Chapter 412

WITCHES, BEAST, BANKERS And A NEW WORLD

The nation of Adam-man is old. The sons of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were taken into captivity and scattered over the world almost a thousand years before Jesus was born.

It is not surprising that there are many histories of our people. A few of them were gathered into a book called The Bible. The purpose of the Bible is stated in its first chapter; "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1.¹

In The Beginning

Before there was a law of gravity there was God the WORD. God the WORD spoke the world into existence. He created the birds, fish and beasts.

Lastly, he created man. "God said, Let us make man in our image ... and let them have dominion over ... all the earth." Gen 1:26. Man's natural instinct is to obey the WORD in whose image he is made. Obedience is necessary to rule God's creation. Disobedience permits the creatures of the world, like wild animals, to turn on man. The WORD warns:

"But if ye will not ... do all these commandments; ... I will send wild beasts among you which shall rob you of your children ..." Lev 26:14-22

The ancient book of Adam And Eve, 69:9-11 relates how that in the very beginning the beasts warred against adam-man;

"Adam and Eve returned from the mountain ... and went down ... to the place where their corn was, but when there, a multitude of beasts came all round them. It was Satan's doing ... in order to wage war against Adam through marriage."

Racial adultery - war by marriage - waged by beasts against Adam- man has destroyed many nations of man through the ages. God warned time and again:

"Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion." Lev 18:23; "If a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast. And if a woman ... lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast." Leviticus 20:15-16; "Whosoever lieth with a beast shall surely be put to death." Ex 22:19

The more recent books of the Scriptures contain the same prohibition using more modern words:

"When they heard the Law, they excluded from Israel all the mixed multitude." Neh:13:3; "When the tabernacle is to be pitched ... the stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh shall be put to death." Numbers 1:51; "We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers (2114 Heb: zûwr, racial aliens) are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house." Jer 51:51; "Ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall throw down their altars." Judges 2:2; "Let them marry ... only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6; "Thou ... shall go ... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4.²

Scavengers

Most children of Esau are scavengers. They take the work of others and prey on the weak and diseased. They create little and depend on trade or war to secure increase. They are made in the image of their lawless Gods. They do things that the God of Adam- man does not permit his children to do and live.

² "They have dealt treacherously against the Lord: for they have begotten strange (Heb zûwr - racial alien) children; Hosea 5:7; "Ye have transgressed, and have taken strange wives ... Now therefore ... separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives." Ez 10:10-11; "When they had heard the law ... they separated from Israel all the mixed (mongrel) multitude." Neh 13:3; "A bastard (Heb: manzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord." Deut 23:2; "Not everyone shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." Matt 7:21.

Mentality

Most beasts have a wolf-pack mentality. In their world the ruler owns everything. The ruler allows his subjects to enjoy the use of possessions that he is not using in return for paying him tribute.

This tribute consists of rents, tithes; fees; transfer- charges; and most important: interest and taxes. All these things are normal under the rule of strangers.

Esau Organizations

Governments of strangers have different names but are basically the same. Some are simple neighborhood gangs. Others are called "mafias" which can be wide-spread. Still others are mafias within mafias. Then there are "castes".

The ruling government today is hidden within the ubiquitous organization called "the corporation" which operates by secret "policy" instead of transparent rules and laws to which man is accustomed.

Witches

Jacob's lands have been infiltrated and are now ruled by Esau's surrogate rulers that Esau has chosen. Jacob's fears and misgivings about these rulers are handled by his media which Scriptures once called "The Cloak Of Esau" (see HR 161-1988). Other scriptures warn of "witches".³

³ "There shall not be found among you anyone ... who casts a spell." Deut 18:10- 11; "Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live". Ex 22:18; "Saul had put away those that had familiar spirits (mediums) and the wizards out of the land." 1 Sam 28:3

A witch or sorcerer has the power to change himself into whatever wishes. The witch may appear as a priest, saint, king, knight, president, peasant - even a god on earth, or the familiar neighbor next door.

Many witches perform their acts openly. Those who are most convincing at making evil appear as good receive awards at ceremonies attended by the great witches of the land. The nation's serfs are encouraged to look on in envy and respect.

Some witches appear as respected financiers who are so skilled at their art that in the midst of thousands of professional observers they are able to make 50 billion dollars disappear. This is a marvel.

Even more impressive is their ability to conjure wealth out of thin air. Consider the words of an internationally respected expert in such matters - Sir Josiah Stamp, President of the Bank of England in the 1920s and the 2nd richest man in Great Britain.

Sir Josiah Stamp

President of the Bank of England

"The modern banking system manufactures money out of nothing. The process is perhaps the most astounding piece of sleight-of-hand that was ever invented. Banking was conceived in inequity and born in sin. ... But if you want to continue to be slaves of the bankers and pay the cost of your own slavery, then let the bankers continue to create money and control credit."

Creating wealth from nothing is almost the epitome of witchcraft.

The actual epitomes are those witches who stand in pulpits across the land and convince the people that the King of the Land is also "God of the Land".

Witchcraft has divided Christianity into two separate parts - each having its own God. There is God the WORD - the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and there is the God Of The Land, whose edicts replace the Laws of God. King worshipers are taught to ignore the LAW of God and obey the king. The witches who perform this magic are richly rewarded.

With this power, the King of the Land can issue any edict he pleases and expect it to be obeyed as if it came from God. He can even outlaw the Laws of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Corporations

In a world built on the illusion of witchcraft, its creations and activities are concealed within Esau's creation called the Corporation. Within corporations, secret things go on - things are seldom as they seem.

Corporations own other corporations who own still other corporations. Corporations regularly devour smaller corporations and grow larger. Critical decisions affecting more and more people are made by fewer and fewer managers. With fewer managers overseeing increasing problems, the possibility of making an irreversible error grows bigger and bigger; especially when the unchangeable Laws of God are broken again and again.

Results

Since witchcraft is an illusion, it is also illogical. Illogical things are self-destructive. This is what Sir Josiah Stamp concluded:

"It is easy to dodge our responsibilities, but we cannot dodge the consequences of dodging our responsibilities."

Read that again. It is profound.

One may not believe or practice Lawlessness, but if we allow Lawlessness to be practiced in the land, we cannot dodge the consequences when Lawlessness activates God's curse:

"But if ye will not ... do all these commandments; ... I will send wild beasts among you which shall rob you of your children." Lev 26:14-22

Look around. We see man's sons and daughters being taken by beasts so that man is being made few in numbers.

The Curse Grows

Usury banking is witchcraft - an illusion. Like soap bubbles, usury economies grow and grow and then burst - one after another. Time after time men with families lose their jobs. With the loss of jobs - money, food and shelter become scarce or vanish. Children suffer; couples stop having children. Starvation stalks the land.

The disobedience is hard to correct because of God's curse:

"I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast." Jer 31:27

Esau's surrogate rulers have flooded Jacob's land with the kinsmen of Esau who have been waiting for this day. The surrogate rulers make no effort to return them to their own lands.

If jobs are few, and money is scarce, it is logical that man and beast might be forced to struggle for the same crust of bread. That struggle could develop into something bigger - much bigger; something planned by Esau long ago and now that Jacob's lands are seeded with beasts - now could be that time;

"And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein." Zec 13:8

Trees must be pruned if they are to produce fruit. If this prophesy is talking about "man" it will certainly solve Jacob's problem with witchcraft, beasts, false Gods and those who follow them.

Conclusion

Will Esau triumph and kill his brother Jacob as he swore to do? Is today the beginning of the final struggle, or, is this just another "Jubilee" to be followed by still another Jubilee and then another?

There are some things we do know from simple logic: man unpaid by his employer quickly changes masters. If one master will not feed him and his family - perhaps his old Master will.

After all, it is written:

"Thus sayeth the Lord, who giveth the sun ... and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars ... who divideth the sea ... If those ordinances depart ... then the seed of Israel shall also cease from being a nation before me forever ... If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all they have done, sayeth the Lord." Jer. 31:35-37

In addition to God's eternal protection, our God again relates His promise of prosperity and increase and tells us what we need do as the pruning process begins:

"And the Lord thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the Lord will again rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers: If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the lord thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the Lord thy God with all thine heart ... For this commandment which I command thee this day is not hidden from thee ... It is not in heaven ... But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it." Deut. 30:9

Either now or later, a new world will be born - built on the ruins of Esau's Tower.

Corporate Virginia

Things are not always as they appear. A corporation having unlimited resources is usually ready to protect its interests.

The rule; "Maximum profit at minimum cost."

Go to your local shopping center. The shops are invitingly clean, bright, and shiny. Now, walk around the perimeter of the shopping center and look behind the shrubs and fences; Trash, garbage, and refuse years old are all swept into corners for someone else to clean up.

Babcock-Wilcox, the atomic-energy corporation, was located here in Lynchburg. The company went down on the James and bought a beautiful old ante-bellum plantation and set up shop. After a few years they moved on.

People wondered how they disposed of the atomic energy byproducts - dangerous stuff. The word leaked out. They put it in barrels and buried them all over. But, so what? Management was paid to turn a profit. It did. The company itself has moved on. The mess remains.

Up at Piney River are the remains of an old mining operation. The office buildings look new, but, they are closed and locked. Everyone went away. The land can be bought for almost nothing. Once bought, the new owner finds that before he can do anything with the land he must first spend millions to clean up toxic waste. So, more of Virginia is ruined and discarded while guilty corporations move elsewhere to repeat the same thing.

I used to travel to West Virginia. Mine tailings are piled everywhere in the mountains. Water seeps through the tailings into the streams. I remember looking down at a stream which had the carcasses of deer lying dead beside it. Poisoned by the water.

The Law says that the land is to be divided and never sold. An owner does not treat his land in this manner if he is to give it to his son and his son's son. "The land shall be divided for an inheritance." Num 26:53; "The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine." Lev 25:23

LETTERS

SOUTH AFRICA: Dear Richard Hoskins, I have a great deal of interest in South Africa as most of your readers have and rightfully so. But let us not forget some truths.

For years I could not understand why God would come down on Afrikaners so heavily when they are the most Christian and separatist of us all. Then I went to South Africa and went to Blood River and stayed with Identity believers and saw the truth. South Africa never had real Apartheid!

I was at the Blood River Monument and the Voortrekker monument. The first statute to "greet" you as you walk up to the Voortrekker monument is dedicated to the Boer women. Fair enough. It is of a woman and two children, but the little boy is an Edomite, Joseph Goldstein. He was chosen by the artist to model for the statue, back when the monument was made!

The Boers never separated themselves from the heathen. Even the 'Great' Verwoerd allowed blacks to work for whites in white houses and gardens and spent white money to 'develop' the black living standard.

'Pretorious' went without weapons to strike a deal with the "Beasts of the field" and they killed him. He actually had to watch as they killed his son slowly. But why did he negotiate in the first place?

In South Africa the 'boy' does the gardening and the "servant" does the house work, farmwork, and on the side steal and kill. Thus even to this very day, in South Africa, there are two types of work - 'White work' and 'Black work'.

Whites see themselves as overseers and blacks as workers. Boers who come to live in Australia are amazed to see white laborers. Boer wives in Australia have to learn house work.

Some go back to South Africa. I have met many Boers in South Africa and I love them, they are kind and hospitable, but they have never practiced Kingdom law. They, without knowing it, copy Esau's law.

Christian Greeting. W. A. - Australia

RKH: I have never been to S. Africa, but I can empathize with them.

Virginia has run much the same course. The first Hoskins in Virginia was Bartholomew. He was sent by his family to Virginia in 1615, age 15, so that one member of the family would survive if all the Puritans in England were killed. My Irish ancestor arrived in 1680 - an indentured servant - although a gentleman. My Scottish ancestor was also deported to Virginia when he was 15. He had fought in the failed "Rising Of 1715". His father lost his lands and was sentenced to be hanged, drawn and quartered. The Humes of Wedderburn were Scottish Covenanters.

The Hoskins fought in Bacon's Rebellion in 1675 and forfeited their lands. Along with many others we protested the Crown's importation of black slaves and supported the African Colonization Movement - which was neutered by the creation of the Republican Party in 1850.

Our homes were looted and burned by the British in 1777 and again in 1813. Our slaves were stolen, loaded on ships, and sold in the Caribbean. We lost countless family members in unending Indian wars - Indians who were armed and often led by the French and British.

We were again looted and burned out during the War Between The States and again had our slaves stolen from us without compensation by the very ones who sold them to us - slaves that for years we had tried to return to Africa through the African Colonization Movement - and replace with white workers from Europe.

I wrote books which I thought related God's will. The newspapers attacked me and my books and I was fired from my job in spite of being a leading producer and VP in the company.

Why has this all happened to my people, family and me? Why has the same thing happened to those in S. Africa and Germany? Sure, we've made mistakes - some big ones, but hey! We're still here!

Our attackers have ruined themselves. When I was fired I made a business of a side-line and my wife went to work the next day. Our income was almost as much as before and I was free to write what I wanted to write. The company that fired me in 1991 no longer exists. We are still here doing what we have done for as far back as I can find out about.

Look at France! Look at Britain! Overrun by aliens and persecuted by governments placed over them. Look at the New England that furnished soldiers who looted and burned us out. Not one in ten living there now has an ancestor who fought in that war. The rest have disappeared.

Where are the traitors who betrayed S. Africa; Britain, France, Germany and America? They had better enjoy their rewards, because their day is coming. Where will they run for safety? To me? To you? Ha!

We will still be here when our enemies are gone. All God's rebels from Scandinavia, England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Germany, America, South Africa and Australia will still be here! And, when God finishes teaching us how to deal with his enemies, the land will be ours alone.

Chapter 413

KINGS, USURY, BANKS & SCRIP

Esau is ruled by kings - or kings called by different names. The king's government is today known as a "corporation". There are often many corporations within the king's primary ruling corporation. The king appoints the head of each.⁴

Corporations bow to dictates of the king. A king's right decision causes all to prosper. A king's wrong decision can spell disaster for all.

For this reason, Jacob-Israel is forbidden to have a king other than "King Jesus".

⁴ Corporation: "1. A body that is granted a charter legally recognizing it as a separate legal entity having its own rights, privileges, and liabilities distinct from those of its members. 2. Such a body created for purposes of government. ..." American Heritage Dictionary

Kings

Many years ago Jacob-Israel saw other nations that had kings and wanted one for themselves - a king who would fight their battles for them.

"The elders of Israel gathered ... and came to Samuel ... and said ... Give us a king to judge us ...

Man's desire for a different king meant that a whole new law system would come into being, a law system that would override God's Law.

God said;

"Hearken unto the voice of the people ... for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. ...

God then told what was going to happen:

"Show them the manner of the king that shall reign over them. ... He will take your sons. And he will take your daughters ... And he will take your fields ... and give them to his servants. He will (tax you) and ye shall be his servants." I Sam 8:1-20

God then let Jacob-Israel have kings like the nations around them and the Scriptures tell of their misdeeds.

Today, all-powerful kings rule us, kings who can do anything they like. They force our sons into their armies and our daughters to work in the merchant's factories. Our children are forced to go to his schools; our land is taxed and taken from us; and we have become servants who are forced to obey the king's every whim.

The Corporation

A corporation's ruler is appointed by the merchant who wishes to exploit a land's trade potential. He is hired to be king and protect the merchant's interests.

When William The Conqueror invaded England, he claimed all the land as his own and appointed his loyal followers to manage counties, districts and farms. Those he conquered then worked land they had once owned but now belonged to the king. The wealth they once had produced for themselves now was the king's. If they rebelled and fled they would starve. There was nowhere to go. The next farm and the next also belonged to the king. That's the way kingdoms are run. From the top down. The king and his appointees rule all.

Danger To The King

Kings control their subjects more easily by controlling their minds - making them accept their existence as serfs. The king appoints priests to tell the serfs what the "god-of-the-land" (himself) wants them to do. They are told to obey, praise and honor their kings. They are to take pride in the fact that their kings live in palaces, travel in processions, sail the seas in magnificent ships and fly the skies with their wives and concubines.

Of course, there is danger. Kings often die at the hands of assassins; defeated kings lose their heads after losing wars; and his own serfs blame him if things go wrong.

There are always those eager to replace him. Self-preservation is a problem.

Deception & Self-Preservation

Most history is a record of man's revolt against unjust kings. People rise up and seat a new king - one who has promised many good things. But, kings are kings. In time the new king makes a wrong decision and all is as it was before. Then comes another revolt.

Kings often use deception to protect themselves. The person we know as "king" might only be the king's representative - with the real king living elsewhere. A revolt only remove the king's representative. Then, after a time, the king who lives elsewhere appoints another of his "lieutenants" to take the place of the one who had fallen - and life continues.

My Story

Fifty or so years ago I had political aspirations. I talked over my situation with my cousin in Tidewater who knew which political button to push to get things done.

He told me that if I wanted to be elected to the Virginia state legislature I first had to have the black bloc-vote, and, he knew the black who controlled the black-bloc and would introduce me. I could make whatever arrangements were necessary with him in private because back then a politician could not publicly seek the black vote without losing the white vote.

The black he was talking about wasn't one of the well known black lawyers of the time, or, one of the black celebrities the newspapers are always talking about; he was a rural mail-carrier whom I had never heard of before and didn't know existed. The great merchant who ruled Virginia had appointed a black middleman to manage Virginia politicians who were willing to pay the price to be elected.

Since I was unwilling to meet with this black "king-maker", my political career ended before it started. Today it is almost impossible to find a Virginia politician who will openly criticize blacks - and no-one knows who is standing behind the blacks, appoints their rulers and calls the shots. These are the things that are done in Esau's "corporation" where leaders are appointed or replaced as needed.

There was another case.

The Street Sweeper

I was told by a man, who until recently was a US senator, that at one time the one appointed to be the real head of the communist party in the United States was a street-cleaner in New York City. I was incredulous. However, after rethinking the matter it made sense. It was a perfect disguise which protected him against disgruntled patriots. But, who would have thought it? Who appointed him? "Power" does not always reside in a "title" or what appears obvious.

The point is that most well-known political figures are appointed figureheads. They act the part with the real power residing elsewhere. This is the reason nothing changes when they are removed from office. It was this way in Virginia before the American Revolution.

Summarizing The Corporation

In the age of deception, the one we know as a king is seldom who we think it is. The WORD tells us how to track our evil rulers:

*"The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10;
"Money answereth all things." Ec 10:19*

Banks

There are good banks and there are bad banks. The good banks, such as the Bank Of Amsterdam, are no-interest banks.⁵ The bad banks are usury-banks.⁶

Today we are ruled by the merchant's corporation which uses usury and usury banks as their whips. It is important that the long reach of these banks is understood.

Esau's Corporations Grab Farms

Under protection of the king, usury banks use many schemes to defraud the people. The following is one such which is excerpted from the booklet, Forty Years of Roosevelt, by T.W. Hughes. On p.31, he says, "I now quote from a letter sent by the Big Bankers to their agents throughout the nation."

‘We authorize our loan agents in the Western States to loan our funds on real estate to fall due on Sept. 1, 1894; we will not renew our loans under any consideration. On September 1st we will demand our money, and (when the farmers cannot pay) we will foreclose and become mortgagees in possession. We can take two-thirds of the farms west of the Mississippi, and thousands of them east of the great Mississippi as well, at our own price. We may as well own three fourths of the farms of the West and the money of this country. Then the Farmers will become tenants as in England. After 5 The Bank of Amsterdam charged the equivalent of $45 to hire a ship, captain, crew, and cargo and send it the Orient. When it returned the profits were divided by shares. If the vessel sank, insurance covered the loss.

6 USURY: A contract fraudulent in its conception. It is lending 10 units when only 10 units of the thing lent is in existence - while requiring the repayment of 11 of those units, or forfeiture of assets. This creates an oxymoron. An "oxymoron" is an impossibility. Given time, Usury logically results in ALL property in time falling into the hands of one usurer with all other usurers being his agents. Ezek 18:13; Deu 23:20

Sept.1st, the interest we receive on coupons will be accumulated. We will not lend any of our funds after that date, as we can make more money by withholding our interest income."

Results

My mother's family, the Kellys, survived the War Between The States and kept their land - only to lose it thirty years later. Their land at Kelly's Ford that had traded at $800 an acre in 1858 was sold for 50¢ an acre during the 1890s money panic.

Add the following story, the same one I related a few months ago:

Corporation Manipulation

Brazil, Argentina and Mexico fell behind on their usury payments to the international banks. They were ordered to cut back on their imports. They did - but they still didn't have enough money to pay their bank creditors.

All they had to export to generate income to pay their debts was food. But, worldwide food exports were in balance and there was no market for additional food.

To create a market, the bankers ordered the US Congress to pay American farmers not to grow crops. This created a demand which allowed Brazil, Argentina and Mexico to sell their farm products on the world market thereby preventing their debt default to international banks.

This whole story is in: A Staff Study, "Prepared For The Use Of The Joint Economic Committee, Congress Of The United States, dated May 10, 1986." It is 44 pages long and was excerpted to fit HR #149.

The story is mentioned again to show the worldwide reach of the merchant's corporation that rules the world. The smaller political corporations of Brazil, Argentina, Mexico and the United States are ruled by still larger corporations which can order them to "do this" or "do that" and they obey.

The Property

We have discussed the crash of the 1890s that bankrupted thousands of self-sufficient American farms. We have discussed how American farmers were paid by their own government not to grow crops in order to give foreigners a market in which to sell their produce so that they would not default on their own loans to international banks.

Now it is time to see which the ruling corporation considers more valuable - its banks or the collateral owned by the banks.

The Bank Or The Collateral

In 1920, there were more than 32,000 banks in the United States at the time of the commodity crisis. They bankrupted one after another leaving only 14,000 banks. What happens to the loans made by a bank that has bankrupted? The deeds to property?

The loans were simply transferred to a surviving usury bank. Banks are a means to an end - they are expendable. The merchant wants the debtor's property. The king guarantees the transfer. The usury contract makes it possible. Usury is the important thing.

Gold

There are those who say that we should go back to the gold standard. The problem with gold is that if we go back on the gold standard the one with the most gold will rule - and, America doesn't have the most gold. Countries of Esau like India do. To remain serfs of Esau all that we need do is to go back on the gold standard and allow Esau to use his gold to remain king.

Scrip

The colonies issued SCRIP and taxed it out of circulation many times. They did it for almost 300 years. It infuriated the international bankers.

During the Revolutionary War we fought England using SCRIP - and didn't tax it out of circulation - we still won the war but untaxed SCRIP caused devastating inflation.

For centuries, Virginia used SCRIP and taxed it out of circulation. Very little usury banking existed. To destroy our SCRIP and take our land we were invaded. Once defeated, by decree our conquerors declared Virginia scrip to be worthless. Usury bank notes were introduced to replace them.

Usury banking was causing chaos in Germany after WWI. Germany then converted to SCRIP. It created what historians call "the German miracle". Germany came out of the depression in three years while it took the US until 1946 to do the same. Eighty- three percent of Germany's international trade was done by barter. The usury bankers sent the armies of the world to crush Germany's SCRIP system and confiscate German property.

Dr. Thomas Porter in his book: THE GREEN MAGICIANS, p.46 writes: "The Word published in Glasgow, England once stated:

‘Marriner Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board and Montague Norman of the Bank of England agreed not later than 1935 on the joint policy of killing Germany’s financial experiment by all methods including war if necessary.’"

What Is Scrip

Scrip is a piece of paper representing "wealth".

My grandfather, Willard Hoskins, owned a mill at Hoskins Mill Pond. Farmers brought wheat to be ground into flour. Sometimes they waited for the wheat to be ground. Other times they took Hoskins Mill Scrip and went to Tappahannock and traded the scrip for things they needed. Anyone with Hoskins Mill scrip could go to Hoskins Mill and trade it for 100 pounds of flour. When all the scrip had been exchanged for flour there was no Essex Mill scrip left in circulation.

Lynchburg Scrip

The City of Lynchburg issued scrip that looked much like today’s paper money. They did it to perform a "service".

Lynchburg paid their firemen, policemen, and garbage collectors with Lynchburg Scrip. They built bridges, paved cobblestone streets, and paid for it all with Lynchburg Scrip. Lynchburg citizens used the scrip to pay dues, licenses, tolls, taxes, buy groceries and drygoods.

Virginia Scrip

The State of Virginia issued scrip to perform a "service". Virginia maintained its own navy, built forts, paid its soldiers, bought firearms and munitions; defended against Indian war parties; French and Indian invasions; two British invasions and repelled invaders during the War Between The States. All with scrip.

People used the Virginia scrip for groceries, tolls, taxes and import and export duties. Responsible governments were careful to regulate the amount of scrip in circulation by raising or lowering taxes.

Today's Notes

The paper money in your pocket is not scrip. It has printed on one side, "Federal Reserve Note". Everything about the "Federal Reserve Note" is deceptive. It is not "Federal" - it is a private banking system registered in New York; it has no reserves; and it is an IOU "note" based on usury.

Usury is forbidden by LAW because one cannot borrow $10 and repay $11 when only $10 is in existence.⁷ It's simple logic.

Chaos results by borrowing $10 at 10% for 10 years.

Governments have borrowed from the private Federal Reserve for years and for each dollar borrowed - many dollars are now owed.

This system has created mountains of "bad debts" both government and private, debts that are now coming due - the bad debts that banks want taken off their books and put in "bad banks" for someone else to take care of.

Government Scrip

Just like Virginia used to do - the United States government can and does print scrip. They haven't issued much in the past, because if America issued its own scrip in quantity - the usury bankers would lose their monopoly and be unable to rule the world.

American scrip and bank notes look alike because they use the same paper money, but they are different.

Banks are now in trouble because truck loads of IOUs are coming due and they have nothing on the books to pay with. In a panic they have just asked for seven-hundred billion dollars.

