeal and by promising them that anything else they conquered was theirs - almost everything - that is. All final decisions of any importance still had to receive the pope's consent.²

Jerusalem was a major terminal for the spice trade from the Orient. Its walls were strong. The Arab defenders felt confident that they could withstand any assault. They were quickly disillusioned. The Crusaders went over the walls like a tidal wave, stormed Jerusalem, and put its population to the sword. Orthodox priests were driven from the holy churches and Catholic priests were installed. From this time the substantial gifts given by the hordes of Christians on their "required pilgrimages" went directly into the coffers of Rome instead of Constantinople. The "protection money" paid by the caravans from the Orient went to those providing the protection. The church first, so that it would bless the trade so that it could take place, then the Crusader kings who

2 "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5,6. Anyone other than "the WORD made flesh" ruling over man will misrule man. Man is not permitted to delegate his job of "king" and "priest" to another. God appointed the individual man and the individual man alone to rule. Unscriptural kings and priests doomed the Crusades from the start. The WORD requires armies of "volunteers" - only. The Church "drafted" men for the Crusades to take back Church lands. It was anything but a "volunteer" undertaking. Injustice abounded.

guarded the trade cursed by God but blessed by his own religious leader.³

Settlers

The newly conquered rich but arid Holy Land needed the same thing that hell needs - some water and a few good men. Water came from God, but the new Crusader Latin Kingdom also required substantial numbers of Christian settlers from the West in order to remain strong. "Disobedience" kept this from happening. The Pope claimed the conquered land.⁴ Fully nine-tenths of the Crusaders, who wanted to stay, fight, and send for their families to join them, were forced to return to Europe for lack of land to settle on and live. This turned away hundreds of thousands of potential settlers. This foolish disobedience to the WORD was a major disaster to this massive Church effort.

Arab Warfare - Against Fools

The priests "selected by God" abdicated their exalted stations and allowed self-proclaimed frauds to lead thousands astray - because "god said so." Peter the Hermit led a Crusade made up of children and women, protected by a few knights. He said that God told him that the purity of the youth and the women would conquer all. The Arabs lay in wait and a cloud of arrows darkened the sun and fell on the few hundred knights who were marching without armor in 3 (1) "Ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land." Judges 2:2. (2) "Thou shall make no covenant with them." Deut 7:2.

4 The Catholic Church said that under "Constantine's Bequest" all lands owned by the Emperor Constantine and his Empire was given by him to the Church. Centuries later the bequest was admitted to be fraudulent.

the scorching hot weather, and slew them. The boys and women were made captive and were sold in Arab slave markets to satisfy bizarre Turkish sexual appetites.

Another Crusader army came to a fork on the the road to Palestine. One followed the path taken by an earlier Christian army. The other lead to Arab treasure cities - their guide said. They took his word and followed the latter road that led into the desert. The entire army died of thirst.

The wiles of Turks made them masters at making the small Christian armies become still smaller by persuading them to split up. They then attacked the small isolated segments with overwhelming strength. Often they were successful. But even when they failed it was better to face a small Christian force than one that was intact.

Arab Warfare - Disinformation

The Arab-Turks worked with "Orthodox-christians" to spread rumors among the Crusaders. One such rumor told of a nearby town full of treasure. A flying column was sent to seize it. The town fell with no resistance, but they found no treasure. Immediately a great Arab army appeared outside the city and cut off their retreat. The treasure story had led the Crusader force into a trap. The city had no source of water and now the attackers were besieged. In a week they staggered out to fight their way to water. Every man died.

Crusaders knew everything that happened within their line of sight. Often they were ignorant of important events just over the hills a few miles away. The Turks used carrier pigeons. Every act of the Crusaders from Alexandria to Constantinople was known to them within hours. Nothing has changed.

Arab Warfare - Balak Plan

As the Crusaders consolidated their conquests, and Western settlers were turned away, Arab refugees were allowed to return to the cities and towns they had vacated. Initially they were submissive, but then became unruly as they became more familiar with Christian ways. Many Christian rulers found that their dusky subjects accepted them quicker if they married a local girl.⁵ The offspring of these unions were Turks - not Christian.⁶ These "christian" offspring were christian in name only. They were actually an alien nation being created in the midst of the Christian nation. They plotted, schemed, and back-stabbed with the best of them.⁷

Arab Warfare - Mixed Alliances

As the Crusaders settled into their new conquests, many put aside their swords and made offensive/defensive treaties with nearby Turkish emirs.⁸ When a local war broke out, the histories tell us of battles being fought with the right wing of one army containing Turks under their crescent banners, their center composed of Crusaders under their

5 (1) "I am the Lord your God, which have separated you from other people." Lev 20:24. (2) "Let them marry ... only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6. (3) "If ye do in any wise ... make marriages with them ... ye (shall) perish." Joshua 23:12-13. (4) "They have dealt treacherously against the Lord: for they have begotten strange (Heb: 2114 zûwr - racial alien) children." Hosea 5:7.

6 "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." De 23:2 (Margin note by the reformers in Geneva Bible 1599) "This was to cause them to live chastely, that their posterity might not be rejected."

7 A copy of the "Balak Plan" will be sent free to those sending a self-addressed envelope to Va Pub Co, PO Box 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505

8 "And ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land." Judges 2:2

flags with crosses, and the left wing formed from another allied Turkish force. Their enemy would be another mixed army composed of Turks and Christians. Christians killed Christians.⁹ The descendants of the Crusaders had adapted to the ways of the infidel and had become like them. Their Christian comrades tolerated this insult to God. Not only was the Crusade not "sanctified," but the men of pure and holy vision had also become corrupted. They too were un-sanctified.¹⁰

Many of the offspring were no longer in the image of their God, so the God of their fathers once more raised up a champion to destroy his disobedient creation.¹¹

God Destroys His Creation

A young ruler came to power in Egypt. A son of Islam. He was devout, savvy, and generous - something seldom seen in the Mideast. When he died, hardly a handful of silver remained in his treasury, he had given the rest to the needy. He was also gracious, kind, and forgiving - to friend and foe

9 "Thus saith the Lord God ... because thou has ... slain thy brethren of thy father's house ... behold, with a great plague will the Lord smite thy people, and thy children." II Cron 21:12-14

10 "To sanctify God ... to reverence his character and laws." Is viii. ... "God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation, through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth." 2 Thess. ii. I Pet i (ED: No "sancitification - no salvation) American Dictionary Of The English Language. Noah Webster 1828

11 MAN: Heb: Adam 119 - "to show blood(in the face), ie: to flush or turn rosy: - be (dyed, made) red(ruddy). Strong's Concordance. (1) "God created man, in the likeness of God made he him; Male and female created he them, and called their name Adam." Gen 5:1-2. (2) "In the day when God created man (Adam), he implanted in him his passions and inclinations, and ... set his mind on a throne amidst the senses to be his sacred guide in all things; and to the mind he gave the Law, by which if a man order himself, he shall reign over a kingdom that is temperate, and just, and virtuous, and brave." 4 Maccabees 1:48 alike. His name was Saladin.

He was true to Allah while Christian rulers were untrue to the WORD. Saladin forgave many Turks who had been his enemies and accepted them as his friends. He freed Christian prisoners who were poor without requiring them to pay ransoms, rather than enslave them. His counterpart, Richard the Lionhearted of England, insulted his God by offering his sister to Saladin's brother for a wife. Richard's sister, a better woman than Richard was a man, sailed away in a rage. It was Richard who decided one day to kill his Islamic captives, and he did.¹² Saladin responded in kind.

Saladin was quick-witted - and hard when he needed to be. In time, one by one his opponents came before him, and by one means or another, ancient enemies were made to take his hand. The Latin Kingdom of the Crusaders was then confronted with a united Islam - Turks and Arabs, brothers in Allah - united against the "infidel" Crusaders. Saladin led the Islamic tidal wave. The new wave of advancing Turks in their rear - the Mongol invaders from the steppes - saw that Islam was to be the winner, and they switched from their christian religion to that of Islam.

The Crusaders fought desperately - but to no avail. Their own God had determined to destroy them. One by one their cities and possessions were crushed. Many asked for mercy from Saladin and received it in "the name of Allah, the compassionate." Others fell to deception. Even Krak, the iron fortress that withstood countless assaults, fell when its defenders were deceived by a faked message ordering them to evacuate their castle.

¹² Man (Heb: Adam) is to rule justly.

Conclusion

God is to be feared. The WORD tells us to "Fear God and keep his commandments." God said that he will destroy a faithless and disobedient creation - and he will. He has done it before, he will do it again. Already he has brought disease, hurricanes, floods, and strangers to eat out our substance and steal our children. If Israel continues disobedient - God will raise up a champion to bring the sword as he raised up Nebuchadnezzar and Saladin. He said he would do it - and he will.

Today - the newspapers proclaim that Ottoman-Turk converts to Islam are shaking hands with Khazar-Turk converts to Judaism. Christendom would be advised to use the time left to Sanctify itself. The last time Turks shook hands and made peace among themselves - Christendom paid with a river of blood.

Back to Table of Contents

Chapter 230

SOUTH AFRICA

The present attempt to integrate South Africa is diametrically opposed to the imperium of "separation" now running full flood over the world. The various races in the Soviet Union are separating, the Baltic is separating, China has driven Westerners from her shores. Black Africa has done the same, and is also separating her own Black races into their component parts. America's inner cities are being turned into independent Black nations as Black on White guerrilla war goes into high gear and drives away the Westerners who built the cities and who once lived there.

While non-Westerners are forcing Westerners from their lands, they are also forcing non-Westerners into Western lands. Westerners are beginning to suspect that the double standard is a well thought out plan to destroy the Western enclaves and the Westerners who live there.

Virginia's Footsteps

In many ways, South Africa's ordeal appears to be like Virginia's. Virginia was the victim of a devastating war, just as South Africa was. Before the war Virginia was self-sufficient. Her plantation system produced almost everything her people needed and her vast surplus was sold elsewhere which made her people rich. What the plantation didn't produce or make was obtained by trading with the next plantation, or the closest village trading center which stocked or made the speciality items needed.

Virginia had no army. Everyone from the age 16-60 was a militiaman. If called upon to repel an invader, Virginia had 75,000 militiamen available instantly - armed and trained at their own expense. Many of her officers had paid their own way to attend the Virginia Military Institute to learn to become efficient warriors. Militia artillerymen paid for their own cannon. One six-gun Virginia battery was counted as superior to two four-gun federal batteries.

The war was waged to destroy Virginia. It destroyed her farm system, her ability to produce, and her people's independence. She was no longer self-sufficient. Her people were taxed and forced to mortgage their farms to get money to pay the taxes. They had to import things formerly produced. Virginia, the "slave state," was reduced to abject slavery.

International bankers devised a scheme to keep Virginia from escaping from them - back into their former free independent farm system. Political and economic war was waged on her farm-system to ensure that she would remain a perpetual slave.

The Media Whip

Most Southern newspapers that were captured in the war found new owners. The owners were individuals and corporations owned by banks. More and more newspapers were bought. Historic little Culpeper had two newspapers - The Star, and The Exponent. They fought each other tooth and nail, always supporting opposing candidates. If there was scandal or dirt - it was aired. If the newspaper lied - the injured party often challenged the editor to a duel. Editors never have liked being made responsible for what they write.

Corporations controlled by banks subsidized these newspapers by advertising in them. This advertising furnished all the income establishment newspapers needed. Subsidized in this manner, these newspapers could make money even if they had to give their papers away. Making a subscriber pay money for a paper was icing on the cake. The Star and Exponent tried to compete with the establishment papers, but couldn't. They merged to cut costs. They still couldn't compete and were forced to sell to a newspaper chain. Now, the free voice of the Star-Exponent is the standard "establishment voice." The paper prints the same propaganda on the same day that the paper in California does. It prints whatever it is told to print.

The Media Rules Virginia

Establishment papers pick the politicians their owners want elected and publicize their names so that everyone will recognize them. They deny publicity to politicians they don't want elected. In essence - the media elects Virginia's political leaders. The politicians elected are beholden to those who elect them - the media owners. Increasingly, the media selections are of the lower sort who can't stay out of mischief. When their moral failing threatens a voter revolt - they are replaced by another media selection - a selection that often smells just as bad.

Virginia's DeKlerk

To lead Virginia's fight against the second invasion of her territory, (this time to take over her schools) the media promoted "fire breathing J. Lindsay Almond, a warrior of the old school." He was elected governor by a landslide. I worked for him.

When he became governor he negotiated Virginia's schools into the hands of the Feds. They rewarded him by making him a federal judge when his term as governor expired.

Governor Almond's surrender was an act greatly approved by the media which saw "prudence and wisdom" in his actions. After all, "we must obey the law of the land" - a law handed down by a Supreme Court appointed by a media-elected puppet-president.¹

Virginia didn't understand what had happened. She didn't understand that Virginians were now "ruled." Their politicians were no longer THEIR politicians. They did not represent them. Virginians had no say in their political destiny. The election ritual now was only a media event - a spectacle. Those selected by the media were elected every time and they represented the forces who owned the media.

This same condition exists in every Western nation.

South Africa's Ordeal

The history of the White people of S. Africa may have prepared them to refuse to follow Virginia's course. The consequences of forced integration will be too drastic. In America, "integration" involves a guerrilla war of Black on White involving murder, robbery, rape and general lawlessness. These guerrilla acts are unfortunate, regrettable, and one feels sorry for the victims, but there is no target to retaliate against - the attackers strike and run. One can still reach the supermarket and the drugstore without undue risk.

¹ I was a young officer in the Richmond Light Infantry Blues regiment. We were waiting by our phones for a "call-up" call, and many were waiting outside the armory to be let in to get our weapons and join our battalions. When it became clear that we had been betrayed, some of the men cried. Virginia was humiliated. Once again the courageous response to turn back evil lost to a guerrilla war with its pin-prick strategy of gradualism, bribery, and inaction.

The S. African "integration" problem is not the same. There is already risk while going to the grocery and drugstores. With Blacks running things, there will be 50 times more danger than now. Black African politics is a study in extremes. It involves loser elimination. The history of Africa shows that when Whites choose "integration" vs "separation" - the result is "obliteration." This is the history of Whites living under Black rule in Africa - just like Haiti.

Separatism vs. Integration

The present imperium of South African Black tribes is "separation." Black tribes are being separated from other black tribes - forceably. Tribal members who belong to the SA police or who cooperate with other hostile tribes are put to death in a horrible manner if caught. The separation of Black from Black is almost complete.

White separation is also occurring - both politically and racially. Whites are separated into "integrationists" and "separatists." The process is almost complete. They are also being separated from Blacks - even long-time friends and servants of the family. Many Blacks are afraid of being seen with Whites. Whites are beginning to be afraid of being seen with Blacks. Both wonder what their "separatist" kinsmen will do to them if matters turn nasty.