Seven-hundred billion of what? Puppet politicians in DC created seven-hundred billion and gave it to them. Just like that! But, what was it?

Was this seven-hundred billion scrip? Or, did the government borrow seven-hundred billion from the failed banks and turn around and give it back to them? If they did the latter, we have witnessed the biggest financial con-game ever perpetuated on a bamboozled public.

Now

Today, usury banking has once again created chaos - this time worldwide. IOUs are coming due and can't be paid; banks have refused to lend, businesses are closing, people are unemployed. The banks are crying for bailouts.

The banks can no longer create usury dollars and are begging us, the people, to "bail them out", and the Kings of DC, appointed by the merchants, are giving them billions with almost no strings attached.

Solution

The rule is: the man who pays the piper calls the tune. The people are paying the piper. They should call the tune.

For the first time in a very long time we are in a position to end usury banking - and open federal, state, and municipal banks and require them to use no-interest SCRIP for banking purposes.⁸

Nebraska Farm Rally

In 1985, almost 25 years ago, hundreds and hundreds of farmers from all over America who were being bankrupted by America's usury system stood shivering in a freezing cold steel barn outside Kearney, Nebraska. Our meeting place had slammed the door on us after protests by B'nai B'rith.

My talk described usury's ongoing destruction of self-sufficient farms and the need for SCRIP. I closed with a prayer asking God to send us a leader - a Moses, a Gideon - one to vanquish the King-of-the-land and enthrone the King of Kings.

God is faithful. "Ask and ye shall receive." The return of the WORD will be like a prairie fire whipping across the plains. It will seem like an instant.

Woe be to God's enemies who stand in its path.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Cholera has broken out in Zimbabwe and, fearing its spread, we filter and boil our drinking water. This has become necessary because many purification plants no longer work. Some of the cholera infected Zimbabweans make it over the border from Zimbabwe to get treatment. In spite of all, I have gotten a bug that will not go away. We do not eat out, no one handles the food but myself, and our drinking water goes through a filter.

⁸ See "Municipal Banks", War Cycles/Peace Cycles, Hoskins, POB 997, Lynchburg, Va 245058

Things have gotten so bad in Zimbabwe that Mugabe told a number of white farmers they can have their farms back - only to withdraw the offer the next day. I am afraid black nations will never get on with the whites. The differences are so blatant; in the summer heat we dress as light as possible, but blacks go about in suits and ties.

With the economic slump, many mines are cutting back or closing. They say demand is much lower. Without mines, the whites left there will be without any income and most are too ashamed to say they are destitute. In the old days, only a few auto manufacturers were allowed to import cars. Now, the whole far east seems to sell cars here.

Zuma the Zulu compared himself with our Christ; causing the Muslims to come to Jesus' defense. But, not a word in public from white Christian leaders. It seems that they are afraid they might upset a black brother.

Had a letter from a friend in Sweden supporting the Israeli invasion of Gaza. I asked him what honour is there in invading a neighbor and shooting and bombing unarmed civilians, mostly women and children. They use the newest weapons from Amerika, nothing produced by themselves. My feeling is that they will not stop till they have killed the last Palestinian - and then proceed to attack other countries.

There are a few books in Afrikaans about our earlier border wars in South West Africa and Angola against Cubans, East Germans and other European mercenaries plus various black tribes. Our men were successful and even saw the lights of Luanda, capitol of Angola - when they were called back by Kissinger and Pik Bota. They could have cleaned Angola of communists. In the old days our Generals would have ignored Kissinger's order, as he is a foreigner. Our men were fewer in number but well trained.

After the English boycott, S. Africa was forced to design and build their own troop carriers and bomb-proof cars. Our R1 rifles were far better than the AK47s.

We sent you a copy of Sell-Out about the whites in power who sold out their own people to the blacks. It would still be in print except the Conservative Party leader Ferdi Hartzenberg took the book to court and the Judge, his brother, banned the book. The young author had no option but to cease publication.

In the early 1900s Siener von Rensburg predicted that the day would come when white pensions would be taken. So far, the police, railway workers and municipal workers have lost everything. The ruling black drones have helped themselves to huge paychecks and bonuses and left the whites to beg. When the last of the whites were forced out of government the country has begun to rapidly disintegrate.

'Till next time we wish you and yours a wonderful 2009. Things are difficult and our only hope is from God.

LETTERS

ROBERT E. LEE: Greetings; I would hope that your readership could get word that the book your prisoner ministry sent me, Robert E. Lee, On Leadership, is a tremendous inspiration; the kind of book that makes a mark on one's heart for a lifetime. As I walked away from the receiving window with it, the guards made it clear, in unison, that anyone who would recognize any excellent quality in the man Robert E. Lee, is guilty by association of the unspeakable crime of 'racism,' 'pro-slavery', and a host of other associated crimes. I doubt in my mind that a single one of these guards can state a single salient fact about the life or character of Robert E. Lee. I myself have learned a lot about both from this most cherished book." L.P. - prisoner California

HATE: "Brother Hoskins; America is quickly heading into a police state. Whites have to learn that blacks hate whites. It's an undercurrent in black culture. They long for the day when they can kill whites. One need only to be involved in a prison riot to see it clearly for what it is." S. - prisoner Florida

NEW ZEALAND: Hello Richard; My friend in N. Zealand writes that they have about 5,000 Jews living there. In the past two years a number of Hasidic Jewish groups have arrived who prohibit their members from viewing TV. She thought this interesting since the Jews make 99% of Hollywood and TV movies. Chapter 414

BABYLON FALLING AND SCRIP RETURNS

My Dad was a doctor in the '30s. His patients had almost no money. Dad would come home with the proceeds for the day - potatoes, corn, a chicken and maybe $1.28 in cash. People were always coming by our house asking to work for a meal. The food Dad received in payment for his services went out the front door as fast as it came in.

Layoffs are taking place. Hundreds of thousands lose their jobs each month all over the country. Millions are unemployed.

What do people do when they use up their unemployment insurance? their savings? What do they do when there is no money to buy food? The media says that in places foodbanks that care for the poor are down to three weeks supply. Someone else told me about seeing a car stopping and the driver picking up road-kill. If true, people may soon fight over a scrap of bread. Perhaps whole groups - perhaps whole races. Maybe that's a picture of tomorrow.

The Eternal War

It is surprising the number of people who don't know the simple facts of their existence. There is an ancient ongoing war in progress between Jacob and Esau. Scripture says;

"And Esau hated Jacob ... and Esau said in his heart ... I will slay my brother Jacob." Gen 27:41

Who is Jacob?

Jacob is the son of Isaac who is the son of Abraham. All are "Adam-man". His God is their God, and "His name is called the WORD of God." Rev 19:13. God's WORD never changes. God first wrote it on stone and then wrote it on men's hearts. Today's Adam-man bears Isaacs name, Isaac's-son, Isaacson, "Saxon".

The Saxon's one great desire is to be left alone so that he can worship God the WORD in peace.

"Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me." Ex 9:13; "The eternal God ... shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; ... Israel then shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:27-28

Who is Esau?

Esau was the son of Isaac and Rebekah. He is the elder twin brother of Jacob. He married Judith and Adah, both Hittites (Gen 26:34-35; 36:1-2) and afterwards he wedded Mahalah the daughter of Ishmael 28:9; 36:3 (father of the Arabs).⁹ These were forbidden marriages, "Thou shalt not commit adultery." Ex 20:14; Deut 5:18.

Being a deceiver, a fierce warrior and merchant-trader the mixed-breed sons of Esau first traded with and then invaded and spread his blood throughout Asia, China, India, North Africa and Southern Europe. His settlers and traders continued spreading their seed throughout Africa and South and Central America.

The result is that in spite of a seeming multitude of colors, dialects, and cultures, there are basically only two peoples on earth - the sons of Jacob and the sons of Esau.

The children of Esau are mixed breeds. God commanded:

"A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the LORD." Deut 23:2

Result

Esau is the result of "integration" with other races;

Jacob is the result of "separation" from other races. The children of Esau are mixed-breed integrationists. The children of Jacob are separatists who seek to remain separate.

God the WORD, the God of Jacob, made his preference known:

⁹ Arab; meaning (ambuscade) (Davis Dictionary of the Bible)

"As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated." Rom 9:13

Esau's War Against Jacob

Esau the trader and conqueror accumulated great wealth. He uses this great wealth to expand his business into a monopoly. He hires kings and armies to invade other lands. The hired Kings manage these newly-acquired markets and protect Esau's interests. They enforce their employers directives as being "the law of the land" replacing prior laws. Using the power of the state, the king treats non-compliance as treason and punishes it accordingly.

The fact that Jacob allows kings to rule them is unlawful.¹⁰ The violation of one Law opens the door for the violation of other Laws.

Resistance

Much of Jacob's history is the history of his overthrowing the kings that Esau has placed over him:

"So they joined their forces and smote sinful men ... So they recovered the Law out of the hand of the Gentiles and out of the hand of kings." I Maccabees 2:44,48

This is why to this day that Saxons distrust and chafe at any episcopal rule (rule from the top down), be it religious, government, or corporate business, since such rule may impact the rule of God's true kings which is the individual Saxon who is responsible to enforce the WORD which is God;

¹⁰ "The elders of Israel gathered ... and said ... Give us a king to judge us ... And the Lord said ... they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them." I Sam 8:1-20

"Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; Rev 1:5,6

Esau's Counterfeit Religion

Laws issued by kings, to be obeyed by the people, must receive God's blessing - especially if these Laws violate the LAWS of "God the WORD" - the WORD that does not change.

Esau obtains God's blessing by hiring priests who retain the rituals of the old God, add the universal "be nice" that is present in all religions, and lastly adding that the old Law is done away and that the new law requires that one must obey the God of the Land who is the king of the land.

This creates a Counterfeit Christianity.

Counterfeit Christianity Today

Identifying Counterfeit Christianity is easy for anyone who knows The WORD. Scripture says:

"We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers (Stranger 2114 - foreigner, strange, profane, - commit adultery, Strongs.) are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house." Jer 51:51; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." Deut 23:2; "The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." Num 18:7, Num 1:51 (two witnesses)

Go into a church and look around. If you see a son of Esau seated among the children of Jacob - you have discovered a violation of the LAW - you are in a Counterfeit Christian Church.

It's that simple. It should be no surprise to discover that these are the sort of churches where sodomite leaders are discovered on a regular basis; pedofilia is found to be rampant, and their collections are given to the children of Esau instead of to their own sons of Jacob who desperately need them.¹¹

Virginia 1622

The Indian fur trade in Virginia was a royal monopoly. Indians sold their magnificent furs to the crown who resold them to the rest of Europe at a fantastic mark-up.

To build good will with the Indians, Virginia's settlers were ordered by the King to integrate the Indians into their society - take them into their homes - eat with them¹² - bring them into the churches. Be nice to them.

Integration pays the merchant more than separation, so the King ordered the integration of the Indian race with the White race. Colonial leaders talked integration. Preachers preached integration. The authorities hounded separatists.

Then, the Indians closed the trap.

The Indians had planned The Massacre for years, but not a word had reached the Whites. In 1622, they rose at the same

11 "Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore [is] wrath upon thee from before the LORD." 2 Chr 19:2; "To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin." Jas 4:17; "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." Heb 10:26-31

12 "Thou shalt no stranger eat of the holy thing." Lev 22:10; "Withdraw from among the Gentiles and do not eat with them." Jubilees 22:17; "They shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the Lord ... when they eat their holy things." Lev 22:15-16 hour on the same day from Richmond's fall line to the Atlantic Capes and massacred half the colony. Everyone lost someone.

From that time, a White integrationist couldn't be found among the survivors. God's wrath for violating his Law convinced them. The survivors became separatists overnight.

1622 Again?

Today, Jacob has once again been ordered by Esau's surrogate king to integrate with the children of Esau. The king's governors, rulers and Counterfeit Christian ministers teach integration. Separatists are called unflattering names and are dealt with harshly.

Large groups of aliens have been brought into our settlements as replacements for heavily indebted sons of Jacob who are loaded with debt and can borrow no more. The newly arrived sons of Esau are mostly debt-free and can be counted on to borrow and expand the monetary system for years into the future - pouring more billions into Esau's coffers. Integration is more profitable to traders than separation.

Prelude

While Esau has a reputation for being rowdy, the present aliens are relatively quiet and orderly, as least as much as they have ever been. They have responded to the overtures of the king and are relatively friendly and nice.

But, we've seen this before. We remember with a sense of foreboding what happened. Will the past repeat? What might happen if food should be in short supply; if the millions of unemployed aliens should deplete their savings and unemployment insurance and be unable to buy what food is available?

If people should have trouble feeding their families, or, if it should appear that one group has more to eat than another - what then? Another 1622?

Doesn't it appear strange that only a handful of priests teach The WORD Of GOD and speak out against usury, undivided land, strangers in our midst, monopolies, and kings?

Doesn't it appear strange that among all the king's government officials in county, state, and federal levels one can't name ten who are demanding that the horde of aliens in our midst be deported to create jobs for our own?

Doesn't it appear strange that hundreds of billions of tribute are taken from the people and given to Esau's bankers to do with as they like? And, most of all, doesn't it appear strange that in direct violation of the LAW of God the WORD we have a stranger ruling over us when THE WORD clearly teaches, "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21?

False Alarm

In 1999, people were told that computers would not be able to adjust to the time change and would crash on Jan 1, 2000, and the country would revert to the stone age. People were advised to load up on food, ammunition, and survival equipment.

This was a false alarm - sort of like "The Indians are coming" when they weren't - until they did.

Now, once again, this time without being told, people are buying survival equipment. The price of ammunition has doubled in many places and the price of firearms has become prohibitive.

Still, the Blacks, Hispanics, Jews and others remain quiet, while Esau's media presents entertainment provided by the Washington Circus and Hollywood whores and whore-mongers. But, these distractions are no longer funny. The quiet is becoming unnerving.

Jackson

In 1817, Creeks who had joined the Seminoles in Florida incited them to war. General Jackson was sent against them and seized St. Mar's in 1818. Two British subjects, Ambrister and Arbuthnot, were captured. Jackson knew these types and, like Lew Wetzel, was not squeamish about killing them. On the charge that they encouraged the Indians to murder their own kinsmen - that they were arming and training strangers to destroy their own Saxon people, he hanged them. "Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel." I Kings 12:24

He knew that a Christian Community is a separated community and there would never be peace as long as there were Indians in their midst, so he met with Indian leaders and reached an agreement that in exchange for lands they held in the east the American government would give them their own lands in Oklahoma plus $20,000,000 to compensate them for any standing buildings or land improvements they left behind. The Indians were then to move to Oklahoma where they were to set up their own Indian country.¹³

¹³ "The eternal God ... shall thrust out the enemy from before thee ... Israel then shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:27-28

Blacks

Pastor Robert Finley, a Presbyterian minister, founded the American Colonization Society in Dec 1816. Its sole purpose was to colonize blacks back to their African homeland. The country of Liberia was established to receive them. It found support among prominent men, such as Henry Clay and Thomas Jefferson. Money was raised. In (1819) Congress appropriated $100,000 to help return blacks to Africa.

In 1821 an agent, Eli Ayres, and Lt. R. F. Stockton of the U.S. Navy purchased land in Africa, where subsequently Jehudi Ashmun and Ralph R. Gurley laid the foundations of Liberia. The colonization movement came under the bitter attack of Esau's integrationist agents financed by Esau's corporations.

The whole "Back To Africa" movement was put on hold by the formation of the radical Republican Party in 1850, the defeat of the South in 1865, and again forced racial integration following WWII.

But, as always, racial integration created a vastly bigger problem. The following was reported in an Australian newspaper:

"The longest war America has ever fought is the Dirty War, and it is not over. It has lasted 30 years so far and claimed more than 25 million victims. It has cost almost as many lives as the Vietnam War. It determined the result of last year's congressional election. Yet the American news media do not want to talk about the Dirty War, which remains between the lines and unreported.

"When all the crime figures are calculated, it appears that black Americans have committed at least 170 million crimes against white Americans in the past 30 years. It is the great defining disaster of American life and American ideals since WWII. All these are facts, yet by simply writing this story, by assembling the facts in this way, I would be deemed a racist by the American news media. It prefers to maintain a paternalistic double standard in its coverage of black America, a lower standard." (Patrick Sheehan writing for the Sidney, Australia, Morning Herald 1995.), My Awakening, D. Duke, p 259

Phineas

Kings ruling the lands of Jacob-Israel are a violation of the LAW. It removes the responsibility of law enforcement from the individual Saxon and replaces it with a professional police force, and it replaces the nation's militia with a permanent army. NY City didn't have a police force until 1840 - its citizens enforced the law before then and the U.S. army were only caretakers until the formation of the Republican Party. Lawlessness breeds lawlessness.

Recap

Virginia was settled in 1607. The king's governor was ordered to incorporate Indian savages into the colonists. In 1622, the Indian Massacre resulted. Overnight, God's Phineas Priesthood was activated. Their immediate job was to root out any who tolerated dangerous aliens in their midst. The day after the massacre an integrationist couldn't be found in Virginia.

This caused a separatist mind set which spread to England. It was years before the king could bring matters under his control again. When he again ordered integration, it caused another Indian massacre in Virginia in 1644 - but this time the people were on guard.

The Law of God's Phineas Priesthood is simple; obey and enforce the Law of God the WORD. The LAW requires a Saxon to correct Lawlessness and the LAW instructs him as to what he is to do:

"Deliver him that suffereth wrong from the hand of the oppressor; and be not faint-hearted when thou sitteth in judgment." Eccl 4:9

When someone committed a capital crime, justice was usually administered before the sun went down. To do otherwise was to fight God;

"If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn to death, and those that are ready to be slain ... shall not HE render to every man according to his works?" Prov. 24:11-12; "Whosoever shall do and teach (God's Commandments), the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven." Mt 5:19

Turning The Corner

I was saved on 28 April 1965. For a time everything seemed to go wrong. It was like driving down a bad bumpy road and suddenly turning off the road and going through the woods. Ridding bad habits was traumatic. It will be the same for you, me, and our nation. While losing jobs, dealing with tyrannical governments, and preparing for a possible 1622, scrip has reappeared. Scrip is part of Jacob's rehabilitation.

Turning To Scrip

In the town of Lewes in southern England, the merchants have devised a way to favor local produce and business over the standardized goods of the global economy. It is being done by introducing its own currency. May's General Store is one of the shops authorized to issue "Lewes pounds" at an exchange rate of one to one sterling. "Sue May, presides over proceedings with a brisk, school-marmish authority, dispensing home-baked bread pudding to regulars while giving the low-down on Lewes' alternative currency project."

According to the Financial Times of March 1, 2009, in the US there are at least 12 local currency schemes which favor small towns and one another against a hostile outside world. The largest is the "Berkshares Program" of southern Massachusetts which is issued in denominations of one to 50, at a 5% discount to the dollar, and administered by a not-for-profit company. The article says that the money is now widely accepted even for large purchases and wage payments with nearly $2 million worth circulating among businesses and private individuals. Susan Witt, who sits on the board, says "Our youth prefer to spend their free time on Main Street rather than at the mall." Money taken in exchange is held in escrow as backing for the scrip.

Let us understand what is happening; local people indoctrinate local people to spend locally the scrip that is created locally.

The small local merchants are helped and the big international corporations are penalized since they can't send local scrip out of the locality to their central headquarters. In the past, they undersold local merchants and put them out of business and drained money from the locality causing the standard of living to drop for most Americans for the last 20 or so years. Can't do that when people use scrip.

The latest news is that the near bankrupt state of California has decided to issue its own scrip to cover student aid, payments to its disabled and needy, and perhaps to the nearly broke California Public Employees and the State Teachers Retirement Systems. They are going to name the scrip "IOU"s. "A rose by any other name smells as sweet". If California can base their "IOU"s on wealth created locally they will have a permanent money system divorced from Esau's international trade cartel. The Cartel will be reluctant to take California's "IOU"s for fear they will not be accepted in international money markets.

One other good thing: Esau's anti-white newspapers are bankrupting left and right. Newsletters will be important in the days ahead. They might even have to be delivered by hand as were those of the "Committee of Correspondence" before the Revolutionary War.

Conclusion

Jacob has long been a captive ruled by Esau, but now, Babylon is self-destructing and Jacob can see the approach of freedom that is promised them by THE WORD.

Esau's illogical usury system is leading the way in self-destruction which is forcing Esau to release their Saxon captives. Saxons must now build their own society to provide home, food, and safety. The tens of millions of aliens imported to feed the establishment's debt machine are now useless to the cartel and must be helped to return to their own lands.

The day of Esau lick-spittle political servants is over. Those who have been rewarded with hidden retirement funds (see Tax- Payers Association of Virginia); his pulpit agents who have led comfortable lives in exchange for teaching Counterfeit Christianity; and his usury bankers who have rewarded themselves with billions of the people's money now sit helplessly watching the tower crumble. They know that Esau will not spare them since they no longer are of any use to him and the people they have misled are angry. Esau said;

"I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Gen 27:41

And God said;

"I loved Jacob, And I hated Esau." Malachi 1:3

It was the same in 1622 and we are still here. Events have a way of changing people's minds overnight.

Tomorrow we will still be here and Esau and his agents will be gone. We know this because God said;

*"The eternal God ... shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; ... Israel then shall dwell in safety alone."
Deut 33:27-28*

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. Hoskins: The HR letter from Australia by W.A. was not well received. The man saw the wrong people on his visit and therefore got his facts wrong. For some reason the Australians do not like us, whether on a visit or in sports. They can be mean.

Since 1994 those who manage our monuments, particularly the Voortrekker Monument, have changed their stories. A Gen. Opperman and I had words before. He brought in black guides. We never needed them before and what they tell visitors is twisted. Opperman is also very close to the black who manages the heathen hill. Opperman is no patriotic Afrikaner-Boer; he is what we call a renegade. He spoke on 15 December 2008 at Blood River, but could not resist visiting the recently built Zulu sculpture on the other side of the river.

At the inauguration in 1968, Dr. D. F. Malan was "Premier" Prime minister and the then National Party ruled. As a Voortrekker youth member I took my turn in guarding the statue of the mother and two children in front of the entrance. You can take my word for it, the boy was the son of one of the sculptors. It is a gross insult to say a Jewish child would pose for a nation they hate.

The letter writer made remarks about our laziness. What he most probably saw were Jewish women, since they came to our country they have always needed a maid, house help and a gardener.

Since I married in 1955 I have done my own work and many times the garden as well. When our men had to go on commando their wives managed the farms. During the Anglo-Boer War they provided all passing commandos with food, one of the reasons why the English destroyed everything and sent the families to concentration camps. These days, those who can work at home make the family clothes instead of buying the rubbish from China. Most young mothers nowadays have go out and work only to come home late and still have to see to the children, a meal and the house and clothes. My mother did all her work although she could afford servants. Lots of knitting and sewing-machine work kept her busy. Nowadays, nearly every town has a home industry selling home baked bread, cakes and other items.

Mandela's daughter rented an expensive house, but they nearly destroyed the inside. The same with the existing prime minister, but he did five hundred thousand in damages to a house in less time - removing cupboards, fittings, etc.

We listen to stories by white refugees from up north. They left their places in good condition. Now, a few walls remain - nothing else.

Cholera is now in all 9 provinces and the blacks complain that they have no running water. First they polluted all the rivers and dams. Whites drilled boreholes for them but they steal the pumps to sell for scrap and then they filled in the bore holes with rocks. The same thing is happening to their schools. They steal the equipment from new schools and leave them in shambles.

The "State Bybel" brought from Holland was based on the Masaretic text. We learned about the Septuagint later. Pres. Paul Kruger ruled by the Bible. He was honest and just. Like Malan, Strydom and Verward, which was the reason for his assassination. He did much to help the blacks - clearing away slums that were being rented out by the Anglican Church. Soweto was planned with each house having its own garden. The word "Apartheid" means "separate-development. It was in existence a century before in Natal. The liberals cherry-picked the parts of Apartheid they didn't like to defame us. Socially we never mixed. Blacks did their thing and we did ours. Most of the world news goes through the English Foreign Office; no wonder other nations view us as strange and even evil. This has been going on for a few centuries.

There is something I would like to bring to the Australian's attention. Verwaoerd's idea was to build industries close to homeland borders so black workers could go home at night. There were no squatter camps in those days. Squatter camps increase crime a hundred-fold.

People who went to Mozambique in December found no animals or birds still alive - they have all been eaten by the locals. Still, all one sees on the alien TV are starving black children with the announcers telling the world how hard they have it.

Until next time, K.J.

Chapter 415

THE REAL VIRGINIA HISTORY

Aryan

To know others one must know himself.

We are Man, - "Adam" in Hebrew - meaning to blush red; we bear Isaacs' Name - Isaacson, "Saxon". We are Israel; Heb - "he will rule as God" - the name of Jacob and his posterity; And we are also known as ARYAN.

This name has a special meaning:

"ARYAN, ahr' yan, meaning lord of the soil ... lived originally in Central Asia ... They are also called the Indo-European and Indo-Germanic race. ... Centuries ago the Aryans became the ruling race of India ... All modern languages sprang from these people." World Book, Vol 1, p.407. W.F. Quarie & Co, Chicago, 1928.

The Aryan is "lord of the soil". Where he is "planted" the earth flourishes. When he disappears - so does his blessing.

Esau now controls Jacob's soil with taxes, corporate ownership, and import/export controls. Jacob only becomes "Aryan" - lord of the soil - when freed from Esau's rule. Then he again produces wealth from the soil and is free.

Plantations

A plantation is where people are planted. Colonists to the new world were settled on plantations - the New England Plantation, Virginia Plantation, Georgia Plantation, etc.