The line is being drawn across all of Africa for both Black and White. One is - "separatist," or "integrationist." There is no third choice.²

Newsletters

Among the S. African newsletters I receive, certain formerly hard nose "right-wing" periodicals are not so "separatist." They are re-thinking their way into the enemies' camp as "integration day" approaches. They are going into "survival mode," a mode to meet Black ruler approval. These former "stalwart White leaders" whose battle cry was "never surrender!" and "follow me!" are burning bridges leading back to their comrades. The true "separatist" editors are more separatist than ever before. It's becoming either one way or the other. No third choice.

Religion

Organized religion, in the past the traditional supporter of the ruling political party (whoever it may be), is being forced to choose between "integration" and "separation" as Blacks storm White churches and machine gun and hand grenade their congregations. If the "integrationists" can no longer defend the churches, why support integration? That leaves only "separatists" to defend them. "To have friends one must be friendly." Time is running out for organized religion. There is no third choice.³

2 (1) "Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord." 2 Cor 6:17. (2) "For thou didst separate them from all the people of the world to be thine inheritance." 1 Ki 8:51. (3) "Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitudes." Neh 13:3. (4) "Separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives." Ezra 10:11

Politics

The media-elected National Party has passed beyond the pale. The White nation suffers because of them. The political opposition, the Conservative Party, is composed of the same media-elected types that didn't make the National Party. Neither party represents the people as much as they do the media that elected them.

The Generals

The media, finding that both the National and Conservative Party are losing control of the Whites, boosted a third group, "The Generals." These generals had been appointed to their position by the establishment. To appease the radical communist Mandella, they were later retired.

Now, the media has brought them back "center-stage" in a committee to act as White leaders and spokesmen. It is no surprise that these same leaders who had earlier been appointed by the establishment, show a distressing tendency to "negotiate" with the common enemy.

This leaves the well-armed and boisterous S. African militia called the AWP. They boast that they are capable of putting 75,000 men in the field - instantly. They are also showing a distressing tendency to avoid politics and follow the "negotiations."⁴ The leader of the AWP is a man who was caught in a compromising situation with a woman. Covenanters don't like to see that in their leader.

Then there is Jaap Marais (pronounced "Yap" Mo ré)

3 During the 1622 Indian war in Virginia - the Indians loved to skin White integrationist priests - first!

4 Make no league with the inhabitants of this land." Judges 2:2

who waits in the wings with his little party. He is authoritarian, dogmatic, and will not join others or compromise. And, he has the reputation of having been right all along about S. Africa's problems while others have been wrong. If he can stay alive - Jaap Marais and his little party of "no compromise" may hold the key to South Africa's political future.

History

History reminds us that S. Africa was founded and ruled by the West India Company. This company was strictly "spice-trade" establishment, with all that implies. It was they who introduced slaves and ran the slave monopoly. It was their successor whose English governor tried to destroy the independent farm system of the Boers, issued the infamous "Ordinance #50," and drove them from their farms and into the hostile interior.⁵ It was the descendants of this group who launched a war of extermination against the Boers and burned almost every one of their farms to the ground to destroy the independent farmer, put them into debt, and seize S. Africa's gold mines. It is they who have had a finger in every political pie. It is they who are orchestrating today's chaos.

The E. India Company never went away, it only took new names and new forms. They have long looked after their interests. They are ever present. Their media selected DeKlerk and others of his ilk to grease the way for their money-making mining and manufacturing schemes.

5 See Hoskins, Vigilantes Of Christendom, p. 294, Va Pub Co, PO Box 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505, $18/copy

The alien-controlled media has plunged the country into chaos. The election process failed long before the demand for "one man - one vote." Media-selected politicians are puppets for the media owners. They have turned the country over to chaos of Black rule. The salvation of S. Africa must come from their Western people themselves - not from media-selected politicians of the right, left, or middle of the road. All media-selected politicians are suspect. The system of leader selection by the media will have to stop if any Western nation is to survive.

Problem 1

By the time political "negotiations"⁶ transfer the Whites to Black control, the White South African nation will have either agreed to this transfer - or they won't.

If they decline and fighting commences - their visible enemy will be the establishment media, Mandella and his Xhosas, Slovo and his communist ANC, the White renegade National Party, and the international establishment esconced there. They will be backed by the armed might of foreign nations such as the U.S., China, and Near East Arab nations - all who hope to profit from the demise of the White man in S. Africa. This appears to be an irresistible force.

White South Africans have for allies their ancient enemies - the Zulu nation - and God.

The feeling among many Whites is that the "The Blood River Covenant" that gave the Afrikaner people to God, will prevail, and that God will again bring them through victo-

⁶ "Thou shall make no covenant with them ... For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods." Deut 7:2,4

rious.⁷

Problem #2

I believe that the "Covenanters" will win this stage. However, victory and defeat of Mandela's Xhosas will lead to the next problem: the Zulus and their allies. Never before have Zulus been content with two separate governments in one land. If they decide to contest White S. Africa - aid will be abundantly available from the silk trade to arm them.

Problem #3

The ultimate battle will be against the establishment itself, once the puppets are removed. This is the establishment that owns the media, banks, transportation, communications, and energy. They must be deprived of their power and banished. This will not be easy since they have the world's armies ready to march at their command. A different form of warfare must be devised to fight that war.

Solution

It would appear that the Biblical solution will be the only lasting solution - the "scriptural farm." God created man and appointed him to rule as kings and priests.⁸ He directed that 7 On the morning of Dec 16, 1838, following 7 days of prayer and fasting, 460-odd Afrikaner men with their women and children successfully fought off the repeated onslaughts of 30,000 Zulus killing 12,000 of them without a single casualty on the Afrikaner side. The Zulu warriors complained that what decided the battle against them was not the Boers shooting from between the wheels of the wagons, but the Boers shooting from the white cloud hovering above the laager all day.

8 "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings & priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5,6

the land be divided and never ever sold.¹⁰ If never ever sold - the stranger will have no place to gain a foothold.¹¹

Ideally the self-sufficient farm produces everything that the individual family needs. With few needs - the independent self-sufficient farm will be left alone. If an invader wishes only slaves - this is why God established the militia.

Two Unresolved Problems

In time, two problem areas essential to the completely self-sufficient farm will be resolved - "communications" and "energy." Doubtless, God in his time will give us the inventions needed.¹²

If we need nothing - the establishment cannot sell to us, bribe us, control us. Our God forbids us to buy from them¹³ and has given each of us a self-sufficient kingdom so that we will not have to. The stranger will not be able to live among us because there is no room for him - the land cannot be sold forever. The land cannot be stripped from us by tax sales because taxes are forbidden.¹⁴

10 (1) "The land shall be divided for an inheritance ... according to ... their fathers they shall inherit ..." Num 26:53- 55. (2) "The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine." Lev 25:23

11 (1) "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21,24
 (2) "They ... were mingled among the heathen and learned their works. Ps. 106:35- 36

12 (1) "The Lord possessed me (wisdom) in the beginning." Prov 8:22 (2) "I (wisdom) find out knowledge of witty inventions." Pr 8:12. (3) "Give not that which is holy unto the dogs ... lest they ... turn again and rend you." Matt 7:6

13 "If thou has stricken thy hand with a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien), thou art snared." Pr. 6:1

14 "Of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers? Peter saith unto him, Of strangers." (Gr: allotrios - foreign, not akin.) ... Then are the children free." Matt 17:25-26. If strangers have to move elsewhere to survive - there will be no wolves in the sheepfold to kill, rob, and rape because they cannot find anything to eat.