Integration vs Separation

In the lands of Jacob, the office of "king" is an appointed position. He manages the merchant's market. His subjects produce tax/tribute. To get more tax/tribute kings conquer neighbors. The king's priests teach the king's subjects that integration is good and separation is bad. This is done to prevent his different subjects from "separating" and thereby decreasing the king's tribute.

Economics

Virginia colonists were held in virtual slavery by England's navigation laws. These laws demanded that Virginia trade with England exclusively. Virginia was forbidden to manufacture goods. Manufacturing was an exclusive British monopoly. English manufactured goods were sold to Virginia for top dollar and Virginia's raw materials were bought at low prices set by the King's government.

Great Britain wanted Virginia tobacco. It was a money crop. It was shipped to Great Britain, processed, and re-sold to the world at a tremendous mark up.

Tobacco farming is labor intensive. Convicts, countless tens of thousands of prisoners of war, religious non-conformists, and political exiles were banished to Virginia and were expected to labor in the tobacco fields for seven years to pay their own transportation costs. This made them "indentured slaves." "If thou buy a Hebrew servant, 6 years shall he serve, and in the 7th he shall go out free." Ex 21:2.

A great many of these immigrants were well educated. Most were put to work in tobacco fields to work off their indentures. Many simply faded into the unregulated frontier. In any event, their indentures lasted hardly enough time to produce an abundant tobacco industry.

Aliens Under Law

Aliens are not under Law and could be made perpetual slaves. In 1619, twenty black slaves were off-loaded into Virginia from a Dutch ship with the blessing of the royal governor. By 1649 there were 300, and in 1670 - 2000.

"In 1676, Virginia contained 40 thousand people of whom 6 thousand were white servants and 2 thousand negro slaves."¹⁴

Cooke continues;

"In 1714 there were 23,000 blacks, (and) the number of African slaves in North America in 1756, the generation preceding the Revolution, was about 292,000. Of these Virginia had 120,000, her white population amounting at the same time to 173,000."

In other words, in the short period of 42 years between 1714 and 1756 Virginia's black population had grown almost as large as the white population. Why? God's Commandment dealing with strangers says "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:33.

Blacks flooding into Virginia was alarming. George Maclaren Brydon, DD, wrote in his Virginia's Mother Church Vol II, p.13, 1952.

"The General Assembly of Virginia could put into effect no law which it passed to check or to prohibit the importation of Negro slaves, no matter what conditions the colony might be facing, because the great and politically powerful Royal African Company, had a practical monopoly of the slave trade from Africa to America and the West Indies, and they saw to it that the king declared void every colonial law affecting that trade."

Before we get into the effects of this trade I want to tell you some of my personal experiences with blacks.

Black Friends

It's easy to like most blacks. They can make you feel like a million dollars, and who doesn't like to feel like a million dollars.

Richard was abandoned as a boy. Granddaddy took care of him. He used to work for us in Culpeper. I was 8 and he was 30. He drove all over the country delivering furniture for Granddaddy and Granddaddy let me ride with him. Richard let me help him build fences, build chicken coops, and let me help him milk the cows and slop the pigs. He even let me drive the truck when granddaddy wasn't around.

He showed me the first pornographic book I ever saw - it was something even by today's standards. And, Richard was a thief. He wasn't allowed to go any place in the house besides the kitchen. He would steal whatever caught his fancy. One time I borrowed 10¢ from granddaddy and had saved all month to pay it back. It was on my dresser. Richard came upstairs when noone was looking and it was gone. I was in trouble with Granddaddy. That's just the way he was.

Temple worked for us for years when Mother was sick. She was absolutely trustworthy and cooked us special treats and made the best biscuits I ever tasted. She had four children. One by the preacher of the colored church she went to and the other three by the deacons of that church. She wasn't shy talking about it. None of them saw anything wrong or unusual about it.

Dealing With Blacks

Like it or not, in the South one had to deal with the blacks Great Britain had forced on us. Grown-ups gave us strict instructions: when dealing with colored folks; it was OK to joke with them. They like that - then leave. If you don't they will become a problem. Never, never, ever, get familiar or personal with them or, eat with them. If you do they will turn it into a alpha-dog contest. You don't need that.

Nod to special black acquaintances in passing; avoid eye contact with the rest. Eye contact means one thing to us and another thing to them. Don't speak unless you have a reason to speak. I was told that I would be shocked if I knew what went on in black society. I found that to be a mild statement.

The first time I was on active duty we had a few blacks in our barracks. Several had white scars that stood out on their black skins. They told me that most came from knife or razor fights. I don't remember seeing blacks that didn't have scars. They considered each scar a badge of honor and would relate at length how they got them.

I remember seeing companies of blacks that had two or three whites among them; the blacks made the lives of the whites a living hell - and the army did nothing to stop it.

Learning To Listen

The older folks were always talking about blacks and their history. One would tell a story and someone else would start another. Stories that weren't allowed in history books. Youngsters of my generation learned more black history than today's newspaper writers and college professors put together.

Slave Trade Monopoly

The World Book, W.F. Quarrie & Co, Chicago 1927, p.2329 reveals Great Britain's interest in the slave trade:

"The Treaty of Utrecht (1713), which closed the war (King William's War (1689-1697 - French & Indians vs England in America), ceded to England the Hudson Bay region, Newfoundland and Nova Scotia, and allowed to it the monopoly of the slave trade in the colonies."

As mentioned before, Virginia was forbidden to manufacture goods. When Virginians wanted tools, iron goods, dresses, or suits, they had to buy them from England. These goods were expected to be paid for in gold or silver (which was virtually nonexistent), or exchanged for Virginia tobacco.

Importing cheap Virginia tobacco and reselling it to the rest of the world at inflated prices proved a British gold mine.

Cheap tobacco required cheap labor. Permanent slave labor was the answer. The following instructions were issued to Britain's Virginia subjects;

"The governor of Virginia was directed to render every assistance ... to the Royal African Company of England. This company was encouraged by the British government to furnish a regular supply of 'merchantable Negroes' to Virginia at 'moderate rates.'" William & Mary Quarterly Series V, 234-5

Cheap slaves kept permanently at work produced more cheap tobacco which resulted in mountains of profits when processed and re-sold by English merchants. This is the reason for the boom in Virginia's black population.

Ashanti - The Black Slave Traders

Esau's historians forget to mention that Britain owned the slave trade to America and they also forget to tell us where the British got the slaves they forced their Virginia subjects to buy. The answer is in the old history books.

The British got their slaves from the black Ashanti Kingdom. The Ashanti Kingdom of western Africa was located in present-day central Ghana and was a powerful warlike confederation of black tribes formed in the late 17th century. They managed Africa's biggest slave mart. Blacks slaves were sent there from other parts of Africa to be re-sold by their kinsmen in vast Ashanti slave markets. (American Heritage Dictionary)

In other words, Britain got its black slaves from black slave traders.

Slave Owners & Traders

We know that the British got their slave monopoly from the French, but there is more. In 1991, the "Historical Research Department" of the Nation of Islam published a book called *"The Secret Relationship Between Blacks and Jews."*¹⁵ Black researchers reveal that the percentage of Jews owning black slaves was much greater than the percentage of whites who owned black slaves. Also, many slave ships bringing blacks from Africa were owned by Jews.

Many have wondered why blacks readily join forces with Jews against whites in spite of their slave/master relationship with Jews? The answer may be simple - blacks and Jews are kinsmen - kinsmen made in the image of the same God.

A. E. Mourant, in "The Genetics of The Jews" 1978 Clarendon Press, Oxford. from GANPAC p.8 Aug 1993, commented that "Nearly all Jewish communities show a substantial proportion of African Negroid marker genes, such as to imply a total Negroid admixture of the order of 5 to 10%."

This relationship caused a general discussion in Virginia before WWII about the necessity of Jews being sent to black schools.

Slavery Results

Whites don't want blacks living among them. Blacks don't want to live among whites. Every effort to return blacks to their homeland has been blocked by Esau, his surrogates and his corporations. The result has been explosive.

Haiti

A thing that put America on edge was the slave revolt in Haiti. Virginia received white refugees and heard their stories about 1800.

France owned the slave monopoly before Great Britain and the French king used it to fill the French island of San Domingo with blacks to produce cheap sugar and coffee which the French merchants resold to the rest of Europe at tremendous markups. Blacks soon outnumbered whites.

Runaways, called Maroons, fled into the mountains where they reverted to the lifestyle of their African ancestors. They lived off the land, frequently raiding isolated plantations.

There were early slave revolts in 1679 and 1691. But, with help from Esau's French money and media, the big slave revolt took place at the end of the 18th century. Revolutionary France freed the slaves but made no provision for returning them to Africa or for taking care of them. They went wild. Forty thousand whites were slaughtered after having unspeakable things done to them.

Gabrial & Nat Turner

Haiti was just one horror story. Everyone knew that Scripture forbade blacks from being in Jacob's lands, but they were here, and their presence was certain to provoke God's curse unless something was done.

There have been many servile insurrections in America. The most notable in Virginia were those of Gabriel and Nat Turner which Esau's TV recently portrayed as heroes.

There was little that was heroic about either. As far as the record goes both insurrections were the result of a frenzied desire to shed white blood - there was no further aim.

Gabriel's rising took place in 1800. He was a slave belonging to a farmer near Richmond with a face scarred by fighting. He attracted a large number of blacks to his plot. His plan was simple; attack Richmond, seize the arms stored in the armory in Capitol Square, and kill all whites.

Assembling a force armed with scythe blades, he marched on Richmond, but was stopped by a violent storm and impassable creeks. He learned that his plot had been discovered and his band scattered in the woods and swamps. Many were captured and executed, among them Gabriel.

The next insurrection took place in Southhampton in 1831. The leader of this one was Nat Turner, feeble in body but of great cunning. He was looked upon as a prophet and, like Gabriel, conceived the design of exterminating whites. He seems to have had no express provocation. Stating after his capture that his master had always treated him kindly, his motives remain unknown.¹⁶

He carried a paper with him written in blood containing the figures of a sun and a cross. He showed the paper to negroes up and down South Side of the James and the whole black population soon thrilled with vague excitement.

Turner attacked his master's house on August 21, 1831, killed him and his wife and children with an axe, proceeded further and killed a mother and her ten children; then a number of school- girls in an old field-school; and lastly a lady and all her children who were shot down as they tried to escape. The mob was now drunk with blood but the county was aroused. A local militia attacked them and followed them into the swamps where many of them were killed and the rest captured. Fifty-five white persons had been put to death, almost all women and children, and 21 of the insurgents were brought to trial. Of them thirteen were hanged, among them Nat Turner, who never explained his motives. The plausible theory that they were the result of cruelty is not supported by the facts and Turner expressly disclaimed it. The fact is that the two leaders believed that the time had come to put the white race to death; and they proceeded to try to do so. (Virginia, p.485)

African Colonization

After the Revolutionary War, Britain could no longer stop American attempts to rid themselves of blacks. The African Colonization Movement was organized to buy slaves and return them to Africa. It was planned that when males reached 21 and females 18 they would be bought, trained, provided with their own land and home in Africa, and returned. All those older than 21 and 18 would remain in America and die here naturally. In time the black race would vanish in America. The purchase money was to be used to import white labor from Europe.

At the very time this plan was taking place, Esau's corporate surrogates began advocating "radical abolition" - freeing the slaves with no compensation to their owners.

Banks

The first bank was organized in America in 1780. After that they multiplied rapidly in Northern cities making usury loans to Northern farmers. When the farmers were unable to repay they were foreclosed. Cities mushroomed to house ex-farmers who were now forced to work for corporate industry. Except for minor resistance, the North was conquered. Now, the bank owned corporations poured money into "radical abolition" - to free Southern black slaves with no compensation to their owners - an incitement to war.

Southern Conquest

Like Haiti earlier, incendiary pamphlets were printed, trumpeting radical abolition, black vote, racial adultery, revolution and inciting massacre of whites. Esau's media captured the minds of its readers in the big cities of the North preparing them to fight the South.

The book, The Secret Six, tells of Northern industrialists who financed a crazed revolutionary in Kansas who went about at night cutting off the arms of slave owners and calling for a slave insurrection to kill whites. An undeclared War Between The States was launched by "executive order" that had disastrous consequences for the whole nation.

Occupation

The South was conquered and divided into military districts. Forts and military bases were built to suppress revolt. The whites were disenfranchised and blacks given the vote and rule over whites that included: black police; black city and state governments; black congressmen and senators.

Renegade whites (carpetbaggers) were sent south to instruct the blacks how to vote. In some cases the carpetbaggers were elected. Following is part of a speech by one of them, The Rev. William G. Brownlow, Occupation Governor of Tennessee:¹⁷

"If I had the power I would arm ... every Negro in the South, and every devil in Hell, clothe them in the uniform of the Federal Army and turn them loose on the Rebels of the South and exterminate every man, woman and child south of Mason and Dixon's Line. I would like to see Negro troops, under the command of (U.S. General Benjamin F.) Butler, crowd every Rebel into the Gulf of Mexico and drown them ..."

The War left the South destitute. These Aryans - "lords of the soil" - who had no money were now taxed by black rulers so that they would lose their land. With the loss of their land they lost their ability to create wealth. With the loss of their ability to create wealth they lost confidence in their ability to feed children. From this time the size of white families began to shrink.

The South was destroyed and occupied. Military bases were constructed the length and breadth of the land to suppress rebellion. The British Empire did the same to South Africa. Still later the entire world trampled Germany when she tried to separate. All three remain occupied and subject to their masters to this day.

Today

In this formerly independent Aryan land of America, Esau rules. Jacob's God is banished from courts and schools. The media are virulently anti-white. A few comments illustrate:

* Miles Davis (black jazz musician) "If somebody told me I had only one hour to live, I'd spend it choking a white man. I'd do it nice and slow." [Miles Davis Can't Shake Boyhood Racial Abuse, Jet March 25, 1985.]

* Eldridge Clever (former Black Panther leader on why he raped white women) "Rape was an insurrectionary act. It delighted me that I was defying and trampling upon the white man's law, upon his system of values, and that I was defiling his women ..." [Eldridge Clever, Soul on Ice, McGraw-Hill, 1968, p.14.]

* Chino Wilson (in an editorial in the Daily Collegian, campus newspaper at Penn State University) January 28, 1992. "After looking at all the evidence there is only one conclusion: white people are devils ... I believe that we must secure our freedom and independence from these devils by any means necessary, including violence. ..."

* Malcolm X - "The death of over 120 white people is a very beautiful thing." [Speech in Los Angeles on June 3, 1962 upon learning of a plane crash. He also said on numerous occasions, "The white man is the devil."]

* Rev. James Cone - "What we need is the destruction of whiteness, which is the source of human misery in the world." [Quoted in David Horowitz, Hating Whitey, Spence Publishing, 1999, p. 44.]

White Devil

These comments by sons-of-Esau living in the lands of Jacob are only the tip of the iceberg. In other parts of the world such comments are the rule. Africa speaks of "The White Devil"; Islam speaks of "The White Devil"; China speaks of "The White Devil. The term "White Devil" is used by Esau worldwide.

The question arises; does this "hate the white man" have a place of origin?

We are familiar with how Eve was beguiled by the Serpent and caused Adam to sin which caused them to be thrown out of the Garden. Other ancient scriptures elaborate on this event, assuming of course that we understand the parables involved. "Serpent" means deception; "white" (or light) means truth and goodness and "black" or darkness means evil.¹⁸

The Book Of Adam & Eve was written long before the time of Jesus. It says;

"The Word of God came to the serpent and said unto it ... thou and thy race, ... the ruin of my creatures happened through thee ... And a wind came to blow from heaven by command of God that carried away the serpent from Adam and Eve, threw it on the shore, and it landed in India." I Adam & Eve 18:7-9, [Lost Books, p14]

Why India? Perhaps it's because India lies between the East and the West - the center of world trade. It is the land of the merchant and the trader. There's more;

¹⁸ Most Biblical stories have two meanings; the actual event and the spiritual. In days of captivity, use of the parable kept the speaker from being killed.

"God ordered Satan to show himself to Adam plainly, ... And God said to Adam ... look, O Adam, at him, who said of himself that he is God! Can God be black? Would God take the form of a woman?" 2 Adam & Eve 4:1-4

The serpent (deception) landed on the shores of India and God permitted Adam-man to see Satan (the deceiver) as he really is.

Gods Of India

India has many gods. In this land, good gods require no particular reverence since they are nice and won't hurt you; bad gods are different. One must give them special consideration and reverence since they will hurt you badly if you don't.

This is why the most popular god in India is Shiva. Shiva has two personalities. The good personality is named Siva the god of sex. All India loves and is loved by Siva. The other personality is Kali.

Kali receives the most worship and obedience since she will hurt you. Siva and Kali are black and both have serpents of deception about their bodies.

Kali

Black Kali has blood dripping from her lips - since she drinks human blood and eats their flesh. She has four arms; in one hand she holds a bloody sword; in another the severed head of a white devil; in another hand she holds a drum - for domination through music - the sound of sex and destruction; in the other is the fire of destruction.

She stands on the prostrate body of a white devil.

Her followers worldwide crave black Kali's sex and violence; her "bump-grind" sex music; and Kali's hatred of the white devil. There is a reason that Kali and her followers hate white devils.

Kali-Yuga

Hinduism divides the world into ages of 20,000 years. The present age is the "Yuga" age of Kali. It is an age of misery, starvation, death, deception and evil. It will end with the extinction of all life. Then, and only then, a new age of "good" can be born - the next age called the age of "Kalki".

The problem is that this present age of evil will not end because every time the world nears destruction and extinction so that good can be born - the White Devil steps in and does something that prevents the world from ending. This permits the evil age of Kaliyuga to continue on and on. This will continue until the White Devil is destroyed.

Dharma

In the past India was the great merchant kingdom. Its great King Asoka sent missionaries, called Dharmamatras, to other lands to conquer their minds. Dharma teaches:

"One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.-232 B.C.

The above teaches the children of Jacob not to use God's Law against Esau. It made the world safe for Esau's merchants and immigrants who were coming from other lands.

Results

The Hindu god Kali has as her objective the removal of White Devils so that the Kaliyuga age of evil can end and a new age of "good" can begin.

To bring this about they have successfully used five methods of war:

MASSACRE: Examples are Haiti and Nat Turner, thousands massacred by surrogate- whites, who led American Indians - before, during, and after the Revolutionary War; countless thousands of white civilians who died of exposure and starvation in the war on civilians during and after the War Between The States; tens of thousands of white women and children who died of starvation and disease in S. African concentration camps run by white-surrogates; 30 million in Russia's gulags - most Saxons; 9 million Germans starved or died of exposure and those who died in allied PW camps after WWII; the present protected crime wave in the West against Whites that has killed more whites than the last several wars.

DHARMA TOLERANCE: The teaching "One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka. 304 B.C.-232 B.C. neutralizes the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob making the land safe for Esau.

SURROGATES: Our God forbids kings. Kings are appointed by the merchant. The king appoints surrogates to help him rule and rewards them generously. They are removing God's Law from schools and courthouses. They are known by their obedience to the king.

RACIAL ADULTERY: India is a land of mixed-breeds - the result of racial adultery. Dharma suppresses the LAW and permits racial adultery to spread into the lands of Jacob.

USURY: When usury appears the people become slaves and their wealth is transferred to the usurers. Massive usury income is channeled into corporations and is used by Esau and his agents to wage wars of extermination against Jacob. The lands of Jacob that tolerate usury finance their own destruction with their own money.

Conclusion

The history of Virginia is the sum of all that has gone before. Black is Kali's color. It is holy to her followers. The mixed-race children of Esau see blacks as kinsmen. They see whites as "white devils"..

The war between God the WORD and the God of Esau is forcing people to choose their God.

"Alas! For that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it." Jer 30:7

NELSON MANDELA'S BACKGROUND

Nelson Mandela was convicted in 1964 for sabotage and conspiracy to overthrow the South African government. At his trial he admitted his guilt with pride.

At his farm in the Transvaal, Mandela and his fellow terrorists stored large amounts of explosive ordinance. This material was for an insurrection called Operation Mayibuye.

Plans of 106 targets were discovered including the homes of black policemen, power stations and police stations. Mandela's group had been trained in the arts of intimidation, murder and sabotage by (Soviet) Russian instructors at camps in Algeria, Ethiopia and Egypt. Many of the leading conspirators fled or escaped, leaving Mandela and a few others to take the rap.

On a number of occasions during his sentence, Mandela was offered freedom on condition that he renounce violence.

However, he never complied, as to do so would (in his view) have isolated his colleagues on the outside (of the prison) who were pursuing power through mass intimidation.

Chapter 416

Anti-Christ

Hair & Tattoos

Great Britain had a state religion. The king was its head. He appointed priests who appointed lesser priests. Whatever the king said was Law since it was "the divine right of kings" and it was incorporated into the law system and religion of the land. The king's new law was passed on to his priests who passed it on to the lesser priests and read to the king's subjects in every church in his realm. There was no excuse for not knowing the King's law since it was against the king's law not to attend church where changes in the king's law were announced.

The king was, in the words of the ancients, "God of the land".¹⁹ Nonconformists - Presbyterians, Puritans, Baptists, etc., were killed, imprisoned, confiscated, or banished. Many came to Virginia.

Nonconformists

In the 1600s, Virginia was vast and largely unsettled. Great Britain was in the midst of a religious revolution. "Nonconformists" who were banished and arrived in Virginia were looked upon by the King's colonial government as potential revolutionaries.

My ancestor, Diana James, announced that she intended to marry a young Baptist preacher. Her father, a state office holder and faithful member of the state church disinherited her and had her marriage removed from county records. We know her genealogy but proving it is something else again.

Roundheads

Nonconformists were easy to spot since the King and his nobles had long hair; non-conformists had "polled" hair - a haircut almost the same as today's standard haircut. When compared with someone with long hair their heads looked "round". In fact, rebels were derisively called "round-heads".

The King preferred long hair; the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob demanded short hair. Those who wished to continue living on the King's lands and eating his 19 "The elders of Israel ... said ... Give us a king to judge us ... And the Lord said ... the people ... have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. ... they have forsaken me ... (the king) will take your sons (for his army). And he will take your daughters ... And he will take your fields ... and give them to his servants. He will (tax you) and ye shall be his servants. "I Sam 8:1-20; "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings & priests unto God and his Father; Rev 1:5-6 food kept their hair long. Those who thought The WORD more important than the Law of the Land had short hair - and suffered the consequences.

Hair

The WORD says;

"Neither shall they shave their heads nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads." Ez 44:22

In the centuries before Christ, India was the center of world trade. India's Hindu holy men had long hair - they still do. Buddhist missionary monks from India shaved their heads. They still do. Both are priests of the international merchant.

Long hair or shaved heads instead of "moderate hair-cut" (polled hair) advertises the individual involved as a possible follower of an alien God - which of course violates the First Commandment: "Thou shalt have no other God's before me." Ex 20:13

Strict Law-abiding Christians would neither shave their heads nor allow their hair to grow long.

Tattoos

Esau's Gods are tolerant. They have many customs but few Laws - except laws created by the king of the land.

God the WORD is strict with his people so that they will survive. His Laws separate his people from other peoples and his Laws NEVER change. "For I the Lord, do not change." Mal 3:6; "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever." Heb 13:8; "The scripture cannot be broken." John 10:35

Alien nations print marks on their bodies to honor their Gods, their ancestors, heroes, and customs.

Man is forbidden to copy these alien practices:

"Ye shall not ... print any marks upon you: I am the Lord." Lev 19:28²⁰

Man who follows the Word of God is different. Aliens may copy our customs but they remain creations of their gods - made in their image.

Man Is Different

Lawful Man knows that he is not his own. He knows "God created man in his image." Gen 1:27 (MAN - Heb: "adam" - those who blush rosy. Strong's Concordance). The WORD also says;

"Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you; and before you came forth from the womb, I sanctified you, and I ordained you." Jer. 1:5²¹

God established man's mission before he was born:

"And God said, Let us make man ... and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth." Gen 1:26

20 "You shall not make tattooings on your flesh for spirits, nor put written brands upon yourselves. I am the Ever-Living." Lev 19:28 (Ferrar Fenton)

21 "Thou hast covered me in my mother's womb ... My substance was not hid from thee when I was made in secret ... Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect; and in thy book all my members were written ... when as yet there were none of them." Ps 141:13-16

The Opponent

There are those who oppose man ruling the earth as has been ordained by God. There are those who shave their heads and let their hair grow long; who mark their bodies to honor their gods; who despise adam-man because he is white and made in God's image. These would destroy man by creating dissensions so that man will destroy himself by war, and, become few in numbers and by teaching racial adultery:

"In America, we will aim for subtle victory ... the Negro will be able to intermarry with the Whites and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause." Israel Cohen, Communist spokesman in England, in A Racial Program for the 20th Century, Entered into Congressional Record June 7, 1957 (P. 7633). From The Canadian Intelligence Service, Flesherton, Ontario, Canada.

There are aliens whose holy books instruct their followers:
The Christian birth rate must be diminished materially.
Zohar (II,62b)

and who provide large numbers of abortionists to carry out these instructions. Fetuses are torn from their mothers' wombs and then burned - which incurs God's curse "I will bring evil upon this place ... because they ... burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings." Jer 19:3-5

Man's enemies use lawless usury to create debt and reduce adam-man into slaves. They create governments to manage their trade areas by hiring traitors to God and their nation to be slave overseers. Man is forced to work for alien corporations to eat; his farms are taxed and taken from him, strangers have been placed over him in violation of the Law and God's Law is removed from courts and schools.

The Awakening

One here and two there - man is beginning to see himself as his enemies see him and as his God created him: The Encyclopedia Britannica, 14th Edition, Vol 5, p. 635 says:

"Very early, Christianity was conceived to be a new system of law, and faith was interpreted as obedience."