This is what "separatism" means - a nation under God, ruled by the WORD, separate - each man and his family in his own kingdom ruling as king and priest.

The chaos in S. Africa may force God's people living there to cease following frail and fallible "man" and follow the WORD who made him. That will be the key that ushers in the day for which we have waited for so long.

"Thy kingdom come ... on earth."

=====

LETTERS

BELGIAN CONGO: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I was in the Belgian Congo when the Blacks took over violently. They could not wait for the date set by the Belgians and went completely berserk, drunk, killing all Whites including missionaries, nuns, anyone who was White. It was a living hell. I got out by the skin of my teeth. I do not want that to happen to my family still living in S. Africa. When I telephoned my only sister, my brother-in-law said "Please send us bullets." S. - Mexico LEST YE LEARN THEIR WAYS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: We've sent two of our daughters out of the state. A third, our 14 year old was seduced by a 24 year old Mexican and is now expecting. A TV program persuaded her to do this folly. We intend to put the baby up for adoption with a Mexican family in obedience to the WORD: "Therefore let us make a covenant (an agreement) with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel (advice) of my Lord, and of those that tremble (are deeply impressed) at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law." Ezra 10:3 A. B. -

New Mexico

TEN FOR ELEVEN: "Dear Richard: I read in War Cycles/Peace Cycles about $10 for $11, but it was never clear to me what it meant.¹⁵ One day I was sitting taking it easy when it hit me and everything became as clear as a bell. Everything becomes clear when you understand it. The depressing thing is that our leaders and patriot groups do nothing about it. Surely they must know what is going on with our money system." U. E. - Pennsylvania

JEW NOR GREEK: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Integrationists constantly use the following quote: "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus." Galatians 3:28. Does this not put the official stamp of approval on racial interbreeding?" C. H. - North Carolina

RKH: Not at all. The job of the anti-Christ is to confuse, twist, and deceive. Scripture supports scripture. Scripture used to negate scripture is scripture being used in a false manner. The scripture states "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." De 23:2. Therefore, "There is neither Jew nor Greek" (Israel was scattered into all nations - "Jew" or "Greek" are nationalities - some may be of Israel - others not.), "there is neither bond nor free" (this is talking about condition of freedom, in jail or out, slave or free), "there is neither male nor female", (this deals with gender and has nothing to do with racial interbreeding); "for all are one in Jesus Christ."

¹⁵ War Cycles/Peace Cycles, Va. Pub. Co., PO Box 997, Lynchburg, VA 24505, $18/copy

This is a true quote. Anti-Christ integrationists try to use it to confuse, twist, and deceive. It cannot stand scrutiny. Scripture supports scripture. Scripture cannot be used to negate scripture. The margin note by the reformers in Geneva Bible of 1599 next to "No Bastard shall enter the congregation of Israel" states: "This was to cause them to live chastely, that their posteritie might not be rejected."

BLACK BIBLE: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: USA Today, Aug 6, 1993 p. 13A carries an article about the introduction of a Black Bible. In it Jesus, Moses, and Biblical characters are portrayed as being Black. Why?" G. R. - Arkansas

RKH: Blacks aren't stupid, they can read. Educated Blacks know that the Hebrew word for man is "Adam," and that "adam" means to "blush red." Blacks have long called the white man's version of Christianity based on the Bible "A white man's religion." This "Black Bible" is just one more step in divorcing their god from our God - THE WORD of Israel. "There are many nations ... all are his, and over all has he appointed spirits to rule ... but over Israel ... he alone is their ruler." Jubilees 15:23. It would be interesting to learn what the high priest of today's Sadducees, Billy Graham, has to say about it.¹⁶

FRICION BETWEEN PROTESTANT & CATHOLIC CHURCH: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: What was the big theological argument between the Protestants and the Catholic Church?" A. M. - Maryland RKH: 1) The primacy of the Pope (instead of every man a king and a priest). 2) The mass (God in a wafer, the belief in eating God's literal blood and flesh.) 3) The invocation of saints (instead of direct prayer to God). 4) The meritoriousness of human works (instead of grace). 5) Fasts (as God's requirement). 6) Pilgrimages (to gain merit). 7) Celibacy (vs. "fruitful"). 8) Purgatory (for redemption after death). Protestantism considers these things as being unscriptural traditions of men. Creeds Of Christendom, Schaff, Vol 3, p. 364, Harper & Bros, NY, 1877.

¹⁶ Sadducees give lip-service to the WORD, but obey the king if the two come in conflict.

UN COMMAND: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: What's wrong with having the US army under UN command as long as the objective is 'humanitarian'." D. R. - Kansas

RKH: "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15
We not only have had a stranger for our army's commander, but now the entire US army in Somalia is commanded by a stranger. God's curse is on the nation which allows this.

Man

NEGRO MAN: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I heard that you gave an explanation why the term "Negro man" was never used in Colonial Days? Please give it again." A. R. - Mass.

RKH: The term "Negro man" or "black man" caused raised eyebrows. Our great-grandfathers were often educated people who spoke and understood Latin, Hebrew, and Greek. "Negro" is another word for "black." The Hebrew word for "man" is "adam." "Adam" means to "blush red" - a white man. To call someone a "white man" is to call someone a "white-white." To call someone a "black man" is to call him a "black-white." This is why the words "chap," "fellow," "boy" (blacks object to "boy" today), "guy," or "uncle," were invented. Almost any name will do, but not "white-man" (white- white), "negro-man" (black- white), or "black-man," (black- white)." It's amusing to watch our enemies misuse these terms. Most educated Blacks use "human beings." They are better educated than today's "liberals."

Invasion

JOINING HANDS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: The #229 Hoskins Report observation that the Khazar Turks had joined hands with the Arab Turks is important. Ezekiael 38 prophesied that those of God, (descended from Japheth but now mixed among the non-Adamic Turko/Mongolian Khazars), Persia (now Iran), Ethiopia (once the southern border of Egypt and occupied by the peoples of Cush - son of Ham), Put (once the Libyan region west of Egypt), Gomer (descended from Japheth and now mingled with Turko/Mongolian Khazars), Bethtogarmah (Togarmah descended from Japheth and mixed with Turko/Mongolian Khazars) would be summoned in the latter years and come like a storm to cover the land of true Israel, and that they would devise an evil plan and say, "I will go up against the land of unwalled villages, to those who are at rest and living securely, without walls, bars or gates to capture a spoil and seize plunder." And didn't Ezekiel prophesy that Israel in her naivete would say, "have you come to take a spoil, to plunder us?"

"Our Celto-Saxon nations world-wide are experiencing the take- over of our commerce, our land, our homes by the Pakis, the Indians of India, the Japanese, the Syrians, the Lebanese, the Khazar Jews, the Koreans, the Vietnamese, the Iranians, the Egyptians, the Saudis, ad infinitum ad nauseum. They are taking their plunder, and we naively say, "Are you really here to take a spoil, to plunder us?"

"Ezekiel indicates that these Turko/Mongolian people will realize the bounty that is available in these lands of sleeping Celto-Saxons and will come with a 'great assembly and a mighty army.' This may mean military might in order to finish the take-over, but if you look around at the 'warfare' (as it is termed by the Japanese) that is being waged against American business and property, you can see that we have already been attacked, and we are losing. And, as you say, all in accordance with the consequences of Deuteronomy 28 when God's Covenant People do not follow His Law.

"The rest of Ezekiel 38 and 39 tells how it all turns out."
M. J. - Oregon

Germany

GERMANY: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I am a teacher of politics and history in Munich, Germany. The media tells us that conditions in America are good and people are as safe as they were in the 1950s. When I protest that I have read that things are getting as bad in America as they are today in Germany, I am humiliated by the school administration." L. H. - Germany

ADL INDOCTRINATION IN GERMANY: An AP report from Berlin states that Chancellor Helmut Kohl of Germany has invited the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith to bring a sensitivity-training program from New York to counter German outrage at being invaded by foreigners. The article says that the indoctrination program has been used on 101,000 teachers and 10 million American students. "The foreigners aren't the problem. It is the lack of tolerance," said Kristina Koehler, one of the two administering the indoctrination in the city of Rostock. (Story in News & Daily Advance, C1, Oct 15, 1993)

Yellow Rose Of Texas

TEXAS GOVERNOR SURRENDERS: "Dear Dick: I wrote the Gov of Texas protesting the Branch Davidian holocaust and was shocked to receive this reply: 'While this office has no authority over federal agencies, I assure you that it will cooperate fully with all official inquiries into this incident.'

"If a sovereign state has no authority over federal authorities operating within its borders - that state is not a sovereign state. Why pay for a governor and a state assembly." G. H. - Texas

Nation Of Martyrs

ABORTION CLINIC TRESPASSERS: "It's a high price - a three-year jail sentence... Gilliam 34 ... separated from his wife and 3 children, as punishment for trespassing at a Fort Wayne abortion clinic. ... On June 30, Allen County Superior Judge Philip Thieme handed Gilliam the maximum one-year sentence on each of 3 counts. ... Anti-abortion groups say it is one of the harshest sentences for trespassing in the nation. ... Gilliam was offered an option by the prosecutor to plead guilty and face a lesser penalty. But pleading guilty would have been admitting that God's chosen course for him is wrong. ... 'I really don't feel like I'm committing a crime any more than a fireman is committing a crime to step on someone's property to put a fire out,' he said. The judge ordered that no one during the trial mention the moral and ethical debate about abortion, to keep the focus on whether Gilliam did or did not commit trespassing. ..." Indianapolis Star, p B1, Aug. 15, 1993

VICTIMLESS CRIME: "Cedar Rapids, Iowa - Two Dubuque, Iowa, brothers who were found guilty of burning a 15-foot cross in April 1988 to scare blacks from their neighborhood were sentenced Tuesday to a total of 11 years in prison. U.S. District Court Judge Michael J. Melloy sentenced Wm McDermott, 23, to 7 years for violating civil rights and one year for conspiracy to violate civil rights ... Melloy also sentenced William McDermott to 3 years of supervised release, to follow his release from prison. Danian McDermott, 21, was sentenced to 4 years and 4 months for violating civil rights and one year for conspiracy to violate civil rights .. He also received 3 years of supervised released ..." Sioux City Journal, July 20, 1993.

RKH: Almost every state had "restrictive covenants" until recent years. These covenants outlawed sales of homes in white areas to strangers. This prevented strangers from moving in and taking over white residential areas. The "spice-trade" felt that this restricted trade because displaced Whites move to other areas and build homes to get away from aliens who make residential districts unlivable. The "spice-trade" used its captive media to elect a president, who "appointed" Supreme Court judges who "outlawed" God's Law requiring "restrictive covenants." They did this without an advisory referendum from white victims, thereby nullifying the Biblical command: "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me. Ex 23:33 Most of the "king's" officials think that their king will rule forever, and that they will be exempt from being judged by God's Law. The time is not far distant when we will see these people in the docket with a jury handing "guilty" sentences.

Waco Video

"Waco, the Big Lie" is a video taken from the news broadcast the day of the Waco massacre, but which was never shown on major networks. It shows that tanks, supposed to be making small holes in the wall to insert CS gas, were making very large holes and collapsing the stairwells over the trap door to the bunkers, to trap those inside. Bursts of flame, at least a foot in diameter, are easily seen coming from the tank as it retreats from the building. The video is prepared by Linda Thompson, J.D. of the American Justice Federation, 3850 S. Emerson Ave., Indianapolis, IN 46203: Phone 317-780-5204." (From The WITNESS)

The Christian Church At Dunnsville

In 1832, three of my grandfathers helped build the Christian Church at Dunnsville in Essex County. There was a divider that ran right down the middle of the church building. The women sat on the right and the men on the left. Husbands and wives who insisted on sitting together had to sit in the middle next to the divider. That way they could sit together - separated by the divider.

There was a balcony that went around three sides of the church. The entrances were on the outside. There was no way to reach the balconies from the inside. Slaves sat in the balcony. The church fathers had decided that a balcony that did not connect with downstairs and its altar did not violate the scripture that said, "The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial *alien) that cometh nigh shall be put to death." No 18:7.¹⁷ It was agreed that slaves who obeyed the Law of The Word were more agreeable to work with than those who weren't. When instructed and "converted," Black "spirit worship" became a form of "trade-animism" labeled "christianity" - a "Black- christianity." It was a cosmetic transformation that made possible Black business dealings with Whites. The Whites on their part changed The Word, their own religion, and made it a "trade-Christianity" that allowed for strangers to live in the land. It made it possible for the two races to transact business.*

Still, there were Black "witch-doctors" who held secret meetings behind the slave quarters in the dead of night to which Whites were definately not invited. And, there were "strict" White "Bible- thumping" Christian counterparts who held meetings in tents and rented stores on the edge of town to which neither Blacks nor Whites interested in "doing business" were invited.

Both Black and White separatists were looked on as a hindrance by those who needed "integration" to do business - not "separation." Nothing has changed.

Back to Table of Contents

¹⁷ Math 10:5- 6, No 18:7, No 1:51, Matt 7:6, Matt 15:26-27. It was agreed that "Go into all the world ..." referred to the lost sheep of Israel who were in all the world, and not those proscribed by scripture.

Chapter 231

SACRED FOOD

The Christian West has been conquered. Its God is being replaced with the god of its conqueror. Observance of many things done formerly in obedience to the God of Israel is now outlawed by the conqueror's statutes - Sabbath "blue laws," trial by strangers, taxes, imprisonment to punish, and racial intermarriage, to name a few.

The following is a brief study of the ancient Western ritual of eating; who, when, and under what conditions one eats. To insist on observance of these eating rituals today would be to incur the wrath, and punishment, of the king who has outlawed them.

However, from an historical standpoint, it is educational to study what our ancestors considered to be important. It is even more interesting to note professional Christian organizations and people WHO HAVE NO EXCUSE FOR THEIR REFUSAL TO DO THAT WHICH GOD REQUIRES. Their REFUSAL speaks louder than their words. It tells you their probable commitment to the rest of the WORD which is God.

"Living Room, Dining Room, Bedroom"

An old saying in Virginia is, "From the living room, to the dining room, to the bedroom."

If you want to stop someone from becoming an unwanted member of your family, that person must not be invited into your living room. Once in the living room, politeness often forces people to offer food served in the dining room. Life itself is supported by food. The act of "eating" is "partaking of life." It is surrounded with religious custom and taboo. Eating with someone implies that that person has your stamp of approval and is suitable to enter your family's bedroom - he is a suitable marriage prospect. "From the living room, to the dining room, to the bedroom."

The Rules Of Eating

Eating is a religious ritual. Christians bearing the proofs of Israel,¹ before eating, thank God for the food they are about to eat, then offer it to God to bless. Most do it using these or similar ritual words:

1. "Lord, Thank you for this food.
2. "Bless it to our good,
3. "and use us in thy service:
4. "Amen," (seal of agreement - 'so be it.')