In other words, the Emperor looked on obedience to God the WORD as rebellion to the empire and himself.

Man's Belief

The God of Adam-man teaches:

"Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the spirit of God dwelleth in you. If any man defile the temple of God him shall God destroy, for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are." 1 Cor 3:16,17

Man is a creation of God the WORD. Man is holy. Man is under God's Law. The same God that created man and gave him the world to rule will as quickly destroy the man who defiles God's Law. Joseph Franklin tried to enforce the Law as he saw it. He was identified by a nurse in a hospital because of a simple tattoo.

The AntiChrist

Who or what is an "antichrist"? The definition given usually reflects the mindset of the speaker. The WORD says, "He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son." 1 Jo 2:22. Those who deny the WORD are anti-christ.

What is the WORD?

God's instructions are The WORD. It is what God requires of you. Whoever denies God's Laws, statutes and judgments fights God; he is antichrist.

Some say the antichrist is hiding in the sky and will come down one day to rule the world. That's not what the WORD says; the antichrists are already here: "Ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists." 1Jo 2:18. Man and his God have always had enemies. There have always been antichrists - many antichrists.

The WORD says it twice: "For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist." 2 Jo 1:7

Today's AntiChrists

Today, most men who wear long hair and obtain tattoos don't know the WORD.

If they continue to have long hair and obtain tattoos AFTER hearing the WORD, they violate the WORD and will be held accountable - just as their Roundhead ancestors put their lives on the line by cutting their hair. "To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin." Jas 4:17.

A "Roundhead" was once a standard that advertised a man's belief. Such things still do. In the days ahead it may preserve one's life to know how others think. The rule is simply this;

"I created man ... and I told him 'this is good, and that is bad' ... that it be clear which in his race love me."
Enoch 30:12-14

God made man in his image. He made him a priest and a king. But, once a man becomes traitor to God and his nation, a new Law is activated:

"Thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing that thou hast forgotten the law of thy God." Hosea 4:6

The person who is no longer God's king and priest is not to be trusted. If he will betray God he will certainly betray you.

Remember this when subjects come up which are matters of God's Law: matters such as strangers in the land, dividing the land, taxes, racial-adultery, strangers ruling over you, monopoly and usury.

Whether in the pulpit or government; if a person betrays God's Law he will certainly betray you.

He is antiChrist.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Black expropriation of white property has been stepped up. The black government doesn't want just white farms, but their houses and businesses. Taxes on white homes and farms have been raised so high that many will be forced to sell. It doesn't matter if the land has been owned for many generations. My family came to the Transvaal in 1854 from the Cape Province.

Many whites leave as they can no longer keep a factory or business going. Shops have to close since they can't operate without electricity. Our high grade wheat is exported overseas and a very poor quality grade is imported.

TV showed some of the poor 420,000 Afrikaners who now live under the breadline. It is worse than 1933 when they could still get a job even for a shilling a day and feed their families. They lived in tents but the children still went to school even if it was under a tree.

The so-called election in Zimbabwe goes on and on. The votes have been counted and re-counted and still Mugabe refuses to step down. It must end sometime - he is 85 years old.

Chinese patrol towns on Zimbabwe's east like Umtalie. Mugabe must have some sort of agreement with the Chinese because arms and troops are flown in. The Chinese are after every bit of raw material they can get their hands on. Their presence means that more refugees will seek safety and cross the border into S. Africa. Still, Zimbabweans do not trust S. Africa. S. Africa did nothing for them while Mugabe was on his rampage.

The situation here has not changed. The farm next to where we lived was attacked by about 20 armed barbarians. The man had his cattle stolen earlier. The other neighbor simply left even before we did. Many whites who are murdered have their throats cut like they kill animals.

A cousin aged 80, after a number of her white neighbours were murdered, said, "I hate Blacks". It is easy to understand. The feeling grows as more people are murdered. Even the Reformed Church has awoken somewhat and now feels that no good will come from being nice to blacks.

Until next time, K.H.

MACCABEAN WARS

Apocrypha

The Bible says; "This is the book of the generations of Adam." Gen 5:1. The Hebrew word "Adam" means to "blush red". It is translated into English as "man". The Bible is the history of adam-man. It tells man's story down through the millennia. It is our history.

Part of Israel's history is contained in the Apocrypha. For centuries the Apocrypha was in most Bibles and still remains in some editions. However, Esau and his agents, having economic and political rule over Jacob, concluded that the Apocrypha makes man nationalistic and had it removed sometime around 1830, although some Bibles omitted the Apocrypha much earlier.

Without the Apocrypha the Bible contains a 500 year gap from the time of the Captivity until the time of Jesus.

Captivity

Northern Israel was conquered, made prisoner, and taken to new lands in northwestern Syria. The captivity didn't last long. Taking advantage of the confusion of Syria's war with her neighbors, Israel escaped north through the Black Sea region to the European rivers and the Russian rivers that led to the Baltic in the north.

Dr. Bertrand Comparet says, "In the Apocrypha, 2 Esdras 13:39-46 records their further journey to "Ar Sereth" (the valley of the River Sereth, a northern tributary of the Danube River, in modern Romania, which still bears the name "Sereth").

The southern half of Israel was called Judah. It, too, was conquered. Part escaped to Spain and from there into Ireland and Scotland. The other part of Judah was taken prisoner into Babylon where, after a time, a part was allowed to return to rebuild the Temple.

First, they had to drive away the Idumeans who had occupied the land in their absence; then, re-establish their country and rebuild the temple. Most of this took place almost a thousand years before Christ.

Rule By Heathen

While the returned Israelites were rebuilding their temple and their nation in the lands around Jerusalem, Alexander the Great left Greece with a powerful army. He crossed the sea and conquered Turkey, Judea, and Egypt. Retracing his steps, he again passed through Judea and conquered Babylon and other countries to the east and ended by conquering India.

He had conquered the known world.

Returning to Egypt he died after a short reign of 12 years. Before he died, he divided his empire among his generals. Judea was included in the part given to one of them.

Indian missionaries, called Dharmamatras, had spread their doctrines to the Greeks even before the time of Alexander. Alexander's conquests gave them opportunity to spread their beliefs throughout the lands he conquered. Greek Gods became copies of India's Gods. The Greek God Neptune even carried a three pronged trident representing the Indian triune - Brahma, Vishnu and Siva.²²

The Greeks ruled this great empire, including the Israelites of Judea, and began to force their captive nations to stop their separatist ways and follow the permissive laws of the new Gods. Many Judeans liked the free lifestyle of their conquerors and wished to participate;

"Then certain of the people were so forward herein that they went to the king (the local ruler), who gave them license to do after the ordinances of the heathen. ... Whereupon they ... joined themselves to the heathen ... to do mischief." I Macc 1:13-15

Among the new practices the Greek Gods permitted were sodomy, racial-adultery, usury, and child-murder.

Tribute

Nothing is free. Greek rulers had a high life-style. Someone had to pay for it.

In time, the Syrian-Greeks sent agents to collect tribute from the people of Jerusalem. Tax collectors in those days did what was needed to be done to collect money. People were injured, others killed, and many fled the city *"whereupon the city was made an habitation of strangers, and became strange to those that were born in her ... Moreover, king Antiochus wrote to his whole kingdom that all should be one people. And everyone should leave his laws: so all the heathen agreed according to the commandment of the king." I Macc 1:38, 41-42.*²³

A "heathen" was an Israelite who forsakes the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Many other Israelites were fearful of losing their jobs and consented to the new Greek-Indian religion and began to sacrifice to idols. In time, "choice" was not an option; the order from the king commanded that Jerusalem and all the cities of Judea should follow the strange laws, or, "the law of the land" and whoever would not do according to the commandment of the king or used hate-speech against the new ways should die.

To force all people to become one, the king appointed special civil-rights overseers over each city to see that the people abandoned their old laws, which caused many to abandon the Law and gather to the new ways of their rulers. Books of the Law were banned. When found they were torn to pieces and burned, and if any person publicly supported the Law they were put to death. Still, there were those who remained true.²⁴

24 Courts have ruled that neither the Christian Cross nor the Ten Commandments can be displayed on newly built federal property.

Sacrifice

Sacrificing to a God is done by performing an act pleasing to that God. Certain prominent Israelites were given the choice of publicly committing an act known to be unlawful to the God of Israel in order to persuade others to do the same - or die a dreadful death.

A scandalous act was for an Israelite was to eat pig meat. Pigs are scavengers. They can eat carrion in an advanced state of rotten decomposition without ill effect. To eat the flesh of a scavenger is to eat the filth the scavenger has eaten. Scavengers dissolve offal in special acid-filled bodies. The entire scavenger's body works to digest whatever it comes in contact with. It continues working whether you are inside it - or it is inside you. If inside you it attacks whatever is already weak within one's system. It may be the immune system that is first damaged as it tries to ward off the scavenger's attack. Eating swine has been considered almost the ultimate blasphemy since an Israelite's body is the temple of the Lord.²⁵

Following are three stories of those who refused to eat the forbidden flesh and defile their bodies.

Eleazer

"Eleazer, one of the principal scribes, an aged man ... was constrained (forced) to open his mouth, and to eat swine's flesh. But he, choosing rather to die gloriously, than to live stained with such an abomination, spit it forth, and came of his own accord to the torment ...

²⁵ "Ye shall not eat ... the swine, though he divide the hoof, and be clovenfooted, yet he cheweth not the cud; he is unclean to you." Lev 11:4,7 (2 Mac 6:18)

"But they that had the charge of that wicked feast, for the old acquaintance they had with the man, taking him aside, besought him to bring flesh of his own provision, such as was lawful for him to use, and make as if he did eat of the flesh taken from the sacrifice commanded by the king; That in so doing he might be delivered from death, and for the old friendship with them, find favor.

"But he began to consider ... the holy law made and given by God: therefore he answered accordingly, and willed them straight-away to send him to the grave. said he ... many young persons might think that Eleazer ... was now gone to a strange religion; And so they through mine hypocrisy, and desire to live a little time ... longer, should be deceived by me, and I get a stain to mine old age ... For though ... I should be delivered from the punishment of men: yet should I not escape the hand of the Almighty, ... Wherefore now ... I will ... leave a notable example, to such as be young, to die willingly and courageously for the honorable and holy laws. ...

"They that led him changing the good will they bare him a little before into hatred ... And thus this man died, leaving his death for an example of a noble courage, and a memorial of virtue, not only unto young men, but unto all his nation." 2 Mac 6:18-31

Mother & 7-Sons

It came to pass that seven brothers with their mother were taken and compelled by the king to taste swine's flesh. Refusing, they were made to suffer with scourges and whips.

One of them said, "What wouldest thou ask or learn of us? We are ready to die rather than to transgress the laws of our fathers."

This infuriated the king and he commanded that a great pan be made hot: Then he commanded to cut out the tongue of the one that first spoke, and to cut off his hands, feet, and private parts, with his mother and brothers looking on. Then he commanded him to be fried in the pan while still alive.

When the brother was dead they brought the second to make sport of him, and when they pulled off the skin of his head with the hair they asked him, "Wilt thou eat, before thou be punished throughout every member of thy body?" He replied, "No", and received the rest of the torments.

With his last gasp, he said, "Thou like a fury takest us out of this present life, but the King of the world shall raise us, who have died for his laws, unto everlasting life."

In this manner they treated each of the seven sons, who died undefiled while putting their whole trust in God.

And, at last the mother, who had encouraged her sons with these words so that they died bravely; "The Creator of the world, who formed the generations of man, and found out the beginning of all things, will also of his own mercy give you breath and life again, as ye now regard not your own selves for his laws sake." 2 Macc 7:1-41

Then, she was put to death.

Mattathias

There was a man named Mattathias who had five sons; Joannan, Simon, Judas the Maccabeus, Eleazar and Jonathan. Mattathias was known as a ruler of his people, one who was honorable and a devout follower of the Law. He was another that the king's officers wanted to use to help to persuade the general population to sacrifice to the Greek Gods. He was promised much silver and gold and other rewards for so doing. This is his story:

"In those days arose Mattathias ... "The king's officers, such as compelled the people ... to make them sacrifice ... came unto ... Mattathias ... Then answered the king's officers, and said to Mattathias on this wise, Thou are a ruler, and an honorable and great man in this city ... Now ... fulfill the king's commandment ... and thou and thy children shall be honoured with silver and gold, and many rewards.

"Then Mattathias answered ... Though all the nations that are under the king's dominion obey him, and fall away every one from the religion of their fathers, and give consent to his commandments ... God forbid that we should forsake the law and the ordinances. We will not harken to the king's words, to go from our religion, either on the right hand, or the left...."
I Mac 2:1-22

Mattathias then was filled with passion and ran and slew the heathen priest on the altar. "Thus delt he zealously for the law of God, like as Phineas did unto Zambri." I Macc 2:25; Num 25:1- 13, and he and his sons fled into the wilderness leaving all that they had in the world.

Thus began the Maccabean Revolt that regained the Law from the hands of kings and false priests. It started with forcing the eating of swine flesh - an act forbidden by God.

Wars Of The Maccabee

Mattathias and his sons fled to the hills where they were joined by those who refused to blaspheme the Law. Mattathias was old and it came time for him to die. He gathered his sons and said, "Thus consider ye through all ages, that none that put their trust in God shall be overcome... Wherefore, ye my sons, be valiant, and shew yourselves men in the behalf of the law; for by it shall ye obtain glory. ... As for Judas Maccabeus ... let him be your captain and fight the battle of the people. Take also unto you all those that observe the law, and avenge ye the wrong of your people. Recompense fully the heathen, and take heed to the commandments of the law. So he blessed them, and was gathered to his fathers." I Macc 2:64-69

Then Judas Maccabeus led and his brethren helped him, and all they that held with his father. And they fought with cheerfulness the battle of Israel.

He went through the cities of Judea, destroying the ungodly out of them and turning away God's wrath from Israel. He pursued the wicked and sought them out, Wherefore the wicked lived in fear of him and all the workers of iniquity were troubled because salvation prospered in his hand.

Samaritans - Enemies Of Israel

Then, King Apollonius gathered a great host out of Samaria to fight against the Maccabean revolt. These Samaritans had a great hatred toward Israel. This is their story:

When Israel was taken into captivity the king of Assyria brought in settlers, who today we would call Arab-Turks (II Ki 17:6), to occupy the lands left vacant when Israel was taken captive. These "Arab-Turks" were taught the religion of the departed Israelites and their rituals and tried to pass themselves off as Israelite- Jews.

When Judah came back from Babylon to reoccupy Jerusalem and rebuild the temple, these are the people they met. The Scriptures say:

"Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the Lord God of Israel; Then they came to ... the chief of the fathers, and said unto them. Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him ... But ... the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel ..." Ezra 4:1-3

The Scriptures continuously warn:

"I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria (mixedbreeds); they prophesied in Baal, ... and caused my people Israel to err." Jer 23:13

This is why strangers, even though professing the Lord God of Israel, are not allowed in Israel's houses of worship.²⁶

According to Scripture, churches who admit strangers are heathen and blasphemers. The presence of strangers reveals a Baal temple.

This is why Jesus commanded:

"Into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not; But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matt 10:5,6

The War

Apollonius led his Samaritan army against the Maccabee and was slain along with most of his following. What started off as a minor revolt began to turn into a disaster. The king was forced to mount one invasion after another which in time grew into a full blown war that continued year after year.

These wars consumed four of the five brothers. Two were killed in battle and two were murdered by their enemies who pretended friendship.

²⁶ "The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." Num 18:7, Num 1:51.

The King's Army

The new king heard that Judas Maccabeas had moved his base of operations to Jerusalem and was besieging the king's main castle there. His advisors told him that if he did not subdue the rebellion immediately that he would lose control of the entire land.

The king was angry and he called together his captains and gave them orders to gather together a great army and gave the same orders to the one having charge of his horsemen.

There were also soldiers brought in from other kingdoms and from isles of the sea, also, bands of hired soldiers that brought the number of his army to more than a hundred thousand footmen, twenty thousand horsemen, and thirty-two elephants.

Elephants

War elephants came from India. Most were named after Indian Gods. To provoke these elephants to fight they allowed them to see and smell the juice of grapes, mulberries, and blood.

The elephants were divided among the armies, and attached to each elephant were a thousand men and five hundred horsemen. The beasts were protected with armor and upon each one was a strong tower of wood and in every tower were thirty-two strong men that fought upon them besides the Indian driver.

The elephant, the attached thousand foot-soldiers and 500 cavalry moved and fought as a unit.

Tactics

The strategy was to form the unit into an arrow-like formation with the elephant at the point. The entire formation would then move forward with the elephant forcing his way into the opposing army and trampling those in his front while the 32 men in its tower rained heavy spears and arrows onto the heads of those in front - breaking their resistance.

The infantry accompanying the beast enlarged the break in the opposing lines created by the enraged elephant and when they began to scatter the accompanying cavalry rode down those fleeing.

Eleazar

It was difficult for the Judean-Israelites to fight armies using elephants, but they fought them the best they could by using terrain difficult for elephants to navigate, and using fire-bombs which often terrorized the animals. There were many cases of heroism.

There was one named Eleazar who saw an especially tall elephant equipped with royal accoutrements and believed him to be carrying the king. He ran upon him through the midst of the battle, killing those in his way and then he crept beneath the beast and thrust his spear into him, whereupon the elephant fell upon him and he was killed.

In spite of his sacrifice for his people; the Greek- led army with its elephants proved too much and the Judeans melted away in front of them.

More Elephants

On another occasion the Grecians bought 110,000 footmen, 5,300 horsemen, 22 elephants and 300 chariots armed with extended hooks on their wheels to put the Israelites from their Laws and from their country.

Seeing this vast multitude, Judas exhorted his soldiers to fight manfully, even unto death for the laws, and passed out the watchword "Victory is of God". Then, with a band of the most gallant hand-picked men he crept into the king's tent by night and slew in the camp about four thousand men and most of the elephants. This filled the enemy camp with fear and tumult.

When dawn broke the king saw the carnage and changed the Greek policy of blood and slaughter to one of accommodation and deception. The king said that he would permit the Judean- Israelites to again live by the Laws of their God, and there was to be peace in the land.

In the meanwhile he appointed a high-priest who was a heathen and he made plans to continue his conquest of the land in a more subtle way.

Conclusion

Nothing has changed over the years. The war between Jacob and Esau continues until today. Our land has been subtly conquered by Greeks using a weapon of deception brought from India. The king continues to demand that all his subjects become one and he has sent enforcers to make it so.

Once again, the king has suppressed the LAW and substituted his own. The Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob has been removed from courts and schools and those who attempt to enforce the WORD are put to death. Our cities are filled with strangers so that those who were born in them find them strange and are forced to flee.

The king has sent tribute collectors who have drained the wealth of the nation and caused all to tremble in fear.

The king has ruthlessly brought on a great depression to make Saxons fear to bring children into the world and make them few in number. It is as if suddenly, a great elephant has crashed into our nation bearing a wooden castle, with a thousand other armed and armored warriors surrounding and protecting it. The war against our nation is spreading chaos, poverty, violence, hunger and destruction.

The elephant's name is Genesha, named after the Hindu elephant headed god of "wealth", "overcoming enemies", and "usury". Usury is the ancient beast having the ability to deceive its enemies.

If one believes that God allows events to repeat again and again until the Law is obeyed - we can expect old men to have their tongues cut out to silence them, mothers witness sons fried in great pans, a Mattathias taking revenge on a heathen at the altar and fleeing to the hills, and an Eleazar who fights his way through a mass of enemies, to crawl beneath the elephant to thrust a spear into its belly. Wouldn't it be a wonder if the spear had a name and its name was "scrip"? If not that, another weapon will be found.

Regardless, our nation will obey the WORD and live - or disobey the WORD and die. Esau is doing everything possible to make Jacob become few in number and vanish from the land.

The WORD says that Jacob's name is Israel - "to have God's power of attorney". Jacob is made in the image of the WORD. He was made to obey God's Law - and live.

Esau - flee while you can! Your time grows short!

USURY TRAP

"The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10.

The Usurer

The Christian religion forbids usury, branding it a capital crime. Kings, to transfer their subjects' property to themselves, found a way to use usury to achieve their objective without being directly involved and gaining the stigma and punishment due to a usurer.

To keep peace in the land and avoid the unwelcome attention of Phineas priests,²⁷ kings employed Jews to be their usurers. The Jewish religion does not forbid charging usury to non-Jews.²⁸

William The Conqueror

William the Conqueror invaded England in 1066. He defeated King Harold at the battle of Hastings and proclaimed himself England's king.

He confiscated the estates of those who fought against him at Hastings and gave their lands to his own followers to manage.

While William defeated Harold and claimed England as his own personal property, there remained numerous Viking settlements centuries old which considered themselves free men and owners of the land on which they were settled. William had the choice of fighting these formidable warriors, or take their land by deception.

This problem had already been foreseen and planned for. William's invasion fleet brought Jewish usurers with them. This was the first time Jews were introduced into England, which in itself was a violation of the Law; "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee." Ex 23:33. Their job was to work with William to separate the people from their land and turn the land over to the king.²⁹ (see "Land" HR#178)³⁰

Jews

In ancient times there were two kinds of Jews. Aristotle the great Greek philosopher describes one kind:

Jews From India

(As related by Aristotle) "This man then was by birth a Jew, and came from Celesyria; these Jews are derived from the Indian philosophers; they are named by the Indians Calami, and by the Syrians Judaei, and took their name from the country they inhabit, which is called Judea." Flavius Josephus Against Apion, book 1:22 (p.615)

Lets keep the dates straight. Our own Saxon people were taken into captivity and escaped into Russia and Europe soon after 721 B.C. The children of Judah and Benjamin were taken into captivity in Babylon soon after. While they were in captivity, Edomites settled the land they had vacated. The Bible calls the Edomites "Esau-Edom" (children of Esau from the land of Edom).

When this part of Israel returned from captivity to rebuild the temple they found Edomites in their cities. These they drove out. However, as can be seen from the above quote by Aristotle - Indian/Edomites remained who called themselves "Jews" after the land of Judea. Aristotle lived (384-322 B.C.). This was long before the Hyrcanus of the Macabeans (135-104 B.C.) conquered Idumea and made the Indian/Idumeans living there become "Jews" - thus allowing more children of Esau into the country of Judea. These later additions became known as Sadducees.

The wives of the Sadducees caused them to become wealthy and made the kings who supported them wealthy also.

Russian Jews

The next group of Jews we know of came on the scene much later. They were known as Khazars:

"The Khazars, a Turkic people ... dominated substantial parts of S. Russia during much of the 7th through 10th centuries. During the 8th century the Khazar aristocracy and the kagan (king) were converted to Judaism. ... In 965, Svyatoslav I, duke of Kiev, decisively defeated the Khazar army. ... new waves of Turkic invaders overran the remains of the Khazar state." Academic American Encyclopedia. (See also: The History of the Jewish Khazars, D. M. Dunlop, 1954, 1967. Koestler, Arthur, The 13th Tribe: The Khazar Empire and its Heritage, 1976.)

The ones who converted the Khazars to Judaism were the Indian/Edomite Jews spoken of by Aristotle mixed with the Sadducees which came later. Certain Jewish Rabbis to this day claim to be "different" from the great mass of Jewry (Khazar) and hold themselves to be Gurus who can be defiled by the touch of other mortals.³¹

These mixed alien peoples who call themselves "Jews" are the Jews spoken of in Revelations: "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan." Re 2:9

Jews In England

Kings tax the lands they rule. Unfortunately for the English Saxons ruled by King William, there was little specie to be found with which to pay taxes. As planned, those being taxed had to go to the Jews to borrow tax-money. The money was lent at usury which required more to be repaid than was borrowed. This in time caused the borrowers to default their lands to the Jewish lenders who immediately had these lands confiscated by the king.

Jews Deported From England

To recap: William the Conqueror invaded England in 1066. He brought Jews to entrap the English people and take their land using usury contracts. In a couple of centuries the Jews had done their job and England was the personal property of the king.

The Jews and their usury operation had done their job and they were now needed elsewhere. England found excuses to deport them.

In 1269, the Jews were prohibited from hiring Christian helpers to work as artisans, merchants or farmers since the Law states: Thou mayest not set a stranger (zúwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

On July 18, 1290, the Jews were deported from England. They turned the lands and houses still in their possession over to the king and left England carrying with them their operating capital which was needed to work their usury profession in French and German cities.

England Without Jews

The King of England divided his lands among his nobles to manage. The nobles acted much like today's corporate CEOs. They put the farmers to work on what had been their own land and collected tribute from them for the king and themselves. The nobles were allowed to keep their lucrative positions as long as the lands in their care continued productive.

Oliver Cromwell

The eternal enemy of kings is the WORD which forbids Israel to have kings since Jesus Christ appointed each Israelite to be both king and priest. "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God." Rev 1:5-6

In time reformers came who taught the WORD and Christian revival swept Britain. King Charles was beheaded and his nobles banished, and England's lands were divided among the Puritans.³²

The Puritan Parliament then ordered their general, Oliver Cromwell, to disband his army and return home. He refused, took control of the government, and became an absolute dictator, a defacto king, but he was a king with no land. The land had been given to new Puritan owners. If he ever expected to receive proper tribute due kings he had to retake the land and tax its tenants - preferably without strife. Like rulers in the past, he turned to the Jews for help.

³² "All the earth is mine." Ex 19:5; "As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land." Jos 14:5; "Joshua divided the whole land by lots to Israel for an inheritance, as the Lord had commanded him." Jasher 90:19; "The land shall be divided for an inheritance ... the land shall be divided by lot." Num 26:53- 55; "The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; ... If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession ... in the jubilee ... he shall return unto his possession." Lev 25:23, 28.