1. Gratitude is shown for food; 2. the food is offered to God to bless. This is done by God's appointed priest - yourself. The "food blessed by God" is now "holy." It may not be given to strangers.² The word "stranger" here is the Hebrew "zûwr stranger" - meaning a racial alien vs. the "gêr stranger" - a racial kinsman living in a different political subdivision. Even if the zûwr stranger is only visiting and is a "sojourner," he still may not eat of the holy food, regardless of the accusation of "bad manners." Not even a servant, who is also assumed to be a zûwr stranger, may eat the food that has been "blessed" and is "holy."

1 (GENUINE ISRAELITES BEAR THE 3 PROOFS OF ISRAEL) (1) God's name - CHRISTIANS - "They shall put my name upon the children of Israel." Num 6:27 (2) Isaac's name, SONS OF ISAAC - ISAACSONS - SAXONS, "In Isaac shall thy name be called." Romans 9:7, and (3) Adamic descent. "Man" in Strong's Concordance is the Hebrew "Adam." "Adam" means to "blush red." "Show blood in the face." Genuine Israelites can produce all three proofs. "CHRISTIAN"-"SAXON"-"MAN."

2 "Thou shall no stranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the priest, or a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing." Lev 22:10. "Sojourner" - means a temporary resident.

In the American North and South prior to the 1940s-1950s, the problem of feeding strangers forced to live in the land in violation of the Law³ was met by having separate dining facilities serving "unblessed" food to the strangers. This "stop-gap" practice was treated by some as a substitution for "separation" - separation, of the kind promoted by Thomas Jefferson⁴ would have been relatively cheap. "Segregation" of the races was expensive requiring separate hospitals, schools, public facilities, and military units, but it had to be done to prevent God's Law from being violated.

Scripture Dealing With Eating

Scriptures dealing with "blessed-food" go into detail. The following is from the Geneva Bible, 1599:

"If the priest's daughter be married unto a stranger (Margin Note: 'Who is not of the priests kindred') she may not eat of the holy offerings," (MN: 'that which Israelites offer to God for his blessing before they eat.') "Not withstanding if the Priest's daughter be divorced, and have no child, but is returned unto her father's house, she shall eat of her father's bread, as she did in her youth: but there shall no stranger (zûwr - racial alien) eat thereof. ... So shall they not defile the holy things of Israel, which they offer unto the Lord." Lev

3 "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21

4 President Monroe, of the African Colonization Movement, also worked to end slave importation, and to buy and re-settle slaves already here to Africa. Southerners were the first "abolitionists."

22:10-15

The Illustrated Davis Dictionary of the Bible,⁵ amplifies the above:

"The council of Jerusalem enjoined that they should abstain from the flesh of animals that had been sacrificed to idols (Acts 15:29). Paul gave the same injunction, but explained that in the case of those who had no faith in idols, abstinence was designed to avoid casting a stumbling block in the path of the weaker brethren (1 Cor. 8:4-13). If receiving hospitality at any house, and meat which might possibly have been offered to an idol was set on the table, the Christian guest was not required to ask any questions for conscience' sake; but if he was expressly told that the food had been offered to an idol (ed: an alien religious belief), then he was to abstain. The same rule was to be carried out with regard to food purchased for the household in the ordinary market (1 Cor 10: 18-33)."

The Catholic Church, long ago addressed the question of eating food offered to such idols:

"In 1205, Innocent ... wrote ... to the Count of Nevers, whom he threatened with excommunication ..."

"It is scandalous that Christians should have their cattle slaughtered and their grapes pressed by Jews, who are thus enabled to take their portion and to impose the leavings, prepared according to Jewish religious precepts, upon Christians. It is a still greater sin that this wine, prepared by Jews, should be used in the church for the sacrament of the Lord's Supper." (Epistoire X,

5 Royal Publishers, PO Box 47, Nashville, TN 37202, p. 348, "Idolatry."

120, od. Bulu2, II., p. 198 (J/E p687) Inquisition.)

Priests' Chicanery

Christian priests who ask God to "bless food" and "make it holy," food that is to be fed to a "mixed" company of Christians and zûwr-strangers, commit an "unforgivable sin." They know the curse attached to such "blessings," - but bless that which God has cursed, anyway. Often, attempting to evade the punishment attached to the "sin," they sidestep asking God to "Bless this food" (thereby making it holy), they simply "thank God," and ask God to bless the "fellowship" and the "purpose of the dinner meeting" with strangers - all of which still violates the law.⁶

The priests neglecting to "bless this food" still violates the spirit of the Law and the many scriptures that forbid such things.⁷

Priests who obey Scripture and refuse to bless that which God has cursed are blacked-out by the alien-controlled media. They are relegated to the backwaters of nowhere by the simple expediency of being denied media exposure of any kind. This in turn denies them a whack at incredible riches that attend being promoted by the media. The word is put out - priests who fail to bless food which is to be given to strangers, drive beatup VWs and are forgotten figures. Disobedient priests win establishment favor by denying

6 "For thou didst separate them from all the people of the world to be thine inheritance." I Ki 8:51, "Thou shall make no covenant with them ... lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21-24

7 "Withdraw from among the Gentiles and do not eat with them, and do not according to their actions, and be not their companion, for their actions are unclean and all their ways are defiled." Jubilees 22:17

God. They drive Mercedes and are often media-promoted into becoming household names.

Food Blessed by Alien Gods

Food blessed by alien gods is considered by many Christians to be the same as food blessed by "devils." Many Christians consider themselves cursed if they eat it. Before 1940 - a Kosher food advertisement was often all that was needed ensure that Christians would NOT buy or eat the advertised product. Ethnic restaurants serving food blessed by alien gods usually fared poorly. Black restaurants were seldom frequented by White Christians although the quality of the food served was often good. Chinese and Vietnamese restaurants were curiosities similar to "fortune tellers." Many Christians patronized them.

Having Lunch

"Free trade" with strangers is prohibited by God's Law!⁹

In Christendom, strangers have developed an effective method of bypassing this prohibition. It's called - "having lunch." The "business lunch" is an important ritual whether or not business agreements are actually consummated. Why? Even among kinsmen there are people a Christian is allowed to eat with and people he is not allowed to eat with.

"If any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one, no not to eat." 1 Cor 5:11

8 "There shall not be found among you anyone ... who casts a spell." Deut 18:10-11

9 "If thou has stricken thy hand with a stranger (Heb: züer), thou art snared with the words of thy mouth. Pr. 6:1

To eat with a person tells the Christian world that the person you are eating with is innocent of any of the above faults - that YOU have investigated and have given him your "stamp of approval" - otherwise you would not eat with him. The "free lunch" that someone buys for you may not be "free." You may look on it as a "bite to eat," but to the stranger it is YOUR "stamp of approval." Long after you have forgotten the incident, he will still be using your name and your "stamp of approval" by talking about the time you "had lunch" with him. That event is a lever used to pry open other doors.¹⁰

Eat With Wolves

Wolves who can't eat with sheep cannot receive the Sheep's blessing. Virginia and most other states had ancient laws and customs prohibiting White Christians from eating with strangers. These laws were taken to the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court was appointed by a leader who had been elected by the wolf-media. This court ruled that strangers should eat with White-Christians and receive their blessing. They forced the Commonwealth of Virginia to integrate its eating establishments.

The owners of restaurants were confronted with the choice of disobeying an alien god, OR, disobeying their Shepherd. Hundreds and thousands of businesses closed down. It was an economic disaster. People ruined themselves rather than violate what they considered the WORD of God. America became a land of martyrs.

¹⁰ There are preachers, politicians, and merchants that you could not afford to be seen eating with.