In 1656, over the protest of Britain's merchants, he brought Jewish usurers back to England. Cromwell and the Jews worked together.

Cromwell levied taxes. The new Puritan owners borrowed tax-money at usury from the Jews to pay these taxes and paid back many times the amount borrowed. In time they defaulted and the land fell into the hands of the Jews who turned it over to Oliver Cromwell and his successors.

Britain had returned to being a corporate state with its own state religion, state government, economic system, and subjects who were servants of the king and who spoke rebellion at their peril.

But this time the Jews were treated differently. While denied the vote and prevented from taking the oath of political office because of their religious beliefs until into the 1800s, they used their usury monopoly to capture men who ruled the state and made the laws.³³

America

Before the Revolutionary War most of the American colonies printed their own scrip. After the war, private banks were established primarily in the north. In a remarkably short time the great merchants, with aid from their banks, controlled the media, the politicians, the religion and most of the land.

To complete their conquest, the 25 states of the North were incited by the media to invade the 11 states of the South burning and destroying the country and killing or wounding

³³ The 1980 Jewish Almanac says; "Strictly speaking, it is incorrect to call an ancient Israelite a "Jew" or to call a Contemporary Jew an "Israelite" or a "Hebrew"; Jews began to call themselves Hebrews and Israelites in 1860. This coincides with the cry of anti-Semitism. (Enc. Jud. 1971, Vol 10:23)

one in three of its men. Whites were deprived of the vote and blacks were enfranchised and allowed to rule the whites. Federal occupation troops were stationed to see that the blacks remained in power.

Carefully instructed by white corporate "carpetbaggers", black politicians voted themselves huge salaries, built or bought big homes, put Southern cities and states deeply in debt to build expensive railroads and unneeded public improvements.

Before the war the South had a large cotton export business. During the war the cotton business was transferred to British India. After the war what remained of the cotton trade was made difficult by tariffs so there was little income of any kind. Differential freight rates were charged so that it cost more to ship goods from Richmond to Philadelphia than from Philadelphia to Richmond. Southern business stagnated.

The South's Black rulers then taxed the land. The owners had neither the labor, the cotton markets, or the money to pay the taxes. Banks were established in Lynchburg with the date 1865 over their doors. Land owners flocked to the newly established banks to borrow tax money.

Unable to repay the tax loans, Southern land was sold to land corporations at tax auctions for pennies on the dollar, and destitute farmers moved to town where they, their wives and their children worked for starvation wages in newly built mills that had been relocated from New England - leaving many New Englanders without jobs.

The federal occupation of the South lasted for 16 long years. When it ended there was nothing left. The South was destitute. It was no longer a free land. Its debt under black rule had grown to more than the entire War of Secession had cost. The giant media conglomerate in the hands of what are now six media corporations established city newspapers, bought up the county newspapers, and from this time controlled the minds of the people and elected their own carefully chosen political representatives.

POST WAR WARS

In the hands of its new conquerors the United States joined Great Britain as a predator state whose objective was to destroy hereditary rule in other states in preparation for the introduction of international rule by corporations ruled by banks and their agents.

The first to go was Spain and her colonies.

Next, WWI destroyed the traditional ruling houses of the Central Powers and gave their colonies to the victors.

Germany

Post WWI Germany was especially interesting. The country was destitute; its ruling king deposed; a puppet government installed, and reparations imposed to be paid in the money of the various conquering allied states.

Since Germany had no French Francs, American dollars, or British Pounds, and payment was demanded in these currencies, the money had to be borrowed from international usury banks.

Germany's debt grew and grew and there was no visible means of repaying. Increasingly the victors converted their reparations money back into German marks to buy assets in Germany. Germany was flooded with marks. Inflation went wild while business came to a standstill. Almost everything in Germany was on the auction bloc and buyers bought valuable property for almost nothing. A large number of the buyers were Jews representing corporations controlled by Jewish usury-banks worldwide. Germans owned almost nothing in Germany.

Germany was also overrun with refugees fleeing the Communist terror in Russia. They told frightful stories. Russia had been conquered by Communists led by Lenin and Leon Trotsky whose efforts resulted in 30,000,000 people dying in Gulags. The Russian people were slaves to a giant corporation called the USSR.. Germany expected that the same thing would happen to them.

Scrip: Jews Declare War

A reactionary German political party called the NSWP stepped forward and blamed usury and Jewish banks for most of their troubles and promised that when they came into power that they would substitute state scrip for the existing usury- banking. They also promised that if given power that they would trade German manufactured goods for raw materials worldwide without going through the process of borrowing from the international usury banks. Scrip and barter are death to usury banking.

These reactionary Germans were overwhelmingly voted into power in 1933.

The very same month that this political party came into power in Germany the following headlines appeared in the world's newspapers:

"Judea Declares War on Germany! Jews of all the World Unite! Boycott of German Goods! Mass Demonstrations,..!" (Headlines in the Daily Express on March 24, 1933.)

The above hit the newspapers in the same month in 1933 that Germany's anti-usury political party came to power. This was six years before England and France declared war on Germany. Organized world Jewry declared war on Germany six years before WWII. The German threat to use no-interest scrip and international barter of goods rather than using international usury stirred the hornets' nest of international usury.

From that time on an anti-German media-drumbeat sounded worldwide:

"Hitler will have no war (does not want war), but we will force it on him, not this year, but soon." (- Emil Ludwig Cohn in Les Annales, June, 1934; also quoted in his book "The New Holy Alliance").

WWII was fought to restore Germany to subservience to the international usury banks.

The rest of Germany's pre-war anti-usury political platform is listed below:

The German 25-Points

1. Union of all Germans (The NSWP considered all Saxons worldwide to be "German").
2. Germans were to have equal rights with other nations. (There existed all sorts of trade restrictions against Germany - as there were earlier against the South and S. African Boers). Abolition of Treaty of Versailles.

3. Return of land and colonies seized after WWI on which to settle surplus population.
4. Only those of German blood may be citizens. (Perhaps three-quarters of the countries of the world have a similar requirement.)
5. Non-citizens are guests only.
6. Voting is limited to citizens. Appointment to government positions by merit - not political party.
7. The State must promote industry and employment. Foreigners excluded from the state.
8. Non-German immigration forbidden. Non-Germans required to leave.
9. Citizens equal in rights and duties.
10. Citizens must contribute mental or physical labor for the good of the nation. This was necessary to dismantle the 1000 year old German caste system where one caste lived from another's efforts.
11. Therefore: income not earned by work is forbidden.
12. War profiteers will be confiscated.
13. Nationalization of great multi-national corporations with ownership to rest with the workers.
14. Profits from wholesale monopolies shared.
15. Provision for old age.
16. Regulate wholesale business monopoly. Preference shown to small businesses.
17. Confiscation of trust and corporate lands without compensation; abolish interest on land loans; prohibition of land speculation. land to be divided.
18. Ruthless prosecution of sordid criminals - usurers punished with death.
19. Roman Law serving the materialistic world order replaced by a legal system for all Germany.

20. Availability of higher education to all regardless of caste. Development of gifted children of poor parents.
21. National health program to protect mothers and infants; prohibit child labour; encourage sports for youth.
22. Abolition of a paid army and formation of a national army.
23. To create a national Press:
 - (a) Editors and assistants of newspapers must be members of the nation.
 - (b) Non-German media shall require special permission of the state.
 - (c) Non-Germans shall be prohibited from financing or influencing German media. Pornography will be prosecuted.
24. Liberty for all religious denominations that aren't a danger to the morals of the German race.
25. That the government be given the power to carry out these 25 points.

The leaders of the Party swear to sacrifice their lives if necessary in securing fulfillment of the foregoing Points.

Munich Feb 24, 1920.

The final statement at the end of the 25-Points should be read again. A failed rebellion against the international usury-banks will be punished by death. The leaders of Germany understood this at the beginning.

WWII

Germany lost WWII and the property of the international corporations and individuals that had been taken from the German people and then returned to them by the NSWP after WWI was seized still again after WWII. The result - Germans today are once again paupers in the midst of riches around them that are owned by Esau.

According to Robert Dreyfuss in The Nation, they were all "losers, ex-cons, and drug addicts. Al Qaida they're not". The Liberty crew managed to broadcast an SOS over a make-shift antenna. When the appeal reached US aircraft carriers nearby, the commanders immediately launched fighter planes to defend the ship. Informed of the launch, President Johnson ordered the rescue planes to turn back immediately.

For the first time in history, forces of the US Navy were denied the right to defend a Navy ship under attack. Johnson said, "I don't care if the ship sinks, I am not going to embarrass an ally." Those were his exact words, heard by Navy personnel listening to radio relays. The ally Johnson refused to embarrass was Israel. ... Johnson magnified the day's infamy by ordering a cover-up of the truth. Liberty survivors were sworn to secrecy. Chapter 419

STATE RELIGION

China

China does not have a real "state religion" like Japan, where the Emperor is the end-all - at least before WWII he was. In China the government itself is really the end-all. While most lean toward Buddhist and Hindu teachings, at the same time they tolerate all religions. Every now and then the newspapers announce that the government is leaning on one group or another. Usually, the group that is being leaned on is teaching things that conflict with government dogma, but that's rare.

In China, the Roman Catholic Church is even tolerated - up to a point. Since the Roman Catholic Church has its own law system, China handles this difference with one small government addition. The government appoints its own Chinese Catholic Pope - which upsets Roman Catholics no end.

The Chinese Catholics don't seem to mind - at least that's what they say.

Chinese business is simple. The government owns all the land and all businesses. When one deals with a Chinese business he deals with the entire Chinese government. When one deals with any religion in China, a business, or, a politician - in reality he is dealing with two billion Chinese. Even Chinese living overseas feel that they are part of the whole.

This is China's "state religion". It is a "state religion" with no name.

Learning

I went to Thomas Road Baptist Church for 18 years before I learned that there was more to being a Christian than "being nice". Christians are supposed to teach and obey the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. I found out that they didn't do that so I quit. People smarter than I learned this in 8 minutes. It took me 18 years.

Anglican Preacher

I learned many things at Thomas Road. One thing I won't forget soon; Jerry Falwell would invite preachers from other denominations from all over the world - lots of them. He would give them the grand tour and expect them to go home and do what he was doing. I volunteered to gather the latest group from where they were staying with private families and take them to church or wherever they were supposed to go. We had a long convoy.

One minister I remember. We were on a tight schedule. We waited in front of the house where he was staying for 20 minutes. Eventually he came out the front door wearing a cape and theatrically pulling on his gloves while slowly walked to the waiting car. He stood and waited for someone to open the door. I stood behind and pushed him in with five others and got the convoy moving.

British State Religion

Later, I went to Great Britain with a Thomas Road tour. We visited this fellow's church. It was small and vacant. Not even pews and the flooring was torn up. The preacher didn't seem to mind. He took us on a tour of his "real ministry" - the town. He was in charge of the whole town - every house, business, public latrine, whatever. I was flabbergasted. The guy was a CEO of a whole town. That was when I learned that in England church and business can be the same and often are.

I stayed with an engineer in Scotland who had a 99-year lease on his house. The government was the landowner. The government was the Queen's government - or the Queen belonged to the government. Anyway, the Queen was head of GB's Anglican Church.

Later I went to a great cathedral built to seat thousands. There must have been fifty people or more in the choir. The music was good. The congregation consisted of 13 people. Thirteen. That's where I learned that you don't have to have many members, or any members at all, to have a successful church. You just have to have other business interests. I was learning about "state religions".

Banks Here & There

A few years ago a big bank failed in the mid-west. The newspapers said that England's Queen was an owner.

History books say that Andy Jackson was upset with the private national bank system in the United States and went on a one man campaign to rid the country of them. When he finally did drive them out - the list of stockholders was made public. They lived in Great Britain. Interesting. It might be logical to assume that if banks owned Great Britain's politicians that it would be logical to assume that the banks would also own the American politicians because they had banks here.

National banks returned to America in 1911. Everyone says the Jews own them. Maybe, maybe not.

A number of years ago the newspapers printed a story about a number of Swiss banks that went bankrupt. They were all owned by the Catholic Church. Of course, everyone knows about the Vatican Bank trouble a while back. It created quite a stir for a time.

Then, there's the Chettiers - the black bankers from India who were placed in charge of Great Britain's Asian banks. This was in Hoskins Report #319 in #2006.

How Banks Rule

Most local banks are owned by bank corporations. These bank corporations are owned by still other bank corporations. Congressman McFadden tried to find the ultimate owner with no success. The owner could be a business, a religion, a king, or an Eskimo at the North Pole. There is one thing we do know: "The borrower is slave to the lender". Banks are important.

Control Without Ownership

For tax reasons people with sizable estates often put their stock holdings in trusts managed by bank trust departments. Most of them let the bank trust managers handle details like voting for company directors. In essence, bank trust departments can control corporations without owning a single share.

Politicians

The South was occupied by federal troops for 16 years after the War and puppet governments composed of former black slaves ruled for much longer while whites were disenfranchised. Virginia was left devastated. The state didn't pay off its "reconstruction debts" until the 1950s.

After Reconstruction one of Virginia's new leaders was Harry Byrd. He was first Governor and then U.S. Senator. While governor, he would not stand for any state government "hanky- panky". Anyone could walk in off the streets and examine state books. Virginia's honest government was the talk of the country.

Then came the forced integration of Virginia's schools in violation of the Constitution. I was an officer in the the 1st Virginia, The Richmond Light Infantry Blues. The same regiment an ancestor fought in during the Revolutionary War. I stayed by the phone all night expecting Virginia's National Guard to be called up to defend states rights. Nothing happened. The governor, J. Lindsey Almond did nothing. Then, Harry Byrd came up with a do- nothing policy of talking "massive resistance" to educate people over the rest of the country. The Richmond-Times Dispatch editorials proved a thousand times that we were right and the Feds were wrong - for all the good it did.

J. Lindsey Almond betrayed Virginia and was made a federal judge after he retired. After a while Harry Byrd died. His estate consisted of his own widely read newspaper, extensive apple orchards, and a bundle of stock certificates. Before going into politics Byrd was as poor as the rest of us.

Then there was Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee. He was known as the tenacious watchdog who kept the drug companies in check. When he died the papers revealed that he owned a trunkload of stocks in drug companies.

Virginia now has a new State senator. He had a non-descript job before being elected to public office. Since that time he has been appointed to the governing boards of several corporations and his old house is up for sale. He has now become quiet about big government misdeeds.

Deporting Aliens

State governments must be self-sustaining if their leaders expect to eat at the public trough. They take care of those who take care of them. Politicians arrive poor and leave rich.

Newspapers mostly advertise lawyers who specialize in state law for election to public office. I don't know of a single one of them who has quoted the "other Law", the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob - especially such laws as those dealing with "Strangers ruling over us."

Creating Jobs

Few media-elected politicians have protested the "offshoring of America's industries.

During the depression of the 1890s Chinese were deported to make jobs available.

During the Great Depression, President Herbert Hoover ordered the deportation of all illegal aliens to make jobs available for the unemployed.

After WWII, Harry Truman deported over two million illegals to create jobs for returning veterans.

President Dwight Eisenhower deported 13 million Mexicans to make jobs available.

Thus far I have yet to hear of a single media-elected politician in Congress beating the drum for the deportation of aliens to provide jobs for our unemployed.

South Africa

The media didn't say so, but South Africa had a state religion composed of several denominations. When time came to turn the white population over to the blacks to rule there was almost no protest from the South African pulpit, politicians, or government. In fact, the white police helped arrest whites who did protest. As the book "Volksverraad" said, "they were all guilty, all of them."

Our Saxon people obey either the Law of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob or obey the God of the Land - the one who currently makes the laws. The choice is life or death.

Rome's Religion

Rome adopted the merchants' religion and built an empire. When Rome conquered a new land it would bring the conquered God's statue back to Rome mounted on a great float in a great victory parade. The god was placed in its own temple and it became part of Rome's pantheon of Gods.

Rome conquered Jerusalem and looked around for a captured God to bring to Rome. All they found were manuscripts since Israelites have no likeness of their God in stone or wood, nothing other than their God's Laws written on paper. So, a great victory parade was held in Rome and these manuscripts were paraded and then placed in a temple. This had never been done before. Immediately there was trouble since the Law of Jacob forbade usury, kings, strangers in the land, monopolies, and required that the land be divided. This Law-God that had been captured had to be suppressed or changed if the Roman Empire was to survive.

Suppression was first tried. Thousands died. It produced little success. In an act of desperation the Roman government adopted the WORD, appointed their own priests, and changed the WORD so that Rome could continue doing what they had been doing all along. The result was that Rome violated the Law and was destroyed.

The WORD Spreads

The WORD spread from group to group into Europe. In time people had their own copies of the WORD and they read where the definition of "king" was "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; Rev 1:5-6

Accordingly, in many places the people seized the lands of kings and church, and divided them among themselves.

The kings in northern Europe wouldn't stand for an independent WORD which took away their lands and privileges, so they gathered their faithful followers and killed tens of thousands of these "rebel" followers of the WORD. They took back their land and appointed their own bishops and instructed them to make the WORD a state religion. Many of those who escaped their king's wrath hid in Europe's woods and mountains and later fled to Pennsylvania and Virginia.

In England, the king made himself the head of the state religion. He appointed his own bishops who appointed priests. Royal decrees were read from church pulpits and subjects were fined for non-attendance and punished for non-compliance.

England invaded Scotland and forced their state-religion on Scots who had become followers of the WORD. Scots who were caught teaching the WORD in private homes or in open field meetings were imprisoned and their pastors executed on the spot. The people were taxed and their lands confiscated. Rising in revolt they were slaughtered and the remnant shipped to America by the thousands as indentured servants.

Virginia

From the beginning, England's king established his state religion in Virginia. Everyone was required to attend services. However, there were so many dissidents living in settlements inaccessible to Jamestown's supervision that in fact there were two religions; England's state religion, and followers of the WORD who had refugeed from many lands.

Matters boiled over with the arrival of many thousands of Scottish POWs after the failed risings of 1715 and 1745. They were poor but well educated and became the tutors of the children of Virginia planters. They taught the likes of Washington, Jefferson, and Patrick Henry, Latin, Greek, their figures and letters and to despise the king's state religion. The result was that many nominal members of the king's state religion became actual followers of the WORD.

England's bad treatment of its colonies in trade, land, taxes, and alliances with strangers brought on the Revolutionary War.

Wars In Virginia

America's state-media has blacked out the history of this period, but we remember. Much of the war took place here. The conduct of the British armies using the law of their state-religion as their excuse was reprehensible.

My family came from Tidewater where unopposed British landing parties robbed, burned and destroyed the property of peaceful civilians. The loot was part of their pay. They destroyed the lands of people who were pro-British and anti-British. They shot prisoners of war and crammed other prisoners into prison hulks.

Robert

I've got a son named Robert. He was named for my ancestor Robert Hoskins who served with the 1st Virginia in New York during the Revolution. He was captured and imprisoned on the prison hulk "Success" anchored at the foot of what is now Wall Street. He escaped by diving into the ice filled East River and swimming to Brooklyn. He was fortunate. The death rate in these prison hulks is said to have approached 90%.

The West

In Western Virginia near the mountains, British Tories organized war parties of Indian sons-of-Esau, armed them, and paid bounties for scalps - men, woman and children. My family has lost members in every generation from either French or English incited Indian massacre from the time we arrived in Virginia until the 1800s. The laws of Britain's state religion taught its followers to see no wrong in raising hands against kinsmen if they were branded rebels.

The War Of 1812 was a repeat of what had gone before, except this time they introduced "germ warfare".

General Alexander Leslie "distributed some 700 "Negroes" infected with smallpox to plantations in Virginia. (A Few Bloody Noses, The American War of Independence), by Robert Harvey.

In the eyes of Britain's state religion, the home grown infidels in America were traitors to God and King and could be treated as such - and they did.

Russia

Napoleon marched to Moscow. Finding no one to fight he began his disastrous winter retreat that ended in France. The Russian armies followed him and the conduct of Russian soldiery when passing through Germany and France was proper and orderly.

During WWII, the Russian armies passing through Eastern Europe behaved like animals - looting, wholesale murder, and rape being the norm.

The difference in the conduct of the Russian soldiers during the Napoleonic War and the WW2 Russian soldiers was the Law system that governed them.

The Tzar

Russia's Tzar, head of Russia's state religion was replaced by Turkic-mongol revolutionaries and their atheist state religion.

Russia's state church that had been governed by the Tzar was now governed by new leaders. The new communist government allowed Russia's state religion to keep its Christian rituals and parables but required them to also teach Turkic-mongol law.

Many of the priests who remained accepted these new conditions as they had accepted their old state religion. Some of them informed on their own kinsmen sending them to their deaths in gulags.

State priests are trained to believe that the head of their state is also the head of their religion. This makes the head of the state God's representative.

The new Communist leader and his mongol law caused 30,000,000 Russians to die in Gulags - most of them Russian-Saxons - and many of those were betrayed by priests dutifully following their new leader.

Occupation Of Poland & E. Germany

Following WWII Russian armies, following mongol turkic law, occupied Poland. Poland followed the Roman Catholic state religion. They also occupied E. Germany which followed the Lutheran state religion.

Thus we had an East German state religion, Polish state religion, and Russian atheist state-religion - all three intermingled.

Recently released Soviet records reveal the names of both Polish Catholic state priests and German Lutheran state priests who are accused of working with the Soviet secret police and informing on their own people. They were obeying a new king of the land.

Court Rulings

We know that the Law of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob says;

"I am the the Lord your God which have separated you from other people ... and ye shall be holy unto me: for I the Lord am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine." (Lev 20:24, 26)³⁴

Laws & Laws

We know that the first amendment of the American Constitution says:

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof."

Establishing a religion means establishing a "state religion" - a law-of-the-land that binds the WORD so that it will not interfere with land monopolies, strangers in the land, usury, and other unlawful acts.

Each judge is sworn in with his hand on a Bible - which infers allegiance with the WORD. But, this has not stopped the evolution of court rulings over the last several years.

They start in this manner;

- 1897 - Holy Trinity Church v. The United States, 143 U.S. 457 (1892) "... this is a Christian nation."

This was then followed by these decisions that changed the lives of the people of the US, and they were achieved without their vote; just a supreme court decision, or, a presidential decree upheld by his court.

- 1946 - Integration of the American Armed Forces - President Harry S. Truman

³⁴ "For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? It is not in that thou goest with us? So shall we be separated; I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth." Exodus 33:16

- 1954 - Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka 347 U.S. 483 - U.S. Supreme Court ended all segregation in American public schools.
- 1961 - Torcaso v Watkins U.S. 488(1961) overthrew Maryland statute that required belief in God to hold public office.
- 1962 - Engel v. Vitale 370 U.S. 421, High Court struck down state of NY prayer.
- 1963 - Abington School District v. Schempp, 374 U.S. 203, 83 S. Ct 1560 (1963) Stopped prayer in schools.
- 1964 - Chamberlin v. Dade County (FL) Board of Public Instruction, 377 U.S 402 Banned Bible reading and prayers in FL. public schools, previously required by statute.
- 1967 - Loving v. Virginia - Sup. Ct. Banned law against interracial marriage.
- 1973 - Roe v. Wade 410 U.S. 113 Banned laws against abortion making it legal.
- 1980 - Stone v. Graham, 449 U.S. 39 removed 10- Commandments from school classrooms in KY
- 1983 - Bob Jones v. United States, 461 U.S. 574 denied tax exemption to Bob Jones Univ. and Goldsboro Christian School who had banned interracial dating.
- 1987 - Edwards v. Aguillard, 482 U.S. 578 outlawed Louisiana law requiring that teaching evolution also be accompanied by teaching that the world was created by God.
- 2003 - Lawrence & Garner v. Texas, 539 U.S. 558 banned laws against sodomy.

Thomas Jefferson

Thomas Jefferson wrote:

"It has long been my opinion ... that the germ of dissolution of our federal government is in the constitution of the federal judiciary; an irresponsible body ... working like gravity by night and by day, gaining a little today and a little tomorrow, and advancing its noiseless step like a thief, over the field of jurisdiction, until all shall be usurped from the States, and the government of all be consolidated into one.

"To this I am opposed; because, when all government, domestic and foreign, in little as in great things, shall be drawn to Washington as the center of all power, it will render powerless the checks provided of one government on another, and will become as venal and oppressive as the government from which we separated." - Thomas Jefferson 1821

Turncoats

Jefferson was right. Court decisions violating the WORD have been going on for years. The judges say one thing and their decisions are the opposite. Deception is everywhere.

Court decisions and executive orders has given America its own "state religion", and woe betide those who will not worship at their altar. Look at the list of those presently sitting on the supreme court.

Today

A Supreme Court is nothing more than a jury "appointed" by the king to "rubber-stamp" his decrees. They have tenure for life and their decrees determine the laws America will honor, even when they override the WORD.

America's Congress is now in the process of approving the king's supreme court nominee. This nominee is a stranger, an Hispanic named Sonia Sotomayor. A member of a state-religion.

Quick Look

We know that the media exists to create opinions for the public to believe. This allows politicians to be media-elected. We know that the media worldwide is run by five Jewish run corporations. We know that the worlds great corporations are owned by banks.

In the United States the president is elected by the media which controls the opinion of the people. This president appoints to his supreme-court the ones he is told to appoint.

Justice Religious Affiliation

Assuming that Sotomayor is confirmed, the following will be the declared religious affiliation of the nine members of America's Supreme Court:

John Roberts - Catholic (Chief Justice)
 Stephen G. Breyer - Jewish Ruth Bader Ginsburg - Jewish
 Anthony M. Kennedy - Catholic
 Antonin Scalia - Catholic
 John Paul Stevens - Protestant (atheist?)
 Clarence Thomas - Catholic
 Samuel Alito - Catholic - 2005
 Sonia Sotomayor - Catholic - 2009
 (replaced David H. Souter)

Of the nine members of the Supreme Court, there are 6-Catholics, 2-Jews, and one who's opinions seems to some to be more atheistic than anything else. Of course, almost nothing about this has been mentioned in the state-media since the media does not want the people to form opinions on the subject.