I remember one restaurant in particular. It was in Charlottesville, across the road from the UVA tennis courts on old Route #29. It was a fine restaurant in a prime location and must have done more than a million dollar business - and that was back then. Its owner closed it down. I pass by several times a year and see that a different business occupies the premises each time. The blessing is gone.

Summary

The gods of Islamic, Hindu, and Edomite-Jewish peoples do not, and can not, obey the Law of the God of Israel. They are not the same god, any more than the god of the Samaritans, the people who used the same scriptures that the Israelites used, was the same God that the Israelites worshiped.¹¹

Rabbis bless food in the Jewish manner to make the food "Kosher" thereby fulfilling their god's requirements.¹² Therefore, food prepared according to the Rabbi's direction is approved by their god. This god is a god that Christendom has traditionally considered an idol. Thus, food blessed by this alien god is regarded as cursed by many Christians and they refuse to eat it.

11 "The king of Assyria brought men from Babylon ... and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel ... Then the King of Assyria commanded carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence ... and let him teach them the manner of the god of the land ... howbeit ... they fear not the Lord, neither do they after their statutes ... which the Lord commanded the children of ... Israel ... As did their fathers so do they unto this day." II Ki 17:24- 41

12 Kosher: The Compact Edition Of The Oxford English Dictionary, ".... food prepared according to Jewish law."

The Stamp Of Approval

I speak at meetings, churches, and church conferences. Most of these groups have forgotten, or don't care, about the Christian rules dealing with "eating with strangers." It appears that any Turk, Samaritan, mulatto, child of the east, or zûwr stranger having the price of admission, is welcome. Once there, his "attendance" gives the interloper that group's "stamp of approval." Attendees have told me, "If they are there - they must be OK." I have had obvious strangers tell me that they are there to find a wife. Even mixed-race couples are present, and the "Christian" leadership "sees no evil." Their uncontested presence gives them that group's "stamp of approval."

The End Result

"It is not good to take the children's bread and cast it to dogs." Matt 15:24

The individual is not permitted to eat with strangers. Neither is the nation itself permitted to eat with strangers. The nation who asks the God of Israel to bless its food and then, while its own people hunger, gives the "holy food" to zûwr-nations who hate the God of Israel, will reap the consequence.

To live in a land ruled by the anti-Christ one must obey or die.¹³ Regardless, God's punishment will come with the disobedience regardless of whose fault it is.

¹³ "In case anyone of their own blood should attempt to confound or dissolve their constitution (laws), they should take vengeance on them, both all in general, and each person in particular ... if they were not able to take such vengeance, they should still demonstrate that what was done was contrary to their wills." Antiquities 4:8:45

"It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs." Math 15:24. "Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and cast it unto the dogs." Mark 7:27

Today, we eat with those who hate us. We feed those who hate us. We feed them with holy God-blessed food. Strangers are filled before the children.

Once we emerge from Egypt and have what we need to survive, only then are we to comply with the rest of the command:

"It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs ... yet the dogs eat of the crumbs." Matt 15:26-27

Until then: those who with strangers eat food blessed by God, bring God's curse on the land.

LIVING IN HITLER'S GERMANY

"Dear Dick: You asked for someone who had lived in Hitler's Germany to tell what it was like. Permit me, someone who lived under the swastika flag from 1935, when the Saar was reunited with Germany, to 1945, to give a short answer.

"To be a boy or girl at that time was wonderful. In the Hitler Youth the differences between Christian denominations or the different German states didn't count. We all truly felt that we were members of one body of people - one nation. Youth hostels were opened all over the Reich - enabling us to hike from one beautiful town to another seeing our fatherland. Every effort was made to strengthen our minds and bodies. Contrary to what is said today, we were encouraged to become free in spirit, and not to succumb to peer (or authority) pressure. In peacetime NO military training was allowed by the Hitler Youth leadership. Scouting yes. Incidentally, to "snitch on our parents" was frowned upon.

"At the very time when America's allies, the Soviets, destroyed most of the Christian churches in Russia and Ukraine, about 2,500 new churches were built in Germany. NOT ONE Christian church was closed. It was the law that school and church had priority over service in the Hitler Youth. As late as the fall of 1944, the Waffen SS-barracks in Breslau supplied two buses to take youth to either the nearest Catholic or Protestant church every Sunday. To be a registered member of a Christian church did not prevent advancement in the National Socialist Party.

"Germany was national socialist, but free enterprise flourished during the entire Hitler years. No company was nationalized. No small businessman was stopped from opening his own store. I myself worked during the war for a company that can only be called part of international capitalism. If you owned shares, nobody confiscated them - like the allies did in 1945.

"The accomplishments of the 'Nazis' were incredible. Starting without money and with six million unemployed (a third of the work force), they constructed the entire German autobahn road network in a short span of 6 years - almost without corruption - while seeing to it that the new road system did not unnecessarily destroy either the German landscape, or wildlife habitats and forests. Two years after the NS were elected to power, conditions were so improved that workers had to be hired in nearby friendly countries to help alleviate the worker shortage in Germany. Germany was booming while Britain, France and the US were in the depths of depression.

"To help the workers get cheap transportation, the VW was designed and a factory was being built for their manufacture when the war started. Also, for the common people, villages of small single-family homes were erected. The monthly payments were set so low that almost anybody could afford his own house. In Hitler's Germany there were no homeless - no beggars. Crime was almost non-existent because habitual criminals were in concentration camps. All this was reported in the newspapers and was known by everybody.

"The German press during the Third Reich had fewer taboos than the American press today. The only taboo I can think of evolved around Hitler, and, during the war, there was a law that prohibited "defeatism." This was because of the negative role the "German" press played in the German defeat of 1918.

"It bears remembering that the 'European Economic Community' was first coined by the Third Reich Government. I remember many articles, both pro and con about this subject. One should also not forget that during the war at least 7 million foreign nationals (nearly 10% of the population) worked in Germany, either as voluntary workers (Dutch, Danes, French, Poles, Ukrainians come to mind), or as forced laborers or as prisoners. I know of no instance where foreigners were attacked or molested (much less killed) because they were foreigners. Speaking of the press, I have an article from 1943 in my possession that spells out how necessary friendship is between the German and Russian peoples.

"Between 1933 and 1945 there was a tremendous emphasis on culture: Theaters flourished, the German movie industry produced about 100 feature films per year (of which not one was anti- American. Only 50 of them can be considered pure propaganda movies). Some of the best classical recordings still extant were made in Hitler's Germany. Actors from all over Europe but mainly from France, Sweden and Italy were stars in German movies.

"Germany always loved sports, and there was no lack of opportunities to partake in any sport one liked. The 1936 Berlin Olympics was merely a showcase of what transpired all over the Reich. In a book on these Olympics issued by the Hitler Youth that is still in my possession, Jesse Owens is shown several times, and mentioned favorably. During the Max Schmeling boxing fights, we kids all knew of Joe Louis, the brown bomber. Nowhere did I ever read derogatory remarks about other races. Certainly the accomplishment of Germany and the Germans were given prominence, similar to the 'ad nauseam' statement of today that the US is the land of the free, etc. In my ten years in the Hitler Youth (actually eight, since I obviously couldn't attend while a soldier), the Jews were never mentioned. Other sports that gripped our attention were flying (there was Hitler Youth flying training with their own sail planes), car races (British and Italian drivers dominated) and riding.