Conclusion

America's Supreme Court contains children of Esau, the same Esau who swore that he would kill his brother Jacob. The rest, except one, have sworn allegiance to the state religion whose oath required its new members back in 1961 to say these words - which I assume haven't changed:

"... I believe the Holy, Catholic, Apostolic, Roman Church to be the one true Church ... I reject and condemn all that she rejects and condemns, and I am ready to observe all that she commands me. ..." (Published by the Catholic Truth Society, London, 1961)

The Roman Catholic state-religion is much like the Chinese state-religion, the Anglican state-religion, Eastern Orthodox and Lutheran state-religions. I would be interested if any one of them had a majority on the Supreme Court. Each has its own monopolies, usury banks, and rulers called kings or other such names, who have done things which violate the WORD. Each state-religion represents its own God of the Land and own law system that must be obeyed. In the past State-Religions have had armies to enforce their will and they have used them. The state-religion that controls the US will have the US army at its disposal.

The most interesting thing is that America's preachers cling to their own denomination, and ignore the WORD that created them in the beginning. "In the beginning was the WORD, and the word was with God, and the WORD was God." John 1:1; "God (The WORD) created man in his own image." Gen 1:27; "We must obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29

Most preachers tell their church members that God's Law is dead, to obey the king, and to accept America's "state-religion" - which is the "law of the land" - a Law determined by the belief system of members of the United States Supreme Court, most of whom have sworn to obey another state-religion.

Interesting days lie ahead.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Hoskins: We have a flood of people arriving from China and I find them most unwelcome. Their goods are absolute rubbish. A large group of the Chinese are in military uniforms and were stationed in the Free State near Sasol at an old coal mine call Coolbrook.

It seems that the only thing that upsets blacks and makes them keep their distance are some of their own African charms. We get some sheep bones and make them into beads. Not a nice thing to do, but regular alarms don't scare them anymore.

Some time back Hans forgot the beads and young blacks nearly killed him where he was building a bank in Soweto. He was the only armed; he had a .38 Special on him. The rest of the 22 men of his staff were unarmed. He was on top of the building busy with a copper dome when the blacks swarmed in. Someone left the security gate open. The same blacks had just killed a medical doctor.

Few whites register their weapons. They'd rather keep them until needed.

Zuma won the election. He is in a hurry to make the country a full communist state. He calls himself a black christ and those close to him his disciples. He took the oath of office in front of the Union Buildings in a strange bulletproof cage. Zuma still sings his war songs to crowds of blacks, so we have to be careful. Things could explode in an instant.

We will let you know how things develop.

Best Wishes, H.R.

Chapter 420

SEPARATION vs. INTEGRATION

Revival

A remarkable thing happened in the Army of Northern Virginia during the War. There was a revival of the WORD. Some say that it was triggered by the example of men like Stonewall Jackson. Others say it was spontaneous. Study groups were formed in practically every regiment, company and squad in the army. Men learned the WORD - they memorized the LAW. They remembered the WORD after the War was over.

Reconstruction

Following the War there was racial chaos in the South - a planned chaos.

Whites were denied the vote - blacks were given the vote. Instructed by cartel agents, Blacks were directed how to vote and elect themselves to national, state, and local offices where they passed outrageous laws. Land taxes were passed forcing whites to go to banks to borrow tax money - causing widespread bankruptcies since trade had come to a near standstill and new tariffs combined with labor shortages provided few ways for farmers to earn money to repay the loans.

Black on white crime was rampant. Black gangs roamed the cities and countryside. Whites were not allowed to defend themselves from Blacks gone wild. Justice was dispensed before a black judge and jury, and everything took place under the watchful eye of federal occupation troops.

Black Nationalism

Blacks had been told that they were to be set free and sent back to their own lands in Liberia in Africa. This had not happened. They became nationalistic. They had the power. They wanted to turn the South into a Black nation. To accomplish this, whites had to be removed.

They began a reign of terror to force Southern whites to leave. Frequent wagon trains left going West.³⁵ My mother's family left Kelly's Ford and ended up in Texas. My mother was born there. Her father was afraid to allow her to return into the chaos.

³⁵ While speaking to a church group in Washington State a few years ago I discovered that most of them were descended from families who had come from Bedford County near where I live in Virginia.

Black Nationalism caused other problems. The Cartel had obtained millions of acres of southern plantation land that they planned to sell to Europeans immigrants. Blacks intended taking this land along with the rest.

To prevent this, bank representatives met with Southern leaders and agreed to let Southerners remove blacks from government in exchange for a guarantee that the banks could keep the land they had obtained. And, one thing more - whites must not take vengeance on anti-saxonite newspaper editors. Because of this, the last duel in Virginia was fought in Richmond sometime in the 1870s - between newspaper editors, of all things!

Once the agreement was made, a book was published that announced the "change of policy", and was advertised in the media. Pushed by the media, it was a best seller. In one year's time the opinion of the North was changed from Anti-South to Pro-South. The name of the the book is The Prostrate State by Pike. It's worth the time to find a copy.

Reconquest Misunderstandings

The reconquest of Southern governments by Southern whites was difficult, but the men trained in the Great Revival during the War knew what to do.

First, there was a simple plan for race relations. "Separation stops strife." Not only in the South, but Nationwide, most Saxon whites worked for "separation".

The re-activation of the African Colonization Plan that was so popular after the Revolutionary War was brought back on line again. Except for a few anti-Christ radical abolitionists, there was almost universal support for the plan.

But, behind the scenes, the politicians elected by the banking- cartel's media and who actually governed the country worked for a different plan entirely. They worked for "integration" and the destruction of the African Colonization Plan.

The American public didn't understand what was going on. From a single usury bank in 1780 the number of banks mushroomed into the hundreds - then thousands. As the banks spread, money was available to buy up America's big-city newspapers. This allowed the media-owners to control the minds of city voters. This accomplished, they proceeded to buy up county newspapers and were able to control the minds of the people living in the countryside, and were able to elect politicians who would support cartel policies.

Since the War Between The States there have been very few politicians who have represented the views of the people who voted for them. They have been selected by and are creatures of the owners of America's media.

One Reason For "Integration"

In spite of the talk, the banking cartel had no intention of allowing debt-free blacks to leave the country. To do so would deprive banks of new debt-free borrowers and also deprive their industry of cheap labor. A black debt-free potential borrower is of more value to the lenders than a white borrower who is loaded with debt and can borrow no more. This is why millions upon millions of debt-free Hispanics are permitted to remain in the country taking white jobs. They, too, are potentially of more value than debt-laden whites.

Garvey

Neither blacks nor whites knew that the ITC had abandoned African Colonization. Blacks and Whites were allied on this point. Both went about drumming up support for African Colonization as if it were the only plan on the table and they expected it to only be a matter of time until money was found to have the plan implemented.

We remember the black leader Marcus Garvey who led millions of dues-paying black members after WWI. He had one of the first groups of 20,000 blacks living in tents at Newport News waiting for Liberty Ships purchased from the U.S. government to take them to Liberia. The ships arrived and were immediately boarded by the Coast Guard. It was during prohibition and they are said to have discovered contraband whiskey. They confiscated the ships and put Garvey in prison. Cheap black labor wasn't going to leave America.

Segregation

The South, having just escaped from Black rule, had strong opinions about Black rule. They were unaware that the government was secretly pushing "integration".

Waiting for colonization to take place, the races were separated. The plan the white public adopted was based on the WORD learned during the Great Revival during the War. People talked about God's LAW - whether this course of action was best or that one was best. The Colonization Plan bringing complete separation would solve all the problems, but until it could be funded something had to be done about current race relations. The answers were found in the Bible.

Rule

First; there was the basic Law: "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut 17:15; "Their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21

Blacks were removed from voting lists by using the "poll tax". One had to pay to vote. Times were hard and blacks didn't like to pay and most stayed away from the polls. If they didn't, other means were found to keep them away.

In time, whites ruled local politics - at least they voted for those the media said were the most like-minded. Blacks were encouraged to work with blacks. If their elders complained about the conduct of one of them, he was brought to the county courthouse for punishment.

My Cousin Vay Newbill's husband was sheriff of Essex County. If a black got drunk and caused trouble, Mr. Newbill would send word by someone for the guilty party to come down to his office in Tappahannock, and he did.

My uncle Deane Hundley was judge. When I was 12 or 13 I spent a lot of time sitting in court watching him dispense justice. I remember one time a white man beat up someone and Uncle Deane sentenced him to three years. A black beat up another black and Uncle Dean sentenced him to six months. I asked him why the difference? He said that the white man should have known better. People used common sense back then.

Business

Since it was assumed that blacks would be going back to Africa, it was important for them to learn everything they could before they went. The state set up agencies to teach them to farm - although as far as I could see blacks never made good farmers.

The Law governed business transactions with strangers:

"For thou hast abandoned Thy people, the house of Jacob, Because they are filled with influences from the east, And they are soothsayers (tell fairytales) like the Philistines, And they strike bargains (trade with) with the children of foreigners." Isaiah 2:6; "Thou shall make no covenant with them ... For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods." Deut 7:2,4; "What part hath he that believeth with an infidel? ...come out from among them and be ye separate. II Cor 6:15-17; "And ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land." Judges 2:2; "Thou shall make no covenant with them." I Ki 4:21-24

Some white merchants didn't like losing customers, but practically every town and city passed ordinances forbidding whites to sell to blacks - IF blacks had stores in the vicinity offering the same merchandise. Blacks had to buy from blacks and whites had to buy from whites.

This was a God-send to Black entrepreneurs. Almost overnight black-owned grocery stores, drugstores, barber-shops, doctor's offices, hardware stores, hotels, motels and black movie-houses sprung-up and started doing business. Entire sections of cities became black business districts. When a white movie-house showed a picture that wasn't being shown at the colored theatre - there was a special section set aside for them in white theatres - but only if the black theatre didn't offer the same movie.

I went to E.C. Glass High School summer school and had to walk through the colored business district to get downtown to catch a bus home. It was close to a mile and it was hot. I stopped to get a cold soft-drink at a colored drugstore. When I tried to sit down and cool off, the black owner told me to take my drink and move along. So I did.

Neighborhoods

Neighborhoods were restricted by law. Whites could not buy land, develop, or live in restricted areas. Nor could blacks do the same in white areas. Black contractors, brick layers, and carpenters had a monopoly on their market - whites had the same in theirs.

People talk about jobs whites won't do. After I left law school at William and Mary I was fortunate to get a job working for a white contractor digging ditches for $1 an hour. Pay a man who needs work and he will work.

Working

The "ruling over" Law produced racial job monopolies. There were jobs reserved for blacks and jobs reserved for whites. During the Depression there were blacks who kept jobs that whites would have been glad to have.

Schools

There were white schools and there were black schools. White teachers taught white students and black teachers taught black students. I heard that the black teachers at Dunbar were heavy handed with upstart black students, more so than was customary in white schools, but I never heard of student disorders in black schools. A Mr. Seay was the black principal. He was highly respected in the black community.

Sports

White teams did not play black teams. If the black team won the Law would be violated; "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut 17:15

There were no black police patrolling white areas for the same reason. There were no black juries or blacks on juries. Besides the "Law" reason, people have found out that blacks tend to side with blacks regardless of their guilt or innocence.

Whites did not walk down the streets with blacks; "Can two walk together, except they be agreed." Amos 3:3; "All flesh consorteth according to kind, and a man will cleave to his like." Ecclesiasticus 13:16.

The same rule applied if traveling on the streetcars, trains, or automobiles. Whites sat in one part and blacks sat in the other. To violate the Law is to fight God. Few want to be put in that predicament.

PARKS & POOLS

There were white public parks supervised by whites and colored public parks supervised by blacks. There were beaches reserved for blacks and beaches reserved for whites.

There was one white fellow on City Council named Jim Ould who wanted to integrate the Lynchburg swimming pools. When he ran for state senator everyone called him "Swimmingpool-Jim" He was overwhelmingly defeated and gave up politics.

When the federal courts ruled that white pools could not refuse black swimmers - Lynchburg shut down its pools.

Racial Adultery

The rules were understood by all concerned. The following comes from the black newspaper The Final Call:

"In the 1950s, it was clearly understood by all that the consequences for a Black man, young or old, accused of inappropriately relating to any White woman was death. It was just that simple. If a Black man was believed to have crossed that line, death was on the other side, no questions asked" (The Final Call, p.16, Feb 3, 2004 .finalcall.com) (Numbers 25)

White women riding in cars with black males after sunset were automatically assumed to have compromised themselves. The WORD names those responsible for carrying out punishments; "The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people." Deut 17:5-7

It is also written what is to be done if the "God-of-the-Land" rules instead of the WORD; one may not be able to enforce the Law without causing one's own death. In that case he must still protest the evil that he sees;

"In case anyone of their own blood ... should attempt to confound or dissolve their constitution (break God's WORD), they should take vengeance on them, both all in general, and each person in particular ... if they were not able to take such vengeance, they should still demonstrate that what was done was contrary to their wills." Antiquities 4:8:45

A case in point; whites involved in promoting integration were labeled "white-trash". The label didn't go away. To call someone an "integrationist" was the most damning thing you could call someone. That person was a traitor to God and "man". Of course, in those days people knew the Law.

Eating

The attempt to obey the Law; "Thou shall no stranger (2114 - racial alien) eat of the holy thing. Lev 22:10 (food that has been blessed), was done in this manner.

Most pre-war Virginia homes having colored help also had outside kitchens. The food was often prepared by colored help, brought into the kitchen where it was prepared for the table. Then it was brought in to the dining room where it was blessed and became "holy". The black help ate the same "unblessed" food in the outside kitchens.

Separate eating allowed blacks to start black restaurants. Where there were no black restaurants, white restaurants were allowed to serve blacks in separate dining rooms. I saw this wherever I went, in New York, Washington DC, San Antonio and other cities. New York hotels excluded Jews also.

There were two water fountains - one for whites and one for non- whites. Some talked of avoiding black diseases - of which "sickle-cell" is one - but the real reason was "Thou shall no stranger eat of the holy thing." Workers who had to drink from the same spring - strangers used the dipper hanging on the left and whites the one on the right.

Churches

The Christian Church at Dunnsville where my father and grandfather attended service was built about 1835. It was an interesting church.

We all know that the Law says; "The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." No 18:7, No 1:51. However, there were slave owners who wanted to get around the Law. They wanted their servants to hear such things as "Obey in all things your masters ... And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily as to the Lord." Col 3:22-23.

Of course, the preachers left out the fact that this teaching wasn't meant for blacks.³⁶

Their solution to having servants exposed to teachings of the WORD without allowing them to come near the altar was to build a "U-shaped" balcony inside the church which had outside entrances. There were no steps leading down into the inside - just outside entrances. Thus, in their minds, the blacks could not approach the altar.

When the war ended and slaves were free, the blacks immediately deserted the Christian Church and built their own church with their own preacher, deacons, choir and the rest.

I used to sit with my father looking up at the deserted balconies wondering why no one was up there and why there were no steps going up there from the inside so I could go exploring. I had a lot to learn.

Cemeteries

Before The War, family nurses were sometimes buried in their family plots along with the white families they had nursed. This stopped after the war. Blacks were mostly buried in their own cemeteries. They still are.

In Tidewater, instead of headstones, a Cyprus tree was often planted to mark the grave. After two or three hundred years you could spot a black cemetery a long way off by its enormous trees. Blacks didn't mind if black lumbermen cut the trees. But, you could hear them all the way to Richmond if a white lumberman tried to do the same thing. Those trees were valuable.

Betrayal

I remember meeting with thousands of blacks and whites in the Capitol Square in Richmond while Col. Earnest Sevier Cox made a plea for the Legislature of Virginia to appropriate money for the African Colonization Plan so that blacks could start going back to Africa. There were many legislators giving supporting speeches. Everyone left happy thinking that something was going to be done soon.

Nothing happened.

Many disappointed blacks who were there abandoned African Colonization Movement and joined the black Muslims movement.

Since that day there is only one rule that can judge friend and foe; "By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:16

Unfinished Business

The Bible tells us that Jesus found priests using churches for money-changing and commerce:

"Jesus went up to Jerusalem, And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen, and poured out the changers money, and overthrew the tables; and said unto them that sold doves, take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise." (John 2:13-17)

All this is still going on in state-churches.

Rape

Black Panther Eldridge Cleaver wrote the following:

"And when I considered myself smooth enough, I crossed the tracks and sought out White prey. I did this consciously, deliberately, willfully, methodically - though looking back I see that I was in a frantic, wild, and completely abandoned frame of mind. Rape was an insurrectionary act. It delighted me that I was defying and trampling upon the white man's law, upon his system of values, and that I was defiling his women." My Awakening, D. Duke, p 256 (Black Panther Eldridge Cleaver Soul of Ice)

When the crime is committed against man's nation the punishment also is immediately in mind. "If a man ... force her, and lie with her: then the man only that lay with her shall die." Deut: 22:25

The preacher, teacher, politician, media-man, and merchant who condemns this practice follows the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Those who don't are servants of the devil's "God-of- the- land".

An article was written in Australia describing America;

"The longest war America has ever fought is the Dirty War, and it is not over. It has lasted 30 years so far and claimed more than 25 million victims. It has cost almost as many lives as the Vietnam War. It determined the result of last year's congressional election. Yet the American news media do not want to talk about the Dirty War, which remains between the lines and unreported...

"When all the crime figures are calculated, it appears that black Americans have committed at least 170 million crimes against white Americans in the past 30 years. It is the great defining disaster of American life and American ideals since WWII. All these are facts, yet by simply writing this story, by assembling the facts in this way, I would be deemed a racist by the American news media. It prefers to maintain a paternalistic double-standard in its coverage of black America, a lower standard." (Patrick Sheehan writing for the Sydney, Australia, Morning Herald 1995.), My Awakening, D. Duke, p. 259

The preacher, teacher, politician, media-man, and merchant who condemns these practices follows the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Those who don't, serve the devil's "God-of-the-land".

Conclusion

Saxon-Israel remembers the warning from the WORD; "Esau said ... I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Gen 27:41. The WORD also says "Thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived." Rev 18:23

God also said "Isaac have I loved but Esau have I hated." Romans 9:13. To fight The WORD is to fight GOD. The day will come when Esau will no longer be able to feed his slaves - and Jacob will remember and return to obey his God.

"Deliver him that suffereth wrong from the hand of the oppressor; and be not faint-hearted when thou sitteth in judgment." Eccl 4:9

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Hoskins: The blacks demand unheard of wage increases. They march to present their demands and in the process trash streets and shops along the way.

In days gone by, Jan Smuts did not hesitate to send the army to quell such conduct. That they are pushing the country further into a depression does not worry them at all. The black Telkom head said they are entitled to get higher salaries than whites, as they know more than whites.

The "Die Afrikaner" says that the situation is critical. In 1997, there were still 5 million whites in SA. One million have left since then. Of those left, 2 million are impoverished. The most stupid black is preferred to a white man. The small number of taxpaying whites cannot continue to pay higher and higher taxes to feed the millions of blacks flooding in to escape Zimbabwe's food shortages caused by destroying white-owned farms.

Zimbabwean black immigrants are aggressive and mean. They rob and murder. Imagine cutting a white woman's throat like an animal. In large groups they rob banks and entire malls. This happens frequently, and there is no longer a border to keep them out.

It hurts to see our country turned into a scrap heap where once the streets were lined with Jacaranda trees; the middle of the streets contained well kept lawns containing beds of roses. The entire area below the Union Buildings were full of flowers and lawns.

At the bottom the blacks have their demon worship hill. No grass or trees. I see they have taken more hills and the trees are all gone. The blacks have renamed Pretoria - "Tshwane". Luckily the postal codes help mail get to its destination. We try to avoid any confrontation. With courts full of black judges and magistrates, a white hasn't a chance.

One must continuously watch what our banks are doing. A friend had two operations one after the other. She finally could look after her own business and found she had no money left in the bank. Her small farm was sold which allowed her to get a small apartment. She now sells dried fruit and beauty products.

Once again, thank you, and look after yourselves. K.J.

LETTERS

ESAU & JACOB: "Mr. Hoskins: Would you please answer a question for me. I'm in the hole (administration segregation) for refusing to cell w/a non-white (a black) so I'm not able to look up 'Esau'. Would you please explain it to me in layman's terms?" W.D. - prisoner, Missouri

RKH: Our father Isaac had two sons - Jacob and Esau. Jacob was Lawful - Esau was unLawful and married strangers. Esau said, "I will kill my brother, Jacob," and he has tried to do so ever since. Esau has traveled the world and mixed his blood with all races - except with the sons of Jacob. Therefore, today there are basically two races in the world - the sons-of-Jacob and sons-of- Esau. There is no such thing as a "half-white". People called "half-white" are "sons-of-Esau".

CLEARANCES - SCOTLAND

"The Sutherland Clearances commenced in 1807 but it was here that year on year the severity of the evictions increased to a point where Sutherland is remembered today as the scene of some of the worst acts of depravity that make the Highland Clearances unique in history.

"The landowners, the excessively rich Elizabeth Gordon, Countess of Sutherland, and her husband George Granville Leveson-Gower, the Marquis of Stafford, were responsible for the eviction of around 15,000 people from their lands. ...

"They employed a man to help carry out their greedy purge, a man whose name lives in infamy as one of the most brutal enforcers of his master's will, Patrick Sellar.

"In 1814 Sellar and his men came upon the house of a Tinker that was set to be destroyed. Upon finding out about the presence of a bedridden old woman in the house Sellar is quoted by a witness as saying: 'Damn her, the old witch, she has lived too long. Let her burn!'" And so the house was set ablaze with the old woman inside...

"In 1815 (Sellar) was arrested and charged ... however, he was acquitted by a packed Jury comprised predominantly of local landowners sympathetic to his cause, something that was not all too uncommon in such trials at the time. ... " Author: Robert Edwards BA (Hons)

Background

In the 8th and 9th centuries, England, Scotland and Ireland were settled by Vikings who divided the land, set up their presbyterian government system (from the bottom up) and lived peacefully.

In the 11th century, William the Conqueror, a son of a Viking 'en fief to the Holy Roman Empire and follower of its law system, left France and conquered England and Scotland and declared it his personal property. He set his followers over the different districts, counties, and clans. The former owners became serfs on their own land. William brought Jews with him to make loans.³⁸

There were many wars between England and Scotland. England attempted to install its state religion in Scotland and increase its tribute. Each time the English won, Scottish lands were re- divided and new rulers appointed and new taxes imposed.

These wars became brutal. My ancestor, George Hume was deported after the failed Rising of 1715. In the Rising of 1745 the Scots were defeated at Culloden where their wounded were bayoneted on the ground where they lay. The survivors and their families were hunted through the hills for years and when found were killed and their homes burned.

As for the rest, the British king demanded tribute from his followers to support his wars and his lifestyle. To provide money for the king and themselves his followers taxed their tenants. Over the years, the king's demands grew and his nobles taxed their tenants more. A drop in grain prices could reduce the tenants' income and themselves to poverty - sometime starvation.

Clearances - Land

Estate owners found that sheep were cheap to maintain and produced meat and wool which were more profitable than the farming produce of the people. Absentee owners ordered the people cleared from their estates, their homes burned, and sheep introduced.

The Highlanders who had been cleared from the land found themselves in a serious situation. They had to find work to survive and feed their families.

The choice was to move to the seashore and try to feed their families by catching fish, or move to the towns and cities of the south and try to find "sweat-shop" work for their families in coal mines or mills, or emigrate.

Emigration was not the most popular choice. The journey to the Colonies was long and painful. Sometimes the landowner paid for the trip, most had to serve work-indentures lasting 4-7 years to pay their way after they reached their destination.

Ships leaving Scotland were packed with as many as could be squeezed in with bunks set up with an inch leeway between a person and the bunk above. Often, disease broke out among the passengers and 50 to 100 would die before reaching land. Laws governing the black slave trade permitted something like 550 slaves on a ship at a time. Ships carrying Scottish immigrants sometimes carried more than 750.

Lowland Clearances

The clearances of the Scottish lowlands involved many more tens of thousands of people than the Highland Clearances had.

"How hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!" Mark 10:24

IRISH CLEARANCES

Like Scotland, the people of Ireland are composed of Gaelic, Saxons and Vikings. It was conquered by rulers of England who imposed an English Lawless state religion on a traditional Irish Lawless state-religion. In time, the result was strife, poverty, and starvation. One of these revolts was called the Nine Years War.

According to Lecky, the Nine Years War was "literally a war of extermination". He says the slaughter of Irishmen was looked upon as "literally the slaughter of wild beasts". Men, women and children in the hands of the English, were "deliberately and systematically butchered". However the sword, he says, was "not found sufficiently expeditious," therefore another method was found to be much more "efficacious." He notes that year after year "all means of human subsistence were destroyed, no quarter was given to prisoners who surrendered, and the whole population was skillfully and steadily starved to death". The pictures of the condition of Ireland at this time he concludes are "as terrible as anything in human history". (History of Ireland in the Eighteenth Century, vol 1, by W. E. H. Lecky, Longmans, Greens and Co. (London), Pg.4-6 (cabinet ed., 5 vols., London, 1892).

An 1835 British survey found half of the rural families in Ireland living in single-room mud huts containing up to a dozen people along with the family's pigs and chickens. It was not uncommon for the huts occupants to be the dispossessed descendants of the Irish estate owners, nor was it uncommon for a beggar to mention that he was a descendant of an ancient Irish king. The Irish have the longest genealogies of any people in the world.