"Frequently I am asked about gun control during the Hitler area. Claims are made that Hitler could take power because he disarmed the German people. That is nonsense. In Germany gun ownership was never as prevalent as it is in America. I would say that for hundreds of years one needed a 'gun license' in order to keep a weapon. On the other hand, my father owned an old pistol clandestinely (about which we children knew), and there were gun clubs all over the Reich. Furthermore, Germany was always a country with many excellent gunsmiths. It is doubtful that they could stay in business if the laws were too stringent. I would surmise that while Germany was Germany (before it was 'liberated' by the allies) gun ownership probably was far more widespread than is acknowledged today. The laws on the books were mainly to give the police a handle to arrest criminals with guns, not the ordinary citizen. Incidentally, just as Hitler had forbidden so-called 'punishment exercises' in the Army (the brutal methods still employed in the American Army), so had he forbidden the use of clubs by the police. He considered it demeaning to the German people.

"Finally this. I don't believe I'll ever see again a people as happy and content as were the great majority of Germans under Hitler. Especially in peace time. Certainly, some minorities suffered: former parliamentary politicians - because they couldn't play their political games; the Jews - because they lost their power over Germany, the gypsies - because (during the war) they were required to work, and crooked union bosses - because they lost their parasitical positions. To this day I believe that the happiness of the majority of a people is more important than the well being of a few spoiled minorities. In school there should be emphasis on promoting the best and the intelligent, as was done in Germany during the Hitler years - a fact that contributed after the war to the rapid German reconstruction. That Hitler was loved by his people there can be no question. Even a few weeks before the war's end and his death, he was able to drive to the front and mingle among the combat soldiers with only minimum security. None of the soldiers had to unload their weapons before meeting with the Fuhrer (as was required when President Bush met with American soldiers during the Gulf War.)

"Germany under Hitler was quite different from what the media would have you believe." Hans Schmidt - German American Political Action Committee, (GANPAC), PO Box 10600, Burke VA 22015.

RKH: The alpha-wolf has two objectives. (1) unite all wolf-packs under his leadership - AND (2) keep the sheep fighting each other.

PRISONERS

PRISONERS: "Mr. Hoskins: I just completed reading War Cycles/Peace Cycles. Perhaps if I had read it 5 years ago I wouldn't have wound up in this white collar federal prison camp." L. B. - North Carolina

PRISONERS: "Dear Brother Hoskins: Just finished The Wolf & The Sheep. The information is obvious once it's pointed out. The book is rapidly making its rounds here and is in big demand since it arrived a week ago. Please send a Strong's Concordance and Jasher." F. G - West Virginia

Back to Table of Contents

1993 - Index

A

- abortion protester
 - jail sentence225
- ACLU
 - poisonous195
- AIDS
 - spread by mosquitoes108
- Arab warfare203
 - mixed alliances205
- Arab-Turk Invasions155
- architecture
 - segregation requirements36
- author
 - shift manager71

B

- bastard child220
- Beckwith, Byron de la76
- Belgian Congo
 - blacks riot220
- Bible
 - Jew nor Greek221
- black
 - Negro "man"223
- black man
 - oxymoran223

C

- Calvin, John
 - lawless kings82
- Catholic vs Protestant
 - 8-differences222
- China
 - Chaing Kai-Shek49
- Christian Church
 - Dunnsville, Virginia227
- Christianity
 - restricted teachings120
- civil war
 - media incited104
- Clinton
 - another deKlerk?59
 - his family62
 - judges "cults"138
 - mixed-breed62
- Communist Manifesto*26
- corporations
 - wolf-pack organization65
- Corporations & Estates65
- cross burning226
- Crusades199
 - Arab disinformation204
 - Saladin207

secret weapons200

- curses
 - disobedience34

D

- desert people names161

E

- eating
 - prayer232
 - rules232
 - scripture233
 - with strangers237
- Edomites
 - transformed into Jews185
- Esau Turks
 - unite against Jacob197

F

- food
 - sacred231

G

- Germany
 - ADL indoctrination teams224
 - Hitler's240
- Gorbachev
 - Poplar Forest meeting105

H

- Hitler
 - living in Germany240

I

- indulgences
 - sold by trade religions109
- indulgences & bigot151
- integration
 - Almond & deKlerk211
 - Richmond Light Inf Blues212
 - Virginia209
- invasions
 - Arab164
 - Arab-Hun163
 - Khazar Turks168
 - Mongols167
 - Ottoman Turks167
 - Turk plan169
- Islam
 - Covenant Of 'Umar115
- Israel
 - 4 philosophies182
 - escape into Europe179
 - identifying195

J

- Jesus brings reformation 186
- Jews
restrict secrets 118

K

- Kahl, Yorie parole denied 106
- Kennedy, John F.
Machiavelli's "Prince" 89
- Knox, John 140
- Koran
study restricted..... 116
- Korea
MacArthur's report..... 51

L

LAW

- barn burners 81
- eating with strangers 37
- guaranteeing debts 138
- interracial marriage..... 20
- lawless kings..... 82
- preachers have no inheritance . 29
- racial integration 213
- slavery..... 134
- sodomites 147
- taxes 138
- Lynchburg
Confederate cemetery..... 146
- ice storm 141
- robins & buzzards 140
- sodomites blessed 146
- steeple falls 144

M

- Machiavelli
first impressions..... 59
- mafia boss arrested 38
- Mao
Chairman 87
- communist episcopacy..... 92
- Little Red Book 92
- Mao's religion..... 112
- map
Arab-Turk Invasions..... 165
- China..... 11, 42
- Crusader Latin Kingdom 198
- Falklands..... 6
- Far East Spice Rt 158
- Hyrchanus' conquests..... 180
- Indo-China 47
- Israel captivity 178

- Panama..... 5
- S. Africa 7
- Sahara Desert 156
- Saxons under attack 61
- Singapore 9
- Somalia 2
- Vietnam..... 53
- McCarthy
"Fight For America" 49
- discloses treason 49
- media 211
- militia in Virginia..... 131
- Mohammed 163
- Mohr, Col Jack denied tax deduction 194
- Morano-Moresco
Turk converts 165

O

Operation Armageddon

- destruction of U.S. 1
- Falklands 6
- Grenada 5
- Panama..... 4
- Philippines 10
- Singapore 9
- Somalia 1
- South Africa..... 7
- Orthodox Church
Slavic church 198

P

- Peters, Pete
church padlocked 84
- Phoenix Program..... 56
- Vietnam assassinations 100
- prophecy
China to invade West..... 35
- Prouty, Col L. Fletcher
JFK, The CIA, Vietnam..... 89

R

- racial separation
Dunnsville, Va. church 227
- reformation
3rd Reformation 137
- religions conceal secrets 118
- Road To War 23
- Rome
Christian problem 121
- state-religion 121
- Ruby Ridge 148

Ruby Ridge meeting
gathering information	19
Russia
new Orthodox Church.....	173
S
sadducees.....	177
John Hyrcanus creation.....	181
slavery vs indenture.....	134
Son-of-Man	177
South Africa
current news	174
integration	209
spice merchants	133
spice routes
God's blessing.....	158
king protector	160
strangers
Philip Morris inspection.....	71
Sunday
keeping sabbath.....	196
T
Talmud
oaths	118
trade religions
sell indulgences.....	109
Mao's communism	112
do & do not	124
Virginia beliefs	110
Turks & Jews unite
invade West.....	223
U
unforgiveable sin	193
V Vicki
beginning of reformation	192
Vietnam
American reconstruction.....	41
Phoenix Program.....	100
U.S. starts a war	55
W Waco
massacre video	227
restraining order	76
Waco review
Cong Ron Paul	150 war
when to fight	79
Wolf & The Sheep	193
wolf government	83