Absentee landlords held title to enormous tracts of land confiscated from the Irish even before the time of Oliver Cromwell. As in Scotland, they employed agents to manage their estates while the owners often lived extravagant lifestyles in London and elsewhere.

"Middlemen" rented large acreages from the owner's agents which they in turn sub-divided into small holdings which they rented to Irish farmers. They kept sub-dividing the small holdings which grew smaller as the rents increased every year. Irish who couldn't afford to rent, "share-cropped" these small holdings eking out a marginal existence for their families.

More than three-million Irish subsisted on potatoes which produce the large yield of food necessary on such small acreages. Beginning in 1845, and lasting for 6 years, a potato famine killed a million people and forced another million to migrate, mostly to America.

During this time English merchants had surplus grain which they offered the starving Irish, but the Irish has no money with to buy the food. Parliament discussed offering aid, but nothing was done.

"A rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven." Matt 19:23

SCOTCH-IRISH CLEARANCES

The Scots originally came from Ireland. The northeast coast of Ireland is close to Scotland so that the sea voyage is short. The communications between the two lands continued over the centuries with travelers and refugees from one country passing to the other almost waving in passing. The common enemy was usually England. Here's the story.

St. Patrick annexed Ireland to the Roman Catholic Church. The Church farmed the land and its peoples out to local kings to manage. In 1155, Pope Hadrien IV gave Ireland to the English King to manage. The English invaded to exercise their contract.

Later, Henry VIII took over England's Catholic Church and made himself the English Pope and claimed the right to keep all collected tithes and offerings rather than sending them to Rome. Irish Catholics refused to recognize this claim of the Anglican Catholic Church and revolted. The revolt was suppressed and northern Ireland cleared of Catholic rebels.

Scottish Presbyterians, cleared from their own lands by the estate-owners who wished to graze sheep, were shipped to Northern Ireland to be tenants on farms vacated by Catholic rebels - and to act as a buffer between the Anglican Church English estate owners and the irate Irish Catholics. The British Crown itself was the actual owner of the land in both the Irish Presbyterian north and the Catholic south, with English Anglican-Catholic nobles appointed as manager-owners.³⁹

Later, clearances started in Northern Ireland, sending waves of Scotch-Irish to Virginia and elsewhere.

³⁹ Many Protestant Presbyterians in the north, and Irish Catholics in the south do not realize that the Anglican-Catholic "Crown" has title to the land they live on in Ireland.

"Woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation." Luke 6:24

CLEARANCES/ENCLOSURES ENGLAND

William the Conqueror claimed all of England as his personal property. He appointed his loyal followers to rule the various sub-divisions. England was not as thickly populated as it would become later on and most of England was considered "commons" - vacant land upon which individuals could farm as much as they liked.

Over the years, wars caused the various estates to change hands and as the population increased the estates began to enclose lands that they claimed as their own.

The enclosure movement started around the 12th century and continued to gather pace until it was all but completed in the 18th and 19th centuries. The common land, previously used by farmers for communal purposes, had been enclosed for private use by wealthy landowners. As with the Highland Clearances, sheep took the place of the less profitable English farmers. This caused untold misery to the farmers and their families who were forced into lives of poverty and hardship in the towns and cities.

This forced both English yeomen and younger sons of the gentry to migrate to Virginia from the time of its first settlement in 1607.

Like the Scots, Irish, and Scot-Irish - Englishmen also suffered from the Lawless rule of kings and their refusal to divide the land.

"It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." Matt 19:24

AMERICA - CLEARANCES

Virginia has been a victim of clearances from its conception. In violation of God's Law, the Crown tried to integrate the Indians into the Saxon settlement in spite of the fact that each Indian occupied space that a Saxon settler could have occupied. The result was the Indian Massacre of 1621 when the Indians killed half the colonists.

The royal governor was given the Indian fur-trade monopoly. He refused to interrupt the trade to protect colonists from bloodthirsty Indian attacks. After all, which is a more valuable economic asset to kings and their managers - furs or Saxons? In Great Britain sheep were the more valuable.

In 1676, Nathaniel Bacon gathered the militia to defend against raids. Governor Berkley used this as an excuse to outlaw both him and his followers. When Bacon died his followers were hanged and their estates confiscated.

Tobacco was Virginia's money crop - it was THE thing Great Britain wanted from Virginia - and it had to be sold to Great Britain at their set price. Tobacco money was needed in Virginia to buy English manufactured goods which by law could be bought only from Great Britain. Raising tobacco was a necessity. England owned the slave trade it had won in Queen Anne's War (1701- 1713).⁴⁰ England poured blacks into Virginia.

This displaced whites which might have settled here. Virginia protested - the king answered:

"The General Assembly of Virginia could put into effect no law which it passed to check or to prohibit the importation of Negro slaves, no matter what conditions the colony might be facing, because the great and politically powerful Royal African Company had a practical monopoly of the slave trade from Africa to America and the West Indies, and they saw to it that the king declared void every colonial law affecting that trade." Virginia's Mother Church Vol II, p.13, George Maclaren Brydon, DD, Church Historical Society, 1952.

In effect, this prevented millions of Saxons from settling in Virginia by substituting blacks - by the king's orders. Blacks produced cheaper tobacco than whites.

The Revolution:

The Colonies, tired of British taxes and mistreatment, went to war. The British armed forces, following the Lawless orders of a Lawless king, waged a Lawless war whose intent was the clearance of rebels. As in the old country; houses, barns and fields of non-combatants were burned. Slaves were captured and taken and re-sold into the Caribbean. Tarlton became infamous for shooting prisoners. Prisoners in British hands died in droves from starvation, mistreatment and disease. British paid the Indians for Saxon scalps - men, women and children. Great areas in Georgia and the Carolinas were cleared of its people.

War Of 1812:

The conduct of the British in the War of 1812 was a repeat of their conduct in the Revolution. British ships landed raiding parties on the Northern Neck just to burn and loot.

War Between The States

After the Revolution the colonists organized "African Colonization". The plan was to buy black slaves, train them to farm and settle them back in Africa from whence the British had taken them. The money received for the slaves was to be spent to transport replacement Saxon workers from Europe.

Following the Revolution, Britain established banks and industrial corporations in America - the first bank being founded in 1780. In short order they had a media monopoly, industrial monopoly, and the beginning of a New England land monopoly. To these rich and powerful men the debt-free Self-Sufficient-Farm system of the South was a ripe cherry waiting to be plucked.

To keep blacks in America these peoples' media demanded instant freeing of slaves without compensating their owners so they could bring in substitute white labor. They fanned the flames of war by financing murderous outlaws such as John Brown.

The plan was to clear Southern land by burnings, put blacks in the governments of the defeated South, and have these blacks tax the land.

Since Southern trade had been destroyed by the war and new taxes and tariffs were put in place, the formerly debt-free Southerners were forced to go to banks to borrow tax money. Southern farms, deprived of labor and with no markets for their products, defaulted wholesale, and their land was bought at tax sales for pennies by land corporations. Land owned by generations of Hoskins is now owned by the Chesapeake Corporation.

The land was cleared of people who were herded into towns, which quickly exploded into cities - something new in the South - to work for "sweat-shop" corporations for starvation wages. Many left and went west to try to build new lives.

To this day the Southern countryside is filled with deserted churches that once housed a vanished Saxon population that has been cleared from the land as their ancestors had been in Europe.

America Today

Today American industry has been cleared, or, "off-shored". States have replaced their Saxon population living in cities with Blacks, Hispanics, Islamics and Orientals.

The king's corporation banks have shut down loans to force foreclosures, and produce high unemployment. American farmers were paid not to grow produce for sale to overseas markets. Now, those markets have been taken by foreign growers and American farms lie fallow.

As in Scotland and Ireland, rural America is a land of deserted churches and deserted dairy barns while million dollar bonuses go to corporate leaders who have accomplished this feat.

"How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God." Mark 10:23

SOUTH AFRICA - CLEARANCES

In 1616, the Dutch East India Company established a letter drop and watering station on the southern tip of South Africa.

On April 7, 1652, Jan van Riebeck landed with settlers to plant vegetables gardens to supply passing ships. By the turn of the century copper mines had been established and the population augmented by French Huguenots cleared from France by Louis XIV. A number of cleared German religious non-conformists also arrived. The early white population of South Africa were Law abiding Christians.

The Dutch East India Company, to create a demand for its Black slaves, discouraged immigration of White workers from Europe starting from 1707 and continuing for over a century, Whites were barred. Most increase of the European population over this period came from natural increase. To obtain workers the South Africans were forced to buy slaves.⁴¹ These Black slaves displaced European whites who would have settled there.

The British Empire invaded S. Africa in 1795. The governor sent by England was Lord Charles Somerset, a governor like Governor Berkley of Virginia. A Lawless king had sent a Lawless servant.

Almost his first act was to re-value the Boer farms to increase land taxes. The purpose of the increase was to start tax foreclosures.

He hired black police as tax collectors.⁴² The ruthlessness of these Black police triggered a revolt similar to Bacon's Rebellion in Virginia. The governor boasted that he easily suppressed this revolt. At Slachter's Nek, in March 1816, he hanged five White "rebels", banished 32 and confiscated their estates. Interestingly, the governor's executioner hanged the condemned so that they died very slowly - the same as the Nuremburg executions.

41 "David de Pinto ... and his son Isaac de Pinto played an important part in Dutch politics during the reign of William IV. David de Pinto was the chief stockholder of the East India Company." Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, Holland. p.432

42 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zāwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deut17:15

The governor then set up Black homelands administered by Church of England missionaries. The stated purpose was to improve the condition of the Blacks. The real purpose was to seed Black nations under British control that in time would expand and clear the entire country of non-conformist Boers.

In 1833, England, having run out of customers for her slave trade, reversed herself and freed the slaves in her jurisdiction. This deprived South African farmers of their farm labor making them unable to pay the increased land taxes. Not only that, the British ruled that the former slaves be given the vote, which would place them in power over whites in many areas.

Leaving their farms and business, the Boers loaded wagons and left to go inland to establish new homes and farms free from the British. This exodus was called "The Great Trek". They settled in unoccupied lands in the interior and formed the Boer (farmer) Free State and Transvaal.⁴³

"C.A. Venter, an Afrikaner historian writes;

"The major reason for the Great Trek was Ordinance 50. This infamous ordinance stated that there would be thenceforth (circa 1835) not be any further discrimination between White and Black (full citizenship), one man one vote et al' in the Cape... and the ordinance could only be repealed or amended by the British Government in England."

Diamonds

In 1867, diamonds were discovered in the Free State. The British moved in and took over Boer lands in the interior and the diamond fields. At this, the Boers took up arms and forced the British to grant them their freedom.

In 1886, gold was discovered in unbelievable quantities in the Transvaal attracting hordes of speculators from Europe. England used these "outlanders" as an excuse to take over the Boer country by demanding that the Boers give them equal rights as citizens. The British instigated a revolt starting with "The Jammerson Raid" which was quickly suppressed by the Boers.

The Boer War

Britain continued demanding rights for the newly arrived European miners which would have resulted in a takeover of the Boer nations. The Boers' refusal caused Britain to send an army.

The total population of the two Boer republics including men, women and children is estimated at 232,000. The British troops employed in South Africa up to January 1, 1902 totaled 388,749.

This massive British Army cleared the Boers from the two Boer states. Of the 232,000 Boers; 120,000 men women and children were placed in concentration camps; 36,000 were deported overseas, and 37,000 were unaccounted for. Approximately 20,000- 30,000 died of starvation and disease in the camps.

The intent of the British Empire's operations in S. Africa was made public by the following announcement by the British Army under Lord Roberts:

"Whereas, by Proclamation, dated the 16th day of June 1900, of Lord Roberts, Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief Her Majesty's Forces in South Africa, it was notified to, and the inhabitants, and principal residents of the Orange River Colony, and the South African republic were warned, whatever wanton damage to public property, such as Railways, Bridges, Culverts, Telegraph Wires, etc. took place the houses of persons living in the neighborhood would be burned ...”

"On 2 Sept 1900 Lord Roberts added;

"That ‘for ten miles round every farm should be denuded of all provisions, cattle, etc.’ ...

"He further stated that he proposed to expel from all towns and places occupied by British troops the wives and families of burghers in the field. This was the extension of ‘methods of barbarism’ which in the course of the next two years caused the death of almost 24,000 young children - probably more than 30% of the Boer youth in the Concentration Camps." J.A. Marais, Die Afrikaner, 23-29 Jun 2000

The war over, White South African survivors returned to ashes of their homes and bones of their flocks. To survive, many went to cities to beg jobs of the newly arrived British corporations. After WWII, S. Africa gained its independence. Soon, there was an organized insurrection by Blacks. A South African newspaper reported:

"In 1996, Nelson Mandela was asked by BBC interviewer Sue McGregor what his 1962 trip to Britain had been all about. He said he had been seeing British government ministers and officials about arms ‘for the struggle. ‘I had no other business’, he said." Impact, June/July, p. 9, P.O. Box 28233, Sunnyside 0132, Rep. of SA.

At the insistance of the world powers, S. Africa was given to the Blacks to rule. Since then, South African clearances of Whites have sent 1 million of them abroad, and 4 million are left. Several black leaders have bought large estates in Scotland with their newfound wealth, and white S. African farmers are being killed daily. Like Highland sheep - South African diamond, gold, coal fields and cleared farms are worth more than the people to whom they belonged.

"I beheld the angels of punishment ... preparing for the kings and the powerful ones of the earth." Enoch I 52:3,5

CLEARANCES - RUSSIA

Goths and Vikings have long used the Russian rivers to travel from the Baltic to the Black Sea. In the process they established settlements the length of the country.

These settlements were in the midst of warring nations of Tartars and Slavs, most of whom in time gravitated to the Russ River settlements seeking protection from tribes of their own kind. In time they were incorporated into estates ruled by the Russian Tzar - who was also the head of the state religion.

In 1917, the Tartars and Slavs united under the leadership of Khazarian Turks. They revolted and cleared most of the country of Russ rulers of landed estates and other Saxon Russ. The total who died in Soviet concentration camps has been estimated from 20 to 30 million - mostly Saxon Russ.

The Saxon Russ who remain must live in cities or farm government- owned land in co-operatives as servants of the state. Russia's wealth has been divided among "ologogs", most of whom are Khazar- Turks who travel among the world's multi-billionaires.

The famous Russian writer Solzhenitsyn said that most of the prison camps were run by Khazar-Turk Jew commandants. Thus far none of them have been brought to trial for crimes against the prisoners in their charge.

*"Woe to you, ye powerful, who with power strike down righteousness; for the day of your destruction shall come."
Enoch I 95:8*

CLEARANCES - GERMANY

Germany was claimed by the Holy Roman Empire. The land of the people was taken and combined into estates ruled by nobles appointed by the king.

Luther's reformation swept Germany, teaching:

"All the earth is mine." Ex 19:5; "As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land." Jos 14:5.

General revolt broke out as peasants and many of the nobles united to divide lands that had been taken by Kings and Church. In time the Kings and Church regrouped and attacked the land- holding peasants. Tens of thousands were slaughtered. Then, in a 30-year war, Protestant and Catholic kings battled each other over who was to rule the re-conquered land. Germany lost 90% of her population in many places.

Protestant kings appointed Protestant bishops and the Roman Church appointed Catholic bishops. Information controlling the minds of the people came from Sunday pulpits. Catholic and Protestant kings were heavily in debt to church banks run by Jews.⁴⁴

WWI

The outbreak of WWI in Europe does not make sense until one considers that the massive debt borrowed from the international banking system was the reason. The Central Powers, of which Germany was one, lost.

The Versailles Peace Treaty stripped Germany of her overseas colonies, much of her European land, and many of her peoples. She was required to pay reparations to the victors that demolished her monetary system and allowed agents of the victors to buy up German land and assets for pennies.

A man named Adolph Hitler became German leader by promising to end reparations, return German provinces and German people to their own country and to return aliens to their countries. This constituted a revolt against the International Trade Cartel; 54- countries declared war on Germany.

Casualties WWII

I wrote Hans Schmidt and asked what were the German casualties during WWII and after? The answer I received was this;

"Herbert R. Vogt wrote in the "New Yorker Staats-Zeitung edition Nr. 29:

"Soldiers killed during the war	3,250,000
"Civilians killed in air raids	1,000,000
"soldiers died in Pow camps	3,242,000
"Civilians killed or died when removed from their home towns	3,000,000
"civilians killed during the soviet occupation	680,000

Total 11,172,000"

This total from an estimated total of perhaps 85m to 87,000,000 Germans, which counts Germans repatriated back to Germany from eastern Europe.

Large sections of Europe, traditionally German, have been ethnically cleared. The property reclaimed by Adolf Hitler's government for the Germans in the aftermath of WWI has been again seized by Germany's creditors. Today, Germany is destitute; owning almost nothing within her borders, including land or businesses. Germany's puppet government still pays reparations almost 65 years after WWII. The country remains occupied by foreign armies and aliens occupy most of her cities and much of her countryside.

Conclusion

Throughout Saxon lands, Christian Law is banned in courts, government, and schools. Why? God's Law is sedition to the present rulers and their Gods.

The WORD teaches that we are to have no kings but those appointed by Jesus; "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings." Rev 1:5-6, and, the land is to be divided; "As the LORD commanded ... they divided the land." Jos 14:5.

Esau will not stand for this: "Esau hated Jacob ... and Esau said ... I (will) slay my brother Jacob." Ge 27:41

Scripture says;

"I beheld the angels of punishment ... preparing for the kings and the powerful ones of the earth." Enoch I 52:3,5

Chapter 422

MONEY MACHINE & CORPORATIONS

Money

Esau and his agents have misdirected and misled people through the ages so that their deeds remain hidden and unpunished. This is a false hope since the WORD clearly reveals the root of evil:

"The love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti 6:10

Another verse tells why money is the root of all evil:

"Money answereth all things." Eccl 10:19

If the price is right, there are some who will willingly sell their souls. With enough money one can buy yachts, jets, plush homes in the Caribbean and movie stars.

One can rule people, cities, countries - seize their lands, reduce them to slavery, or drive them from the land and raise sheep. With enough money, one can force people to work in factories, tax them, and hire kings, armies, and police to make people obey one's wishes. Priests can even be hired to convince people that the misery they endure is their own fault and that it is God's will. "Money answers all things!"

Usury

The easiest way to obtain great amounts of money quickly is usury. The LAW brands it a capital crime, but when presented in a deceptive manner the victims can be made to blame themselves for their agonies rather than the lender.

Usury is a contract fraudulent from its conception. A victim is persuaded to borrow 10 items and repay 11 when only 10 items exist - or forfeit collateral. Foreclosure can be delayed by negotiating a new contract where a 12th item is promised to be paid and more collateral pledged. Still, since only 10 items exist, in time the borrower loses his possessions.

History calls usury "the ultimate deception". It empties the countryside, creates both the city and super-state, and requires kings, police, taxes, hucksters, and a corrupt priesthood to protect the monopoly. Usury is a capital crime;

"Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13⁴⁵

Making Things Simple

Traditionally, usury bankers lend money to states they control and sit back and let the investment grow year after year. One thousand dollars borrowed at 7 1/2% in 100 years grows to a debt of $1,383,077.31.

At the farm rally in Nebraska in 1985, farmers gathered from all over the country. Thousands. The government had advised them to buy more land if they expected to prosper in the coming years. Most did. Interest on loans went to 20%. One thousand dollars borrowed at 20% requires repayment of almost $83 billion dollars in 100 years.

There are millions upon millions of usury loans in existence. Individuals borrow money; cities and counties borrow money, states, countries and corporations borrow money. Usury payments come flooding into banks. If the money-flood were actual cash, the usury payments would arrive in 18-wheeler trucks, bumper to bumper, in a never-ending stream.

Modern electronic bookkeeping makes modern usury possible. "The love of money is the root of all evil" and usury causes IOUs to multiply in unimaginable amounts - and in time the lender will take the borrower's possessions. In the meantime - what does the usurer do with all the money that is pouring into his coffers?

Investing Money

Esau tends to invest his money through usury-banks or their agents called "corporations".

CORPORATIONS

A king, appointed by the merchant, was once sufficient to govern an agrarian land and its trade. King William conquered England and brought his Jewish usurers with him. These usurers reported directly to him or his agents.

The industrial revolution complicated matters. Enormous amounts of money were borrowed into existence requiring specialized corporate management teams. "Money Managers" were appointed. A new type of aristocracy came into existence.

The American Heritage Dictionary defines a "Corporation" as follows;

Corporation: "1. A body that is granted a charter legally recognizing it as a separate legal entity having its own rights, privileges, and liabilities distinct from those of its members. 2. Such a body created for purposes of government. 3. A group of people combined into or acting as one body."

The same definition can describe a little country within a larger country. ITC corporations not only manage, but conceal what they are doing and who is giving the orders.

Congressman McFadden launched an investigation to discover who owned and controlled American utility companies. After years of trying to trace cross-ownerships, bank trusts and off-shore owners, he confessed that he had no idea who owned them. The same applies to other large corporations.

The American Colonies became part of the British corporation when they were first settled in 1607. Land-grants, taxes, appointments, slave-importation, wars, etc. were directed by the Crown. When America declared its independence, corporate rule took another form. Banking.

The Banking Corporation started with two banks in 1780. Soon there were thousands of banks.

Usury converted much of America's farmland into Corporate Farms. Rothschild interests were active in the 1830s land bubble.

The media became a division of in-house company "Corporate Newspapers" that began ruling people's minds. If there were other local newspapers in addition to the corporate newspaper - the "Corporate Newspaper" received advertising from other ITC corporations which gave it the wealth it needed to undersell and buy out its independent-competitor. This gave the corporate-media a monopoly of creating people's opinions. President Jackson shut down the banking monopoly and it was then that America discovered that its stockholders lived in Britain.⁴⁶

Most corporations are designed to be operated at a profit. Those that don't are absorbed by those that do. The ultimate objective is for ALL wealth to be owned by ONE corporation, and that one corporation owned by one person.

In practice - grocery stores have been absorbed into supermarkets; farms absorbed into corporate land-companies; drugstores absorbed into drug-chains; media outlets absorbed into media chains; state governments absorbed into the International Trade Cartel (ITC), also called New World Order, also called One World.

Managers Revealed

In recent years a business secret has been discovered; the media revealed that the owners and CEOs of some of America's biggest corporations are Arabs, Chinese and Indians. It is now believed that much, if not most, of America is owned and operated by strangers. It is these corporations that finance alien groups in our midst.

⁴⁶ Loans belonging to a bankrupt bank are merely transferred to another bank who rules the debtors as they had been ruled before. "The borrower is servant to the lender".

For instance, the 4 main Hispanic-interests pressure groups are:

- * The League of United Latin-American Citizens (LULAC)

- * The Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund (MALDEF)

- * The National Council of La Raza (La Raza)

- * The Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Azlan (MEChA)

They agree that they want more immigration. They want as many government benefits as possible for non-citizens; and they want deportation of illegal aliens stopped. Some want non-citizens given the right to vote. They want government recognition of their own culture, language, and national holidays promoted by as much public money as possible. Hispanic activists describe their goal as reconquista, or "reconquest".

One would not expect Saxon corporations in America, owned by and managed by Saxons, to finance their historical enemies. Yet, the radical Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund (MALDEF) and National Council of La Raza (La Raza) are creatures of the Ford Foundation. This Foundation with a Saxon sounding name awarded the organization a 5-year grant of more than $2 million. At the end of 1996, MALDEF had total assets of over $7 million, most was money in the bank.

MALDEF gets funding from corporations - AT&T and IBM in particular - and foundations. It received millions from the Ford Foundation; the Carnage Corp, and the Rockefeller Foundation.

The FBI lists Hispanics as hate-crime victims, but, Hispanics who commit hate crimes are officially listed as "white".*

(* Based on an article in American Renaissance, March 2000.)

Corporate Power

A short time ago, corporations said that they needed more engineers - immediately. They hired thousands of engineers from abroad. American collages found that there was suddenly almost no demand for engineering graduates and so discontinued many of their engineering courses. Now, when American corporations need engineers in a hurry, they are forced to hire foreign engineers, or do without.

If alien owned corporations in America find that they can increase profits by moving their business "off-shore", they have no reason not to. As a consequence, America is rapidly being de- industrialized. The once great city of Detroit is now a ghost- town. Pittsburgh is close behind. Several others are close behind Pittsburgh.

America's Business Face

TV-business news has suddenly revealed that CEOs of some of America's largest corporations are sons-of-Esau. They had been hidden behind corporate one-way mirrors.

Members of Congress are advertised and elected by America's alien-owned corporate media. The individual candidates are those who have first been culled by America's one-party system.

These elected agents-of-Esau, who rubber-stamp their master's wishes, said that American farmers were not making enough money, and paid them to stop planting food-stuffs. Farms were shut down. Foreign producers quickly took the foreign markets once held by American farmers. Now, American farmers CAN'T return to farming because their markets have been taken.

If, for some reason - war, monetary crisis, or depression should cause America to be unable to obtain foreign food supplies - millions of sons-of-Jacob will starve in their own land - thanks to their own elected representatives.

Inventions & Corporations

Corporation contracts require that inventions made by its employees are the property of the corporation that employs them. If the corporate ownership is alien, inventions given the sons- of-Jacob by their God become the property of Esau - which is against God's LAW.

"God is a ... revealer of secrets." Daniel 2:47; "The Lord possessed me (wisdom) in the beginning." Prov 8:22; "I (wisdom of God) find out knowledge of witty inventions." Pr 8:12; "Give not that which is holy (that which is of God) unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they ... turn again and rend you." Matt 7:6; "Thou shall no stranger eat of the holy thing." Lev 22:10

TRAITORS TO GOD AND NATION

God commanded that the land be divided so that man might obtain sustenance from his own land and his own efforts and be self- sufficient. Jacob's community service in militias and "barn- raisings" is voluntary and temporary. His first loyalty is to the WORD.

10-Commandments Of The WORD

1. One God, the WORD - Ex 20:3
2. No substitutes - Ex 20:4
3. No vainly asking for forbidden things -
Ex 20:7; Mat. 5:33
4. One day rest in 7 - Ex 20:8-9; Ezek 20:12;
Luke 13:14
5. Honor parents - Ex 20:12; Lev 19:3;
Deut 5:16; Eph 6:2
6. Murder - Ex 20:13; Rom 13:9
7. Adultery forbidden- commercial, written, verbal, religious, racial - Ex 20:14;
Deut 5:18
8. No theft - Ex 20:15; Lev 19:11
9. False witnesses - Ex 20:16, 23:1; Deut 5:20
10. Don't covet another's possessions -
Ex 20:17

Note that the Ten Commandments of The WORD instruct the individual who is also a king and a priest.

CORPORATE DECEPTION

Esau rules the people-of-Jacob by hiring an agent to be king. Esau's money pays the agent's soldiers who police his subjects, and endows colleges and seminaries to teach his subjects. It is Esau's wishes that are enforced in lands in which he has appointed the king.

Corporations are created to transfer the people's wealth to the corporation. Most Saxons are forced to surrender their farms and small businesses and work for one of Esau's corporations. To keep their jobs and feed their families Jacob refrains from criticizing his Lawless rulers and speaking out against violations of God's LAW.

The greatest offenders are among those who call themselves Christian priests. Most ignore God's Commandments and teach fables. Most accept Esau's Law-of-the-land in place of The WORD. The result is empty churches and a Lawless people. The modern name for this kind of rule is "socialism". All Western nations are now subject to Socialist rule; the best known socialism is called "Communism".

10 Planks Of The Communist Manifesto

1. no private land ownership
2. progressive income tax
3. no inheritance (inheritances taxed)
4. confiscate rebels
5. centralized credit
6. communications & transportation regulated
7. production centrally owned (corporate)
8. equality of sexes
9. farms & factories combined (equally corporate)
10. public schools

Note that these 10-Planks are directed toward the operation of corporations. Note also that all ten planks have been enacted into law in the United States.

Integration

The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, created "man" and gave him Isaac's name. He appointed man to be "kings" and "priests"; they are to have no other king except the King of kings and no law except the WORD - the LAW which never changes.

Sons-of-Jacob thrive when they obey The WORD. They die when they disobey the WORD.

Mixed-breed sons-of-Esau integrating with Jacob leave only mixed-breed sons-of-Esau. Integration kills Jacob as surely as Esau's bullet.

Sons-of-Esau and their agents promote integration with Jacob by quoting the parable of the Good Samaritan who helped the man robbed by thieves.

"Good Samaritans" are blessed by their good works; they are also cursed if they violate God's Law which forbids them to mingle with Saxon-Israel.

"The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." Num 18:7, No 1:51⁴⁷

Integrationists demand that "good-Samaritans" be accepted by sons-of-Jacob in Christian worship.

God's WORD speaking to the children-of-Israel is clear; "Where two or more are gathered together, there I am in the midst of them." Matt 18:20. The WORD says that this is the gathering that Esau approaches at the risk of his life.

⁴⁷ "We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers (Heb: 2114 zûwr - foreigner, strange, profane, adulterous) are come into the sanctuaries of the Lord's house." Jer 51:51; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." De 23:2

CORPORATE DECEPTION

Esau's corporations have a two-fold objective - to "manage" and to "deceive". Esau's corporations transfer Jacob's wealth to himself. Esau absorbs or "off-shores" Jacob's jobs. This forces Jacob to work for Esau to earn money to feed their families. To keep their jobs they are afraid to criticize their rulers and speak out against the violations of God's LAW - and by default - Esau's laws become the law-of-the-land.

Virginia Today

In central Virginia under control of industrial corporations, the cotton mills, steel mills, farm production, GE electronics, B&W nuclear-energy, etc. have been shut down and largely off-shored. Aliens receive favoritism for government jobs and more aliens have been imported to compete for the jobs left.

WARS OF SEPARATION

This last century and a half has seen country after country of the Saxon nation swallowed up by Esau's ONE WORLD. The children- of-Jacob have been slaughtered, enslaved, and scattered by the millions in the process. Esau's mixed-breeds have been brought in to take their lands and their jobs.

The American War Between the States, the Boer War, and WW II. were the result of the Saxons' attempt to remain separate.

JACOB'S NEXT WAR

The lands of Jacob have been conquered and the children-of-Jacob are being forced to renounce their God, or starve.

Sodomy, monopoly, usury-banking, theft of land, and miscegenation are not only tolerated but encouraged.

Such things will not continue forever. Something will trigger a revolt against the Lawless rule of Esau. Perhaps it will be the traditional reason for most revolts. Taxes.

Taxes

Jacob has been herded into Esau's cities where he is forced to pay tax-tribute for almost everything he does.

The coming war will be Jacob's War of Separation. Jacob is discovering that in spite of Esau's soothing words from his media, Hollywood and government edicts - Esau's rule has brought slaughter, mayhem, and misery to our people. Jacob has learned that the God Esau allows to be worshiped is not the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

The thing that has caused Jacob to revolt against Esau's rule more times than any other has been Esau's demand for tax-tribute. If people would take the time to compute how much money they would have without paying tax-tribute, they would be shocked.

Of course, they would have to make provision for the things they need, but it is certain that they could do it cheaper if they arranged to have it done themselves.

Remember, each penny not taken from Jacob in tax-tribute remains in his pocket: Here is a list of taxes;

Taxes

Accounts Receivable Tax;
 Building Permit Tax;
 CDL License Tax;
 Cigarette Tax,
 Corporate Income Tax,
 Dog License Tax,

Federal Income Tax,
 Federal Unemployment Tax (FUTA), ccurring Charges Tax,

 Telephone State and Local Tax,
 Telephone Usage Charge Tax,
 Utility Tax,
 Vehicle License Registration Tax, Vehicle Sales Tax,
 Watercraft Registration Tax,
 Well Permit Tax,
 Workers Compensation Tax,

Not one of these taxes existed 100 years ago and our country was the most prosperous in the world.

The LAW of God's WORD says the following about taxes;

"Of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers? Peter saith unto him, Of strangers." (Gr: allotrios - foreign, not akin.) ... Then are the children free." Matt 17:25-26.

When Caesar became belligerent about the refusal of tribute payment, they asked Jesus again. Jesus replied in a parable whose meaning is known to us and unknown to our enemies;

"Shew me the tribute money (tax-money). And they brought him a penny. And he saith unto them, whose is this image and superscription? They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's." Matt 22:19-21

Caesar's law says one thing and God's LAW says another. Knowing the right thing to do is sometimes not the prudent thing to do. It may save one's life and liberty to follow the following suggestion made by Jesus;

"Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them ... find a piece of money. That give unto them for me and thee."
Matt 17:27

Jesus declared in parable that tribute is illegal. UnLawful tribute is theft; the law against theft applies - return twice the amount of the stolen property, or, 4 times if it has been spent or destroyed.

When black slaves became our masters and rulers after the war and imposed heavy taxes on us, we went to the banks to borrow tax money; "We have borrowed money for the kings tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards." Ne 5:4. The low price of commodities and the loss of foreign markets prevented us from repaying the bank-usury loans and the banks and their agents foreclosed our lands and we were forced to move to cities and work for Esau's corporations. It is the same with others of our kinsmen.

At the end of WW I, Germany was devastated and economically enslaved. She was forced to pay impossible reparations - a form of tax tribute. Her new leader renounced the reparations, seized the foreign owned lands and divided them among German farmers, seized foreign factories and turned their ownership over to the workers, repatriated foreigners and accepted the emigration of Germans living in other lands, banned foreign owned media; froze foreign debts to be paid in the future with German manufactured goods, banned usury, and issued Germany's own scrip.

Esau does not easily permit one to escape from his grasp:

Dr. Thomas Porter in his book: The Green Magicians on p.46 writes: "The Word published in Glasgow, England once stated: '...Marriner Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board and Montague Norman of the Bank of England agreed not later than 1935 on the joint policy of killing Germany's financial experiment by all methods including war, if necessary.'"

Conclusion

Jacob will escape from the rule of Esau and his agents.

The attempt may be a copy of previous political revolts. Or, it may be a copy of the successful warfare that is currently practiced in Esau's own lands.

It may result by casting away Organized Religion and bringing about a revival of God's Law with zealots meeting in private homes in the manner of their ancestors.

Or, Jacob's freedom may evolve from something that we have never thought of before.

But this is certain - whichever way it comes - Jacob will be free.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Hoskins; A big 'thank you' in a time like this is called for.

Aliens are not satisfied that they did not get all they were promised free of charge. Standerton for instance, they burnt their township; they burnt their townhall, municipal offices and their library plus many homes.

Not satisfied, they moved into town and did still more damage. All the roads are barricaded. The police and army do very little to little to protect property. They certainly don't use their firearms. Their Communist leader has much to say about these goings on.

A few of our people could clean this up in no time if given proper arms. My brother and sister-in-law stay in the old age home. The white women take turns preparing meals. I warned Mattie a long time ago about blacks and their nature if times turn bad and the danger of doing missionary work. But Papa was a church minister and that was how she grew up. I just hope they can defend themselves. Mercy is not something blacks have. They quickly revert to being savages.

The flu lingers on and leaves us tired. Anyway, life goes on. When we go out I sit on the 38-special revolver. I will certainly use it if I have to.

By next year the police say they hope to have a list of whites who have been killed by blacks - it will be in the thousands.

With lots of love, K.J.M.

"Hello Richard; In your HR 416 you quoted Enoch 30:12-14. "I called his name Adam, and showed him the two ways, the light and the darkness, and I told him: 'This is good, and that bad,' that I should learn whether he has love towards me, or hatred, that it be clear which in his race love me." Enoch 30:13-14. "I have the Ethiopic and it only has two verses. Is there more than one Enoch?"

What do you think of the predictions that economy will collapse, America is to fragment, and Europe is to be vastly changed Oct. 16, 2009? Barbara, New Zealand

RKH: I understand that at one time there were many books of Enoch. Today, there are only two that have survived that I know about - the Ethiopic and the Slavonic. The above quote was taken from the Slavonic found in the The Lost Books, p 92. Both books are worth taking the time to read.

About the catastrophes about to happen: When I worked with old Francis I. Dupont, one of my clients was the ex-minister of finance with Chiang Kai-Shek's Chinese government. I told him that I had heard something similar to what you just mentioned and he said; "Mista Hoskin', I tell you som'ting, gov'ment can do what dey do long-time." Smart fellow.

I'm 81 now and I have heard many predictions of coming catastrophes giving date and time - things that have not happened. Remember what the Bible says - if a prophet makes a prediction and it does not happen, pay no more attention to him. I thought the economy was going to collapse 60-years ago and it's still going.

SS: Mr. Hoskins: I just read your Hoskins report about Germany and it comes as a breath of fresh air. What a pity that school children are fed the "holocaust" lie while White civilization dies. The silent genocide of immigration, abortion, sodomy and miscegenation are to be seen everywhere in the White world, with Britain leading the way. As one of mostly British ancestry, I find this particularly disgusting. The SS legions were the first line of defense for White civilization. I would love to see a Hoskins Report on the subject of non-White immigration to Britain in the post-war era. Only the most informed know that the real winner of WWII was Bolshevism with a different name. B.R. - Illinois

GENETICS

Identical Twins

Over two decades ago, on April 13, 1987, the US News & World Report ran an article dealing with a study done on identical twins.

The study showed that identical twins of the same race who were born of law-abiding parents tend to be law abiding even when placed with lawless adoptive parents. On the other hand, identical twins who are children of lawless parents tend to be lawless even when placed with law-abiding adoptive parents.

The article carries statements such as "heredity has a greater influence on one's personality and behavior than either one's upbringing or the most crushing social pressure." And "... a host of findings in behavioral and animal research conclude that genes profoundly influence human behavior and personality."

Experts were quoted as saying: "The evidence is so compelling that it is hard to understand how people could not believe in the strong influence of genetics on behavior.... The human mind, rather than being a tabula rasa to be filled in from birth by family and society, is 'hard wired' before birth with a predisposed personality ... Sociobiologists believe that such traits as aggression, criminal tendencies and intellectual ability may be biologically inevitable."

The above study shatters anti-white propaganda.

Five Thousand Years

The God of our father Jacob-Israel, was called "God The Word". He was strict. He demanded that his Laws be followed to the letter. Violators were severely punished.⁴⁸

Those guilty of violating His Law against premeditated murder were ordered to be put to death. Execution to take place immediately. For thousands of years - generation after generation - the sons of Jacob-Israel have obediently put murderers to death. Because of this, families with a tendency toward premeditated murder have been weeded out before they establish colonies of murderers within our nation.

Murderers are rare among our people. In fact, it is difficult to find someone among our people who will take pay to kill. Practically speaking, when an ordinary middle class white can be hired to cold bloodedly stick a knife into someone - it causes public outrage.

⁴⁸ heredity

In this present age of lawlessness, our people, for the most part, remain lawful, except for the occasional maverick who is quickly disposed of. The genetic lines of Jacob-Israel who would violate God's laws have been cut off over the generations. The result - like produces like.

Today

In spite of our people culling out their Lawless members over the ages, the prisons of the country are bursting with inmates. Most are aliens. Lawless strangers have entered our lands concealed by "trading corporations".

Using unLawful usury profits they have gained monopoly control of our country's media, manufacturing, money creation, and organized-religion.

The capture of the country's government allows them to use its armed forces and police as if they were their own. This power allows them to open the country's doors to still more of their Lawless kinsmen.

Esau's immigrants, genetically lawless, living beside Lawful sons-of-Jacob, creates a potentially explosive situation. Either the Lawful and their Law will prevail and suppress the Lawless and their Lawlessness, or the opposite will take place.

Defense

The natural defense against the Lawless rule of the sons of Esau is a return to the God of Jacob. The current modified "state religion" taught in our courtrooms and churches in time will be replaced with the undefiled WORD of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

The enemies of the God who come speaking of "peace" will be answered with the true WORD:

"Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword." Matt 10:34

Today is an age of war - not peace. God's Law clearly defines the rules of this unspoken war:

"When the Lord thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them (business or treaty), nor show mercy unto them (tolerance): Neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shall thou take unto thy son. For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the Lord be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly. But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire. For thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God: The Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth." Deut 7:2-6

These words are God's LAW. The WORD brands those who disregard God's LAW as enemies to be severely dealt with.

American Indians

The modern day American Indian is a descendant of braves who survived thousands of years of perpetual warfare. Their perpetual warfare allowed only skilled and efficient warriors to remain alive to produce children. Inefficient warriors died young without offspring. As a result many Indian villages maintained a ratio of five or six women for each brave.

Stealing provided payment for wives. Efficient thieves bought many wives who provided numerous offspring. Inefficient ones - none.

The pinnacle of Indian society for thousands of years has been occupied by their very best thieves and murderers. The inefficient were just as efficiently cut off.

An inspection of prisons in the western United States near Indian population centers bears witness to this selective breeding. The prison population in these areas is almost exclusively Indian. A white face is a rarity. It could not be otherwise.

Thieves and murderers have bred together for hundreds of generations - and thieves and murderers are the natural result. Like produces like.

Today, white man's law slaps the Indian into prison for practicing the law his ancestors practiced for thousands of years. The Indian, a product of hundreds of generations of selective breeding, is punished for doing what he was bred to do.

Virginia's Settlers

Virginia was settled in 1607. The British King gave Lawless instructions on how to deal with Lawless Indians. He demanded that the savages be integrated into the Saxon colony to increase the number of the king's subjects. The colonists were ordered to give them the "glad-hand treatment"; to "be nice". Racial intermarriage was encouraged. All of this was done in violation of God's explicit Laws. The result was chaos.

Captain John Smith's Observations

Virginia colonists paid with their blood for obeying their Lawless king.

Captain John Smith was a soldier who had fought the Turks in Europe; was captured by them and escaped. When he governed Virginia it was with an iron hand.

Following is his observation of conditions in Virginia copied from his journal.⁴⁹

"The Salvages being acquainted, that by command from England we durst not hurt them, (they) were much imboldened ...

"(The colonists) houses generally open to the Salvages, who were alwaies friendly fed at their tables, and lodged in their bed-chambers, ... to effect the conversion of the Salvages ... yet such was the trechery of those people, when they had contrived our destruction, ... they came unarmed into our houses, with Deere, Turkies, Fish, Fruits, and other provisions, yea in some places sat downe at breakfast with our people whom immediately with their owne tooles they slew most barbarously, not sparing either age or sex, man woman or child, so sudden in their execution ... Neither yet did these beasts spare those amongst the rest well knowne unto them, from whom they had daily received many benefits, but spitefully also mas-sacred them without any remorse or pitie."

⁴⁹ The General Historie of Virginia, New England, and the Summer Isles (Caribbean), by Captaine John Smith, Vol II, from the London edition of 1629. Richmond, 1819: (Old English used the "v" written as "u". This has been changed for easier reading.

"That worthy religious Gentleman M. George Thorp, ... He thought nothing too deare for them, he never denied them anything, in so much that when they complained that our Mastives (dogs) did cause them to fear, he to content them in all things, caused some of them to be killed in their presence, to the great displeasure of the owners, and would have had all the rest guelt (neutered) to make them the milder ... He built (the Indian Chief) a house after the English fashion ... Thus insinuating himself unto this Kings favour for his religious purpose (modified state-Christianity), he conferred oft with him about Religion, as many other in this former Discouse had done, and this Pagan confess to him as he did to them, our God was better than theirs, and seed to be much pleased with that discourse ... yet as the sequell shewed, not onely murder him, but with such spight and scorne abused his dead corps as is unfitting to be heard with civill eares - .

"Captaine Nathaniel Powell ... they not only slew him and his family, but butcher-like haged their bodies, and cut off his head, to expresse their uttermost height of cruelty. ...⁵⁰

Contaminated-christianity taught by state-priests in that day was no more "Christian" than the contaminated Christian teachings of state-priestss today. Nothing has changed - neither will the result of such teachings change. Smith continues:

Spare None

"The Deere, Turkies, and other Beasts and Fowle, will exceedingly increase if we beat the Salvages out of the Country, for all times of the yeere they never spare Male nor Female, old nor young, eggs nor birds, fat nor leane, in season nor out of season with them all is one."⁵¹

This lawless Indian lifestyle depleted their local food supply forcing them to frequently move to find food elsewhere. Their subsistence farmers stayed longer, but even they were forced to migrate when their land was worn out. The Indians' destruction of food sources and constant search for food caused them to migrate great distances in only a few generations. When they were later placed on reservations their age- old conduct caused them to soon use up the natural food supply forcing Washington to supply them with food to keep them from dying from famine.

Reversing Traits

It has been suggested that to reverse these inbred Lawless traits may require as many generations of selective breeding as it took to implant these traits in the Indians in the first place. Persons committing capital crimes (according to our Law) would have to be eliminated to prevent offenders from reproducing their own kind - and this must be on-going for the next several thousand years.

This treatment would be traumatic to the Indians, to say the least. However, their prison population is proof that their present conduct is traumatic to our people.

⁵¹ Ibid, p.100

Blacks

Africa's black leaders are today living proof of the success of selective breeding. Seemingly, only the most vicious and bloodthirsty rise to become presidents of black nations in a one time "free" election.

Blacks in the United States, having identical traits, have not fared so well. What is a survival trait in Africa is judged a criminal trait by the Law of the children of Jacob-Israel. The jails in New York, Philadelphia, and Boston furnish abundant proof. They are almost entirely black. Blacks do best the thing they have been bred to do. This gains them leadership of nations in Africa and a prison cell in Western countries. Like breeds like.

The dead resulting from African black-on-black massacres number in the millions. Whites who have fallen into their hands fare no better. The story of Haiti only introduces today's events.

Hispanic

Our people moved to Texas and lived peacefully under a treaty made with the Mexicans. The Mexicans unilaterally changed the treaty and sent large armies to force obedience from the "Texicans". A small group at the Alamo were surrounded and their defenses stormed by masses of Hispanics. The defenders were massacred

The Mexican army marched at will through Texas overwhelming small groups who offered resistance. In the process they captured several hundred prisoners. Then, they lined them up and shot them. Texans call it the "Golead Massacre".

It would be foolish to expect their descendants to behave differently if they again gain power over the "Gringo".

Oriental

The Huns, Mongols, Turks and Arabs have a long history of exterminating their enemies and leaving wide areas of their conquests devoid of human life. American POWs in the hands of the Oriental in WWII have stories to tell - which accounts for the "MIA blackout" by the country's alien media.

Khazar-Jews

The Financial Times of November 13-14, 2009 ran an article by a Jewish writer about how the vast majority of today's Jews converted to Judaism in the 8th century; that their fathers were Mongol, Turk, Arab etc., and there is little in the way of descent from the ancient Jews.

Children of Jacob-Israel have long known that the Law of their God states, "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ?" I John 2:9. The Jews deny that Jesus, "the WORD made flesh" is the Christ. This makes whatever they say about anything "suspect". The Law says, "By their acts ye shall know them."

Their entertainment media are full of "vampires", "magicians", and "sodomites" whom they re-named - "gay". The WORD has much to say on these subjects.

"Virgin" is a word held in derision by Hollywood;⁵² their media creates discord among peoples; and their usury-banking where 10 exists and 11 is owed is the root-cause of wars that kill hundreds of millions.⁵³

52 "Jesus Christ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5-6, "(A priest) shall take a virgin of his own people to wife." Lev 21:14

53 "Thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived." Re 18:23

It is difficult to believe that those who follow such a law system are compatible with the Law of our God.

The US Today

The Government of the United States does many things disapproved by most Americans. It finances, feeds, and arms world communism. It unmercifully taxes its citizens. It sponsors forced busing, unlimited immigration, and casts a benign eye on unbelievably high alien crime rates while protecting the offenders.

History says that at some point Jacob-Israel may come to feel that peaceful efforts at reform are of no avail. They may even feel it necessary to adopt the more aggressive stance of their forefathers if they are to return the nation to obedience to the Law.

The King's Counter Move

The King who rules America today has taken every precaution to protect his kingdom against such a revolt by his subjects. Knowing that the army is the ultimate enforcer of his will, he has carefully selected its personnel.

A large part of its armed forces is made up of minorities. These groups hate White Americans with an intensity that is difficult to understand for those who don't know history. The formerly isolated assaults by its minorities on its white members is becoming commonplace.

Since like produces like, the army as now constituted cannot be counted on to protect the majority civilian population if they come under attack, and may even attack them if so ordered.

Conclusion

Today, there is a more rational and tolerant attitude in the land toward the study of genetics and inherited behavior than there has been in the past. This is seen by the USN&WR article on inherited characteristics mentioned earlier.

It may also be time to examine more closely the suggestions of the various sects of aliens that they be allowed self determination.

If minority populations are allowed to peacefully separate, go their way and rule themselves under their own law it will end the irritation that forced association of Lawful and Lawless populations engender. It will also sidetrack the approaching "difficult times" predicted by black, Indian, and Hispanic leaders.

Since like produces like, it appears that separation of the lawless from the Lawful is the practical way this goal can be peacefully achieved. Self determination and separation are ideas whose time has come for aliens. The return to the Law of their fathers is the future of our people.

LETTER FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Hoskins; The latest Hoskins Report reminds me about churches in Switzerland whose Lutheran ministers are paid by the state. The congregations are of little importance and the priests pass their days with social pursuits. The people have stopped attending church.

Since Dr. Heyns, the ultra-liberal preacher about 15 years ago, we are having the same problems. In former days ministers paid regular visits to their members and they were on hand when a family goes through problems. Now they only turn up for funerals and their visits are limited to rich members. They never rebuke current evils and neither do they give a hand to help people in need with things like soup-kitchens. Ordinary people are the ones who arrange to have food ready for distribution. When the ANC defames Christ it does not concern them.

Since Zuma came in, not a day has passed without blacks going on strike. The latest has been a strike by armed army personnel demanding a 30% increase in pay. They burned buildings and businesses and there was a dangerous standoff with the police until the thing quieted.

As for the frequent strikes, blacks still get paid while on strike so why work? A few years ago they said whites go to banks and get money. They had no idea that one must first put money in the bank before he can take it out.

The blacks have given up building the railway to Pretoria from Johannesburg. The reason? They got rid of the white engineers who had the necessary knowledge. The entire project was a waste of money.

It is interesting how liberals, mostly English, provide blacks with food and blankets, and, their newspapers never report the murder of an Afrikaner, but they write at length about blacks.

Many areas patrol their own neighborhoods at night. The patrols report any strange person in the area, and do better than security firms or the police. Many of those on patrol served in the border wars and know to react quickly. This is important since this particular area has lots of bush and trees. The many blacks from other parts of Africa coming is resulting in a low intensity war, but a war nonetheless.

Brazen thieves now attack churches. They rob cars parked outside and guards have to be stationed.

The racial question is getting worse - the blacks claim everything for themselves, but contribute nothing. They will not give a cent for their own poor, even if they own millions.

I hope this letter makes it out of the country.

Thank your readers again for all they are doing,

K.J.

By comparison, the population of Morton Grove, the first city in Illinois to adopt a gun ban for anyone other than police officers, the city's crime rate increased by 15.7% immediately after the gun ban.

Virginia Tech is a so-called "gun-free zone," which Second Amendment supporters say invites gun violence especially from disturbed individuals seeking to kill as many victims as possible. Cho Seung-Hui murdered 32 and wounded another 15 before turning his gun on himself.
